

Radius Global Infrastructure Common Stock Begins Trading on Nasdaq with Ticker Symbol RADI

October 5, 2020

Multinational Owner of Triple-Net Ground, Rooftop and Other Critical Communications Properties

October 5, 2020 - Radius Global Infrastructure, Inc. (NASDAQ: RADI) (the "Company"), one of the largest global aggregators of real property interests underlying wireless communications cell sites and other communications infrastructure, today commenced trading its Class A Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Market with the ticker symbol RADI. The Company's warrants will trade over-the-counter. The Company, formerly known as Digital Landscape Group, Inc., ceased trading on the London Stock Exchange and completed its domestication into Delaware on October 2, 2020.

In conjunction with the name change, domestication and change in listing venue to the NASDAQ, the Company also launched a new corporate website that can be accessed at <https://www.radiusglobal.com>.

Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC, Evercore Group L.L.C. and Goldman Sachs intend to make a market in the Company's Class A Common Stock on the Nasdaq Global Market.

About the Company:

Radius Global Infrastructure, Inc., through its subsidiary AP Wireless ("APW"), is a multinational owner of a growing, diversified portfolio of triple-net ground, rooftop and other critical communications properties leased to wireless carriers and tower companies underlying their mission critical cell site antenna infrastructure. APW's proven lease origination engine drives highly attractive yields on capital invested. The Company is also expanding into other digital infrastructure segments and has a broad pipeline of proprietary and non-proprietary acquisitions, investments and build-to-suit opportunities.

In 2010, the Company began investing in cell tower leases from a headquarters in San Diego, California, U.S.A. As of June 30, 2020, the Company had interests in the revenue streams of approximately 6,600 leases that were situated on approximately 5,000 different communications sites located throughout the United States and 18 other countries.
