Section 8.03. Expenses. Except as otherwise set forth herein, each party to this Agreement shall pay its own expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement.

Section 8.04. Amendments; Waivers; Consents. (a) No provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived unless such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of an amendment, by the Investor Representatives and the Company; provided, however, that any amendment that materially adversely affects the rights of an individual Investor hereunder, shall also require the signature of such affected Investor or, in the case of a waiver, by the party against whom the waiver is to be effective.

(b) The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise will not constitute a waiver of such rights nor will any single or partial exercise by any party to this Agreement of any of its rights under this Agreement preclude any other or further exercise of such rights or any other rights under this Agreement. The rights and remedies herein provided will be cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by Law or otherwise.

Section 8.05. Interpretation. The headings contained in this Agreement and in the table of contents to this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. All Schedules annexed hereto or referred to herein are hereby incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement as if set forth in full herein. The definitions of terms herein shall apply equally to the singular and plural forms of the terms defined. Whenever the context may require, any pronoun shall include the corresponding masculine, feminine and neuter forms. The word “will” shall be construed to have the same meaning as the word “shall”. The words “include”, “includes” and “including” shall be deemed to be followed by the phrase “without limitation”. The word “extent” in the phrase “to the extent” shall mean the degree to which a subject or other thing extends, and such phrase shall not mean simply “if”. The word “or” shall not be exclusive. The phrase “date hereof” or “date of this Agreement” shall be deemed to refer to February 10, 2020. Wherever there is an undertaking in this Agreement for the Investors to act or refrain from acting, such undertaking on behalf of the Landscape Group and their Affiliates, collectively, on one hand, and the AG Group and its Affiliates, collectively, on the other hand, will be construed as a several and not joint obligation to take such action or refrain from taking such action. Wherever there is an undertaking in this Agreement for the Landscape Group to act or refrain from acting, such undertaking on behalf of the Toms Group and its Affiliates, collectively, on one hand, and the Imperial Group and its Affiliates, collectively, on the other hand, will be construed as a several and not joint obligation to take such action or refrain from taking such action. Unless the context requires otherwise (i) any definition of or reference to any contract, instrument or other document or any Law herein shall be construed as referring to such contract, instrument or other document or Law as from time to time amended, supplemented or otherwise modified, (ii) any reference herein to any Person shall be construed to include such Person’s successors and assigns, (iii) the words “herein”, “hereof” and “hereunder”, and words of similar import, shall be construed to refer to this Agreement in its entirety and not to any particular provision hereof and (iv) all references herein to Articles, Sections and Schedules shall be construed to refer to Articles and Sections of, and Schedules to, this Agreement. This Agreement shall be construed without regard to any presumption or rule requiring construction or interpretation against the party drafting or causing any instrument to be drafted.

Section 8.06. Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced by any Law, or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement will nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated hereby is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the parties will negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the purpose of this Agreement is fulfilled to the fullest extent possible.

Section 8.07. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Agreement by facsimile or other electronic image scan transmission shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart of this Agreement.

Section 8.08. Entire Agreement; No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement, and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and is not intended to and does not confer upon any Person other than the parties any rights or remedies.

Section 8.09. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with (i) prior to the Domestication, the laws of the British Virgin Islands, and (ii) after the Domestication, the laws of the State of Delaware, in each case, applicable to agreements made and to be performed entirely within such jurisdiction or State, as the case may be, without regard to the conflict of laws principles of such jurisdiction or State, as the case may be.

Section 8.10. Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations under this Agreement will be assigned, in whole or in part, by any of the parties without the prior written consent of the Investor Representatives, except that the rights, interests and obligations in respect of record or beneficial ownership of Equity Securities of the Company or OpCo may be assigned in conjunction with a Transfer of such Equity Securities to a Permitted Transferee pursuant to Section 5.02(a)(i) who has executed and delivered a joinder to this Agreement in accordance with Section 5.02(b). Any purported assignment in violation of the preceding sentence will, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, be null and void. Subject to the preceding sentences, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the parties and their respective successors and assigns.

Section 8.11. Enforcement. (a) The parties acknowledge and agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with its specific terms or were otherwise breached, and that monetary damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy therefor. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, be entitled to an injunction or injunctions, or any other appropriate form of equitable relief, to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the performance of the terms and provisions of this Agreement in any court referred to in Section 8.11(b), without proof of damages or otherwise (and each party hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any requirement for the securing or posting of any bond in connection with such remedy), this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. The parties further agree, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, not to assert that a remedy of specific enforcement is unenforceable, invalid, contrary to Law or inequitable for any reason, nor to assert that a remedy of monetary damages would provide an adequate remedy. Each of the parties acknowledges and agrees that the right of specific enforcement is an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and without such right, none of the parties would have entered into this Agreement.

(b) In addition, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts in the Relevant Jurisdiction for the purpose of any proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the actions of the Investors or the Company in the negotiation, administration, performance and enforcement thereof, and each of the parties hereby irrevocably agrees that all claims with respect to such proceeding shall be heard and determined exclusively in such court. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, each of the parties hereto (i) consents to submit itself to the personal jurisdiction of the courts in the Relevant Jurisdiction in the event any proceeding arises out of or relates to this Agreement or the actions of the Investors or the Company in the negotiation, administration, performance and enforcement thereof, (ii) agrees that it will not attempt to deny or defeat such personal jurisdiction by motion or other request for leave from such court, (iii) irrevocably consents to the service of process in any proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the actions of the Investors or the Company in the negotiation, administration, performance and enforcement thereof on behalf of itself or its property, by U.S. registered mail or recognized international courier service to such party's respective address set forth in Section 8.02 (provided that nothing in this Section 8.11 shall affect the right of any party to serve legal process in any other manner permitted by applicable Law) and (iv) agrees that it will not bring any proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the actions of the Investors or the Company in the negotiation, administration, performance and enforcement thereof in any court other than the courts in the Relevant Jurisdiction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties hereto agree that a final trial court judgment in any such proceeding shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable Law; provided, however, that nothing in the foregoing shall restrict any party's rights to seek any post-judgment relief regarding, or any appeal from, such final trial court judgment.

(c) Each party hereto hereby waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any right it may have to a trial by jury in respect of any claim, suit, action, investigation or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the actions of the Investors or the Company in the negotiation, administration, performance and enforcement thereof. Each party hereto (a) certifies that no representative, agent or attorney of any other party has represented, expressly or otherwise, that such party would not, in the event of any claim, suit, action, investigation or proceeding, seek to enforce the foregoing waiver and (b) acknowledges that it and the other parties hereto have been induced to enter into this Agreement by, among other things, the mutual waiver and certifications in this Section 8.11(c).

Section 8.12. Effectiveness; Termination; Survival. This Agreement shall be effective upon the Effective Date. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, this Agreement will automatically terminate, (i) with respect to any Investor, on the Standstill Expiration Date with respect to such Investor, and this Agreement shall thereafter, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, be null and void with respect to such Investor, except that (A) this Article VIII (to the extent necessary to effect the resignation or removal of the Investor Directors) shall survive any such termination indefinitely, (B) Article VII shall survive such termination until the expiration of the last applicable Information Rights Period and (ii) with respect to all parties hereto, upon the consummation of a Strategic Transaction. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Section 8.13 shall survive with respect to each Investor for three years following the end of the Information Rights Period for such Investor. Nothing in this Section 8.12 will be deemed to release any party from any liability for any willful and material breach of this Agreement or to impair the right of either party to compel specific performance by the other party of its obligations under this Agreement.

Section 8.13. Confidentiality; Non-Disparagement. (a) The Investors and their Representatives shall (x) hold confidential and not disclose, without the prior written approval of the Board, all confidential or proprietary written, recorded or oral information or data (including research, developmental, technical, marketing, sales, financial, operating, performance, cost, business and process information or data, knowhow and computer programming and other software techniques) provided by or on behalf of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to the Investors or their Representatives, whether such confidentiality or proprietary status is indicated orally or in writing or Investor and their Representatives should reasonably have understood that the information should be treated as confidential, whether or not the specific words “confidential” or “proprietary” are used (“Company Confidential Information”), and (y) use such Company Confidential Information only for the purpose of performing such Investor’s obligations hereunder, managing and monitoring the Investors’ investment in the Company and its Subsidiaries and carrying on the business of the Company and its Subsidiaries; provided that the Investors and their Representatives may disclose or use such Company Confidential Information in their capacity as Directors, officers or employees of the Company on behalf of the Company.

(b) The Investors and their Representatives shall (x) hold confidential and not disclose, without the prior written approval of a disclosing Investor, any actions taken (or not taken) under or in connection with this Agreement by such Investor, whether such confidentiality or proprietary status is indicated orally or in writing or Investor and their Representatives should reasonably have understood that the information should be treated as confidential, whether or not the specific words “confidential” or “proprietary” are used (“Investor Confidential Information”, together with the Company Confidential Information, the “Confidential Information”) without the prior written approval of the Investor disclosing such Investor Confidential Information, and (y) use such Investor Confidential Information only for the purpose of performing such Investor’s obligations.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the confidentiality obligations of Section 8.13(a) will not apply to Company Confidential Information or Investor Confidential Information obtained other than in violation of this Agreement:

(A) which any Investor or any of its Representatives is required to disclose by judicial or administrative process, or by other requirements of applicable Law or regulation or any governmental authority (including any applicable rule, regulation or order of a self-governing authority, such as the London Stock Exchange, the New York Stock Exchange or NASDAQ); provided that, where and to the extent legally permitted and reasonably practicable, such Investor shall (A) give the Company reasonable notice of any such requirement and, to the extent protective measures consistent with such requirement are available, the opportunity to seek appropriate protective measures and (B) cooperate with Company in attempting to obtain such protective measures;

(B) which becomes available to the public other than as a result of a breach of Section 8.13(a); or

(C) which has been provided to any Investor or any of its Representatives by a Third Party who obtained such information other than from the Investors or any of their Affiliates or other than as a result of a breach of Section 8.13(a).

(d) None of the Investors nor any Principal shall at any time publicly denigrate or disparage any other Investor or Principal, the Company, OpCo or, with respect to their relationship with the Company or OpCo, any of the Company's or OpCo's officers or directors in their capacity as officers or directors of the Company or OpCo. The Company, OpCo and the Company's and OpCo's officers and directors shall not, at any time publicly denigrate or disparage any of the Principals or Investors. This Section 8.13(d) shall not prohibit (i) the Company, OpCo or the Company's or OpCo's officers or directors, individually or as a group, from testifying truthfully under oath pursuant to a lawful court order or subpoena or in connection with any litigation or arbitration between the Investors, the Company or any of the Company's or OpCo's officers or directors or (ii) the Principals or the Investors from making the permitted disclosures set forth in Section 8.13(e). Furthermore, if any of the Investors (or any Principal), the Company or OpCo (or any officer or director of the Company or OpCo) makes any statement in breach of this Section 8.13(d), then a truthful response to such statement by the other party shall not be considered a breach of such party's obligations pursuant to this Section 8.13(d).

(e) Nothing in this Agreement or elsewhere shall prohibit the Investors, any Principal in his capacity as an officer, director or other representative of any Investor, the Company or OpCo or any of the Company's or OpCo's officers or directors in their capacity as officers or directors of the Company or OpCo from: (a) contacting, filing a claim with, or cooperating in an investigation by the Securities Exchange Commission, Department of Justice or other federal, state or local agency; (b) exercising any legally protected whistleblower rights (including pursuant to Rule 21F under the Exchange Act); (c) utilizing and disclosing information, including the Confidential Information, in connection with discharging such person's duties to the Company and OpCo; (d) disclosing Confidential Information to the extent such Person (i) is compelled to disclose such Confidential Information or else stand liable for contempt or suffer other censure or penalty or is required to disclose by judicial or administrative process, or by other requirements of applicable law or regulation or any governmental authority (including any applicable rule, regulation or order of a self-governing authority, such as the national securities exchange, national quotation system or primary stock or quotation system on which securities issued by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries are then listed or quoted), provided that, where and to the extent legally permitted and reasonably practicable, (A) the Investors, the Company and OpCo shall be given reasonable notice of any such requirement and, to the extent protective measures consistent with such requirement are available, the opportunity to seek appropriate protective measures and (B)

the other Persons shall cooperate with the Investors, the Company, OpCo or any of the Company's or OpCo's officers or directors in their capacity as officers or directors of the Company or OpCo in attempting to obtain such protective measures or (ii) discloses such information in connection with any litigation or arbitration between the Investors, the Company, OpCo and/or any of the Company's or OpCo's officers or directors in their capacity as officers or directors of the Company or OpCo; (e) disclosing documents and information in confidence to an attorney or other professional for the purposes of securing professional advice; (f) retaining, and using appropriately, documents and information relating to such Person's personal rights and obligations; or (g) disclosing such Person's notice obligations, and post-employment restrictions, in confidence in connection with any potential new employment or business opportunity. Nothing in Section 8.13(d) shall prohibit a Principal or other Representative of an Investor who serves as a Director from discharging his or her fiduciary duties as Director.

Section 8.14. Representations and Warranties. (a) The Company hereby makes the representations and warranties set forth in Annex A to the Investors, each of which is true and correct as of the date hereof.

(b) Each Investor, severally and not jointly, hereby makes the representations and warranties set forth in Annex B to the Company and each other Investor solely as to itself, each of which is true and correct as of the date hereof.

Section 8.15. Investor Representatives. (a) Each Investor comprising the AG Group hereby irrevocably appoints Berkman Family Investments, LLC, as its agent and true and lawful attorney-in-fact, with full power and authority, including substitution and re-substitution, and for, in the name, place and stead of such Investor, to the same extent and with the same effect as such Investor can, would or could do under applicable Law for all purposes of this Agreement, including to receive and give all notices and to take actions and exercise any rights permitted or required to be taken by the AG Investors' Representative under this Agreement.

(b) Each Investor comprising the Landscape Group hereby irrevocably appoints TOMS Acquisition II LLC as its agent and true and lawful attorney-in-fact, with full power and authority, including substitution and re-substitution, and for, in the name, place and stead of such Investor, to the same extent and with the same effect as such Investor can, would or could do under applicable Law for all purposes of this Agreement, including to receive and give all notices and to take actions and exercise any rights permitted or required to be taken by the Landscape Investors' Representative under this Agreement.

(c) The Company and the other Investor shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, be entitled to rely on the appointment and authority of the Investor Representatives or the other Investor Representative as applicable, until receipt of written notice of the appointment of a successor Investor Representative made in accordance with this Section 8.15(c). In so doing, the Company and the other Investor shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, be entitled to rely on any and all actions taken by, elections and exercises of rights made by and decisions of the Investor Representatives or the other Investor Representative as applicable, under this Agreement notwithstanding any dispute or disagreement among any of the Investors or their respective Investors' Representative with respect to any such action or decision without any liability to, or obligation to inquire of, any Investor, the Investor Representatives or any other Person. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any decision, designation, selection, objection, election, comment, request, act, consent, instruction or similar action of the Investor Representatives shall constitute an action or decision of the Investors on whose behalf such Investor Representative was appointed and shall be final and binding upon each of the Investors on whose behalf such Investor Representative was appointed. At any time after the Effective Date, an Investor Group may remove the prior Investor Representative and designate a successor Investor Representative by a written instrument that is signed in writing by holders of at least a majority-in-interest of the applicable Investor Group (determined in proportion to such Investor's respective Voting Securities ownership divided by the total number of Voting Securities owned by all Investors within the applicable Investor Group) and delivered to the Company and the other Investor Representative; provided that any successor AG Investors' Representative must be a controlled Affiliate of BB and any successor Landscape Investors' Representative must be a controlled Affiliate of Noam Gottesman or Michael Fascitelli. Under such circumstances, the Company and the other Investor shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, be entitled to rely on any and all actions subsequently taken and decisions subsequently made by such replacement Investor Representative (and shall cease to rely on any and all actions subsequently taken and decisions subsequently made by the replaced Investor Representative). If an Investor Representative shall at any time resign, be removed or otherwise cease to function in its capacity as such for any reason whatsoever, and a majority-in-interest of the applicable Investor Group fails to provide notice to the Company and the other Investor Representative that a successor has been appointed by such Investor Group within 10 Business Days, then, under such circumstances, the Company and the other Investor Representative shall be entitled to rely on any and all actions taken and decisions made by the Person that served as such Investor Group's Investor Representative prior to such resignation, removal or incapacity or any Person that is designated prior to such resignation, removal or incapacity by the outgoing or incapacitated Investor Representative, if any, until receipt of written notice by a majority-in-interest of the applicable Investor Group of the appointment of a successor Investor Representative is made in accordance with this Section 8.15(c).

Section 8.16. Availability of Agreement. The Company shall keep a copy of this Agreement on file at the registered office of the Company at any time prior to the Domestication, which shall be available for inspection by the Company's shareholders with reasonable prior notice.

- 7.7 The Company undertakes to the Banks, the Founders, the Founder Entities and the Independent Non-Founder Directors that the New Shares and Warrants comprising the Underwritten Units, the Founder Committed Units and the Independent Non-Founder Director Committed Units will be allotted and issued fully paid:
- (a) subject to the Memorandum and Articles of Association and the terms and conditions set out in the Offer Documents; and
 - (b) on terms that the New Shares (and any Ordinary Shares to be issued pursuant to exercise of any of the Warrants) will, when issued, rank pari passu in all respects with the Ordinary Shares then in issue, including with respect to the right to receive all dividends and other distributions declared, paid or made after Admission on the Ordinary Share capital of the Company, together with all rights attaching to them and free from all Encumbrances.
- 7.8 The Company shall, prior to and conditional only on Admission, allot the Founder Preferred Shares, and issue the matching Warrants, to the Founder Entities for cash at a price of USD 10.00 per Founder Preferred Share and otherwise on the terms of this Agreement and the Offer Documents.
- 7.9 The Company undertakes to the Founders that the Founder Preferred Shares will be allotted and issued fully paid, subject to the Memorandum and Articles of Association.
- 7.10 The Company shall procure that the Company Secretary registers immediately upon Admission (without registration fee) the Founder Entities as holders of the Founder Preferred Shares and, if requested by the Founder Entities, despatch definitive share certificates to the Founder Entities in respect thereof.

Payment by the Banks

- 7.11 Subject to the satisfaction or waiver (in accordance with clause 15.2) of the Conditions and to this Agreement not having been terminated under clause 15.6 or clause 16 and to the Company, each of the Directors, each of the Founders, each of the Founding Entities and each of the Independent Non-Founder Directors complying with their obligations under this clause 7, the Settlement Bank (on behalf of the Banks) will pay to the Company a sum representing the aggregate subscription price of the Underwritten Units subscribed by Placees and/or the Banks pursuant to clause 4.2 less the amounts deducted in accordance with clause 8.6, on the Closing Date.
- 7.12 The payment referred to in clause 7.11 will be made in cleared funds available on the same day to the accounts notified by the Company to the Settlement Bank in writing by not later than 2.00 p.m. on the second Business Day prior to Admission. Each Bank's obligation is to pay its Relevant Proportion of the sums payable by the Settlement Bank pursuant to clause 7.11. Without prejudice to this obligation, the Settlement Bank shall only be obliged to make payment under clause 7.11 on behalf of another Bank to the extent that the Settlement Bank has received payment from such Bank.
- 7.13 Payment under clause 7.11 will constitute a complete discharge for the Banks of their obligations under this Agreement.

Payment by the Founder Entities and the Independent Non-Founder Directors

- 7.14 Subject to the satisfaction or waiver (in accordance with clause 15.2) of the Conditions and to this Agreement not having been terminated under clause 15.6 or clause 16 and to the Company and each of the Directors complying with their obligations under this clause 7, each of the Founder Entities will pay to the Company a sum representing the aggregate of:
- (a) the subscription price of the Founder Committed Units subscribed for by such Founder Entity under clause 5.1; and
 - (b) the subscription price of the Founder Preferred Shares subscribed for by such Founder Entity pursuant to clause 6.1,
- as soon as practicable after the date of Admission (and in any event within 2 Business Days of the date of Admission).
- 7.15 The payment referred to in clause 7.14 will be made in cleared funds available on the same day to the accounts notified by the Company to the Founder Entities in writing by not later than 2.00 p.m. on the second Business Day prior to Admission.

8 Commissions, fees and expenses

Commissions and fees

- 8.1 Subject to the satisfaction or waiver (in accordance with clause 15.2) of the Conditions and to this Agreement not having been terminated under clause 15.6 or clause 16 the Company undertakes to pay to the Settlement Bank (on behalf of the Banks) on the Closing Date an underwriting commission of an amount equal to:
- (a) 2 per cent of the gross proceeds of the sale of Underwritten Units up to and including USD 500 million; and
 - (b) 3 per cent of the gross proceeds of the sale of Underwritten Units which exceed USD 500 million,
- to be divided between the Banks in their Relevant Proportions.

Expenses

- 8.2 Subject to clauses 8.3, 8.4, 8.5 and 8.6, whether or not the obligations of the Banks under this Agreement become unconditional or are terminated, the Company or the Founders and the Founder Entities, as the context may require, shall promptly upon the request of any Bank reimburse such Bank the amount of any Offer Expenses which such Bank may have paid or incurred.
- 8.3 A request by a Bank for reimbursement of Offer Expenses under this clause 8 shall be in writing and shall itemise the Offer Expenses (by type) paid or incurred by the relevant Bank and for which it is requesting reimbursement. For the avoidance of doubt, however, the Banks shall not be required to provide VAT receipts in respect of any Offer Expenses for which they may request reimbursement under clause 8.2.
- 8.4 In the event that this Agreement becomes unconditional, each Bank's Offer Expenses shall be paid by the Company.
- 8.5 In the event that this Agreement does not become unconditional and/or otherwise is terminated, each Bank's Offer Expenses shall be paid by the Founders and the Founder Entities (such that each Founder and its Founder Entity shall be liable in aggregate for 50 per cent, of such Offer Expenses).

Payment of commissions, fees and expenses

- 8.6 The Settlement Bank (on behalf of the Banks) will be entitled to deduct from the amount payable by it to the Company pursuant to clause 7.11 all commissions, fees, expenses and other amounts payable by the Company under this clause 8 (other than those Offer Expenses which are being met directly by the Company).
- 8.7 Deduction of amounts under clause 8.6 will discharge the Company's obligations (as applicable) to pay those amounts but only to the extent of the amounts deducted and any further amounts payable by the Company shall be paid promptly on demand therefor under clause 8.2.
- 8.8 Notwithstanding that any or all of the Banks may, for certain purposes, be acting (as agents or otherwise) for the Company in connection with the Offer and any arrangements contemplated by this Agreement, each of them may retain any commissions, fees or other amounts payable to it by the Company and any other commissions or benefits it receives in connection with the Offer, or with any other arrangements contemplated by this Agreement for its own account; and any Underwritten Units which a Bank is obliged to subscribe for may be retained or dealt with by it for its own account in its absolute discretion (subject to any separate arrangements which may be agreed among the Banks).

Stamp duty/stamp duty reserve tax

- 8.9 The Company will pay any stamp or similar duty payable to ensure that those persons becoming entitled to be registered as holders of any Units (or any New Share or Warrant) are so registered and any stamp duty reserve or similar tax (SDRT) payable by such persons in connection with their acquisition of (or agreement to acquire) any of the Units (or any New Share or Warrant) under the arrangements contemplated in this Agreement in each case together with any interest or penalties payable in respect thereof, save to the extent that such interest or penalty is attributable to any delay on behalf of the Banks in remitting to any Taxation Authority any amount deducted pursuant to clause 8.6.

VAT

8.10 Where a sum is payable under this Agreement to any of the Banks or any other Indemnified Person (for the purposes of this clause 8.10 only, each a Payee), the Company will, in addition, pay, or cause to be paid, to such Payee (or, in the case of any amounts referred to in clause 8.6, the Settlement Bank may deduct (in accordance with clause 8.6)) in respect of VAT:

- (a) where the payment (or any part of it) constitutes the consideration (or any part thereof) for any supply of services, such amount as equals any VAT properly payable thereon and on such VAT, if any, as is referred to in clause 8.10(b) below; and
- (b) where the payment is to reimburse the Payee for any cost, charge or expense incurred by it or them (except where the payment falls within clause 8.10(c) below), such amount as equals any VAT charged to or incurred by the Payee in respect of any cost, charge or expense which gives rise to or is reflected in the payment and which the Payee certifies is not recoverable by it by repayment or credit (such certificate to be conclusive in the absence of manifest error); and
- (c) where the payment is in respect of costs or expenses incurred by the Payee as agent for the Company and except where section 47(2A) or section 47(3) of the Value Added Tax Act 1994 applies, such amount as equals the amount included in the costs or expenses in respect of VAT, provided that in such a case the Payee will use reasonable endeavours to procure that the actual supplier of the goods or services which the Payee received as agent issues its own VAT invoice directly to the Company.

Save to the extent otherwise provided in this Agreement, sums payable by the Company to a Payee shall be paid in pounds sterling in immediately available funds to such bank account as the Payee shall notify in writing to the party making the payment.

9 Representations, warranties and undertakings

Representations and warranties

- 9.1 The Company represents, warrants and undertakes to each of the Banks in the terms of the Warranties set out in Part A of Schedule 2.
- 9.2 Each of the Founder Directors severally represents, warrants and undertakes to each of the Banks in the terms of the Warranties set out in Parts A and B of Schedule 2.
- 9.3 Each of the Independent Non-Founder Directors severally represents, warrants and undertakes to each of the Banks in the terms of the Warranties set out in paragraphs 1, 7 and 8 of Part A of Schedule 2 and the entirety of Part B of Schedule 2.
- 9.4 Each of the Founders and the Founder Entities severally represents, warrants and undertakes to each of the Banks in the terms of the Warranties set out in Part C of Schedule 2, save that the Warranties set out in paragraph 1.3 of Part C of Schedule 2 shall not apply to either of the Founders.

- 9.5 The Warranties given pursuant to clauses 9.1 to 9.4 (inclusive) are given as at the date of this Agreement and are repeated and given as at:
- (a) the Applicable Time;
 - (b) the date of the Final Prospectus;
 - (c) the date of any Supplementary Prospectus published by the Company; and
 - (d) the Closing Date,
- in each case by reference to the facts and circumstances subsisting at such time.
- 9.6 Each certificate to be delivered pursuant to paragraphs 7 to 10 (inclusive) of Part B and paragraphs 8 to 11 (inclusive) of Part C of Schedule 5 will have effect as a representation and warranty, as of its date, by the Company, the Directors and/or the Founders and/or the Founder Entities (as applicable) to each of the Banks as to the matters contained therein.
- 9.7 Each Director, each Founder and each Founder Entity agrees that, if and to the extent he or it incurs any liability under the Warranties or in connection with the Offer, he will not seek any contribution or seek to recover any sum from the Company in respect of such liability. For the avoidance of doubt, however, this clause 9.7 shall not preclude a Director from making a claim under any insurance policy maintained by the Company.
- 9.8 Subject to clause 9.9, where any Warranty is expressed to be qualified by reference to the awareness and/or knowledge and/or information and/or belief of any person or words to similar effect, it is deemed to include a statement to the effect that the Warranty has been made after due and careful enquiry.
- 9.9 Each Independent Non-Founder Director shall only be liable in respect of those Warranties set out in paragraphs 1, 7 and 8 of Part A of Schedule 2 to the extent he had knowledge of the subject matter giving rise to the claim having made due and careful enquiry.
- 9.10 Without prejudice to any of their rights under this Agreement, if, at any time prior to Admission, any Bank becomes aware that any of the Warranties was, is, has become or is reasonably likely to become, untrue, inaccurate or misleading, the Banks may (without prejudice to their right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to clause 15.6 or clause 16) require the Company at its own expense to amend, update or supplement any of the Offer Documents (and, if requested by the Banks, such amendment, update or supplement to be in a form approved by the Banks) and/or require the Company, at the Company's own expense, to make such announcements and/or despatch such communications and/or take such other steps as the Banks consider necessary or desirable in connection with the untruth, inaccuracy or misleading nature of the Warranty concerned.

Undertakings

- 9.11 The provisions of Schedules shall have effect as undertakings on the part of the persons specified in the relevant paragraphs of Schedule 3 to each of the Banks.
- 9.12 In connection with the Offer, each of the Banks severally agrees to the terms of the selling restrictions set out in Schedule 4.

10 Indemnities

General indemnity

- 10.1 The Company agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnified Person against all or any claims, actions, judgments, liabilities, awards, demands, investigations or proceedings (in each case whether or not successful, compromised or settled) (each a Claim) threatened, brought, alleged, asserted, established, made or instituted against or which otherwise involve any Indemnified Person in any jurisdiction by any person whatsoever (including any regulatory or government agency), and against all losses, damages, liabilities, costs, charges or expenses (including properly incurred fees, disbursements and expenses of legal counsel) and any Tax (other than any stamp duty, stamp duty reserve tax (or related interest or penalties) in respect of which a payment has been made pursuant to the provisions of clause 8 of this Agreement, recoverable VAT incurred by the relevant Indemnified Person) (each a Loss) which any Indemnified Person may suffer or incur (including, but not limited to, all Losses suffered or incurred in investigating, preparing for or disputing, providing evidence in connection with or defending any Claim and/or in establishing its right to be indemnified pursuant to this clause 10.1 or to receive contribution pursuant to clause 12 and/or in seeking advice regarding any Claim (whether or not such Indemnified Person is an actual or potential party to such Claim or such Claim is defended or disputed successfully) or mitigating any Loss on its part or otherwise enforcing its rights under this Agreement or in any way related to or in connection with this indemnity, clause 12 or settling any Claim), which in each case shall be additional and without prejudice to any rights which an Indemnified Person may have at common law or otherwise, if the Claim or Loss arises, directly or indirectly, out of, or is attributable to, or connected with, anything done or omitted to be done by any person (including the relevant Indemnified Person) in connection with the Offer or the arrangements contemplated by the Offer Documents (or any amendment or supplement to any of them), or any of them, or this Agreement or any other agreement relating to the Offer, prior to or after the date of this Agreement including, but not limited to:

- (a) the Offer Documents (or any amendment or supplement thereto), or any of them, not containing or fairly presenting, or being alleged not to contain or not to fairly present all information required to be contained therein or any statement in such document being, or being alleged to be, untrue, inaccurate, incomplete or misleading or not based on reasonable grounds or the omission or alleged omission of any Offer Document (or any amendment or supplement thereto), or any of them, to state a fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances in which they were made, not misleading; and/or
- (b) the issue, publication, distribution, approval or content of any of the Offer Documents (or any amendments or supplements thereto), or any of them, or other documents or materials in connection with the offer or Admission; and/or
- (c) the breach, or alleged breach, by the Company and/or any Director (and in the case of clause 10.1 (c)(ii) only, any of the Company's agents, employees or advisers) of:
 - (i) any of the Warranties or any other obligation of the Company or any of the Directors contained in this Agreement or any other agreement to be entered into by any of them in connection with the Offer or the arrangements contemplated by the Offer Documents (or any amendment or supplement thereto), or any of them, or this Agreement; and/or
 - (ii) FSMA, the FS Act, the BVI Companies Act, MAR, the Listing Rules, the DTRs, the Prospectus Rules, the Prospectus Directive, the Admission and Disclosure Standards, the rules and regulations of the London Stock Exchange, the CREST Regulations or any other laws, requirements or regulations (whether of governmental or regulatory bodies or otherwise) of any jurisdiction which are relevant or applicable to the Offer, Admission, the arrangements contemplated by the Offer Documents (or any amendment or supplement thereto), or any of them, or the performance of this Agreement or any other Agreement relating to the Offer; and/or
- (d) the allotment and issue of the New Shares and Warrants comprising the Units; and/or
- (e) the allotment and issue of the Founder Preferred Shares; and/or

- (f) the performance by an Indemnified Person of services to the Company in connection with the Offer including, without limitation:
 - (i) acting as a person who has authorised (or being alleged to have authorised) the contents of the Offer Document (or any amendment or supplement thereto), or any of them, or any part thereof for any purpose; and/or
 - (ii) acting as a person who has communicated or approved (or being alleged to have communicated or approved) the contents of any financial promotion made in connection with the Offer or the Applications for Admission for the purpose of section 21 FSMA; and/or
 - (g) the Applications for Admission; and/or
 - (h) the making or implementation of the Offer.
- 10.2 No Credit Suisse Indemnified Person shall be entitled to any indemnity from the Company under clause 10.1 in relation to any Claim or Loss if, and only to the extent that, the Claim or Loss concerned is (in relation to clauses 10.1(b) and 10.1(f) only) determined in a final judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted primarily from a Credit Suisse Indemnified Person's: wilful default; fraud; gross negligence; or breach of its duties owed under the rules of the FCA or the regulatory system (as defined in the FCA Handbook), provided always that the finally and judicially determined wilful default, fraud, gross negligence or breach of regulatory duty will only negate the indemnification of it and each other Credit Suisse Indemnified Person and will not negate the indemnification of any Goldman Sachs Indemnified Person or Morgan Stanley Indemnified Person.
- 10.3 No Goldman Sachs Indemnified Person shall be entitled to any indemnity from the Company under clause 10.1 in relation to any Claim or Loss if, and only to the extent that, the Claim or Loss concerned is (in relation to clauses 10.1(b) and 10.1(f) only) determined in a final judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted primarily from a Goldman Sachs Indemnified Person's: wilful default; fraud; gross negligence; or breach of its duties owed under the rules of the FCA or the regulatory system (as defined in the FCA Handbook), provided always that the finally and judicially determined wilful default, fraud, gross negligence or breach of regulatory duty will only negate the indemnification of it and each other Goldman Sachs Indemnified Person and will not negate the indemnification of any Credit Suisse Indemnified Person or Morgan Stanley Indemnified Person.
- 10.4 No Morgan Stanley Indemnified Person shall be entitled to any indemnity from the Company under clause 10.1 in relation to any Claim or Loss if, and only to the extent that, the Claim or Loss concerned is (in relation to clauses 10.1(b) and 10.1(f) only) determined in a final judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted primarily from a Morgan Stanley Indemnified Person's: wilful default; fraud; gross negligence; or breach of its duties owed under the rules of the FCA or the regulatory system (as defined in the FCA Handbook), provided always that the finally and judicially determined wilful default, fraud, gross negligence or breach of regulatory duty will only negate the indemnification of it and each other Morgan Stanley Indemnified Person and will not negate the indemnification of any Credit Suisse Indemnified Person or Goldman Sachs Indemnified Person.

- 10.5 No Indemnified Person shall be entitled to any indemnity from the Company under clause 10:
- (a) in respect of any corporation or similar tax payable in respect of any fees or commissions payable to it pursuant to this Agreement or on its net income, profits or gains; or
 - (b) in relation to any Losses to the extent that such Losses are attributable directly or indirectly to a decline in the market value of the Underwritten Units and are suffered or incurred by an Indemnified Person as a result of it having been required to subscribe for Underwritten Units pursuant to clause 4.2 unless such Losses are attributable to, caused by, result from or would not have arisen, in each case either directly or indirectly, but for a breach by the Company and/or any of the Founders and/or any of the Founder Entities of any of its or their obligations under this Agreement or any breach of any Warranties, undertakings or covenants given by the Company and/or any of the Founders and/or any of the Founder Entities contained in this Agreement.

Conduct and settlement

- 10.6 The Company will inform the relevant Indemnified Person promptly if it becomes aware of any Claim or potential Claim against such Indemnified Person arising out of or in connection with the Offer, this Agreement or any other agreements or arrangements relating to the Offer. The Company will not, without the prior written consent of the relevant Indemnified Person(s), settle or compromise or consent to the entry of any judgment with respect to any Claim whatsoever in respect of which indemnification or contribution could be sought by an Indemnified Person under clause 10.1 or clause 12, unless such settlement, judgement, compromise or consent (i) includes an express and unconditional release of each Indemnified Person from all Losses arising out of or in connection with such Claim and (ii) does not include a statement as to, or an admission of, fault, culpability or a failure to act, by or on behalf of any Indemnified Person.
- 10.7 The Company shall not be liable under this Clause 10 for any settlement by an Indemnified Person of any Claim effected without its prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) but if any Claim is settled with such consent or if there is a final judgment for the claimant, the Company shall indemnify the Indemnified Person from and against any Losses incurred in connection with such settlement or judgment as aforesaid. Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, if at any time an Indemnified Person shall have requested the Company to reimburse such Indemnified Person for fees and expenses of its legal advisers, the Company agrees that it shall be liable for any settlement of the Loss or Claim effected without its prior written consent if: (i) such settlement is entered into more than 30 days after receipt by the Company of the aforesaid request; and (ii) the Company shall not have reimbursed such Indemnified Person in accordance with such request prior to the date of such settlement.

- 10.8 Each Indemnified Person shall give written notice promptly to the Company of any action commenced against it after receipt of a written notice of any Claim or the commencement of any action or proceeding in respect of which a Claim for indemnification may be sought under this clause 10, insofar as may be consistent with the terms of any relevant insurance policy and provided that to do so would not, in such Indemnified Person's view, be materially prejudicial to it (or to any Indemnified Person connected to it) or to any obligation of confidentiality or other legal or regulatory obligation which that Indemnified Person owes to any third party or to any regulatory request that has been made of it, but failure to so notify the Company shall not relieve the Company from any liability hereunder to the extent it is not, in such Indemnified Person's view, materially prejudiced as a result thereof and in any event shall not relieve the Company from any liability which it may have otherwise than on account of the indemnity set out in this clause 10.
- 10.9 In case any such Claim shall be brought against any Indemnified Person, the Company shall be entitled to assume control of the conduct of the defence of any such Claim with legal advisers approved by such Indemnified Person (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and, after notice from the Company to such Indemnified Person of its election so to assume the control of the conduct of the defence thereof, the Company shall not be liable to such Indemnified Person under this clause 10 for any legal expenses of any other legal advisers or any other legal expenses, in each case subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Person, in connection with the defence thereof (other than costs of investigation) save in circumstances where such Indemnified Person has elected to reassume control of the conduct of the Claim pursuant to clause 10.10.
- 10.10 Notwithstanding the provisions of clause 10.9, the relevant Indemnified Person may elect to reassume control of the conduct of such Claim and the Company shall bear the fees and expenses of such separate legal advisers to the Indemnified Person, if:
- (a) the Company has failed to assume conduct of such Claim in a reasonably timely manner;

- (b) the continued use of the legal advisers chosen by the Company to represent the Indemnified Person would in the opinion of the Indemnified Person present such legal advisers with a conflict of interest;
- (c) in the opinion of the relevant Indemnified Person(s), there may be legal defences available to it and/or other Indemnified Persons which are different from or additional to those available to the Company;
- (d) the Indemnified Person is required to appoint its own counsel to comply with the terms of its, his or her insurance policy; or
- (e) the Company and the relevant Indemnified Person otherwise agree that the relevant Indemnified Person may re-assume control.

In any such circumstances, the Company shall take all such actions as may be requested by the relevant Indemnified Person to ensure that the relevant Indemnified Person has conduct of the Claim (or any particular element thereof as notified by such Indemnified Person to the Company) passed to it. To the extent an Indemnified Person has re-assumed control of the conduct of a Claim pursuant to this Clause 10.10, and to the extent to do so would not, in such Indemnified Person's view, be materially prejudicial to an Indemnified Person's interests and subject to being indemnified to its satisfaction by the Company against any additional or increased Losses it may suffer or incur as a result of so doing, it undertakes to keep the Company reasonably informed of all material developments (in such Indemnified Person's view) in respect of such Claim and to consult with the Company in respect of such material developments, provided that the relevant Indemnified Person shall not be under any obligation to provide the Company with a copy of any document which is or may be legally privileged.

10.11 In circumstances where the Company has, in accordance with clause 10.9, so elected to assume control of the conduct of the defence of any Claim brought against any Indemnified Person:

- (a) the relevant Indemnified Person retains the right to appoint their own legal advisers to represent such Indemnified Person in relation to such Claim; and
- (b) the Company agrees that:
 - (i) the relevant Indemnified Person(s) shall be entitled to be consulted about the conduct of the defence of any Claim;
 - (ii) it shall provide the relevant Indemnified Person with such information and copies of such documents relating to the Claim as the Indemnified Person may reasonably request, provided that the Company shall not be under any obligation to provide any Indemnified Person with a copy of any such document which is or may be legally privileged; and

(iii) it will consider the representations and views of the relevant Indemnified Person(s) in the conduct of such Claim.

- 10.12 In the absence of a conflict of interest, in no event shall the Company be liable for fees, costs and expenses of more than one legal adviser (in addition to its own legal advisers, if any) in any jurisdiction, for all Indemnified Persons in connection with any one Claim or separate but similar or related Claims in the same jurisdiction.

11 Exclusions of liability

- 11.1 No Claim shall be made by any of the Company, any of the Directors, either of the Founders, either of the Founder Entities or any of their respective Affiliates or associates (or any of the directors, officers or employees of any of them) in any jurisdiction against any Indemnified Person to recover any Losses which any person may suffer or incur arising out of or in connection with the Offer or this Agreement or any other agreements or arrangements relating to the Offer unless (in relation to clauses 10.1(b) and 10.1(f) only) such Losses are determined in a final judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from such Indemnified Person's: wilful default; fraud; gross negligence; or breach of its duties owed under the rules of the FCA or the regulatory system (as defined in the FCA Handbook).
- 11.2 Notwithstanding any rights or claims which any of the Company, any of the Directors, either of the Founders, either of the Founder Entities or any of their respective Affiliates or associates (or any of the directors, officers or employees of any of them) may have or assert against any of the Banks in connection with the Offer, this Agreement, Admission, or any other agreements or arrangements relating to the Offer or Admission, no claim shall be made by the Company or any Director, either of the Founders, either of the Founder Entities or by any of their respective Affiliates or associates (or any of the directors, officers or employees of any of them) against any director or any other officer and/or employee of any Indemnified Person in respect of any conduct, action or omission by the individual concerned in connection with the Offer, this Agreement, Admission, or any other agreements or arrangements relating to the Offer or Admission.
- 11.3 The Company, each of the Directors, each of the Founders and each of the Founder Entities acknowledge and agree that no Indemnified Person is acting as a financial adviser or fiduciary to the Company, the Directors or the Founders or any other person in respect of the timing, terms, structure or price of the Offer, irrespective of whether any such Indemnified Person has provided input to the Company with respect thereto. No claim shall be made by the Company, any of the Directors, either of the Founders, either of the Founder Entities or any of their respective Affiliates or associates (or any of the directors, officers or employees of any of them) against any Indemnified Person in respect of the timing, terms or structure of the Offer, the setting of the Offer Price at a level that is too high or too low, or in respect of any sales of Underwritten Units by investors to whom such Underwritten Units are allocated. Nothing in this clause 11.3 shall exclude or restrict any duty or liability of any Indemnified Person which it has under FSMA or arrangements for regulating any such Indemnified Person thereunder to any extent prohibited by those arrangements.

12 Contribution

12.1 If the indemnification provided for in clause 10 is for any legal reason (including because such indemnification would be contrary to public policy) unavailable to, or insufficient to hold harmless, an Indemnified Person in respect of any Claims and/or Losses referred to therein, then the Company shall contribute to the aggregate amount of such Claims or Losses incurred by such Indemnified Person, as incurred:

- (a) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by the Company, on the one hand, and the Banks, on the other hand, from the offering of the Units pursuant to this Agreement; or
- (b) if the allocation provided by clause 12.1(a) is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in clause 12.1(a) but also the relative fault of the Company, on the one hand, and of the Banks, on the other hand, in connection with the acts or statements or omissions which resulted in such Claims or Losses, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations.

The relative benefits received by the Company, on the one hand, and the Banks, on the other hand, in connection with the offering of the Units pursuant to this Agreement shall be deemed to be in the same respective proportions as, with respect to the Company, the total net proceeds from the offering of the Units pursuant to this Agreement (before deducting expenses) received by the Company and with respect to the Banks, the total fees and commissions received by the Banks, bear to the total gross proceeds from the offering of the Units.

12.2 The relative fault of the Company, on the one hand, and the Banks, on the other hand, will be determined by reference to, among other things, whether any such act or alleged act or untrue or alleged untrue statement of a material fact or omission or alleged omission to state a material fact relates to information supplied by the Company or by the Banks and the parties' relative intent, knowledge, access to information and opportunity to correct or prevent such act, statement or omission.

- 12.3 The Company and the Banks agree that it would not be just and equitable if contribution pursuant to this clause 12 were determined by pro rata allocation (even if the Banks were treated as one entity for such purpose) or by any other method of allocation which does not take account of the equitable considerations referred to above in this clause 12. The aggregate amount of Claims and Losses incurred by an Indemnified Person and referred to above in this clause 12 will be deemed to include (but not be limited to) all Losses suffered or incurred in investigating, preparing for, disputing, providing evidence in connection with or defending any Claim and/or in establishing its right to be indemnified pursuant to clause 10 or to receive contribution pursuant to this clause 12 and/or in seeking advice regarding any Claim (whether or not such Indemnified Person is an actual or potential party to such Claim or such Claim is defended or disputed successfully) or mitigating any Loss on its part or otherwise enforcing its rights under this Agreement or in any way related to or in connection with the indemnity contained in clause 10 or this clause 12 or settling any Claim).
- 12.4 Notwithstanding any other provision of this clause 12:
- (a) no Indemnified Person shall be entitled to recover more by way of a contribution under this clause 12 than it would have been able to recover had the indemnities in clause 10 been available to such Indemnified Person; and
 - (b) the Company shall not be liable to pay any amount pursuant to this clause 12 in excess of the amount it would have been liable to pay had the indemnities in clause 10 been available to such Indemnified Person.
- 12.5 Notwithstanding the provisions of this clause 12, none of the Banks will be required to contribute any amount in excess of the commission received by it (and which it is not liable to pay to any other underwriter or intermediary under this Agreement or otherwise) in relation to the Underwritten Units placed, underwritten or subscribed for by such Bank pursuant to this Agreement.
- 12.6 No person guilty of fraudulent misrepresentation (whether within the meaning of Section 11(f) of the Securities Act or otherwise) will be entitled to contribution in respect of Losses and/or Claims that have resulted from such fraudulent misrepresentation from any person who was not guilty of such fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 12.7 For the purposes of this clause 12, each Credit Suisse Indemnified Person shall have the same rights to contribution as Credit Suisse, each Goldman Sachs Indemnified Person shall have the same rights to contribution as Goldman Sachs and each Morgan Stanley Indemnified Person shall have the same rights to contribution as Morgan Stanley.

- 12.8 The Banks' respective obligations to contribute pursuant to this clause 12 are several in proportion to their Relevant Proportions and are not joint or joint and several.
- 13 Withholding and gross up
- 13.1 All sums payable to any Bank or any other Indemnified Person under this Agreement (for the purposes of this clause 13 only, each a Payee) shall be paid free and clear of all deductions or withholdings unless the deduction or withholding is required by law, in which event (and except in the case of interest) the relevant person making the payment shall pay such additional amount as shall be required to ensure that the net amount received by the Payee will equal the full amount which would have been received by it had no such deduction or withholding been made.
- 13.2 If any Tax Authority brings into charge to Tax (or into any computation of income, profit or gains for the purposes of any charge to Tax) any sum payable to a Payee under this Agreement or any sum withheld in accordance with this Agreement from any payment made to the Payee (other than, in either case, the fees or commissions due under clause 8) the person liable under this Agreement to make such payment (or that would have been so liable, but for the amount withheld) shall pay such additional amount as shall be required to ensure that the total amount received by the Payee, less the Tax chargeable thereon (or that would be so chargeable but for the availability of relief in respect of that charge to Tax), is equal to the amount that would otherwise be so received (additional payments being made on demand of the Payee).
- 14 Limits on liability
- Financial amount
- 14.1 The liability of each of the Founders (whether in their capacity either as Founders or Founder Directors), each of the Founder Entities and each of the Independent Non-Founder Directors under this Agreement shall not exceed the amounts set out opposite their respective names in column (2) of the tables set out in Schedule 1.
- Time
- 14.2 No Claim may be brought against any of the Independent Non-Founder Directors or Founders or Founder Entities under this Agreement unless notice has been given of such claim in the period ending on the day falling 180 days after the publication of the Company's audited, consolidated annual report and accounts for the financial year ending 31 October 2018 (or if the Company's accounting reference date has changed, the Company's annual report and accounts for the first accounting period of 12 months (or more) ending after the Closing Date).

- 14.3 The limitations in this clause 14 shall not apply in relation to:
- (a) any breach of this Agreement resulting from fraud, bad faith, dishonesty or gross negligence on the part of the person for whose benefit the limitation would otherwise have applied; or
 - (b) any breach of the Warranties set out in paragraph 1 of Part C of Schedule 2.
- 14.4 The limitations in clause 14 shall not apply in relation to any claim arising from a breach or default by:
- (a) the relevant Founder Entity in relation to its obligations to subscribe for Founder Committed Units under clause 5 and/or Founder Preferred Shares (and matching Warrants) under clause 6; or
 - (b) the relevant Independent Non-Founder Director in relation to its obligations to subscribe for Independent Non-Founder Director Committed Units under clause 5.

15 Conditions to the Offer and Termination Conditions to the Offer

- 15.1 The obligations of the Banks under this Agreement are conditional upon:
- (a) the Final Prospectus being formally approved by the FCA pursuant to the Listing Rules and the Prospectus Rules and being published and made available in the manner specified in the Prospectus Rules, in each case on the date of this Agreement;
 - (b) each condition (other than Admission) to the Depositary Interests being admitted to CREST as a participating security in accordance with the CREST Rules being satisfied on or before Admission;
 - (c) no matter referred to in section 87G of FSMA arising or being noted between publication of the Final Prospectus and Admission;
 - (d) any Supplementary Prospectus (as approved by the Banks in their absolute discretion) being formally approved by the FCA in accordance with FSMA and the Prospectus Rules and published and made available in accordance with the Prospectus Rules, in each case before Admission;
 - (e) the Company, each Director, each of the Founders, each of the Founder Entities and each of the Independent Non-Founder Directors having complied with all their respective obligations and having satisfied all conditions to be satisfied by any of them, in each case under this Agreement or under the terms and conditions of the Offer which fall to be performed or satisfied on or prior to Admission;

- (f) the Warranties being true and accurate in all respects and not misleading in any respect at the date of this Agreement, the date of the Final Prospectus, the Applicable Time, the date of any Supplementary Prospectus and the Closing Date, as though they had been given and made on such dates and times by reference to the facts and circumstances then subsisting, and no matter having arisen prior to Admission which might reasonably be expected to give rise to a Claim under clause 10;
- (g) in the opinion of the Banks, acting in good faith, there having been no Material Adverse Change, whether or not foreseeable at the date of this Agreement;
- (h) the Company entering into the Warrant Instrument, the Corporate Administration Agreement, the Registrar Agreement, the Depositary Agreement and the Option Deeds and those agreements becoming unconditional in accordance with their terms (save in respect of any condition relating to this Agreement becoming unconditional);
- (i) each of the Insider Letters having been entered into by the relevant parties and having become unconditional in accordance with its terms;
- (j) the Depositary entering into the Depositary Interest Deed Poll;
- (k) the Company, the Founders and the Founding Entities (as the context may require) delivering to the Banks the documents listed in Schedule 5 by not later than the times and dates specified therein;
- (l) delivery, on the date of any Supplementary Prospectus and on the date of (and prior to) Admission, to the Banks of:
 - (i) a certificate in the form set out in Part A of Schedule 6 by the Company;
 - (ii) a certificate in the form set out in Part B of Schedule 6 by each of the Founders and each of the Founding Entities;
- (m) the Company allotting the New Shares, Warrants and the Founder Preferred Shares, prior to and conditional only on Admission, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; and
- (n) Admission taking place by not later than 8.00 a.m. on the Closing Date.

- 15.2 The Banks will be entitled (acting jointly), in their absolute discretion and on such terms as they think appropriate, to waive fulfilment, in whole or in part, of any or all of the Conditions (to the extent permitted by law or regulation) by giving notice in writing to the Company.
- 15.3 The Company and the Banks may agree in writing to extend the time and/or date by which any of the Conditions are required to be fulfilled to no later than 3.00 p.m. on the Long Stop Date. If the time for fulfilment or waiver of any of the Conditions is so extended, references in this Agreement to the time and/or date specified for the fulfilment of a Condition are to the time as so extended.
- 15.4 The Company, the Directors, each of the Founders and each of the Founding Entities will use their respective best endeavours to procure that each of the Conditions is fulfilled by the time and/or date referred to therein (or, if no time or date is specified, by 8:00 a.m. on the Closing Date) or by such later time and/or date (if any) as may be agreed by the Banks pursuant to clause 15.3.
- 15.5 In the event of the publication of any Supplementary Prospectus referred to in clause 15.1(d), the Banks shall have the right to postpone the Closing Date for such period, not exceeding five Business Days, as the Banks may in their absolute discretion determine.

Termination of this Agreement

- 15.6 If, at any time before Admission, any Bank becomes aware that any of the events described in clause 15.7 have occurred, it may in its absolute discretion (on behalf of the Banks):
- (a) allow the Offer to proceed on the basis of the Final Prospectus subject (if the relevant Bank so requests) to the publication by the Company of a Supplementary Prospectus, provided that the Company shall not publish or cause to be published any such Supplementary Prospectus without the prior written consent of the relevant Bank; or
 - (b) terminate this Agreement, notice of such termination to be then communicated as soon as is practicable to any Director orally or by email or otherwise, and the provisions of clause 15.8 will apply.
- 15.7 The events which will entitle any of the Banks to terminate this Agreement under clause 15.6 are:
- (a) any of the Warranties being untrue, inaccurate or misleading in any respect when made or becoming untrue, inaccurate or misleading in any respect by reference to the facts and circumstances existing from time to time or any matter arising which might reasonably be expected to give rise to a Claim under clause 10; or

- (b) it shall come to the notice of any of the Banks that any statement contained in any Offer Document (or any amendment or supplement thereto) is or has become untrue, inaccurate or misleading in any respect or any matter has arisen, which would, if the Offer were made at that time, constitute an omission from the Offer Documents, or any of them (or any amendment or supplement to any of them); or
- (c) any matter referred to in section 87G of FSMA arising or being noted between publication of the Final Prospectus and Admission; or
- (d) a breach by the Company, a Director, a Founder, a Founding Entity or an Independent Non-Founder Director of any of their respective obligations under this Agreement (to the extent such obligations fall to be performed prior to Admission); or
- (e) in the opinion of the Banks, any Material Adverse Change having occurred (whether or not foreseeable at the date of this Agreement); or
- (f) the Applications for Admission are refused by the FCA and/or the London Stock Exchange (as applicable) and/or are withdrawn by the Company; or
- (g) if:
 - (i) there has occurred any change in the financial markets in the United States, the United Kingdom, any member state of the EEA or the international financial markets, any outbreak of hostilities or escalation thereof, any act of terrorism or war or other calamity or crisis or any change or development involving a prospective change in national or international political, financial or economic conditions, exchange rates or exchange controls; or
 - (ii) trading generally on the New York Stock Exchange, the NASDAQ Stock Market or the London Stock Exchange has been suspended or limited, or minimum or maximum prices for trading have been fixed, or maximum ranges for prices have been required, by any of such exchanges or by such system or by order of the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority or any governmental authority, or a material disruption has occurred in commercial banking or securities settlement or clearance services in the United States or in the United Kingdom or in any member state of the EEA; or
 - (iii) a banking moratorium has been declared by the United States, the United Kingdom, a member state of the EEA or New York State authorities; or

- (iv) there has occurred an adverse change or a prospective adverse change in United States or United Kingdom taxation affecting the Units or the transfer thereof or exchange controls have been imposed by the United States, the United Kingdom or a member state of the EEA, in each case the effect of which (either singly or together with any other event referred to in this clause 15.7(g)) is such as to make it, in the sole opinion of the Banks, acting in good faith, impracticable or inadvisable to market the Underwritten Units and/or to proceed with Admission and/or to enforce contracts for the sale of the Underwritten Units and/or which may prejudice the success of the Offer and/or dealing in the Depositary Interests representing the New Shares and/or Warrants in the secondary market.

Consequences of failure to complete

- 15.8 If any of the Conditions have not been fulfilled (or waived by the Banks pursuant to clause 15.2) in all respects on or before the time and/or date specified in clause 15.1(n) (or such later time and/or date for fulfilment of such Condition as may be agreed pursuant to clause 15.3) or become incapable of being satisfied, or this Agreement is terminated pursuant to clause 15.6 or clause 16, then the obligations of the Banks under this Agreement will immediately cease and determine and:
- (a) no party to this Agreement will have any Claim against any other party, except for accrued rights or obligations under this Agreement;
 - (b) such termination shall be without prejudice to any obligations of the Company, any of the Directors, either of the Founders or either of the Founding Entities in respect of Units which have already been issued, subscribed and paid for, or sold and paid for, at the time of such termination;
 - (c) the Company will forthwith pay to the Settlement Bank (on behalf of itself and on behalf of the other Banks) the Offer Expenses payable by it in accordance with clause 8 and shall, for the avoidance of doubt, remain liable to pay any further fees, commissions or expenses that may be due, or subsequently become due, under and in accordance with the terms of the Banks' Engagement Letter;
 - (d) the Applications for Admission will be withdrawn and the parties will procure that Admission will not become effective; and
 - (e) the provisions of clauses 1 and 8 to 19 (inclusive) will remain in full force and effect.

16 Default by one or more of the Banks

- 16.1 If one or more of the Banks (a Defaulting Bank) fails (or, in the opinion of any of the Banks, excluding any Defaulting Bank, is likely to fail) to subscribe for the Underwritten Units which it or they are obliged to subscribe for under this Agreement (the Defaulted Underwritten Units), the Banks (excluding any Defaulting Bank) will (on behalf of themselves and the other Banks) have the right but not the obligation, within 48 hours thereafter (or such longer period as the Banks (excluding any Defaulting Bank) may agree with the Company), to make arrangements for one or more of the non-defaulting Banks, or any other underwriters, to procure subscribers for or, failing which, to subscribe for, all, but not less than all, of the Defaulted Underwritten Units in such amounts as may be agreed upon and upon the terms herein set forth.
- 16.2 If the Banks (excluding any Defaulting Bank) have not completed arrangements of the type described in clause 16.1 within the 48-hour (or other agreed) period referred to in that clause, then:
- (a) if the number of Defaulted Underwritten Units does not exceed ten per cent of the number of Underwritten Units to be subscribed for on such date, each of the non-defaulting Banks will be obliged, severally and not jointly or jointly and severally, to procure subscribers for, or to subscribe for, the full amount thereof in the proportions that their respective underwriting obligations under this Agreement bear to the underwriting obligations of all non-defaulting Banks; or
 - (b) if the number of Defaulted Underwritten Units exceeds ten per cent of the number of Underwritten Units to be subscribed for on such date, this Agreement will terminate without liability on the part of any non-defaulting Bank and the provisions of clause 15.8 will apply.
- 16.3 Neither termination of this Agreement nor any other action taken under this clause 16 will relieve any Defaulting Bank from liability in respect of its default.
- 16.4 In the event of any such default or likely default which does not result in a termination of this Agreement, the Banks (excluding any Defaulting Bank), on behalf of themselves and the other Banks, will have the right to postpone the Closing Date for a period not exceeding ten Business Days as the Banks (excluding any Defaulting Bank), on behalf of themselves and the other Banks, shall determine in order to prepare any necessary Supplementary Prospectus and/or to effect any required changes in any other documents or arrangements. The term Bank as used in this Agreement will include any person substituted under this clause 16 with like effect as if such person had originally been a party to this Agreement with respect to such Underwritten Units.

17.4 Each party shall notify the other party in writing of a change to its details in clause 17.3 from time to time.

18 General

18.1 This Agreement may be entered into in any number of counterparts and by the parties to it on separate counterparts, and each of the executed counterparts, when duly exchanged or delivered, shall be deemed to be an original, but taken together, they shall constitute one and the same instrument.

18.2 Any counterpart may take the form of an electronic copy of this Agreement and that counterpart:

- (a) will be treated as an original counterpart;
- (b) is sufficient evidence of execution of the original; and
- (c) may be produced in evidence for all purposes in place of the original.

Any party delivering the electronic counterpart will, within seven days of electronic exchange, deliver the wet ink original of that counterpart to the Banks' Counsel by express courier.

18.3 This Agreement is binding on and enures for the benefit of the successors, assignees or legal personal representatives of the parties and each Indemnified Person. No purchaser of Underwritten Units from any Bank shall be deemed to be a successor or assignee by reason merely of such purchase.

18.4 No party may assign any of its rights under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the party against whom the right operates.

18.5 Each Indemnified Person that is not a party to this Agreement will have the right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce its rights against the Company under clauses 10 and 12 provided that, save to the extent notified in writing to the relevant Indemnified Person, the relevant Bank (without obligation) will have the sole conduct of any action to enforce or otherwise deal with such rights on behalf of its Indemnified Persons.

18.6 Save as provided in clause 18.5 and in paragraph 3.1 of Schedule 3, a person who is not a party to this Agreement has no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this Agreement but this does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available apart from that Act. Under no circumstances shall any consent be required from any Indemnified Person that is not a party to this Agreement (or any other third party) for the termination, rescission, amendment or variation of this Agreement, whether or not such termination, rescission, amendment or variation effects or extinguishes any benefit or right conferred on such Indemnified Person or other third party. The Banks will not have responsibility to any Indemnified Person or any other third party under or as a result of this Agreement.

- 18.7 No failure, neglect or delay by any party or Indemnified Person to exercise any right or remedy under any provision of this Agreement will operate as a waiver or release and no single or partial exercise of any right or remedy of any party or Indemnified Person will preclude the further exercise or enforcement of any such right or remedy.
- 18.8 Notwithstanding any other rule of law or equity, any release, waiver or compromise or any other arrangement of any kind whatsoever which any Bank may adopt or effect in connection with this Agreement will not affect any right or privilege of any other party to this Agreement nor any other rights or privileges of any such party at law, in equity or otherwise.
- 18.9 No amendment of this Agreement or of any of the documents referred to in this Agreement will be effective unless it is in writing, refers specifically to this Agreement and is duly executed by each party hereto. No third party shall be required to agree any modification or amendment.
- 18.10 Each provision of this Agreement is severable and distinct from the others and, if any provision is, or at any time becomes, to any extent or in any circumstances invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason, that provision shall to that extent be deemed not to form part of this Agreement but the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall not be affected or impaired, it being the parties' intention that every provision of this Agreement shall be and remain valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.
- 18.11 Each party acknowledges and agrees that:
- (a) this Agreement, the other documents referred to in this Agreement (including, without limitation, the Indemnity Letter) and any other agreement entered into pursuant to this Agreement constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersede any previous agreement, understanding, undertaking or arrangement between the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement;
 - (b) in entering into this Agreement it does not rely on any statement, representation, assurance or warranty of any person (whether a party to this Agreement or not and whether made in writing or not) other than as expressly set out in this Agreement; and

- (c) nothing in this clause, and no other limitation in this Agreement, shall exclude or limit any liability for fraud.
- 18.12 Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the Indemnity Letter, each of the Founder Entities and each of the Banks agrees that the Indemnity Letter shall remain in full force and effect (and that the indemnification contained in that letter shall continue to apply for the benefit of the Banks) until this Agreement becomes wholly unconditional in accordance with its terms, save that, to the extent that there is a conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and the Indemnity Letter, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail. Each Bank agrees that compensation in respect of the same Losses may only be recovered once under the terms of this Agreement and the Indemnity Letter.
- 18.13 The indemnities, representations, warranties and undertakings in this Agreement are in addition to and are not to be construed to limit, affect or prejudice, any other right or remedy available to any Indemnified Person against any person (whether or not a party to this Agreement).
- 18.14 If the Company has entered into or enters into any agreement or arrangement with any adviser for the purpose of, or in connection with, the Offer and the terms of which provide that the liability of the adviser to the Company or any other person is excluded or limited in any manner and the Banks or any other Indemnified Person may have joint and/or several liability with such adviser to the Company or to any other person arising out of the performance of its duties under this Agreement then the Company will:
- (a) not be entitled to recover any amounts from the Banks or any other Indemnified Person in excess of what would have been the net amount of such person's liability in the absence of such exclusion or limitation;
 - (b) indemnify the Banks and/or any other Indemnified Person in respect of any increased liability to any third party which would not have arisen in the absence of such exclusion or limitation; and
 - (c) take such other action as any of the Banks and/or such other Indemnified Person may require to ensure that none of the Banks are prejudiced as a consequence of such agreement or arrangement.
- 18.15 The degree to which any Indemnified Person shall be entitled to rely on the work of any adviser to the Company, the Directors, the Founders or any of them or any other third party will be unaffected by any exclusion or limitation referred to in clause 18.14 which the Company, the Directors, the Founders or any of them may have agreed with the third party.

- 18.16 The Banks will not be required to place or to procure that there are placed on deposit any sums of money received by it or any of its agents for the Underwritten Units. All amounts payable to the Company under this Agreement will not be treated as client money subject to any regulations made under or pursuant to FSMA and/or the FS Act.
- 18.17 Except as otherwise expressly provided, the obligations of each of the Banks under this Agreement are several and not joint or joint and several and no Bank shall be liable to any other party for any failure of or default by another party to comply with its obligations hereunder or in connection with the Offer.
- 18.18 Each of the Banks and each Indemnified Person shall (except as otherwise agreed among them) have the right to protect and enforce each of its rights without joining any of the others in any proceedings.
- 18.19 Time shall be of the essence in this Agreement, both in relation to the times, dates and periods specified in it and any time, dates and period which may, by agreement in writing between the parties, be substituted for them.
- 18.20 The provisions of this Agreement are without prejudice to any liabilities which any of the parties may have under any rule of law or equity (including, without limitation, the BVI Companies Act, FSMA, the FS Act, the Exchange Act and the Securities Act) to the extent they cannot be excluded or restricted as provided under this Agreement.
- 18.21 Subject to Admission, each of the Founders irrevocably and unconditionally waives for the benefit of the Company, each of the Banks and each person who agrees to acquire Units pursuant to the Offer any failure, prior to the date of this Agreement, by any person at any time duly and properly to comply with the pre-emption provisions of, or any provisions imposing restrictions on transfer under, the BVI Companies Act or the Memorandum and Articles of Association (or any other agreement as to pre-emption or restrictions on transfer in existence at any time to which they were party) in respect of any allotment, issue, sale or transfer of any shares of any class in the capital of the Company at that or any other time and any allotment, issue, sale or transfer to be made pursuant to the Offer and each of the Founders consents to the issue and transfer of the Units pursuant to the Offer.
- 18.22 It is acknowledged that the Company has discussed with the Banks their principles for allocation, the factors all parties believe to be relevant to the allocation of the Underwritten Units and have agreed the objectives and process for the allocation.
- 18.23 The Company acknowledges and agrees that the subscription for the Units pursuant to this Agreement, including the determination of the Offer Price and any related discounts and commissions, is an arm's length commercial transaction between the Company, on the one hand, and each of the Banks, on the other hand.

- 18.24 Any document, opinion or analysis (including any valuation analysis) provided by any Bank in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will be solely for the use of the board of directors of the Company and the Founders and, except as required by law, applicable regulation or requirement of an applicable regulatory authority, may not be disclosed, quoted, reproduced, summarised, described or referred to (other than to the Company's and the Founders' professional advisers or insurers) without the relevant Bank's prior written consent.
- 18.25 In connection with the Offer, each Bank and any of its respective Affiliates acting as an investor for its own account may acquire Units, New Shares and/or Warrants and in that capacity may retain, purchase or sell for its own account such Units, New Shares and/or Warrants and any securities of the Company or related investments and may offer or sell such securities or other investments otherwise than in connection with the Offer. Accordingly, references in this Agreement or the Offer Documents to the Units, New Shares and/or Warrants being issued, offered, sold or placed should be read as including any issue, offering, sale or placement of such Units, New Shares and/or Warrants to the Banks and any relevant Affiliates acting in such capacity. The Banks do not intend to disclose the extent of any such investment or transactions otherwise than in accordance with any legal or regulatory obligation to do so.
- 18.26 The Company, each of the Directors, each of the Founders and each of the Founder Entities acknowledges that none of the Banks or any other Indemnified Person is advising the Company or any other person as to any general financial or strategic advice or any legal, tax, investment or accounting or regulatory matters in any jurisdiction. The Company, each of the Directors, each of the Founders and each of the Founder Entities shall consult with its own advisers concerning such matters and shall be responsible for making its own independent investigation and appraisal of the transactions contemplated hereby, and no Bank shall have any responsibility or liability to the Company, any of the Directors, any of the Founders or any of the Founder Entities with respect thereto. The Company, each of the Founders and each of the Founder Entities further acknowledges and agrees that any review by any Banks of the Company, the Offer and other matters relating thereto will be performed solely for the benefit of the Banks and shall not be performed on behalf of the Company, either of the Founders, either of the Founder Entities or any other person.
- 18.27 The Banks and their associates and Affiliates are engaged in investment business for their own account and for clients. In certain circumstances their interests may be regarded as conflicting with the interests of a client in relation to a particular transaction, or they may have some other interest that is material (a Material Interest). The Banks have procedures to ensure independence of advice. The Company, each of the Directors, each of the Founders and each of the Founding Entities severally acknowledges and accepts, so as to override any duty or restriction which would otherwise be implied by law, that the Banks and their associates may have a Material Interest and that employees or associates responsible for providing the services under this Agreement may be doing so despite the existence of a Material Interest. Under no circumstances shall any Bank or any of their respective Affiliates or associates have any liability by reason of their respective Affiliates or Associates conducting such other businesses or activities, acting in their own interests or in the interests of other clients in respect of matters affecting the Company, any of the Directors, either of the Founders, either of the Founding Entities or their respective Affiliates or associates or any other company or person, including where in so acting any of the Banks or their respective Affiliates or associates act in a manner which is adverse to the interests of the Company, any of the Directors, either of the Founders, either of the Founding Entities or their respective Affiliates or associates. Neither this Agreement nor the receipt by the Banks of confidential information or any other matter shall give rise to any fiduciary or equitable duties that would prevent or restrict their action in connection with a Material Interest.

- 18.28 The Company, each of the Directors, each of the Founders and each of the Founding Entities severally acknowledges and accepts that, by reason of contractual, legal, regulatory or other obligations, the Banks and their associates and Affiliates may be prohibited from disclosing, or it may be inappropriate for them to disclose, information to the Company, any of the Directors, either of the Founders or either of the Founding Entities, in particular about a Material Interest.
- 18.29 The Company, each of the Directors, each of the Founders and each of the Founding Entities severally acknowledge, and agree, that the Banks may provide their services under this Agreement and earn (and retain) all fees payable under this Agreement notwithstanding the existence of Material Interests within the Banks and their associates and/or Affiliates.

3 Securities laws compliance

- 3.1 For so long as any of the New Shares, the Warrants or the Founder Preferred Shares remain outstanding and are “restricted securities” within the meaning of Rule 144(a)(3) under the Securities Act, the Company undertakes that during any period in which it is not subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act nor exempt from reporting pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) under the Exchange Act, it will make available to any holder or beneficial owner of New Shares, Warrants or Founder Preferred Shares or to any prospective purchaser of New Shares, Warrants or Founder Preferred Shares from such holder or beneficial owner, in each case upon request, the information specified in, and meeting the requirements of, Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act. This undertaking is intended to be for the benefit of the holders and prospective purchasers of such “restricted securities”. The undertaking of the Company in this paragraph is enforceable by such holders who are not parties to this Agreement by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 provided however that the parties to this Agreement may terminate or vary this Agreement in any way at any time without the consent of any such person.
- 3.2 Each of the Founder Entities will comply with all applicable UK and US securities laws and any other applicable law with respect to purchases and sales of New Shares, Warrants and Founder Preferred Shares.
- 3.3 Neither the Company, the Founders, the Founder Entities nor any of their Affiliates, nor any person acting on their behalf will, prior to the later to occur of (a) Admission and (b) completion of the distribution of the New Shares and Warrants, distribute any offering material in the United States (including a website posting that is accessible to residents of the United States) other than the Pathfinder Prospectus, the Disclosure Package and the Final Prospectus (and any amendment or supplement to any of them) or other materials, if any, permitted by the Securities Act and approved by the Banks. Any information contained in such other materials, if any, shall be consistent with the information contained in the Disclosure Package and the Final Prospectus.
- 3.4 The Company, each of the Directors, each of the Founders and each of the Founder Entities undertakes that they will not take, directly or indirectly, any action which is designed to, or might reasonably be expected to, constitute or result in, the stabilisation, maintenance or manipulation of the price of the New Shares, the Warrants or the Founder Preferred Share or any other security of the Company or any instrument evidencing rights to Ordinary Shares or any such other security and each confirms that it has not previously taken any such action.
- 3.5 The Company shall cause the proceeds from the sale of the New Shares, Warrants and Founder Preferred Shares to be invested only in United States government treasury bills or in money market funds meeting certain conditions under Rule 2a-7 under the Investment Company Act as disclosed the Prospectus. The Company will otherwise conduct its business in a manner so that it will not become subject to the Investment Company Act. Furthermore, once the Company consummates the Acquisition, it will not be required to register as an investment company under the Investment Company Act.

- 3.6 The Company, each of the Directors, each of the Founders and each of the Founder Entities undertake that neither they nor any of their Affiliates, nor any person acting on their behalf (other than the Banks, as to whom it makes no representation) will engage, either directly or indirectly, in connection with the offering of the New Shares, the Warrants or the Founder Preferred Shares, in any form of general solicitation or general advertising in the United States.
- 3.7 The Company, each of the Directors, each of the Founders and each of the Founder Entities undertake that neither they nor any of their Affiliates, nor any person acting on their behalf (other than the Banks, as to whom it makes no representation) will engage in any directed selling efforts with respect to the New Shares, the Warrants or the Founder Preferred Shares.
- 3.8 None of the Company, the Directors, the Founders, the Founder Entities, their Affiliates nor any person acting on their behalf (other than the Banks, as to whom it makes no representation) will, directly or indirectly, make offers or sales of any security, or solicit offers to buy any security, or otherwise negotiate in respect of any security under circumstances that would require the registration of the New Shares, the Warrants or the Founder Preferred Shares under the Securities Act.
- 3.9 For so long as the New Shares or the Warrants are “restricted securities” within the meaning of Rule 144(a)(3) of the Securities Act, the Company agrees not to, and will cause its Affiliates not to, resell any New Shares or Warrants comprising the Units acquired by it or them into the United States.
- 3.10 The Company agrees that it will not and will cause its Affiliates not to, directly or indirectly, solicit any offer to buy, sell or make any offer or sale of, or otherwise negotiate in respect of, shares of the Company of any class if, as a result of the doctrine of integration referred to in Rule 502 under the Securities Act, such offer or sale would render invalid (for the purpose of (a) the sale of the New Shares, the Warrants or the Founder Preferred Shares by the Company to the Banks or to the purchasers procured by the Banks or by the Company to the Founder Entities, (b) the resale of the New Shares or Warrants by the Banks to subsequent purchasers, or (c) the resale of the New Shares or Warrants by such subsequent purchasers to others) the exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act provided by Section 4(a)(2) thereof or Rule 144A or the safe harbour provided by Regulation S thereunder or otherwise.

- 3.11 The Company will take such actions as the Banks may reasonably request to qualify the New Shares and Warrants for offer and sale by the Banks through their Affiliates or agents under the laws of such states of the United States or other jurisdictions as the Banks may designate and shall maintain such qualifications in effect so long as required for the sale of the New Shares, the Warrants and the Founder Preferred Shares; provided, however, that, in connection therewith, the Company shall not be obliged to file any general consent to service of process or to qualify as a foreign corporation in any jurisdiction in which it is not qualified. The Company will immediately advise the Banks of the receipt by the Company of any notification with respect to the suspension of the qualification of the New Shares, the Warrants or the Founder Preferred Shares for sale in any jurisdiction or the initiation or threatening of any proceedings for such purposes.

ESCROW AGREEMENT

THIS ESCROW AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of February 10, 2020, by and among Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited, a company incorporated in the British Virgin Islands (“Landscape”), AP WIP Investments Holdings, LP, a Delaware limited partnership (the “Company”), Associated Partners, L.P., as the representative of the Company Partners (as defined in the Merger Agreement (as defined below) (the “Company Partners’ Representative”, and together with Landscape and the Company, sometimes referred to individually as a “Party” and collectively as the “Parties”), and Citibank, N.A., as escrow agent (the “Escrow Agent”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Parties and certain other parties have entered into that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger dated November 19, 2019 (as the same may be amended from time to time, the “Merger Agreement”) pursuant to which the Parties have agreed to establish the Escrow Account (as defined below) to hold cash in the amount of $10,000,000 (the “Escrow Amount”) to be (x) used solely for the applicable purposes set forth in the Merger Agreement and (y) disbursed by the Escrow Agent in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement. Capitalized terms used herein but not defined shall have the meanings set forth in the Merger Agreement; provided however, the Escrow Agent shall not be responsible for determining or making any inquiry into any term, capitalized, or otherwise, not defined herein;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and of the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Appointment. The Parties hereby appoint the Escrow Agent as their escrow agent, for the purposes set forth herein, and the Escrow Agent hereby accepts such appointment and agrees to act as escrow agent in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein.

2. Escrow Funds.

(a) Simultaneous with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, Landscape is depositing with the Escrow Agent the Escrow Amount in immediately available funds. The Escrow Agent hereby acknowledges receipt of the Escrow Amount, together with all products and proceeds thereof, including all interest, dividends, gains and other income (collectively, the “Escrow Earnings”) earned with respect thereto (collectively, the “Escrow Funds”) in a separate and distinct account (the “Escrow Account”), subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(b) For greater certainty, all escrow earnings shall be retained by the Escrow Agent and reinvested in the Escrow Funds and shall become part of the Escrow Funds and shall be disbursed as part of the Escrow Funds in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement; provided, however, that Landscape and the Company Partners’ Representative acknowledge and agree that in accordance with Section 13.6 of the Merger Agreement, Landscape and the Company Partners’ Representative shall provide a Joint Release Instruction to the Escrow Agent to release an amount to Landscape equal to (x) the amount of any taxable income recognized by Landscape in respect of the Escrow Earnings multiplied by (y) twenty-five percent (25%).

3. Investment of Escrow Funds.

(a) Unless otherwise instructed in writing by the Parties, the Escrow Agent shall hold the Escrow Funds in an interest-bearing deposit account insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") to the applicable limits. The Escrow Funds shall at all times remain available for distribution in accordance with Section 4 below.

(b) The Escrow Agent shall send an account statement to each of the Parties on a monthly basis reflecting activity in the Escrow Account for the preceding month.

(c) The Escrow Agent shall have no responsibility for any investment losses resulting from the investment, reinvestment or liquidation of the escrowed property, as applicable, provided that the Escrow Agent has made such investment, reinvestment or liquidation of the escrowed property in accordance with the terms, and subject to the conditions of this Agreement. The Escrow Agent does not have a duty nor will it undertake any duty to provide investment advice.

4. Disposition and Termination of the Escrow Funds.

(a) Escrow Funds. The Parties shall act in accordance with, and the Escrow Agent shall hold and release the Escrow Funds as provided in, this Section 4(a) as follows:

(i) Upon receipt of a Joint Release Instruction (which Landscape and the Company Partners' Representative acknowledge and agree shall be provided by Landscape and the Company Partners' Representative in accordance with Section 13.4(d), Section 13.5 or 13.6 of the Merger Agreement, as applicable) with respect to the Escrow Funds, the Escrow Agent shall promptly, but in any event within two (2) Business Days after receipt of a Joint Release Instruction, disburse all or part of the Escrow Funds in accordance with such Joint Release Instruction.

(ii) Upon receipt by the Escrow Agent of a copy of Final Determination from any Party, the Escrow Agent shall on the fifth (5th) Business Day following receipt of such determination, disburse as directed, part or all, as the case may be, of the Escrow Funds (but only to the extent funds are available in the Escrow Funds) in accordance with such Final Determination; provided that notwithstanding anything in this Section 4(a)(ii) to the contrary, Landscape and the Company Partners' Representative acknowledge and agree that this Section 4(a)(ii) shall not relieve Landscape or the Company Partners' Representative of any of their respective rights or obligations under the Merger Agreement, including Section 13.3(c)(iii) and Section 13.4 thereof. The Escrow Agent will act on such Final Determination without further inquiry.

(iii) All payments of any part of the Escrow Funds shall be made by wire transfer of immediately available funds or check as set forth in the Joint Release Instruction or Final Determination, as applicable.

(iv) Any instructions setting forth, claiming, containing, objecting to, or in any way related to the transfer or distribution of any funds on deposit in any Escrow Account under the terms of this Agreement must be in writing, executed by the appropriate Party or Parties as evidenced by the signatures of the person or persons set forth on Exhibit A-1, Exhibit A-2 and Exhibit A-3 and delivered to the Escrow Agent either (i) by confirmed facsimile only at the fax number set forth in Section 11 below or (ii) attached to an e-mail delivered on a Business Day to the e-mail address set forth in Section 11 below. In the event a Joint Release Instruction or Final Determination is delivered to the Escrow Agent, whether in writing, by facsimile or otherwise, the Escrow Agent is authorized to seek confirmation of such instruction by telephone call back to the person or persons designated in Exhibits A-1 and/or A-2 annexed hereto (the “Call Back Authorized Individuals”), and the Escrow Agent may rely upon the confirmations of anyone purporting to be a Call Back Authorized Individual. To assure accuracy of the instructions it receives, the Escrow Agent may record such call backs. If the Escrow Agent is unable to verify the instructions, or is not satisfied with the verification it receives, it will not execute the instruction until all such issues have been resolved. The persons and telephone numbers for call backs may be changed only in writing, executed by an authorized signer of applicable Party set forth on Exhibit A-1, Exhibit A-2 or Exhibit A-3 actually received and acknowledged by the Escrow Agent. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no changes or additions shall be made to the persons set forth on Exhibit A-1 without the written consent of Noam Gottesman, Anup Patel or Alex San Miguel.

(b) Certain Definitions.

(i) “Business Day” means any day that is not a Saturday, a Sunday or other day on which banks are not required or authorized by law to be closed in New York, New York.

(ii) “Final Determination” means a final non-appealable order of any court of competent jurisdiction directing the disbursement of Escrow Funds which may be issued, together with (A) a certificate of the prevailing Party to the effect that such order is final and non-appealable and from a court of competent jurisdiction having proper authority and (B) the written payment instructions of the prevailing Party given to effectuate such order.

(iii) “Joint Release Instruction” means the joint written instruction executed by an authorized signer of each of Landscape and the Company Partners’ Representative directing the Escrow Agent to disburse all or a portion of the Escrow Funds, as applicable.

(iv) “Person” means an individual, a partnership, a corporation, a limited liability company, an association, a joint stock company, a trust, a joint venture, an unincorporated organization or a governmental entity or any department, agency or political subdivision thereof.

5. Escrow Agent. The Escrow Agent undertakes to perform only such duties as are expressly set forth herein, which shall be deemed purely ministerial in nature, and no duties, including but not limited to any fiduciary duties, shall be implied. The Escrow Agent shall neither be responsible for, nor chargeable with, knowledge of, nor have any requirements to comply with, the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument or document between the Parties, in connection herewith, if any, including without limitation the Merger Agreement, nor shall the Escrow Agent be required to determine if any Person has complied with any such agreements, nor shall any additional obligations of the Escrow Agent be inferred from the terms of such agreements, even though reference thereto may be made in this Agreement. Notwithstanding the terms of any other agreement between the Parties, the terms and conditions of this Agreement will control the actions of Escrow Agent. The Escrow Agent may rely upon and shall not be liable for acting or refraining from acting upon any Joint Release Instruction or Final Determination furnished to it hereunder and reasonably believed by it in good faith to be genuine and to have been signed and presented by an authorized signer of the proper Party or Parties. Concurrent with the execution of this Agreement, the Parties shall deliver to the Escrow Agent authorized signers' forms in the form of Exhibit A-1, Exhibit A-2 and Exhibit A-3 attached hereto. The Escrow Agent shall be under no duty to inquire into or investigate the validity, accuracy or content of any such document, notice, instruction or request. The Escrow Agent shall have no duty to solicit any payments which may be due it or the Escrow Funds. In the event that the Escrow Agent shall be uncertain as to its duties or rights hereunder or shall receive instructions, claims or demands from any Party hereto which, in its opinion, conflict with any of the provisions of this Agreement, it shall be entitled to refrain from taking any action and its sole obligation shall be to keep safely all property held in escrow until it shall be directed otherwise in a Joint Release Instruction or Final Determination. The Escrow Agent may interplead all of the assets held hereunder into a court of competent jurisdiction or may seek a declaratory judgment with respect to certain circumstances, and thereafter be fully relieved from any and all liability or obligation with respect to such interpleaded assets or any action or nonaction based on such declaratory judgment. The Escrow Agent may consult with legal counsel of its selection in the event of any dispute or question as to the meaning or construction of any of the provisions hereof or its duties hereunder. The Escrow Agent will not be liable for any action taken, suffered or omitted to be taken by it in good faith except to the extent that the Escrow Agent's gross negligence or willful misconduct was the cause of any direct loss to either Party. To the extent practicable, the Parties agree to pursue any redress or recourse in connection with any dispute without making the Escrow Agent a party to the same. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in no event shall the Escrow Agent be liable for any special, indirect, punitive, incidental or consequential losses or damages of any kind whatsoever (including but not limited to lost profits), even if the Escrow Agent has been advised of the likelihood of such losses or damages and regardless of the form of action.

6. Resignation and Removal of Escrow Agent. The Escrow Agent (a) may resign and be discharged from its duties or obligations hereunder by giving thirty (30) calendar days advance notice in writing of such resignation to the Parties specifying a date when such resignation shall take effect or (b) may be removed, with or without cause, by Landscape and the Company Partners' Representative acting jointly at any time by providing written notice to the Escrow Agent. Any corporation or association into which the Escrow Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation or association to which all or substantially all of the escrow business of the Escrow Agent's line of business may be transferred, shall be the Escrow Agent under this Agreement without further act. The Escrow Agent's sole responsibility after such thirty (30) day notice period expires or after receipt of written notice of removal shall be to hold and safeguard the Escrow Funds (without any obligation to reinvest the same) and to deliver the same (i) to a substitute or successor escrow agent pursuant to a joint written designation from the Parties, (ii) as set forth in a Joint Release Instruction or (iii) in accordance with the directions of a Final Determination, and, at the time of such delivery, the Escrow Agent's obligations hereunder shall cease and terminate. In the event the Escrow Agent resigns, if the Parties have failed to appoint a successor escrow agent prior to the expiration of thirty (30) calendar days following receipt of the notice of resignation, the Escrow Agent may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of such a successor escrow agent or for other appropriate relief, and any such resulting appointment shall be binding upon all of the parties hereto.

7. Fees and Expenses. All fees and expenses of the Escrow Agent are described in Schedule 1 attached hereto and shall be paid by Landscape and the Company, jointly and/or severally. The fees agreed upon for the services to be rendered hereunder are intended as full compensation for the Escrow Agent services as contemplated by this Agreement.

8. Indemnity. Each of the Parties shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Escrow Agent and its affiliates and their respective successors, assigns, directors, officers, agents and employees (the "Indemnitees") from and against any and all losses, damages, claims, liabilities, penalties, judgments, settlements, actions, suits, proceedings, litigation, investigations, costs or expenses (including the reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees and expenses of one outside counsel and experts and their staffs and all reasonable and documented expense of document location, duplication and shipment) (collectively "Escrow Agent Losses") arising out of or in connection with (a) the Escrow Agent's performance of this Agreement, tax reporting or withholding or the enforcement of any rights or remedies under or in connection with this Agreement, except to the extent that such Escrow Agent Losses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction through a final order to have been caused by the fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnatee, or (b) its following any instructions or other directions from Landscape or the Company Partners' Representative. The Parties hereby grant the Escrow Agent a lien on, right of set-off against and security interest in, the Escrow Funds for the payment of any reasonable claim for indemnification, expenses and amounts due hereunder. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Escrow Agent is expressly authorized and directed, but shall not be obligated, upon prior written notice to the Parties, to charge against and withdraw from the Escrow Funds for its own account or for the account of an indemnatee any amounts due to the Escrow Agent or to an indemnatee under this Section 8. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Landscape and the Company Partners' Representative agree, solely as between themselves, that any obligation for indemnification under this Section 8 (or for reasonable and documented fees and expenses of the Escrow Agent described in Section 7) shall be borne by the Party or Parties determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be responsible for causing the loss, damage, liability, cost or expense against which the Escrow Agent is entitled to indemnification or, if no such determination is made, then one-half by Landscape and one-half by the Company Partners' Representative. The Parties acknowledge that the foregoing indemnities shall survive the resignation or removal of the Escrow Agent or the termination of this Agreement.

9. Tax Matters.

(a) Landscape shall be responsible for and the taxpayer on all taxes due on the interest or income earned, if any, on the Escrow Funds for the calendar year in which such interest or income is earned. The Escrow Agent shall report any interest or income earned on the Escrow Funds to the IRS or other taxing authority on IRS Form 1099. Prior to the Closing Date, the Parties shall provide the Escrow Agent with certified tax identification numbers by furnishing appropriate forms W-9 or W-8 as applicable and such other forms and documents that the Escrow Agent may reasonably request.

(b) The Escrow Agent shall be responsible only for income reporting to the Internal Revenue Service with respect to income earned on the Escrow Funds. The Escrow Agent shall withhold any taxes required to be withheld by applicable law, including but not limited to required withholding in the absence of proper tax documentation, and shall remit such taxes to the appropriate authorities; provided that, to the extent possible, prior to withholding any such taxes, the Escrow Agent shall notify the Parties that such taxes are required to be withheld by applicable law and shall reasonably cooperate with the Parties to reduce or eliminate the amount of such taxes required to be withheld.

(c) The Escrow Agent, its affiliates, and its employees are not in the business of providing tax or legal advice to any taxpayer outside of Citigroup, Inc. and its affiliates. This Agreement and any amendments or attachments hereto are not intended or written to be used, and may not be used or relied upon, by any such taxpayer or for the purpose of avoiding tax penalties. Any such taxpayer should seek advice based on the taxpayer's particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

10. Covenant of Escrow Agent. The Escrow Agent hereby agrees and covenants with the Parties that it shall perform all of its obligations under this Agreement and shall not deliver custody or possession of any of the Escrow Funds to anyone except pursuant to the express terms of this Agreement or as otherwise required by law.

11. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications required under this Agreement shall be in writing, in English, and shall be deemed to have been duly given if delivered (i) personally, (ii) by facsimile transmission with written confirmation of receipt, (iii) on the day of transmission if sent by electronic mail ("e-mail") with a PDF attachment executed by an authorized signer of the Party/ Parties to the e-mail address given below, and written confirmation of receipt is obtained promptly after completion of the transmission, (iv) by overnight delivery with a reputable national overnight delivery service, or (v) by mail or by certified mail, return receipt requested, and postage prepaid. If any notice is mailed, it shall be deemed given five Business Days after the date such notice is deposited with the United States Postal Service. If notice is given to a Party, it shall be given at the address for such Party set forth below. It shall be the responsibility of the Parties to notify the Escrow Agent and the other Party in writing of any name or address changes.

In the event that the Escrow Agent, in its sole discretion, shall determine that an emergency exists, the Escrow Agent may use such other means of communication as the Escrow Agent deems appropriate.

12. Termination. This Agreement shall terminate on the first to occur of (a) the distribution of all of the amounts in the Escrow Funds in accordance with this Agreement or (b) delivery to the Escrow Agent of a written notice of termination executed jointly by the Parties after which this Agreement shall be of no further force and effect except that the provisions of Section 8 hereof shall survive termination.

13. Miscellaneous. The provisions of this Agreement may be waived, altered, amended or supplemented, in whole or in part, only by a writing signed by all of the parties hereto. Neither this Agreement nor any right or interest hereunder may be assigned in whole or

If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be prohibited or unenforceable by reason of any applicable law of a jurisdiction, then such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions thereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in such jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provisions in any other jurisdiction. The Parties represent, warrant and covenant that each document, notice, instruction or request provided by such Party to the Escrow Agent shall comply with applicable laws and regulations. Where, however, the conflicting provisions of any such applicable law may be waived, they are hereby irrevocably waived by the parties hereto to the fullest extent permitted by law, to the end that this Agreement shall be enforced as written. Except as expressly provided in Sections 7 and 8, nothing in this Agreement, whether express or implied, shall be construed to give to any person or entity other than the Escrow Agent and the Parties any legal or equitable right, remedy, interest or claim under or in respect of this Agreement or any funds escrowed hereunder.

14. Compliance with Court Orders. In the event that any escrow property shall be attached, garnished or levied upon by any court order, or the delivery thereof shall be stayed or enjoined by an order of a court, or any order, judgment or decree shall be made or entered by any court order affecting the property deposited under this Agreement, the Escrow Agent is hereby expressly authorized, in its sole discretion, to obey and comply with all writs, orders or decrees so entered or issued, which it is advised by legal counsel of its own choosing is binding upon it, whether with or without jurisdiction, and in the event that the Escrow Agent obeys or complies with any such writ, order or decree it shall not be liable to any of the Parties or to any other Person, by reason of such compliance notwithstanding such writ, order or decree be subsequently reversed, modified, annulled, set aside or vacated.

16. Assignment. No assignment of the interest of any of the Parties shall be binding upon the Escrow Agent unless and until written notice of such assignment shall be filed with and consented to by the Escrow Agent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld). 18. Compliance with Federal Law. To help the U.S. Government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities and to comply with Federal law requiring financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information on the source of funds deposited to an account, the Parties agree to provide the Escrow Agent with the name, address, taxpayer identification number, and remitting bank for all Parties depositing funds at Citibank pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. (iii) As of the Effective Time, 6,713,967 LTIP Units shall be authorized for issuance by the Company as one or more subsequent series of LTIP Units, which subsequent series may be designated by the Manager as “Voting Units.” Such LTIP Units shall be issued and held by Members other than the Corporation, if Equitized LTIP Units, shall be entitled to shares of Class A Common Stock in Share Settlement as provided in Section 10.08, as designated by the Company and the Corporation in the applicable LTIP Agreement.

(iv) Intended Tax Treatment of LTIP Units. The LTIP Units are intended to be treated for tax purposes as “profits interests” within the meaning of Rev. Proc. 93-27, 1993-2 C.B. 343, and Rev. Proc. 2001-43, 2001-2 C.B. 191. The receipt of the LTIP Units is intended to be treated as a non-taxable event for the Company and the LTIP Member. In consideration of the receipt of the LTIP Units, the LTIP Member shall agree not to take any position inconsistent with the foregoing. The Company and the Members shall treat each LTIP Member as a Member of the Company as of the Grant Date for all purposes (including U.S. Federal income tax purposes). Each LTIP Member shall take into account the distributive share of the Company's income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit associated with such LTIP Member's LTIP Units in computing such LTIP Member's income tax liability for the entire period during which such LTIP Member holds the LTIP Units. Upon the grant of the LTIP Units or at any time on or before the date on which the LTIP Units become Vested LTIP Units, neither the Company nor any of the Members shall deduct any amount (as wages, compensation, or otherwise) for the fair market value of the LTIP Units (for the avoidance of doubt, said LTIP Units shall remain subject to Section 5.05). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, except as set forth in the applicable LTIP Agreement, no LTIP Member shall dispose of any portion of his or her LTIP Units within two years of receipt without the written consent of the Manager, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed (for the avoidance of doubt, such LTIP Units shall remain subject to Article X); provided, that, if the Manager concludes in good faith that such disposition would cause the applicable LTIP Units to not be governed by Rev. Proc. 93-27, 1993-2 C.B.343, the Manager's withholding of consent shall be considered reasonable. Neither the Company nor any Member shall take any action or position, or make any filing, inconsistent with the treatment described in this Section 3.02(c)(iv).

(v) Forfeiture; Reallocation of LTIP Return. In the event of a Change of Control (as defined in the Long-Term Incentive Plan), if the Manager so determines that it is in the best interests of the Company or any of its Affiliates, any Non-Equitized LTIP Units of any Member shall be subject to forfeiture, cancellation or termination in accordance with the applicable LTIP Agreement. In the event of the forfeiture, cancellation or termination of Non-Equitized LTIP Units pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence, the applicable Member shall be entitled to replacement awards with similar potential fair value and the same voting and other non-economic rights both with respect to the Company and the Corporation, as determined by the Manager reasonably and in good faith (for the avoidance of doubt, it is intended that the "similar potential fair value" of a Non-Equitized LTIP Unit shall be determined taking into account, among other factors, the difference between the LTIP Return with respect to such LTIP Unit and the Equitizing Capital Balance). Any LTIP Units of any Member may also be forfeited, canceled or terminated under any other circumstances as set forth in the relevant LTIP Agreement, including any failure to satisfy the relevant vesting conditions. A Member's LTIP Capital Account with respect to an LTIP Unit that is forfeited, canceled or terminated shall be allocated pursuant to Section 5.02.

(d) Rollover Profits Units.

(i) The Series A Rollover Profits Units shall be issued and held solely by Members other than the Corporation (each, a "Series A Rollover Profits Units Holder") and are hereby designated as "Voting Units." If a Member receives any Class B Common Units as a Rollover Distribution with respect to such Member's Series A Rollover Profits Units pursuant to Section 4.01(e)(i), then the Corporation shall, in consideration of $0.0001 per share in cash, issue to such Member a number of shares of Class B Common Stock equal to the number of Class B Common Units so received by such Member. As of the Effective Time, 5,389,030 Rollover Profits Units shall be authorized for issuance by the Company as Series A Rollover Profits Units. Each Series A Rollover Profits Unit shall be forfeited to the Company upon the earlier to occur of (x) the date of the conversion of all of the Series A Founder Preferred Shares into Class A Common Stock pursuant to the Corporation's Charter and (y) the date on which there shall be no Series A Founder Preferred Shares outstanding, for no consideration other than any Rollover Distributions then required to be made pursuant to Section 4.01(e); provided, that no Series A Rollover Profits Unit shall be forfeited until 90 days following the date on which all accrued and unpaid Annual Dividend Amounts have been declared and paid by the Corporation. In addition, any Member holding Series A Rollover Profits Units shall forfeit one (1) Series A Rollover Profits Unit for each Class B Common Unit that such Member redeems pursuant to Article XI (but only upon receipt by such Member of the applicable Share Settlement or Cash Settlement), whether pursuant to a Redemption or Direct Exchange.

(ii) The Series B Rollover Profits Units shall be issued and held solely by Members who are holders of Class B Common Units (each, a "Class B Common Units Holder") and are hereby designated as "Voting Units." Each Series B Rollover Profits Unit is to be issued in tandem with a share of Class B Common Stock. In the event that a Series B Rollover Profits Unit becomes an Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Unit in accordance with Section 10.08, then such Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Unit, along with the share of Class B Common Stock held in tandem with such Series B Rollover Profits Unit, shall be entitled to a share of Class A Common Stock in a Share Settlement. As of the Effective Time, 625,000 Rollover Profits Units shall be authorized for issuance by the Company as Series B Rollover Profits Units.

(iii) The receipt of the Rollover Profits Units is intended to be treated as a non-taxable event for the Company and the Rollover Profits Unitholder. Each holder of a Rollover Profits Unit shall take into account the distributive share of the Company's income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit associated with such holder's Rollover Profits Units in computing such holder's income tax liability for the entire period during which such holder holds the Rollover Profits Units.

(iv) The Series B Rollover Profits Units held by each holder thereof shall be subject to the following time-based vesting schedule: the Series B Rollover Profits Units shall cliff vest in their entirety upon the third (3rd) anniversary of the Effective Time or, if earlier, upon the occurrence of a Change of Control. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Transfer or Redemption of Class B Common Units and/or shares of Class B Common Stock held in tandem with Class B Common Units (or any interest therein) by a Class B Common Units Holder (other than pursuant to a Permitted Transfer otherwise in compliance with Article X) prior to the third (3rd) anniversary of the Effective Time (or, if earlier, prior to the occurrence of a Change of Control) shall result in the automatic cancellation of a proportionate number of such Class B Common Units Holder's Series B Rollover Profits

Units and shares of Class B Common Stock held in tandem with such Series B Rollover Profits Units for no consideration. By way of example, if a Class B Common Units Holder shall Transfer or Redeem thirty percent (30%) of its Class B Common Units prior to the third (3rd) anniversary of the Effective Time (or, if earlier, prior to the occurrence of a Change of Control), then thirty percent (30%) of such Class B Common Units Holder's Series B Rollover Profits Units and shares of Class B Common Stock held in tandem with such Series B Rollover Profits Units shall automatically be cancelled for no consideration.

(e) Carry Unit

(i) The Carry Unit shall be issued to and held solely by the Corporation as of the Effective Time. The Carry Unit shall not constitute a Voting Unit. As of the Effective Time, one (1) Carry Unit shall be authorized for issuance by the Company as a Carry Unit.

(ii) The receipt of the Carry Unit is intended to be treated as a non-taxable event for the Company and the Corporation. The Corporation shall take into account the distributive share of the Company's income, gain, loss, deduction, and credit associated with the Carry Unit in computing its income tax liability for the entire period during which the Corporation holds the Carry Unit.

(iii) The Carry Unit shall be forfeited to the Company upon the earlier to occur of (x) the date of the conversion of all of the Series A Founder Preferred Shares into Class A Common Shares pursuant to the Corporation's Charter and (y) the date on which there shall be no Series A Founder Preferred Shares outstanding, for no consideration other than any Founder Distributions then required to be made pursuant to Section 4.01(d).

(f) To the extent required pursuant to Section 3.03, subject to Section 3.03(g), the Manager may, by resolution thereof, create and issue one or more classes or series of Common Units, LTIP Units, Rollover Profits Units or preferred Units solely to the extent they are in the aggregate substantially equivalent to a class of common stock of the Corporation or class or series of preferred stock of the Corporation and the Manager shall amend this Agreement as the Manager determines, subject to Section 16.03(b), to provide for one or more such classes or series, all without further act, vote, approval or consent of the Members or any other Person notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Delaware Act or any other applicable Law; provided that as long as there are any Members of the Company (other than the Corporation), then (i) no such new class or series of Units may deprive such Members of, or dilute or reduce, the pro rata share of all Company Interests they would have received or to which they would have been entitled if such new class or series of Units had not been created except to the extent (and solely to the extent) the Company actually receives cash in an aggregate amount, or other property or services with a Fair Market Value in an aggregate amount, equal to the pro rata share of Company Interests allocated to such new class or series of Units and the number thereof issued by the Company and (ii) any such new class or series of Units shall be exchangeable for cash or shares of the Corporation, pursuant to Article XI. The foregoing shall not apply to a new class or series of Units that will be issued only to persons providing services to the Company or its subsidiaries, and which are classified as "profits interests" pursuant to IRS Revenue Procedure 93-27.

(g) Coordination with the Merger Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein or in the Merger Agreement to the contrary, (i) the Corporation shall cause the proceeds, if any, received as a recovery under the Buyer Tax Insurance Policy to be transferred directly to the UK Target Companies and (ii) the Corporation shall not be issued any Units, or be treated as having made any Capital Contribution, in respect of such transfer.

SECTION 3.03. Automatic Conversion of Units. (a) The Company, the Corporation, the Manager, the Members and any other any other Person that is a party to or is otherwise bound by this Agreement hereby acknowledges and agrees that it is the intention of this Article III to maintain at all times a one-to-one ratio between (x) the number of outstanding Common Units owned by the Corporation and (y) the number of outstanding Series A Founder Preferred Shares and shares of Common Stock, disregarding, for purposes of maintaining such one-to-one ratio, (i) Unvested Corporate Shares, (ii) treasury shares, (iii) non-economic voting shares, such as shares of Class B Common Stock and the Series B Founder Preferred Stock, held by other Members in respect of Common Units (other than Class A Units), LTIP Units and Rollover Profits Units, and (iv) shares of preferred stock (other than the Series A Founder Preferred Shares) or other debt or equity securities (including warrants, options or rights) issued by the Corporation that are convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of Common Stock (except to the extent the net proceeds from such other securities, including any exercise or purchase price payable upon conversion, exercise or exchange thereof, have been contributed by the Corporation to the equity capital of the Company) (clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv), collectively, the “Disregarded Shares”). In the event the Corporation issues shares of Common Stock, transfers or delivers from treasury shares of Common Stock or repurchases or redeems shares of Common Stock, the Company and the Corporation shall undertake all necessary actions (including payments of appropriate consideration by the Corporation to the Company for the issuance to the Corporation of Units), such that, after giving effect to all such issuances, transfers or deliveries, repurchases or redemptions, the number of outstanding Common Units owned by the Corporation shall equal, on a one-for-one basis, the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock and Series A Founder Preferred Shares, disregarding, for purposes of maintaining such one-to-one ratio, the Disregarded Shares.

(b) In the event that the Corporation shall effect a reclassification, subdivision, combination or cancellation of outstanding shares of Common Stock (including a subdivision effected by the Corporation declaring and paying a dividend of Common Stock on outstanding shares of Common Stock), then the number of outstanding Ordinary Units shall automatically be reclassified, subdivided, combined or cancelled in the same manner such that, after giving effect to such reclassification, subdivision, combination or cancellation, the number of outstanding Common Units owned by the Corporation shall equal, on a one-for-one basis, the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock and Series A Founder Preferred Shares, disregarding for such purposes, the Disregarded Shares, all without further act, vote, approval or consent of the Manager, the Members or any other Person notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Delaware Act or any other applicable Law; provided, that, in the event of any reclassification, subdivision, combination or cancellation of outstanding shares of Common Stock, LTIP Units or Rollover Profits Units pursuant to this Section 3.03, the terms of such LTIP Units and Rollover Profits Units (including the Equitizing Capital Balance) shall be adjusted by the Manager to preserve the claim of such LTIP Units and Rollover Profits Units on the capital and profits of the Company such that it remains unchanged immediately following such event as a result of adjustments under this Section 3.03(b).

(c) In the event that the Corporation shall issue additional shares of Common Stock, or transfer or deliver from treasury additional shares of Common Stock (including shares issued in respect of preferred stock (other than the Series A Founder Preferred Shares) or other debt or equity securities that are convertible into or exercised for shares of Common Stock), in each case for cash or other consideration (other than pursuant to Article XI of this Agreement), then the Corporation shall contribute such consideration to the Company as a Capital Contribution and the Company shall issue a number of Class A Common Units to the Corporation that is equal to the number of shares of Common Stock so issued, transferred or delivered, all without further act, vote, approval or consent of the Manager, the Members or any other Person notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Delaware Act or any other applicable Law.

(d) In the event the Corporation issues preferred stock (other than the Series A Founder Preferred Shares), transfers or delivers from treasury preferred stock or repurchases or redeems the Corporation's preferred stock (other than the Series A Founder Preferred Shares), the Company and the Corporation shall undertake all actions, if requested or directed by the Manager, such that, after giving effect to all such issuances, transfers, deliveries, repurchases or redemptions, the Corporation holds (in the case of any issuance, transfer or delivery) or ceases to hold (in the case of any repurchase or redemption) Units in the Company which (in the good faith determination by the Manager) are in the aggregate substantially equivalent in all respects to the outstanding preferred stock of the Corporation so issued, transferred, delivered, repurchased or redeemed.

(e) The Company shall not undertake any subdivision (by any Common Unit split, Common Unit distribution, reclassification, recapitalization or similar event) or combination (by reverse Common Unit split, reclassification, recapitalization or similar event) of outstanding Common Units owned by the Corporation that is not accompanied by an identical reclassification, subdivision, combination or cancellation of outstanding shares of Common Stock in order to maintain at all times a one-to-one ratio between (x) the number of Common Units owned by the Corporation and (y) the number of outstanding Series A Founder Preferred Shares and shares of Common Stock, disregarding for such purpose, the Disregarded Shares, unless such reclassification, subdivision, combination or cancellation is necessary to maintain at all times a one-to-one ratio between the number of Common Units owned by the Corporation and the number of outstanding Series A Founder Preferred Shares and shares of Common Stock, disregarding for such purpose, the Disregarded Shares.

(f) Except with respect to a dividend or distribution by the Corporation that is subject to Section 4.01(d), the Corporation shall not effect a dividend or other distribution of cash or other property to the holders of shares of Class A Common Stock and Series A Founder Preferred Shares without the Manager causing the Company to effect a distribution in an aggregate amount pursuant to Section 4.01(b) such that the Corporation receives pursuant to such distribution an aggregate amount in respect of its Class A Common Units equal to the aggregate amount paid by the Corporation in such dividend or distribution to the holders of shares of Class A Common Stock and Series A Founder Preferred Shares.

(g) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Company, and the Manager, for, in the name of and on behalf of the Company, shall only be permitted to issue additional Units or other Equity Securities in the Company to the Persons and on the terms and conditions provided for in Section 3.02(f), this Section 3.03, Section 3.09 and Section 3.10. This Section 3.03(g) shall not restrict the Company from causing a Subsidiary of the Company to issue Equity Securities of such Subsidiary.

SECTION 3.04. Repurchase or Redemption of Shares of Common Stock. If, at any time, any outstanding shares of Common Stock (or Series A Founder Preferred Shares) are repurchased or redeemed (whether by exercise of a put or call, automatically or by means of another arrangement) by the Corporation for cash, then a corresponding number of Common Units held by the Corporation shall automatically be redeemed for cash at an aggregate redemption price equal to the aggregate purchase or redemption price of the shares of Common Stock (or Series A Founder Preferred Shares) being repurchased or redeemed by the Corporation (plus any expenses related thereto) and upon such other terms as are the same for the shares of Common Stock (or Series A Founder Preferred Shares) being repurchased or redeemed by the Corporation, all without further act, vote, approval or consent of the Members or any other Person notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Delaware Act or other applicable Law, and the Corporation shall surrender any certificates representing the Common Units so redeemed to the Company duly endorsed in blank. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, the Company shall not make any repurchase or redemption if such repurchase or redemption would violate any applicable Law or the Manager otherwise has notified the Corporation that the Company does not have funds available for such repurchase or redemption.

SECTION 3.05. Certificates Representing Units; Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates; Registration and Transfer of Units. (a) Units shall not be certificated unless otherwise determined by the Manager. If the Manager determines that one or more class or series of Units shall be certificated, each such certificate shall be signed by or in the name of the Company, by the Chief Executive Officer or any other officer designated by the Manager and represent the number of the class or series of Units held by such holder. Except with respect to each Unit elected to be treated as a “security” as provided in Section 3.05(b), such certificate shall be in such form (and shall contain such legends) as the Manager may determine. Any or all of such signatures on any certificate representing one or more Units may be a facsimile, engraved or printed, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law. The Manager agrees that it shall not elect to treat any class or series of Unit that is “certificated” pursuant to this Section 3.05(a) as a “security” within the meaning of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code of any applicable jurisdiction unless thereafter all Units of such class or series of Units then outstanding are represented by one or more certificates.

(b) If any class or series of Units are “certificated” pursuant to Section 3.05(a), the Manager may elect to treat each Unit as a “security” within the meaning of, and governed by (i) Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code (including Section 8-102(a)(15)) thereof) as in effect from time to time in the State of Delaware, and (ii) Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code of any other applicable jurisdiction that now or hereafter substantially includes the 1994 revisions to Article 8 thereof as adopted by the American Law Institute and the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws and approved by the American Bar Association on February 14, 1995 and the Company shall have “opted-in” to such provisions for the purposes of the Uniform Commercial Code. The Units shall not be considered a “security” for any other purpose unless otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement.

(c) If the Manager authorizes the Company to issue “certificates” with respect to a class or series of Units pursuant to Section 3.05(a) and elects to treat such class or series of Units as “securities” as provided in Section 3.05(b), then the Company shall maintain books for the purpose of registering the transfer of such class a series of Units (which books and records may be a Schedule of Members) and, notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the transfer of any Unit of such class or series shall require the delivery of an endorsed certificate and any transfer of any Unit of such class or series shall not be deemed effective until the transfer is registered in the books and records of the Company (which books and records may be a Schedule of Members). If the Manager authorizes the Company to issue certificates as provided in Section 3.05(a) and elects to treat such class or series of Units as “securities” as provided in Section 3.05(b), then a Unit of the relevant class or series shall be represented by a certificate substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B a “Unit Certificate”, and shall contain substantially the following legend: “THE TRANSFER OF THIS CERTIFICATE AND THE LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY INTERESTS REPRESENTED HEREBY IS RESTRICTED AS PROVIDED IN THE FIRST AMENDED AND RESTATED LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY AGREEMENT OF APW OPCO LLC ENTERED INTO EFFECTIVE AS OF FEBRUARY 10, 2020, AS THE SAME MAY BE AMENDED OR AMENDED AND RESTATED FROM TIME TO TIME.”

(d) If Units are certificated, the Manager may direct that a new certificate representing one or more Units be issued in place of any certificate theretofore issued by the Company alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon delivery to the Manager of an affidavit of the owner or owners of such certificate, setting forth such allegation. The Manager may require the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, or such owner’s legal representative, to give the Company a bond sufficient to indemnify it against any claim that may be made against it on account of the alleged loss, theft or destruction of any such certificate or the issuance of any such new certificate.

SECTION 3.06. Negative Capital Accounts. No Member shall be required to pay to any other Member or the Company any deficit or negative balance which may exist from time to time in such Member’s Capital Account (including upon and after dissolution of the Company).

SECTION 3.07. No Withdrawal. No Person shall be entitled to withdraw any part of such Person’s Capital Contribution or Capital Account or to receive any Distribution from the Company, except as expressly provided in this Agreement.

SECTION 3.08. Loans From Members. Loans by Members to the Company shall not be considered Capital Contributions. Subject to the provisions of Section 3.01(e), the amount of any such advances shall be a debt of the Company to such Member and shall be payable or collectible in accordance with the terms and conditions upon which such advances are made.

SECTION 3.09. Corporation Stock Incentive Plans. (a) Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed or applied to preclude or restrain the Corporation from adopting, implementing, modifying or terminating any Equity Plan or from issuing Vested Corporate Shares or Unvested Corporate Shares. The Corporation may implement any Equity Plans and any actions taken under such Equity Plans (such as the grant or exercise of options to acquire shares of Class A Common Stock or the issuance of Unvested Corporate Shares), in a manner determined by the Corporation, in accordance with this Section 3.09. The Members, the Manager, the Corporation and any other Person that is a party to or is otherwise bound by this Agreement hereby acknowledge and agree that, in the event that an Equity Plan is adopted, implemented, modified or terminated by the Corporation in a manner that is not in accordance with this Section 3.09, amendments to this Section 3.09 may become necessary or advisable and may be effected by the Manager in good faith without further act, vote, approval or consent of the Members or any other Person notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Delaware Act or other applicable Law. In the event that shares of Common Stock issued by the Corporation under an Equity Plan become vested pursuant to the terms thereof or any award or similar agreement relating thereto, then the number of outstanding Common Units owned by the Corporation shall automatically be converted into and become that number of outstanding Common Units that would result if a corresponding number of outstanding Common Units were issued to the Corporation, such that the number of outstanding Common Units owned by the Corporation shall equal, on a one-for-one basis, the number of outstanding shares of Common Stock, disregarding for such purposes, the Disregarded Shares, all without further act, vote, approval or consent of the Manager, the Members or any other Person notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Delaware Act or any other applicable Law.

(b) For accounting and tax purposes, the Manager may cause the Company to take the following actions in connection with equity-based awards granted pursuant to an Equity Plan:

(i) in the event that the Corporation incurs any compensation expense in connection with any such award granted to an individual employed by, or engaged to provide services to, the Corporation as consideration for such employment or services, then the Company may, without duplication of any reimbursement made pursuant to Section 6.06, reimburse or be deemed to reimburse the Corporation for a portion of the compensation expense equal to the amount includible in the taxable income of such individual; and

(ii) at the time any Common Units are issued to the Corporation in accordance with Section 3.03 in connection with any such award granted to an individual who is employed by, or engaged to provide services to, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries as consideration for such employment or services, then the Company or its applicable Subsidiary may be deemed to (A) purchase a number of shares of Class A Common Stock equal to the number of Common Units issued from the Corporation for their Fair Market Value and (B) transfer the shares of Class A Common Stock includible in such individual's taxable income to such individual as compensation.

(c) At the time any Common Units are issued to the Corporation in accordance with Section 3.03 in connection with equity-based awards granted pursuant to an Equity Plan, the Corporation shall be deemed to have made a Capital Contribution in exchange for such Common Units in an amount equal to (i) the number of Common Units issued multiplied by (ii) the Fair Market Value of a share of Class A Common Stock on the date upon which the event triggering the issuance of such Common Units occurred; provided that, where applicable, the Company shall be deemed to have contributed such amount to the capital of the Subsidiary that is the recipient of the award holder's employment or services.

SECTION 3.10. Dividend Reinvestment Plan, Cash Option Purchase Plan, Equity Plan, Stock Incentive Plan or Other Plan. Except as may otherwise be provided in this Article III, all amounts received or deemed received by the Corporation in respect of any dividend reinvestment plan, cash option purchase plan, Equity Plan, stock incentive or other stock or subscription plan or agreement (other than any amounts received in order to satisfy any tax obligations), either (a) shall be utilized by the Corporation to effect open market purchases of shares of Class A Common Stock, or (b) if the Corporation elects instead to issue new shares of Class A Common Stock with respect to such amounts, shall be contributed by the Corporation to the Company in exchange for additional Common Units. Upon such contribution, the Company will issue to the Corporation a number of Common Units equal to the number of new shares of Class A Common Stock so issued.

ARTICLE IV

Distributions

SECTION 4.01. Distributions. (a) Distributable Cash; Other Distributions. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law and this Agreement, Distributions to Members may be declared by the Manager and paid by the Company out of Distributable Cash or other funds or property legally available therefor in such amounts and on such terms (including the payment dates of such Distributions) as the Manager shall determine using such record date as the Manager may designate. Such Distributions shall be made to the Members as of the close of business on such record date in accordance with Section 4.01(b) ("Ordinary Distributions"); provided, however, that the Manager shall have the obligation to make Tax Distributions as set forth in Section 4.01(c), Founder Distributions as set forth in Section 4.01(d) and Rollover Distributions as set forth in Section 4.01(e). Promptly following the designation of a record date and the declaration of a Distribution pursuant to this Section 4.01(a), the Manager shall give notice to each Member as of the record date, the amount and the terms of the Distribution and the payment date thereof.

(b) Ordinary Distributions. Ordinary Distributions shall be apportioned and allocated among the Members as follows:

(i) first, distributed to the holders of the Common Units (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Equitized Units) pro rata in proportion to the Capital

Contributions with respect to such Common Units held by such holders until such holders have received aggregate distributions under this Section 4.01(b)(i) (or, in the case of Equitized Units, this Section 4.01(b)(i) and previously under Section 4.01(b)(ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vi) or (vii)) of an amount equal to such Capital Contributions;

(ii) second, distributed to the holders of the Initial Units (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, the Equitized LTIP Units and the Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units) that are Time-Based LTIP Units or Series B Rollover Profits Units pro rata in proportion to the number of such Initial Units held by each such holder until each such holder has received aggregate distributions under this Section 4.01(b)(ii) in an amount equal to the aggregate Equitizing Capital Balance with respect to such Initial Units owned by such holder;

(iii) third, distributed to the holders of any Initial Units (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, the Equitized LTIP Units) that are Vested Performance-Based LTIP Units pro rata in proportion to the number of such Initial Units held by each such holder until each such holder has received aggregate distributions under this Section 4.01(b)(iii) in an amount equal to the aggregate Equitizing Capital Balance with respect to such Initial Units owned by such holder;

(iv) fourth, distributed to the holders of any Initial Units (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, the Equitized LTIP Units) that are Unvested Performance-Based LTIP Units pro rata in proportion to the number of such Initial Units held by each such holder until each such holder has received aggregate distributions under this Section 4.01(b)(iv) of an amount equal to the aggregate Equitizing Capital Balance with respect to such Initial Units owned by such holder;

(v) fifth, distributed to the holders of each series of Future LTIP Units, in the order that such series were issued to such holders, pursuant to clauses (ii) (in the case of any Future LTIP Units that are Time-Based LTIP Units), (iii) (in the case of any Future LTIP Units that are Vested Performance-Based LTIP Units), and (iv) (in the case of any Future LTIP Units that are Unvested Performance-Based LTIP Units), mutatis mutandis, treating each such class of Future LTIP Units as the Initial Units (but only to the extent the Company has made aggregate distributions pursuant to this Section 4.01(b) in excess of the Hurdle Amount (as defined in the applicable LTIP Agreement) for such Future LTIP Units); and

(vi) sixth, distributed to the holders of the Common Units (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Equitized Units) pro rata in proportion to the number of such Common Units held by each holder;

provided, that any amount that would otherwise be distributed with respect to an Unvested LTIP Unit or an Unvested Series B Rollover Profits Unit pursuant to this Section 4.01(b) shall not be distributed and instead shall be segregated and held in escrow by the Company unless and until (x) in the case of an Unvested LTIP Unit, such Unvested LTIP Unit becomes a Vested LTIP Unit, or vests after becoming an Equitized Unit, as applicable, or (y) in the case of an Unvested Series B Rollover Profits Unit, such Unvested Series B Rollover Profits Unit becomes a Vested Series B Rollover Profits Unit, or vests after becoming an Equitized Unit, as applicable; provided, further, that any such amounts held in escrow shall be treated as distributed to the applicable Members for all purposes of this Agreement; provided, further, that, for the avoidance of doubt, holders of any Initial Units shall not be entitled to receive distributions under Section 4.01(b) with respect to such Initial Units until the Company has made aggregate distributions pursuant to Section 4.01(b) with respect to Common Units issued as of the date hereof in excess of the aggregate amount of Capital Contributions as of the date hereof.

(c) Tax Distributions. Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 4.01(a), no later than five (5) Business Days prior to each due date for the U.S. federal income tax return of the Corporation for a Taxable Year (as determined without regard to extensions), the Company shall be required to make a Distribution out of Distributable Cash or other funds legally available therefor (a “Tax Distribution”) to each Member equal to the excess, if any, of (x) the product of (i) the Tax Rate and (ii) the estimated aggregate taxable income of the Company allocated to such Member in the then-current and all preceding Taxable Years, reduced by the aggregate taxable loss of the Company allocated to such Member in the then-current and all preceding Taxable Years (in each case, taking into account the effect of any allocations under Sections 704(c), 734 and 743(b) of the Code), over (y) the sum of (A) the aggregate amount of Distributions previously made to such Member (other than Carry Distributions made to such Member through the issuance of Common Units) under Section 4.01 and (B) the aggregate amount of such Member’s Allocable Foreign Tax Credits; provided, that, in no event shall the amount distributed to the Corporation for any Taxable Year pursuant to this Section 4.01(c) be less than the Corporation’s Assumed Tax Liability for such Taxable Year. Tax Distributions shall be treated as advances of any Ordinary Distributions that Members are entitled to receive pursuant to Section 4.01(b) and shall be offset against any Ordinary Distributions that Members are entitled to receive pursuant to or in accordance with Section 4.01(b). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Manager may, in its discretion, make payments in respect of Tax Distributions on a quarterly basis.

(d) Founder Distributions. Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 4.01(a), no later than two (2) Business Days prior to the Corporation’s payment of an Annual Dividend Amount, the Company shall be required to make a Distribution to the Corporation in its capacity as the Member holding the Carry Unit out of Distributable Cash in an amount equal to the Annual Dividend Amount; provided, that, to the extent that the Corporation elects to pay such Annual Dividend Amount in shares of Class A Common Stock, then, concurrently with the Corporation’s declaration and payment of such Annual Dividend Amount, the Company shall instead issue to the Corporation a number of Class A Common Units that is equal to the number of shares of Class A Common Stock issued in respect of such Annual Dividend Amount (the distributions contemplated by this Section 4.01(d), “Founder Distributions”). For the avoidance of doubt, Founder Distributions shall (x) be treated as Distributions for all purposes of this Agreement (and each Person that is a party to or is otherwise bound by this Agreement agrees that each Founder Distribution shall reduce the balance of the Carry Unit Capital Account as and when made), and (y) not be offset against any Ordinary Distributions that the Corporation is entitled to receive pursuant to or in accordance with Section 4.01(b). The Corporation shall be deemed to have made a Capital Contribution in respect of any Class A Common Units issued pursuant to this Section 4.01(d) in an amount equal to the value of corresponding shares of Class A Common Stock issued in respect of such Founder Distribution (and each Person that is a party to or is otherwise bound by this Agreement agrees that such deemed Capital Contribution shall increase the balance of the Corporation's Common Capital Account as and when deemed made).

(e) Rollover Distributions.

(i) Subject to the limitations set forth in Section 4.01(a), in the event that the Company makes a Founder Distribution to the Corporation pursuant to Section 4.01(d), concurrently with the making of such Founder Distribution, the Company shall also be required to make a Distribution to each Member holding Series A Rollover Profits Units out of Distributable Cash in an amount equal to such Member's Carry Amount with respect to such Founder Distribution ("Rollover Distributions"); provided, that the Company shall instead issue to such Member a number of Class B Common Units equal to the quotient of such Member's Carry Amount with respect to such Founder Distribution and the Dividend Price (as defined in the Corporation's Charter) for the relevant Dividend Year (as defined in the Corporation's Charter) with respect to the Annual Dividend Amount relevant to such Founder Distribution, rounded down to the nearest whole number, to the extent that the Corporation elects to pay the Annual Dividend Amount in shares of Class A Common Stock.

(ii) For the avoidance of doubt, Rollover Distributions shall (x) be treated as Distributions for all purposes of this Agreement (and each Person that is a party to or is otherwise bound by this Agreement agrees that each Rollover Distribution shall reduce the balance of the applicable Member's Series A Rollover Profits Units Capital Account as and when made), and (y) not be offset against any Ordinary Distributions that the applicable Member is entitled to receive pursuant to or in accordance with Section 4.01(b). The applicable Member shall be deemed to have made a Capital Contribution in respect of any Class B Common Units issued pursuant to this Section 4.01(e) in an amount equal to the Capital Contribution of the Class A Common Units issued to the Corporation in respect of the Founder Distribution relevant to such Rollover Distribution (determined on a per-Unit basis) (and each Person that is a party to or is otherwise bound by this Agreement agrees that such deemed Capital Contribution shall increase the balance of the applicable Member's Common Capital Account as and when deemed made).

(iii) For the avoidance of doubt, no holder of Series A Rollover Profits Units shall receive any Distribution with respect to such Series A Rollover Profits Units other than pursuant to Section 4.01(c) and this Section 4.01(e).

SECTION 4.02. Restricted Distributions. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company shall not make any Distribution to any Member on account of any Company Interest if such Distribution would violate any applicable Law or the terms of the Credit Agreement.

ARTICLE V

Capital Accounts; Allocations; Tax Matters

SECTION 5.01. Capital Accounts. (a) The Company shall maintain a separate Capital Account for each Member according to the rules of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv) and subject to such other adjustments as are provided for in this Agreement. For this purpose, the Company shall, upon the occurrence of the events specified in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(f), increase or decrease the Capital Accounts in accordance with the rules of such Treasury Regulation and Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(g) to reflect a revaluation of Company property. The Company shall maintain a sub-account for each Common Unitholder with respect to such Member's Common Units (a "Common Capital Account"), a sub-account for each LTIP Unitholder with respect to such Member's LTIP Units (a "LTIP Capital Account"), a sub-account for each Common Unitholder with respect to such Member's Series A Rollover Profits Units (a "Series A Rollover Profits Units Capital Account"), a sub-account for each Common Unitholder with respect to such Member's Series B Rollover Profits Units (a "Series B Rollover Profits Units Capital Account") and a sub-account for the Corporation with respect to the Carry Unit (the "Carry Unit Capital Account").

(b) For purposes of computing the amount of any item of Company income, gain, loss or deduction to be allocated pursuant to this Article V and to be reflected in the Capital Accounts of the Members, the determination, recognition and classification of any such item shall be the same as its determination, recognition and classification for U.S. federal income tax purposes (including any method of depreciation, cost recovery or amortization used for this purpose); provided, however, that:

(i) The computation of all items of income, gain, loss and deduction shall include those items described in Section 705(a)(1)(B) or 705(a)(2)(B) of the Code and Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(i), without regard to the fact that such items are not includible in gross income or are not deductible for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(ii) If the Book Value of any Company property is adjusted pursuant to Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(e) or (f), the amount of such adjustment shall be taken into account as gain or loss from the disposition of such property.

(iii) Items of income, gain, loss or deduction attributable to the disposition of Company property having a Book Value that differs from its adjusted basis for tax purposes shall be computed by reference to the Book Value of such property.

(iv) Items of depreciation, amortization and other cost recovery deductions with respect to Company property having a Book Value that differs from its adjusted basis for tax purposes shall be computed by reference to the property's Book Value in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(g).

(v) To the extent an adjustment to the adjusted tax basis of any Company asset pursuant to Section 732(d), 734(b) or 743(b) of the Code is required, pursuant to Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(m), to be taken into account in determining Capital Accounts, the amount of such adjustment to the Capital Accounts shall be treated as an item of gain (if the adjustment increases the basis of the asset) or loss (if the adjustment decreases such basis).

SECTION 5.02. Allocations. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.03, Net Profits and Net Losses for any Taxable Year shall be allocated to the Members in a manner that will, as nearly as possible, cause the Capital Account balance of each Member at the end of such Taxable Year to equal the excess (which may be negative) of:

(b) the amount of the hypothetical distribution (if any) that such Member would receive if, on the last day of the Taxable Year, (x) all Company assets, including cash, were sold for cash equal to their Book Values, taking into account any adjustments thereto for such Taxable Year, (y) all Company liabilities were satisfied in cash according to their terms (limited, with respect to each Nonrecourse Liability, to the Book Values of the assets securing such liability), and (z) the net proceeds thereof (after satisfaction of such liabilities) were distributed in full pursuant to Section 14.02(c) of this Agreement, over

(c) the sum of (x) the amount, if any, without duplication, that such Member would be obligated to contribute to the capital of the Company, (y) such Member's share of partnership minimum gain determined pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(g), and (z) such Member's share of partner non-recourse minimum gain (as defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(3)) determined pursuant to Treasury Regulations Section 1.704-2(i)(5), all computed as of immediately prior to the hypothetical sale described in Section 5.02(b).

SECTION 5.03. Regulatory Allocations. (a) Losses attributable to partner nonrecourse debt (as defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(b)(4)) shall be allocated in the manner required by Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i). If there is a net decrease during a Taxable Year in partner nonrecourse debt minimum gain (as defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(3)), Profits for such Taxable Year (and, if necessary, for subsequent Taxable Years) shall be allocated to the Members in the amounts and of such character as determined according to Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(i)(4).

(b) Nonrecourse deductions (as determined according to Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(b)(1)) for any Taxable Year shall be allocated pro rata among the Members in accordance with their share of partnership profits. Except as otherwise provided in Section 5.03(a), if there is a net decrease in the Minimum Gain during any Taxable Year, each Member shall be allocated Profits for such Taxable Year (and, if necessary, for subsequent Taxable Years) in the amounts and of such character as determined according to Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(f). This Section 5.03(b) is intended to be a minimum gain chargeback provision that complies with the requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-2(f) and shall be interpreted in a manner consistent therewith.

(c) If any Member that unexpectedly receives an adjustment, allocation or Distribution described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d)(4), (5) and (6) has an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit as of the end of any Taxable Year, computed after the application of Sections 5.03(a) and 5.03(b) but before the application of any other provision of this Article V, then Profits for such Taxable Year shall be allocated to such Member in proportion to, and to the extent of, such Adjusted Capital Account Deficit. This Section 5.03(c) is intended to be a qualified income offset provision as described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d) and shall be interpreted in a manner consistent therewith.

(d) If the allocation of Net Losses to a Member as provided in Section 5.02 would create or increase an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit, there shall be allocated to such Member only that amount of Losses as will not create or increase an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit. The Net Losses that would, absent the application of the preceding sentence, otherwise be allocated to such Member shall be allocated to the other Members in accordance with their share of partnership profits, subject to this Section 5.03(d).

(e) Profits and Losses described in Section 5.01(b)(v) shall be allocated in a manner consistent with the manner that the adjustments to the Capital Accounts are required to be made pursuant to Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(j), (k) and (m).

(f) The allocations set forth in Section 5.03(a) through and including Section 5.03(e) (the “Regulatory Allocations”) are intended to comply with certain requirements of Sections 1.704-1(b) and 1.704-2 of the Treasury Regulations. The Regulatory Allocations may not be consistent with the manner in which the Members intend to allocate Profit and Loss of the Company or for the Company to make Distributions. Accordingly, notwithstanding the other provisions of this Article V, but subject to the Regulatory Allocations, income, gain, deduction and loss shall be reallocated among the Members so as to eliminate the effect of the Regulatory Allocations and thereby cause the respective Capital Accounts of the Members to equal the amounts (or as close thereto as possible) they would have equaled if Profit and Loss (and such other items of income, gain, deduction and loss) had been allocated without reference to the Regulatory Allocations. In general, the Members anticipate that this will be accomplished by specially allocating other Profit and Loss (and such other items of income, gain, deduction and loss) among the Members so that the net amount of the Regulatory Allocations and such special allocations to each such Member is zero. In addition, if in any Taxable Year there is a decrease in Minimum Gain, or in partner nonrecourse debt minimum gain, and application of the minimum gain chargeback requirements set forth in Section 5.03(a) or Section 5.03(b) would cause a distortion in the economic arrangement among the Members, the Members may, if they do not expect that the Company will have sufficient other income to correct such distortion, request the Internal Revenue Service to waive either or both of such minimum gain chargeback requirements. If such request is granted, this Agreement shall be applied in such instance as if it did not contain such minimum gain chargeback requirement.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement (other than Sections 5.03(a) through (f)), for the Taxable Year in which a liquidation of the Company occurs, all items of income, gain, deduction or loss of the Company for such Taxable Year shall be allocated such that the balance in each Member’s Capital Account as of the date of liquidation equals the amount to be distributed to that Member pursuant to Section 14.02(c).

SECTION 5.04. Tax Allocations. (a) The income, gains, losses, deductions and credits of the Company will be allocated, for U.S. federal and state and local income tax purposes, among the Members in accordance with the allocation of such income, gains, losses, deductions and credits pursuant to Section 5.02 and Section 5.03; provided that if any such allocation is not permitted by the Code or other applicable Law, the Company's subsequent income, gains, losses, deductions and credits will be allocated among the Members so as to reflect as nearly as possible the allocation set forth in Section 5.02 and Section 5.03.

(b) Items of Company taxable income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to any property contributed to the capital of the Company shall be allocated among the Members in accordance with Section 704(c) of the Code so as to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such property to the Company for U.S. federal income tax purposes and its Book Value using the methods permitted in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-3, as determined by the Manager with the written consent of Members holding a majority of the Class B Common Units (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

(c) If the Book Value of any Company asset is adjusted pursuant to Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(2)(iv)(f), subsequent allocations of items of taxable income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to such asset shall take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such asset for U.S. federal income tax purposes and its Book Value in the same manner as under Section 704(c) of the Code using the methods permitted in Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-3, as determined by the Manager with the written consent of Members holding a majority of the Class B Common Units (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

(d) Allocations of tax credits, tax credit recapture and any items related thereto shall be allocated to the Members according to their interests in such items as determined by the Manager taking into account the principles of Treasury Regulation Section 1.704-1(b)(4)(ii).

(e) The Company's "excess nonrecourse liabilities" will first be allocated to the Members that are the holders of the Class B Common Units as of immediately after the Effective Time up to the amount of built-in gain that is allocable to such Member pursuant to the additional method and then allocated to the Members in accordance with the Members' share of partnership profits, in each case as described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.752-3(a)(3). Within sixty (60) calendar days after the fifth anniversary of the date on which the Effective Time occurred, the Manager and such Members shall consult in good faith to determine whether it would be appropriate to adopt an alternative method for the allocation of excess nonrecourse liabilities in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 1.752-3(a)(3), and shall take into account, for purposes of such determination, whether the use of any such alternative method would result in an material adverse Tax consequence to the Manager or such Member. To the extent agreed by the Manager and the Members entering into Rollover Agreements (as defined in the Merger Agreement) that own Class B Common Units at the time of such determination, such alternative method shall be adopted and applied hereunder.

(f) Allocations pursuant to this Section 5.04 are solely for purposes of U.S. federal and state and local taxes and shall not affect, or in any way be taken into account in computing, any Member's Capital Account or share of Profits, Losses, Distributions or other Company items pursuant to any provision of this Agreement.

SECTION 5.05. Withholding, Indemnification and Reimbursement for Payments on Behalf of a Member. (a) The Company and the Corporation shall be entitled to withhold from any payments, distributions and allocations to the Members and pay over to any Governmental Entity any amounts required to be so withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of any other federal, state, local or foreign law, including with respect to any transaction pursuant to Article XI (a “Withholding Tax”). Each Member hereby agrees to furnish to the Company such information and forms as reasonably requested in order to comply with any Laws governing taxes, including withholding of tax or in order to claim any reduced rate of, or exemption from, withholding to which the Member is legally entitled, and the Parties shall reasonably cooperate to reduce or eliminate any amounts that would otherwise be required to be deducted and withheld hereunder. Any amount of Withholding Tax that is withheld with respect to any payment, distribution, or allocation to the Company or the Members shall be treated as an amount distributed to the Members pursuant to Article IV or paid to the Member pursuant to Article XI, as applicable, for all purposes under this Agreement; provided, that, if the amount required to be so withheld exceeds the amount that would have been distributed to a Member, the excess shall be treated as a loan from the Company to such Member. To the extent that the Company makes a distribution to any Member without making any deduction for Withholding Tax that it was required to withhold under applicable Tax law, the Company shall remit such Withholding Tax to the applicable Governmental Entity and the applicable Member shall promptly reimburse the Company for the amount so remitted.

(b) If the Company is required by applicable law to make any other payment to a Governmental Entity that is specifically attributable to a Member or a Member’s status as such (including any Withholding Taxes, state or local personal property taxes, and state or local unincorporated business taxes and Taxes attributable to an imputed underpayment under Code Section 6625 (solely to the extent relating to items that are specifically attributable to a Member as determined by the Manager in its reasonable discretion)), such Member shall indemnify the Company in full for the entire amount paid (including any interest, penalties and related expenses with respect thereto) by the Company on behalf of such Member.

(c) The Manager may offset Distributions to which a Member is otherwise entitled under this Agreement against such Member’s obligation to indemnify the Company under this Section 5.05. A Member’s obligation to indemnify the Company under this Section 5.05 shall survive the Transfer of any Company Interests and the termination, dissolution, liquidation and winding up of the Company, and for purposes of this Section 5.05, the Company shall be treated as continuing in existence. The Company may pursue and enforce all rights and remedies it may have against each Member under this Section 5.05, including instituting a lawsuit to collect such indemnification with interest calculated at a rate per annum equal to the sum of the Base Rate plus 300 basis points (but not in excess of the highest rate per annum permitted by Law).

(d) In the event any Member transfers or otherwise disposes of an interest in the Company in a Redemption pursuant to Section 11.01 or a Direct Exchange pursuant to Section 11.04 and the Corporation elects the Share Settlement with respect to such Redemption or Direct Exchange, then:

(i) if such Member fails to deliver an IRS Form W-9 or another validly executed certificate of non-foreign status as provided in Section 1446(f) or Proposed Treasury Regulation Section 1.1446(f)-2(b)(2), such Member shall deliver to the Company (in the case of a Redemption) or the Corporation (in the case of a Direct Exchange), not less than three (3) Business Days prior to the effective time of any transfer or other disposition, cash constituting ten percent (10%) of the amount realized by such Member pursuant to such transfer or other disposition that is subject to withholding under Code Section 1446(f), which cash shall be remitted by the Company or the Corporation, as applicable, to the applicable Governmental Entity in accordance with applicable Law; provided, that if the Member cannot deliver an IRS Form W-9 or another applicable certificate of non-foreign status, the Company shall deliver to such Member and the Corporation, not less than five (5) Business Days prior to the effective time of any transfer or other disposition, a certificate, duly executed under penalties of perjury, conforming to the requirements of Proposed Treasury Regulations Section 1.1446(f)-2(c)(2)(ii)(C) setting forth such transferring Member's share of liabilities of the Company pursuant to Section 752 of the Code for purposes of determining such Member's amount realized that is subject to withholding under Section 1446(f) of the Code; and

(ii) if such Redemption or Direct Exchange is otherwise subject to withholding taxes under applicable Law, such Member shall deliver to the Company (in the case of a Redemption) or the Corporation (in the case of a Direct Exchange) cash constituting the amount that is required to be withheld, which cash shall be remitted by the Company or the Corporation, as applicable, to the applicable Governmental Entity in accordance with applicable Law.

Any Redemption or Direct Exchange subject to this Section 5.05(d) shall not be completed, become effective or be recognized until the obligation to deliver cash to the Company or Corporation, as applicable, has been satisfied. Payments under this Section 5.05(d) shall not be duplicative of any other amounts paid or withheld under Section 5.05. The Parties shall reasonably cooperate to reduce or eliminate any amounts payable by a Member under this Section 5.05(d).

ARTICLE VI

Management

SECTION 6.01. Authority of Manager. (a) Except for situations in which the approval of any Member(s) is specifically required by the Delaware Act or this Agreement, (i) the business and affairs of the Company shall be managed exclusively by or under the direction of the Manager, and (ii) the Manager shall conduct, direct and exercise full control over all activities of the Company. Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein and subject to the other provisions of this Agreement, the Members hereby consent to the exercise by the Manager of all such powers and rights conferred by the Delaware Act with respect to the management and control of the Company. The initial Manager shall be the Corporation.

(b) The day-to-day business and operations of the Company shall be overseen and implemented, subject to the supervision and direction of the Manager, by officers of the Company having such titles (including “chief executive officer,” “president,” “chief financial officer,” “chief operating officer,” “vice president,” “secretary,” “assistant secretary,” “treasurer” or assistant treasurer”) as the Manager may deem advisable (each, an “Officer” and collectively, the “Officers”). An Officer may, but need not, be a Member. Each Officer shall be appointed by the Manager and shall hold office until his or her successor shall be duly designated and qualified or until his or her death or until he or she shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided. Any one individual may hold more than one office. Subject to the other provisions in this Agreement, the salaries or other compensation, if any, of the Officers shall be fixed from time to time by the Manager. The authority and responsibility of the Officers shall include, but not be limited to, such duties as the Manager may, from time to time, delegate to them and the carrying out of the Company’s business and affairs on a day-to-day basis. Immediately prior to the Effective Time, the Manager hereby removes the existing Officers as of such time from his offices. Effective as of the Effective Time, the Manager hereby appoints each of the individuals listed on Exhibit C to the office or offices set forth next to his or her name. All Officers shall be, and shall be deemed to be, officers and employees of the Company. An Officer may also fill and perform one or more roles as an officer of the Manager.

(c) The Manager shall have the power and authority to effectuate the sale, lease, transfer, exchange or other disposition of any, all or substantially all of the assets of the Company (including the exercise or grant of any conversion, option, privilege or subscription right or any other right available in connection with any assets at any time held by the Company) or the merger, consolidation, reorganization or other combination of the Company with or into another entity, all without further act, vote, approval or consent of the Members or any other Person notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Delaware Act or any other applicable Law; provided, that, for the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall alter in any respect any rights under the Corporation’s organizational documents or applicable Law of a shareholder or shareholders of the Corporation to approve such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition or a Member, in its capacity as a holder of shares of the Corporation, to vote such shares in connection therewith.

SECTION 6.02. Actions of the Manager. The Manager may authorize any Officer or other Person or Persons to act on behalf of the Company pursuant to Section 6.07.

SECTION 6.03. Resignation; Removal. The Manager may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Members. Unless otherwise specified in the notice, the resignation shall take effect upon receipt thereof by the Members, and the acceptance of the resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. The Manager may be removed or replaced by the Majority Members.

SECTION 6.04. Vacancies. Vacancies in the position of Manager occurring for any reason shall be filled by the Majority Members.

SECTION 6.05. Transactions Between Company and Manager. The Manager may cause the Company to contract and deal with the Manager, or any Affiliate of the Manager; provided such contracts and dealings are on terms comparable to those available to the Company from others dealing with the Company at arm’s length or are approved by the Members and otherwise are permitted by the Credit Agreement.

SECTION 6.06. Reimbursement for Expenses. The Manager shall not be compensated for its services as Manager except as expressly provided in this Agreement. To the extent practicable, expenses incurred by the Manager on behalf of or for the benefit of the Company shall be billed directly to and paid by the Company and, if and to the extent any reimbursements to the Manager or any of its Affiliates by the Company pursuant to this Section 6.06 constitute gross income to such Person (as opposed to the repayment of advances made by such Person on behalf of the Company), such amounts shall be treated as “guaranteed payments” within the meaning of Section 707(c) of the Code and shall not be treated as Distributions for purposes of computing the Members’ Capital Accounts.

SECTION 6.07. Delegation of Authority. The Manager may, from time to time, delegate to one or more Officers or other Persons such authority and duties as the Manager may deem advisable. The salaries or other compensation, if any, of agents of the Company (other than the Officers) shall be fixed from time to time by the Manager, subject to the other provisions in this Agreement.

SECTION 6.08. Duties; Limitation of Liability. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Manager and each Officer shall have the fiduciary duties of loyalty and care the same as a director and an officer, respectively, of a corporation organized under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Manager and each Officer shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Company and upon information, opinions, reports or statements presented by any Member, any liquidating trustee, any Officer or any employee of the Company or any committee of the Company or Members, or by any other Persons as to matters the Manager or such Officer reasonably believes are within such other Person’s professional or expert competence, including information, opinions, reports or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities, profits or losses of the Company, or the value and amount of assets or reserves or contracts, agreements or other undertakings that would be sufficient to pay claims and obligations of the company or to make reasonable provision to pay such claims and obligations, or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of assets from which distributions to Members or creditors might properly be paid.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, the Manager shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, not be liable to the Company, the Members, the Officers or any other Person that is a party to or is otherwise bound by this Agreement, for monetary liability for breach of fiduciary duty as a manager of the Company, except that the foregoing shall not eliminate or limit the liability of the Manager for any (i) breach of the Manager’s duty of loyalty to the Company and its Members, (ii) act or omission not in good faith or which involves intentional misconduct or knowing violation of Law or (iii) transaction from which the Manager derived an improper personal benefit.

(d) The provisions of this Section 6.08, to the extent that they eliminate or restrict (i) the duties and liabilities of the Manager otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Company, the Members, the Manager and any other Person that is a party to or is otherwise bound by this Agreement to replace such other duties and liabilities of the Manager to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law and (ii) the duties of each Officer otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Company, the Members, the Manager and any other Person that is a party to or is otherwise bound by this Agreement to replace such other duties of such Officer to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law.

SECTION 6.09. Indemnification. (a) The Company shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any Member, the Manager and each Officer (each, an “Indemnified Person”) to the extent that such Indemnified Person was or is made or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (a “proceeding”), by reason of the fact that such Indemnified Person is or was a Member, the Manager or an Officer, as applicable, against all liability and loss suffered and expenses (including attorneys’ fees) reasonably incurred by such Indemnified Person. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, except as otherwise provided in this Section 6.09, the Company shall be required to indemnify an Indemnified Person who is an Officer in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) commenced by such Indemnified Person only if the Commencement of such proceeding (or part thereof) by such Indemnified Person was authorized in the specific case by the Manager.

(b) The Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, pay the expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) incurred by an Indemnified Person in defending any proceeding in advance of its final disposition; provided, however, that such payment in advance of the final disposition of any proceeding shall be made to such Indemnified Person that is an Officer only upon receipt of receipt of an undertaking by such Indemnified Person to repay all amounts advanced if it should be ultimately determined that such Indemnified Person is not entitled to be indemnified under this Section 6.09 or otherwise.

(c) If a claim for indemnification (following the final disposition of such proceeding) or advancement of expenses under this Section 6.09 is not paid in full within 30 days after a written claim therefor by an Indemnified Person has been received by the Company, such Indemnified Person may file suit to recover the unpaid amount of such claim and, if successful in whole or in part, shall be entitled to be paid the expense (including reasonable attorneys’ fees) of prosecuting such claim. In any such action the Company shall have the burden of proving that the Indemnified Person is not entitled to the requested indemnification or advancement of expenses under this Agreement or applicable Law.

(d) The right to indemnification and the advancement of expenses conferred by this Section 6.09 shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, not be exclusive of any other right which any Indemnified Person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, agreement, bylaw, action by the Manager or otherwise.

(e) Any amendment or modification of this Section 6.09 shall not adversely affect any right or protection hereunder of any Indemnified Person in respect of any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such amendment or modification.

(f) The Company shall maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance, or make other financial arrangements, at its expense, to protect any Indemnified Person against any expense, liability or loss described in Section 6.09(a) and Section 6.09(b) whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify or advance expenses to such Indemnified Person against such expense, liability or loss under the provisions of this Section 6.09. The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to purchase directors' and officers' liability insurance with a carrier and in an amount determined necessary or desirable as determined in good faith by the Manager.

(g) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary (including in this Section 6.09), the Company agrees that any indemnification and advancement of expenses available from the Corporation or any of its Affiliates (other than the Company and any of the Company's Subsidiaries) (collectively, "Landscape") to any current or former Indemnified Person by virtue of such Person's service as a manager, member, director, officer, partner, employee or agent of Landscape prior to or following the Effective Time (any such Person, a "Landscape Person") shall be secondary to the indemnification and advancement of expenses to be provided by the Company pursuant to this Section 6.09, which shall be provided out of and to the extent of Company assets only, and no Member (unless such Member otherwise agrees in writing or is found in a final decision by a court of competent jurisdiction to have personal liability on account thereof) shall have personal liability on account thereof nor shall be required to make additional Capital Contributions to help satisfy such indemnity of the Company and the Company (i) shall be the primary indemnitor of first resort for such Landscape Person pursuant to this Section 6.09 and (ii) shall be fully responsible for the advancement of all expenses and the payment of all amounts or liabilities with respect to such Landscape Person which are addressed by this Section 6.09.

SECTION 6.10. Investment Company Act. The Manager shall use its reasonable best efforts to ensure that the Company shall not be subject to registration as an investment company pursuant to the Investment Company Act.

SECTION 6.11. Outside Activities of the Manager. The Manager shall not, directly or indirectly, enter into or conduct any business or operations, other than in connection with (a) in its capacity as a Member, the ownership, acquisition and disposition of Common Units, (b) the management of the business and affairs of the Company and its Subsidiaries, (c) the operation of the Corporation as a reporting company with a class (or classes) of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, and listed on a securities exchange, (d) the offering, sale, syndication, private placement or public offering of stock, bonds, securities or other interests, (e) financing or refinancing of any type related to the Company, its Subsidiaries or their assets or activities, and (f) such activities as are incidental to the foregoing; provided, however, that, except as otherwise provided herein, the net proceeds of any financing or refinancing raised by the Corporation pursuant to the preceding clauses (d) and (e) shall be made available to the Company, whether as Capital Contributions, loans or otherwise, as appropriate, and, provided further, that the Corporation may, in its sole and absolute discretion, from time to time hold or acquire assets in its own name or otherwise other than through the Company and its Subsidiaries so long as the Corporation takes commercially reasonable measures to ensure that the economic benefits and burdens of such assets are otherwise vested in the Company or its Subsidiaries, through assignment, mortgage, loan or otherwise or, if it is not commercially reasonable to vest such economic interests in the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, the Members shall negotiate in good faith to amend this Agreement to reflect such activities and the direct ownership of assets by the Corporation. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to prohibit the Corporation from executing any guarantee of indebtedness of the Company or its Subsidiaries.

ARTICLE VII

Rights and Obligations of Members

SECTION 7.01. Limitation of Liability and Duties of Members. (a) Except as expressly provided in this Agreement or in the Delaware Act, no Member (including the Member that is also the Manager) shall be personally liable, whether to the Company, to any of the other Members, to the creditors of the Company or to any third party, for any debt, obligation or liability of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, solely by reason of being a Member. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the failure of the Company to observe any formalities or requirements relating to the exercise of its powers or management of its business and affairs under this Agreement or the Delaware Act shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, not be grounds for imposing personal liability on the Members for any debts, obligations or liabilities of the Company.

(b) In accordance with the Delaware Act and the laws of the State of Delaware, a Member may, under certain circumstances, be required to return amounts previously distributed to such Member. It is the intent of the Members that no Distribution to any Member pursuant to Article IV shall be deemed a return of money or other property paid or distributed in violation of the Delaware Act. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, any Member receiving any such money or property shall not be required to return any such money or property to the Company or any other Person, unless such distribution was made by the Company to its Members in clerical error. However, if any court of competent jurisdiction holds that, notwithstanding the provisions of this Agreement, any Member is obligated to make any such payment, such obligation shall be the obligation of such Member and not of any other Member.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, no Member shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, owe any duties (including fiduciary duties) to the Company, any other Member or any other Person that is a party to or is otherwise bound by this Agreement, other than or with respect to breaches of the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing. The provisions of this Section 7.01(c), to the extent that they eliminate or restrict the duties of a Member otherwise existing at law or in equity, are agreed by the Company, the Members, the Manager and any other Person that is a party to or is otherwise bound by this Agreement to replace such other duties of a Member to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law; provided, that, for the avoidance of doubt, this Section 7.01(c) shall not limit the duties (including fiduciary duties) of the Corporation (or any other Person serving as Manager), in the Corporation's (or such other Person's) capacity as Manager, to the Company or any Member even though the Manager is also a Member.

SECTION 7.02. Lack of Authority. No Member in its capacity as such has the authority or power to act for or on behalf of the Company, to do any act that would be binding on the Company or to make any expenditure on behalf of the Company. The Members hereby consent to the exercise by the Manager, the Officers and any Persons to whom the Manager delegates authority and duties pursuant to Section 6.07 of the powers conferred on them by Law and this Agreement.

SECTION 7.03. No Right of Partition. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, no Member in its capacity as such shall have the right to seek or obtain partition by court decree or operation of Law of any Company property, or the right to own or use particular or individual assets of the Company, any such right or power that such Member might have to cause the Company or any of its assets to be partition being hereby irrevocably waived.

SECTION 7.04. Members Right to Act. For matters that require the approval or consent of the Members under this Agreement or the Delaware Act, the Members shall act through meetings and consents as described in paragraphs (a) and (b) below:

(a) Except as otherwise expressly provided by Section 16.03(a), the approval or consent of the Majority Members, voting together as a single class, shall be the approval or consent of the Members. Any Member entitled to vote at a meeting of Members or to express consent or dissent to Company action without a meeting may authorize another Person or Persons to act for such Member by proxy. An electronic transmission or similar transmission by the Member, or a photographic, facsimile or similar reproduction of a writing executed by the Member shall be treated as a proxy executed in writing for purposes of this Section 7.04(a). No proxy shall be voted or acted upon after eleven months from the date thereof, unless the proxy provides for a longer period. A proxy shall be revocable unless the proxy form conspicuously states that the proxy is irrevocable and that the proxy is coupled with an interest. Should a proxy designate two or more Persons to act as proxies, unless that instrument shall provide to the contrary, a majority of such Persons present at any meeting at which their powers thereunder are to be exercised shall have and may exercise all the powers of voting or giving consents thereby conferred, or, if only one be present, then such powers may be exercised by that one; or, if an even number attend and a majority do not agree on any particular issue, the Company shall not be required to recognize such proxy with respect to such issue if such proxy does not specify how the votes that are the subject of such proxy are to be voted with respect to such issue.

(b) The actions by the Members permitted hereunder may be taken at a meeting called by the Manager or by the Majority Members on at least forty-eight (48) hours' prior written notice to the other Members entitled to vote, which notice shall state the purpose or purposes for which such meeting is being called. The actions taken by the Members entitled to vote or consent at any meeting (as opposed to by consent in lieu of a meeting), if improperly called and noticed, shall be as valid as though taken at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice if (but not until), either before, at or after the meeting, the Members entitled to vote or consent as to whom it was improperly held signs a waiver of notice or a consent to the holding of such meeting or an approval of the minutes thereof. The actions by the Members entitled to vote or consent may be taken by vote of the Members entitled to vote or consent at a meeting or by consent in lieu of a meeting, so long as such consent is in writing and is signed by Members holding not less than the minimum number of Voting Units that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all Members entitled to vote thereon were present and voted. Prompt notice of the action so taken without a meeting, which shall state the purpose or purposes for which such consent in lieu of a meeting was required, shall be given to those Members entitled to vote or consent who did not sign such consent (for which such notice and consent may be delivered via electronic transmission); provided, however, that the failure to give any such notice shall not affect the validity of the action taken by such consent in lieu of a meeting. Any action taken pursuant to such consent in lieu of a meeting of the Members shall have the same force and effect as if taken by the Members at a meeting thereof.

SECTION 7.05. Inspection Rights. The Company shall permit each Member and each of its designated representatives, for any purpose reasonably related to such Member's interest as a member of the Company, to (i) visit and inspect any of the premises of the Company and its Subsidiaries, all at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice, (ii) examine the corporate and financial records of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and make copies thereof or extracts therefrom, during reasonable business hours and upon reasonable notice, (iii) consult with the managers, officers, employees and independent accountants of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries concerning the affairs, finances and accounts of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, during reasonable business hours and upon reasonable notice. The presentation of an executed copy of this Agreement by any Member to the Company's independent accountants shall constitute the Company's permission to its independent accountants to participate in discussions with such Persons and their respective designated representatives. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Manager shall have the right to keep confidential from the Members, for such period of time as the Manager deems reasonable, any information which the Manager reasonably believes to be in the nature of trade secrets or other information the disclosure of which the Manager in good faith believes is not in the best interest of the Company or could damage the Company or its business or which the Company is required by applicable law or by agreement with a third party to keep confidential.

ARTICLE VIII

Books, Records, Accounting and Reports, Affirmative Covenants

SECTION 8.01. Records and Accounting. The Company shall keep, or cause to be kept, appropriate books and records with respect to the Company's business, including all books and records necessary to provide any information, lists and copies of documents required to be provided pursuant to Section 8.03 or pursuant to applicable Law. All matters concerning (a) the determination of the relative amount of allocations and Distributions among the Members pursuant to Articles III and IV and (b) accounting procedures and determinations, and other determinations not specifically and expressly provided for by the terms of this Agreement, shall be determined by the Manager, whose determination shall be final and conclusive as to all of the Members absent manifest clerical error.

SECTION 8.02. Fiscal Year. The Fiscal Year of the Company shall begin on the first day of January and end on the last day of December each year or such other date as may be established by the Manager.

SECTION 8.03. Reports. The Company shall deliver or cause to be delivered, within ninety (90) days after the end of each Taxable Year, to each Person who was a Member at any time during such Taxable Year, all information reasonably necessary for the preparation of such Person's U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax returns.

ARTICLE IX

Tax Matters

SECTION 9.01. Preparation of Tax Returns. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, in its capacity as the Partnership Representative, the Corporation shall have the authority and obligation to prepare and timely file the tax returns of the Company at the expense of the Company using such permissible methods and elections as it determines in its reasonable discretion, including the use of any permissible method under Section 706 of the Code for purposes of determining the varying Company Interests of the Members. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide each Person who was a Member at any time during such Taxable Year with tax information which is reasonably required by such Members for U.S. federal and state and income tax reporting purposes with respect to a Taxable Year (including an IRS Schedule K-1) within ninety (90) days of the close of the calendar year in which the Company's Taxable Year ends. Each Member shall notify the Company and the other Members upon receipt of any notice of a tax examination with respect to the Company by U.S. federal or state or local tax authorities.

SECTION 9.02. Tax Elections. The Manager shall cause the Company and each of its Subsidiaries that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes to have in effect an election under Section 754 of the Code (or any similar provisions of applicable state, local or foreign tax Law) for each Taxable Year. The Manager shall take commercially reasonable efforts to cause each Person in which the Company owns a direct or indirect equity interest (other than a Subsidiary) that is so treated as a partnership to have in effect any such election for each Taxable Year. Each Member will upon request supply any information reasonably necessary to give proper effect to any such election.

SECTION 9.03. Tax Controversies. The Corporation shall be designated and may, on behalf of the Company, at any time, and without further notice to or consent from any Member, act as the "partnership representative" of the Company (within the meaning given to such term in Section 6223 of the Code) (the "Partnership Representative") for purposes of the Code and shall appoint a "designated individual" in accordance with Treasury Regulations Section 301.6223-1(b)(3), who will be the sole individual through whom the Partnership Representative will act for all purposes under Sections 6221 through 6241 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations and other guidance relating thereto (the "BBA Audit Rules"). The Partnership Representative shall have the right and obligation to take all actions authorized and required, respectively, by the Code for the Partnership Representative and is authorized and required to represent the Company (at the Company's expense) in connection with all examinations of the Company's affairs by tax authorities, including resulting administrative and judicial proceedings, and to expend Company funds for professional services and other items reasonably incurred in connection therewith. Each Member agrees to cooperate with the Company and to do or refrain from doing any or all things reasonably requested by the Company with respect to the conduct of such proceedings. The Partnership Representative shall keep all Members fully advised on a current basis of any contacts by or discussions with tax authorities, and the Members shall have the right to observe and participate through representatives of their own choosing (at their sole expense) in any tax proceedings. Nothing herein shall diminish, limit or restrict the rights of any Member under the BBA Audit Rules.

ARTICLE X

Restrictions on Transfer of Units

SECTION 10.01. General. No Member or Assignee may Transfer any Units or any interest in any Units other than (i) with the written approval of the Manager or (ii) pursuant to and in accordance with Section 10.02, and, in either case, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, (x) no Transfer of Common Units, LTIP Units or Rollover Profits Units shall be made by a transferor unless such Transfer is accompanied by the Transfer of an equal number of shares of Class B Common Stock or Series B Founder Preferred Shares, as applicable, held by such transferor in tandem with such Units, (y) no Transfer of Units shall be made by a transferor or to a transferee, in either case, that is a party to the Shareholders Agreement other than in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Shareholders Agreement, and (z) no Transfer of LTIP Units shall be made other than in accordance with any applicable terms and conditions of the applicable LTIP Agreement. In the event of a conflict or inconsistency between the transfer restrictions of this Agreement and any applicable transfer restrictions in an applicable LTIP Agreement, the transfer restrictions of the applicable LTIP Agreement will govern. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of the foregoing clause (ii) only, “Transfer” shall not include an event that terminates the existence of a Member for income tax purposes (including (i) a change in entity classification of a Member under Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-3, (ii) a sale of assets by, or liquidation of, a Member pursuant to an election under Section 336 or 338 of the Code or (iii) a merger, severance or allocation within a trust or among sub-trusts of a trust that is a Member), but that does not terminate the existence of such Member under applicable state law (or, in the case of a trust that is a Member, does not terminate the trusteeship of the fiduciaries under such trust with respect to all the Company Interests of such trust that is a Member).

SECTION 10.02. Permitted Transfers.

(a) The restrictions contained in clauses (i) and (ii) of Section 10.01 shall not apply to any Transfer (each such Transfer, and together with any Transfer approved pursuant to Section 10.01, a “Permitted Transfer”) pursuant to (i)(A) a Change of Control Transaction, (B) a Redemption or exchange in accordance with Article XI hereof or (C) a Transfer by a Member to the Corporation or the Company; (ii) a Transfer by any Member to such Member’s spouse, any lineal ascendants or descendants or trusts or other entities in which such Member or Member’s spouse, lineal ascendants or descendants hold (and continue to hold while such trusts or other entities hold Units) 50% or more of such entity’s beneficial interests; (iii) the laws of descent and distribution and (iv) a Transfer to an Affiliate of such Member; provided, however, that (A) in the case of the Corporation (or a Permitted Transferee thereof) such Affiliate is a wholly-owned Subsidiary of the Corporation, (B) the restrictions contained in this Agreement will continue to apply to Units after any Permitted Transfer of such Units, and (C) in the case of the foregoing clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv), the transferees of the Units so Transferred shall agree in writing to be bound by the provisions of this Agreement and, the transferor will deliver a written notice to the Company and the Members, which notice will disclose in reasonable detail the identity of the proposed transferee. In the case of a Permitted Transfer by a Member of Class B Common Units, LTIP Units or Rollover Profits Units to a transferee in accordance with this Section 10.02, such Member (or any subsequent transferee of such Member) shall also Transfer an equal number of shares of Class B Common Stock or Series B Founder Preferred Shares, as applicable, corresponding to the proportion of such Member's (or subsequent transferee's) Class B Common Units, LTIP Units or Rollover Profits Units that were Transferred in the Permitted Transfer to such transferee. All Permitted Transfers are subject to the additional limitations set forth in Section 10.07(b).

(b) In any Permitted Transfer of LTIP Units or Series B Rollover Profits Units, a Member only may Transfer (i) LTIP Units that are Equitized LTIP Units, unless set forth in the applicable LTIP Agreement, and (ii) Series B Rollover Profits Units that are Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units.

SECTION 10.03. Restricted Units Legend. The Units have not been registered under the Securities Act and, therefore, in addition to the other restrictions on Transfer contained in this Agreement, cannot be sold unless subsequently registered under the Securities Act or an exemption from such registration is then available.

SECTION 10.04. Transfer. Prior to Transferring any Units (other than pursuant to a Change of Control Transaction), the transferor shall cause the prospective transferee to agree in writing to be bound by this Agreement as provided in Section 10.02, and any other agreements executed by the holders of Units and relating to such Units in the aggregate (collectively, the "Other Agreements"), and shall cause the prospective transferee to execute and deliver to the Company counterparts of this Agreement and any applicable Other Agreements. Any Transfer or attempted Transfer of any Units in violation of any provision of this Agreement (including any prohibited indirect Transfers) shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, be void, and in the event of any such Transfer or attempted Transfer, the Company shall not record such Transfer on its books and records, including the Schedules of Members, or treat any purported transferee of such Units as the owner of such securities for any purpose.

SECTION 10.05. Assignee's Rights. (a) The Transfer of Units or any interest in Units in accordance with this Agreement shall be effective as of the date of its assignment (assuming compliance with all of the conditions to such Transfer set forth herein), and such Transfer shall be shown on the books and records of the Company in accordance with Section 3.01(d). Profits, Losses and other Company items shall be allocated between the transferor and the Assignee according to Section 706 of the Code, using any permissible method as determined in the reasonable discretion of the Manager. Distributions made before the effective time of such Transfer shall be paid to the transferor, and Distributions made after such date shall be paid to the Assignee.

(b) Unless and until an Assignee becomes a Member pursuant to Article XII, the Assignee shall not be entitled to any of the rights granted to a Member hereunder or under applicable Law, other than the rights granted specifically to Assignees pursuant to this Agreement; provided, however, that, without relieving the transferring Member from any such limitations or obligations as more fully described in Section 10.06, such Assignee shall be bound by any limitations and obligations of a Member contained herein that a Member would be bound on account of the Assignee's Company Interest (including the obligation to make Capital Contributions on account of such Company Interest, to the extent applicable).

SECTION 10.06. Assignor's Rights and Obligations. Any Member who shall Transfer any Units in a manner in accordance with this Agreement shall cease to be a Member with respect to such Units and shall no longer have any rights or privileges, or, except as set forth in Section 5.05 or this Section 10.06, duties, liabilities or obligations, of a Member with respect to such Units (it being understood, however, that the applicable provisions of Sections 6.08 and 6.09 shall continue to inure to such Person's benefit), except that unless and until the Assignee (if not already a Member) is admitted as a Substituted Member in accordance with the provisions of Article XII (the "Admission Date"), (i) such assigning Member shall retain all of the duties, liabilities and obligations of a Member with respect to such Company Interests, and (ii) the Manager may, in its sole discretion, reinstate all or any portion of the rights and privileges of such Member with respect to such Company Interests for any period of time prior to the Admission Date. Nothing contained herein shall relieve any Member who Transfers any Company Interests from any liability of such Member to the Company with respect to such Company Interests that may exist on the Admission Date or that is otherwise specified in the Delaware Act and incorporated into this Agreement or for any liability of such Member to the Company or any other Person for any materially false statement made by such Member (in its capacity as such) or for any present or future breaches of any representations, warranties or covenants by such Member (in its capacity as such) contained herein or in the other agreements with the Company.

SECTION 10.07. Overriding Provisions. (a) Any Transfer in violation of this Article X shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, be null and void ab initio, and the provisions of Sections 10.05 and 10.06 shall not apply to any such Transfers. For the avoidance of doubt, any Person to whom a Transfer is made or attempted in violation of this Article X shall not be admitted as a member of the Company, shall not be entitled to vote on any matters coming before the Members and shall not have any other rights in or with respect to any rights of a Member. The approval of any Transfer in any one or more instances shall not limit or waive the requirement for such approval in any other or future instance.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of Article XI and Article XII and the other provisions of this Article X), in no event shall any Member Transfer any Units to the extent such Transfer could, in the reasonable determination of the Manager:

- (i) result in a violation of the Securities Act, or any other applicable federal, state or foreign Laws;
- (ii) cause an assignment under the Investment Company Act;
- (iii) be a violation of or a default (or an event that, with notice or the lapse of time or both, would constitute a default) under, or result in an acceleration of any

(A) indebtedness under the Credit Agreement or (B) any indebtedness incurred, issued or guaranteed by the Company that, individually or in the aggregate, has an aggregate principal amount then outstanding that is greater than $25,000,000;

(iv) cause the Company to lose its status as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes or, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, be a Transfer effected on or through an “established securities market” or a “secondary market or the substantial equivalent thereof”, as such terms are used in Section 1.7704-1 of the Treasury Regulations;

(v) be a Transfer to a Person who is not legally competent or who has not achieved his or her majority under applicable Law (excluding trusts for the benefit of minors); or

(vi) cause the Company or any Member or the Manager to be treated as a fiduciary under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended.

SECTION 10.08. Equitized LTIP Units and Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units. (a) Equitized LTIP Units and Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, if immediately following a Revaluation, (x) the LTIP Return of any LTIP Units is at least equal to the Equitizing Capital Balance of such Units, such LTIP Units shall automatically become an equal number of Equitized LTIP Units and (y) the Rollover Profits Return of any Series B Rollover Profits Units is at least equal to the Equitizing Capital Balance of such Units, such Series B Rollover Profits Units shall automatically become an equal number of Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units.

(b) Election to Treat as Equitized LTIP Units. Immediately following a Revaluation, a Member holding LTIP Units that are not Equitized LTIP Units may elect to cause the Company to treat such LTIP Units as a number of Equitized LTIP Units that is equal to either (x) the lesser of the number of such LTIP Units or the Class B Equivalent Amount of such LTIP Units or (y) if such Member makes a contribution of immediately available funds in U.S. dollars to the Company equal to the LTIP Shortfall for such LTIP Units, the number of such LTIP Units. If a Member elects to treat its LTIP Units as a number of Equitized LTIP Units equal to the Class B Equivalent Amount pursuant to clause (x) of the immediately preceding sentence, such Member shall forfeit and deliver to the Corporation for no consideration, a number of shares of Class B Common Stock equal to the difference between (A) the number of LTIP Units treated as Equitized LTIP Units and (B) the Class B Equivalent Amount of such LTIP Units.

(c) Election to Treat as Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units. Immediately following a Revaluation, a Member holding Series B Rollover Profits Units that are not Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units may elect to cause the Company to treat such Series B Rollover Profits Units as a number of Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units that is equal to either (x) the lesser of the number of such Series B Rollover Profits Units or the Class B Equivalent Amount of such Series B Rollover Profits Units or (y) if such Member makes a contribution of immediately available funds in U.S. dollars to the Company equal to the Rollover Profits Shortfall for such Series B Rollover Profits Units, the number of such Series B Rollover Profits Units. If a Member elects to treat its Series B Rollover Profits Units as a number of Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units equal to the Class B Equivalent Amount pursuant to clause (x) of the immediately preceding sentence, such Member shall forfeit and deliver to the Corporation for no consideration, a number of shares of Class B Common Stock equal to the difference between (A) the number of Series B Rollover Profits Units treated as Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units and (B) the Class B Equivalent Amount of such Series B Rollover Profits Units.

(d) Treatment under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, any Equitized LTIP Units or Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units treated as such pursuant to Section 10.08(a), Section 10.08(b) or Section 10.08(c) shall permanently be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as an equal number of Class B Common Units; provided, that Equitized LTIP Units and Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units shall remain subject to the vesting conditions, if any, applicable to them prior to becoming Equitized LTIP Units or Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units, as applicable. The Common Capital Account and Capital Contribution (i) with respect to such Equitized LTIP Units shall be equal to the LTIP Capital Account of the applicable LTIP Units immediately following the Revaluation (which shall reflect any Capital Contribution made pursuant to Section 10.08(b)(y)) and (ii) with respect to such Equitized Series B Rollover Profits Units shall be equal to the Series B Rollover Profits Units Capital Account of the applicable Series B Rollover Profits Units immediately following the Revaluation (which shall reflect any Capital Contribution made pursuant to Section 10.08(c)(y)).

(e) Notice. The Company shall, within thirty (30) days after each Revaluation, deliver written notice to the applicable Member setting forth the procedures and terms related to this Section 10.08.

ARTICLE XI

Redemption and Exchange

SECTION 11.01. Redemption Right of a Member. (a) Redemption Notice. Subject to the provisions set forth in this Section 11.01, each Member (other than the Corporation) shall be entitled to cause the Company to redeem (a “Redemption”) its Common Units, other than any Excluded Unit (the “Redemption Right”), at any time beginning 180 days after the Effective Time. A Member desiring to exercise its Redemption Right (the “Redeeming Member”), shall exercise such right by giving written notice (the “Redemption Notice”) to the Company with a copy to the Corporation. The Redemption Notice shall specify the number of Common Units (including Equitized Units) (the “Redeemed Units”) that the Redeeming Member intends to have the Company redeem and a date, not less than seven (7) Business Days nor more than ten (10) Business Days after delivery of such Redemption Notice (unless and to the extent that the Manager in its sole discretion agrees in writing to waive such time periods), on which exercise of the Redemption Right shall be completed (the “Redemption Date”); provided that the Company, the Corporation and the Redeeming Member may change the number of Redeemed Units and/or the Redemption Date specified in such Redemption Notice to another number and/or date by mutual agreement signed in writing by each of them; provided further that, at the election of the Redeeming Member, a Redemption Notice may be conditioned on (x) the Redeeming Member having entered into a valid and binding agreement with a third party for the sale of shares of Class A Common Stock that may be issued in connection with such proposed Redemption (whether in a tender or exchange offer, private sale or otherwise) and such agreement is subject to customary closing conditions for agreements of this kind and the delivery of the Class A Common Stock by the Redeeming Member to such third party, (y) the closing of an announced merger, consolidation or other transaction in which the shares of Class A Common Stock that may be issued in connection with such proposed Redemption would be exchanged or converted or become exchangeable for or convertible into cash or other securities or property and/or (z) the closing of an underwritten distribution of the shares of Class A Common Stock that may be issued in connection with such proposed Redemption. Unless the Redeeming Member timely has delivered a Retraction Notice as provided in Section 11.01(b) or has revoked or delayed a Redemption as provided in Section 11.01(b), on the Redemption Date (to be effective immediately prior to the close of business on the Redemption Date): (A) the Redeeming Member shall transfer and surrender the Redeemed Units and surrender any certificates representing the Redeemed Units duly endorsed in blank, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, in each case, to the Company, and (B) the Company shall (x) cancel the Redeemed Units and any certificates representing the Redeemed Units, (y) transfer to the Redeeming Member the consideration to which the Redeeming Member is entitled under Section 11.01(b), and (z) if the Redeemed Units are certificated, issue to the Redeeming Member a certificate representing a number of Common Units equal to the difference (if any) between the number of Common Units represented by the certificate surrendered by the Redeeming Member pursuant to clause (A) of this Section 11.01(a) and the Redeemed Units.

(b) In exercising its Redemption Right, a Redeeming Member shall be entitled to receive the Share Settlement or the Cash Settlement, as applicable; provided that the Corporation shall have the option (as determined solely by its Independent Directors who are disinterested) as provided in Section 11.02 and subject to Section 11.01(d) to select whether the redemption payment for such Redeemed Units is made by means of a Share Settlement or a Cash Settlement. Within three (3) Business Days of delivery of the Redemption Notice, the Corporation shall give written notice (the “Contribution Notice”) to the Company (with a copy to the Redeeming Member) of its intended settlement method; provided that if the Corporation does not timely deliver a Contribution Notice, the Corporation shall be deemed to have elected the Share Settlement method. If the Corporation elects the Cash Settlement method, the Redeeming Member may retract its Redemption Notice by giving written notice (the “Retraction Notice”) to the Company (with a copy to the Corporation) within two (2) Business Days of delivery of the Contribution Notice. The timely delivery of a Retraction Notice shall terminate all of the Redeeming Member’s, Company’s and the Corporation’s rights and obligations under this Section 11.01 arising from the Redemption Notice.

(c) In the event the Corporation elects a Share Settlement in connection with a Redemption, a Redeeming Member shall be entitled to revoke its Redemption Notice or delay the consummation of a Redemption if any of the following conditions exists: (i) to the extent that the shares of Class A Common Stock are required to be registered under the Securities Act, (A) any registration statement pursuant to which the resale of the shares of Class A Common Stock to be registered for such Redeeming Member at or immediately following the consummation of the Redemption shall have ceased to be effective pursuant to any action or inaction by the SEC or no such resale registration statement has yet become effective, (B) the Corporation shall have failed to cause any related prospectus to be supplemented by any required prospectus supplement necessary to effect such Redemption, (C) the Corporation shall have exercised its right to defer, delay or suspend the filing or effectiveness of a registration statement and such deferral, delay or suspension shall affect the ability of such Redeeming Member to have its shares of Class A Common Stock registered at or immediately following the consummation of the Redemption, (D) any stop order relating to the registration statement pursuant to which the shares of Class A Common Stock were to be registered by such Redeeming Member at or immediately following the Redemption shall have been issued by the SEC, or (E) the Corporation shall have failed to comply in all material respects with its obligations under the Shareholders Agreement, and such failure shall have affected the ability of such Redeeming Member to consummate the resale of shares of Class A Common Stock to be received upon such redemption pursuant to an effective registration statement; (ii) for as long as the issued shares of Class A Common Stock are admitted to the standard segment of the FCA's official list and admitted to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market (A) the Corporation shall have failed to cause any required prospectus to be published, (B) the FCA shall have not approved the admission of the shares of Class A Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Redemption to the standard segment of the FCA's official list, (C) the London Stock Exchange shall have not approved the admission of the shares of Class A Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Redemption to trading on the main market of the London Stock Exchange, or (D) the Corporation shall at any time have taken any action, or omitted to take any action, where such action or omission would have, or would be reasonably likely to have, an adverse effect on the admission of the shares of Class A Common Stock to be issued pursuant to the Redemption to the standard segment of the FCA's official or to trading on the London Stock Exchange's main market; (iii) the Corporation shall have disclosed to such Redeeming Member any material non-public information concerning the Corporation, the receipt of which could reasonably be determined to result in such Redeeming Member being prohibited or restricted from selling shares of Class A Common Stock at or immediately following the Redemption without disclosure of such information, and the Corporation does not permit such Redeeming Member to disclose such information; (iv) there shall have occurred a material disruption in the securities markets generally or in the market or markets in which the shares of Class A Common Stock are then traded; (v) there shall be in effect an injunction, a restraining order or a decree of any nature of any Governmental Entity that restrains or prohibits the Redemption; or (vi) the Redemption Date would occur three (3) Business Days or less prior to, or during, a Black-Out Period; provided further that in no event shall the Redeeming Member seeking to revoke its Redemption Notice or delay the consummation of such Redemption in reliance on any of the matters contemplated in clauses (i) through (v) above have controlled or intentionally materially influenced any facts, circumstances or Persons in connection therewith (except in the good faith performance of his or her duties as an officer or director of the Corporation) in order to provide such Redeeming Member with a basis for such delay or revocation. If a Redeeming Member delays the consummation of a Redemption pursuant to this Section 11.01(b), the Redemption Date shall occur on the fifth (5th) Business Day following the date on which the conditions giving rise to such delay cease to exist (or such earlier day as the Corporation, the Company and such Redeeming Member may agree in writing).

(d) The number of shares of Class A Common Stock or the Redeemed Units Equivalent, as applicable, that a Redeeming Member is entitled to receive under Section 11.01(b) shall not be adjusted on account of any Distributions previously made with respect to the Redeemed Units or dividends previously paid with respect to such shares of Class A Common Stock; provided, however, that if a Redeeming Member causes the Company to redeem Redeemed Units and the Redemption Date occurs subsequent to the record date for any Distribution with respect to the Redeemed Units but prior to payment of such Distribution, the Redeeming Member shall be entitled to receive such Distribution with respect to the Redeemed Units on the date that it is made notwithstanding that the Redeeming Member transferred and surrendered the Redeemed Units to the Company prior to such date.

(e) In the event of a reclassification or other similar transaction as a result of which the shares of Class A Common Stock are converted into another security, then in exercising its Redemption Right a Redeeming Member shall be entitled, in the case of a Redemption effected using the Share Settlement method, to receive the amount of such security that the Redeeming Member would have received if such Redemption Right had been exercised and the Redemption Date had occurred immediately prior to the record date of such reclassification or other similar transaction.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, neither the Company nor the Corporation shall be obligated to effectuate a Redemption if such Redemption could (as determined in the sole discretion of the Manager) cause the Company to be treated as a “publicly traded partnership” or to be taxed as a corporation pursuant Section 7704 of the Code or successor provisions of the Code.

SECTION 11.02. Election and Contribution of the Corporation. In connection with the exercise of a Redeeming Member’s Redemption Rights under Section 11.01(a), the Corporation shall make a Capital Contribution to the Company either of the number of shares of Class A Common Stock or the Cash Settlement that the Redeeming Member is entitled to receive under Section 11.01(b). The Corporation, at its option (as determined solely by its Independent Directors who are disinterested), shall determine whether to contribute, pursuant to Section 11.01(b), the Share Settlement or the Cash Settlement. Unless the Redeeming Member has timely delivered a Retraction Notice as provided in Section 11.01(b), or has revoked or delayed a Redemption as provided in Section 11.01(b), on the Redemption Date (to be effective immediately prior to the close of business on the Redemption Date) (i) the Corporation shall make its Capital Contribution to the Company (in the form of the Share Settlement or the Cash Settlement) required under this Section 11.02, and (ii) the Company shall automatically issue to the Corporation a number of Class A Common Units equal to the number of Redeemed Units surrendered by the Redeeming Member. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Corporation elects a Cash Settlement, the Corporation shall only be obligated to contribute to the Company an amount in respect of such Cash Settlement equal to the net proceeds (after deduction of any underwriters’ discounts or commissions and brokers’ fees or commissions (the “Discount”) from the sale by the Corporation of a number of shares of Class A Common Stock equal to the number of Redeemed Units to be redeemed with such Cash Settlement; provided that the Corporation’s Capital Account shall be increased by an amount equal to any Discount relating to such sale of shares of Class A Common Stock in accordance with Section 6.06. The timely delivery of a Retraction Notice shall terminate all of the Company’s and the Corporation’ rights and obligations under this Section 11.02 arising from the Redemption Notice.

SECTION 11.03. Exchange Right of the Corporation. (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Article XI, the Corporation may, in its sole and absolute discretion (as determined solely by its Independent Directors who are disinterested), elect to effect on the Redemption Date the exchange of Redeemed Units for the Share Settlement or Cash Settlement, as the case may be, through a direct exchange of such Redeemed Units and such consideration between the Redeeming Member and the Corporation (a “Direct Exchange”). Upon such Direct Exchange pursuant to this Section 11.03, the Corporation shall acquire the Redeemed Units, such Redeemed Units shall automatically be converted into and become Class A Common Units and the Corporation shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as the owner of such Class A Common Units.

(b) The Corporation may, at any time prior to a Redemption Date, deliver written notice (an “Exchange Election Notice”) to the Company and the Redeeming Member setting forth its election to exercise its right to consummate a Direct Exchange in lieu of a Redemption; provided that such election does not prejudice the ability of the parties to consummate a Redemption or Direct Exchange on the Redemption Date. An Exchange Election Notice may be revoked by the Corporation at any time in its sole and absolute discretion (as determined solely by its Independent Directors who are disinterested); provided that any such revocation does not prejudice the ability of the parties to consummate a Redemption or Direct Exchange on the Redemption Date. The right to consummate a Direct Exchange in all events shall be exercisable for all the Redeemed Units that would have otherwise been subject to a Redemption. Except as otherwise provided by this Section 11.03, a Direct Exchange shall be consummated pursuant to the same timeframe and in the same manner as the relevant Redemption would have been consummated if the Corporation had not delivered an Exchange Election Notice.

SECTION 11.04. Reservation of Shares of Class A Common Stock; Listing; Certificate of the Corporation.

(a) At all times the Corporation shall reserve and keep available out of its authorized but unissued Class A Common Stock solely for the purpose of issuance upon a Redemption or Direct Exchange, such number of shares of Class A Common Stock as shall be issuable upon any such Redemption or Direct Exchange pursuant to Share Settlements; provided that nothing contained herein shall be construed to preclude the Corporation from satisfying its obligations in respect of any such Redemption or Direct Exchange by delivery of purchased shares of Class A Common Stock (which may or may not be held in the treasury of the Corporation) or the delivery of Cash pursuant to a Cash Settlement. Insofar as the shares of Class A Common Stock are required to be registered under the Securities Act, the Corporation shall deliver shares of Class A Common Stock that have been registered under the Securities Act with respect to any Redemption or Direct Exchange to the extent a registration statement is effective and available for such shares. The Corporation shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to list the shares of Class A Common Stock required to be delivered upon any such Redemption or Direct Exchange prior to such delivery upon each national securities exchange upon which the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock are listed at the time of such Redemption or Direct Exchange (it being understood that any such shares may be subject to transfer restrictions under applicable securities Laws). The Corporation covenants that all shares of Class A Common Stock issued upon a Redemption or Direct Exchange will, upon issuance, be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable. The provisions of this Article XI shall be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with the corresponding provisions of the Corporation's certificate of incorporation.

(b) Simultaneous with the consummation of such Redemption (or Direct Exchange, if so elected by the Corporation), the Redeeming Member shall surrender to the Corporation, and the Corporation shall cancel for no consideration, a number of shares of Class B Common Stock or Series B Founder Preferred Shares, as applicable, registered in the name of such Redeeming Member equal to the number of the Redeemed Units redeemed in such Redemption or exchanged in such Direct Exchange, if so elected by the Corporation.

SECTION 11.05. Effect of Exercise of Redemption or Exchange Right. This Agreement shall continue notwithstanding the consummation of a Redemption or Direct Exchange and all governance or other rights set forth herein shall be exercised by the remaining Members and the Redeeming Member (to the extent of such Redeeming Member's remaining Company Interests). No Redemption or Direct Exchange shall relieve such Redeeming Member of any prior breach of this Agreement.

SECTION 11.06. Tax Treatment. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that each Redemption shall be treated as a direct purchase of Units by the Corporation from the Redeeming Member pursuant to Section 707(a)(2)(B) of the Code (or any similar provisions of applicable state, local or foreign tax Law) (i.e., equivalent to a Direct Exchange). Transactions under this Article XI shall be subject to the provisions of Section 5.05.

ARTICLE XII

Admission of Members

SECTION 12.01. Substituted Members. Subject to the provisions of Article X hereof, in connection with the Permitted Transfer of a Unit, the transferee shall be admitted as a substituted member of the Company ("Substituted Member") on the effective date of such Permitted Transfer, which effective date shall not be earlier than the date of compliance with the conditions to such Transfer.

SECTION 12.02. Additional Members. Subject to the provisions of Article X hereof, any Person (other than the Members as of the Effective Time) may be admitted as an additional member of the Company (any such Person, an "Additional Member") only upon furnishing to the Manager (a) counterparts of this Agreement and any applicable Other Agreements and (b) such other documents or instruments as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to effect such Person's admission as a Member (including entering into such documents as the Manager may deem appropriate in its reasonable discretion). Such admission shall become effective on the date on which the Manager determines in its reasonable discretion that such conditions have been satisfied; provided, however, that as to any Person issued LTIP Units pursuant to this Agreement, such admission shall be effective on the Grant Date.

ARTICLE XIII

Resignation

SECTION 13.01. Resignation of Members. No Member shall have the power or right to resign as a member of the Company prior to the dissolution and winding up of the Company pursuant to Article XIV. Upon or after the dissolution and winding up of the Company, a Member may resign as a member of the Company solely with the prior written consent of the Manager. The attempt by any Member to resign as a member of the Company upon or following the dissolution and winding up of the Company pursuant to Article XIV without the prior written consent of the Manager, but prior to such Member receiving the full amount of Distributions from the Company to which such Member is entitled pursuant to Article XIV, shall be deemed to have breached this Agreement and shall be liable to the Company for all damages (including all lost profits and special, indirect and consequential damages) directly or indirectly caused by the resignation of such Member as a member of the Company. Upon a Transfer of all of a Member's Units in a Transfer permitted by this Agreement, subject to the provisions of Section 10.06, such Member shall cease to be a Member.

ARTICLE XIV

Dissolution and Liquidation

SECTION 14.01. Dissolution. The Company shall not be dissolved by the admission of Additional Members or Substituted Members or the resignation or attempted resignation of a Member. The Company shall dissolve, and its affairs shall be wound up, upon the first to occur of the following events:

- (a) the decision of the Manager together with the Majority Members to dissolve the Company;
- (b) a dissolution of the Company under Section 18-801(4) of the Delaware Act; or
- (c) the entry of a decree of judicial dissolution of the Company under Section 18-802 of the Delaware Act.

Except as otherwise set forth in this Article XIV, the Company is intended to have perpetual existence. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, (i) an Event of Withdrawal shall not cause the relevant Member to cease to be a member of the Company and upon the occurrence of such event, the Company shall continue without dissolution, and (ii) each of the Members waives any right it may have to agree in writing to dissolve the Company upon an Event of Withdrawal.

SECTION 14.02. Liquidation and Termination. On dissolution of the Company, the Manager shall act as the liquidating trustee or may appoint one or more Persons as the liquidating trustee. The liquidating trustee shall proceed diligently to wind up the affairs of the Company and make final distributions as provided herein and in the Delaware Act. The costs of liquidation shall be borne as a Company expense. Until final distribution, the liquidating trustee shall continue to operate the Company properties with all of the power and authority of the Manager. Subject to the Delaware Act, the steps to be accomplished by the liquidating trustee are as follows:

(a) as promptly as possible after dissolution and again after final liquidation, the liquidating trustee shall cause a proper accounting to be made by a recognized firm of certified public accountants of the Company's assets, liabilities and operations through the last day of the calendar month in which the dissolution occurs or the final liquidation is completed, as applicable;

(b) the liquidating trustee shall pay, satisfy or discharge from Company funds, or otherwise make adequate provision for payment and discharge thereof (including the establishment of a cash fund for contingent liabilities in such amount and for such term as the liquidating trustee may reasonably determine): first, all expenses incurred in liquidation of the Company; second, all of the debts, liabilities and obligations owed to creditors of the Company, other than Members; third, all of the debts and liabilities owed to Members; and

(c) all remaining assets of the Company shall be distributed to the Members in accordance with Article IV by the end of the Taxable Year during which the final liquidation of the Company occurs (or, if later, by ninety (90) days after the date of the final liquidation). The distribution of cash and/or property to the Members in accordance with the provisions of this Section 14.02 and Section 14.03 below constitutes a complete return to the Members of their Capital Contributions, a complete distribution to the Members of their interest in the Company and all the Company's property and constitutes a compromise to which all Members have consented within the meaning of the Delaware Act. To the extent that a Member returns funds to the Company, it has no claim against any other Member for those funds.

SECTION 14.03. Deferment; Distribution in Kind. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 14.02, but subject to the order of priorities set forth therein, if upon dissolution of the Company the liquidating trustee determines that an immediate sale of part or all of the Company's assets would be impractical or would cause undue loss (or would otherwise not be beneficial) to the Members, the liquidating trustee may, in the liquidating trustee's sole discretion, defer for a reasonable time the liquidation of any assets except those necessary to satisfy Company liabilities (other than loans to the Company by Members) and reserves. Subject to the order of priorities set forth in Section 14.02, the liquidating trustee may, in the liquidating trustee's sole discretion, distribute to the Members, in lieu of cash, either (a) all or any portion of such remaining Company assets in-kind in accordance with the provisions of Section 14.02(c), (b) as tenants in common and in accordance with the provisions of Section 14.02(c), undivided interests in all or any portion of such Company assets or (c) a combination of the foregoing. Any such Distributions in kind shall be subject to (y) such conditions relating to the disposition and management of such assets as the liquidating trustee deems reasonable and equitable, and (z) the terms and conditions of any agreements governing such assets (or the operation thereof or the holders thereof) at such time. Any Company assets distributed in kind will first be written up or down to their Fair Market Value, thus creating Profit or Loss (if any), which shall be allocated in accordance with Article V. The liquidating trustee shall determine the Fair Market Value of any property distributed in accordance with the valuation procedures set forth in Article XV.

SECTION 14.04. Certificate of Cancellation. On completion of the distribution of Company assets as provided herein, the Company is terminated (and the Company shall not be terminated prior to such time), and the Manager shall file or cause to be filed a certificate of cancellation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, cancel any other filings made pursuant to this Agreement that are or should be canceled and take such other actions as may be necessary to terminate the Company. The Company shall be deemed to continue in existence for all purposes of this Agreement until it is terminated pursuant to this Section 14.04.

SECTION 14.05. Reasonable Time for Winding Up. A reasonable time shall be allowed for the orderly winding up of the business and affairs of the Company and the liquidation of its assets pursuant to Sections 14.02 and 14.03 in order to minimize any losses otherwise attendant upon such winding up.

SECTION 14.06. Return of Capital. The liquidating trustee shall not be personally liable for the return of Capital Contributions or any portion thereof to the Members (it being understood that any such return shall be made solely from Company assets).

ARTICLE XV

Valuation

SECTION 15.01. Determination. “Fair Market Value” of a specific Company asset will mean the amount which the Company would receive in an all-cash sale of such asset in an arms-length transaction with a willing, unaffiliated third party, with neither party having any compulsion to buy or sell, consummated on the day immediately preceding the date on which the event occurred which necessitated the determination of the Fair Market Value (and after giving effect to any transfer taxes payable in connection with such sale), as such amount is determined by the Manager (or, if pursuant to Section 14.02, the liquidating trustee) in its good faith judgment using all factors, information and data it deems to be pertinent.

SECTION 15.02. Dispute Resolution. If any Member or Members dispute the accuracy of any determination of Fair Market Value in accordance with Section 15.01, and the Manager (or, if pursuant to Section 14.02, the liquidating trustee) and such Member(s) are unable to agree on the determination of the Fair Market Value of any asset of the Company, the Manager (or, if pursuant to Section 14.02, the liquidation trustee) and such Member(s) shall each select a nationally recognized investment banking firm experienced in valuing securities of closely-held companies such as the Company in the Company’s industry (the “Appraisers”), who shall each determine the Fair Market Value of the asset or the Company (as applicable) in accordance with the provisions of Section 15.01. The Appraisers shall be instructed to give written notice of their determination of the Fair Market Value of the asset or the Company (as applicable) within thirty (30) days of their appointment as Appraisers. If Fair Market Value as determined by an Appraiser is higher than Fair Market Value as determined by the other Appraiser by ten percent (10%) or more, and the Manager (or, if pursuant to Section 14.02, the liquidation trustee) and such Member(s) do not otherwise agree on a Fair Market Value, the original Appraisers shall designate a third Appraiser meeting the same criteria used to select the original two Appraisers, and such third Appraiser shall determine the Fair Market Value of such asset or the Company (as applicable) within thirty (30) days of its appointment as an Appraiser, provided that such Appraiser shall not determine the Fair Market Value of such asset or the Company (as applicable) to be lower or higher than the determinations made by the original two Appraisers. If Fair Market Value as determined by an Appraiser is within ten percent (10%) of the Fair Market Value as determined by the other Appraiser (but not identical), and the Manager (or, if pursuant to Section 14.02, the liquidating trustee) and such Member(s) do not otherwise agree on a Fair Market Value, the Manager (or, if pursuant to Section 14.02, the liquidating trustee) shall select the Fair Market Value of one of the Appraisers. The fees and expenses of the Appraisers shall be borne by the Company.

ARTICLE XVI

General Provisions

SECTION 16.01. Power of Attorney. (a) Each Member who is an individual hereby constitutes and appoints the Manager (or the liquidating trustee, if applicable) with full power of substitution, as his or her true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact, with full power and authority in his, her or its name, place and stead, to the same extent and with the same effect as such Member would or could do under applicable Law, to:

(i) execute, swear to, acknowledge, deliver, file and record in the appropriate public offices (A) this Agreement, all certificates and other instruments and all amendments thereof which the Manager deems appropriate or necessary to form, qualify, or continue the qualification of, the Company as a limited liability company in the State of Delaware and in all other jurisdictions in which the Company may conduct business or own property; (B) all instruments which the Manager deems appropriate or necessary to reflect any amendment, change, modification or restatement of this Agreement in accordance with its terms; (C) all conveyances and other instruments or documents which the Manager deems appropriate or necessary to reflect the dissolution and liquidation of the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, including a certificate of cancellation; and (D) all instruments relating to the admission, resignation or substitution of any Member pursuant to Article XII or XIII; and

(ii) sign, execute, swear to and acknowledge all ballots, consents, approvals, waivers, certificates and other instruments appropriate or necessary, in the reasonable judgment of the Manager, to evidence, confirm or ratify any vote, consent, approval, agreement or other action which is made or given by the Members hereunder or is consistent with the terms of this Agreement, in the reasonable judgment of the Manager, necessary or appropriate to effectuate the terms of this Agreement.

(b) The foregoing power of attorney is irrevocable and coupled with an interest, and shall survive the death, disability, incapacity, dissolution, bankruptcy, insolvency or termination of any Member who is an individual and the transfer of all or any portion of his, her or its Company Interest and shall extend to such Member's heirs, successors, permitted assigns and personal representatives.

SECTION 16.02. Confidentiality. (a) The Manager and each of the Members agree to hold the Company's Confidential Information in confidence and may not use such information except (i) in furtherance of the business of the Company, (ii) as reasonably necessary for compliance with applicable Law, including compliance with disclosure requirements under the Securities Act and the Exchange Act and compliance with the listing requirements of any securities exchange on which the Class A Common Stock is traded, and securities laws of other jurisdictions or (iii) as otherwise authorized separately in writing by the Manager. "Confidential Information" as used herein includes, but is not limited to, ideas, financial product structuring, business strategies, innovations and materials, all aspects of the Company's business plan, proposed operation and products, corporate structure, financial and organizational information, analyses, proposed partners, employees and their identities, equity ownership, the methods and means by which the Company plans to conduct its business, all trade secrets, trademarks, tradenames and all intellectual property associated with the Company's business. With respect to the Manager and each Member, Confidential Information does not include information or material that: (a) is rightfully in the possession of the Manager or each Member at the time of disclosure by the Company; (b) before or after it has been disclosed to the Manager or each Member by the Company, becomes part of public knowledge, not as a result of any action or inaction of the Manager or such Member, respectively, in violation of this Agreement; (c) is approved for release by written authorization of the Manager or the Chief Executive Officer or the President of the Company; (d) is disclosed to the Manager or such Member or their representatives by a third party not, to the knowledge of the Manager or such Member, respectively, in violation of any obligation of confidentiality owed to the Company with respect to such information; or (e) is or becomes independently developed by the Manager or such Member or their respective representatives without use or reference to the Confidential Information.

(b) Each of the Members may disclose Confidential Information to its Subsidiaries, Affiliates, partners, members, directors, managers, officers, employees, counsel, advisers, consultants, outside contractors and other agents, on the condition that such Persons keep the Confidential Information confidential to the same extent as such disclosing party is required to keep the Confidential Information confidential, solely to the extent it is reasonably necessary or appropriate to fulfill its obligations or to exercise its rights under this Agreement; provided that the disclosing party shall remain liable with respect to any breach of this Section 16.02 by any such Person.

(c) Notwithstanding anything in Section 16.02(a) or Section 16.02(b) to the contrary, each of the Members may disclose Confidential Information (i) to the extent that such party is legally compelled (by oral questions, interrogatories, request for information or documents, subpoena, civil investigative demand or similar process) to disclose any of the Confidential Information, for purposes of reporting to its stockholders and direct and indirect equity holders the performance of the Company and its Subsidiaries and for purposes of including applicable information in its financial statements to the extent required by applicable Law or applicable accounting standards; or (ii) to any bona fide prospective purchaser of the equity or assets of a Member, or the Common Units held by such Member, or a prospective merger partner of such Member (provided, that (x) such Persons will be informed by such Member of the confidential nature of such information and shall agree in writing to keep such information confidential in accordance with the contents of this Agreement, and (y) each Member will be liable for any breaches of this Section 16.02 by any such Persons). Nothing in this Agreement shall prevent a Member from (A) filing and, as provided for under Section 21F of the Exchange Act, maintaining the confidentiality of, a claim with the SEC; (B) providing Confidential Information to the SEC, or providing the SEC with information that would otherwise violate any part of this Agreement, to the extent permitted by Section 21F of the Exchange Act; (C) cooperating, participating or assisting in an SEC investigation or proceeding without notifying the Company or any of its Affiliates; or (D) receiving a monetary award as set forth in Section 21F of the Exchange Act. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, nothing in this Section 16.02 will restrict in any manner the ability of the Corporation to comply with its disclosure obligations under Law or the listing requirements of any securities exchange on which the Class A Common Stock is traded, and the extent to which any Confidential Information is necessary or desirable to disclose.

SECTION 16.03. Amendments. (a) Any amendment or modification of this Agreement shall require the affirmative consent or approval of the Majority Members; provided, however, that any such amendment that: (i) changes the rights, powers or duties of the Members holding a class or series of Units so as to affect such rights, powers or duties adversely shall also require the affirmative consent or approval of the Members holding a majority of the outstanding Units of such class or series; (ii) changes to this Section 16.03(a) shall also require the affirmative consent or approval of the Manager and each Member; and (iii) changes any provision that expressly requires the approval, consent or action of a Person or Persons so as to affect such Person or Persons adversely shall also require the affirmative consent or approval of such Person or Persons.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Manager may amend or modify any provision of this Agreement or the Schedules of Members pursuant to Sections 3.01(d), 3.02(c)(iii), 3.02(f), 3.09 and 6.01(c) without further act, vote, approval or consent of the Members or any other Person notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement or, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Delaware Act or other applicable Law, so long as such amendment or modification does not change the powers, preferences or relative, participating, optional, special or other rights, if any, or the qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the Members holding a class or series of Units so as to affect them adversely.

SECTION 16.04. Title to Company Assets. Company assets shall be deemed to be owned by the Company as an entity, and no Member, individually or collectively, shall have any ownership interest in such Company assets or any portion thereof. The Company shall hold title to all of its property in the name of the Company and not in the name of any Member. All Company assets shall be recorded as the property of the Company on its books and records, irrespective of the name in which legal title to such Company assets is held. The Company's credit and assets shall be used solely for the benefit of the Company, and no asset of the Company shall be transferred or encumbered for, or in payment of, any individual obligation of any Member.

SECTION 16.05. Addresses and Notices. Any notice provided for in this Agreement will be in writing and will be either personally delivered, or sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, or sent by reputable overnight courier service (charges prepaid), or sent by e-mail to the Company at the address set forth below and to any other recipient and to any Member at such address as indicated by the Company's records, or at such address or to the attention of such other person as the recipient party has specified by prior written notice to the sending party. SECTION 16.06. Binding Effect; Intended Beneficiaries. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their heirs, executors, administrators, successors, legal representatives and permitted assigns.

SECTION 16.07. Creditors. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, none of the provisions of this Agreement shall be for the benefit of or enforceable by any creditors of the Company or any of its Affiliates, and no creditor who makes a loan to the Company or any of its Affiliates may have or acquire (except pursuant to the terms of a separate agreement executed by the Company in favor of such creditor) at any time as a result of making the loan any direct or indirect interest in Company Profits, Losses, Distributions, capital or property other than as a secured creditor.

SECTION 16.08. Waiver. No failure by any party to insist upon the strict performance of any covenant, duty, agreement or condition of this Agreement or to exercise any right or remedy consequent upon a breach thereof shall constitute a waiver of any such breach or any other covenant, duty, agreement or condition.

SECTION 16.09. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in separate counterparts, each of which will be an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same agreement binding on all the parties hereto.

SECTION 16.10. Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of law rules or provisions (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware. Any dispute relating hereto shall be heard in the state or federal courts of the State of Delaware, and the parties agree to jurisdiction and venue therein.

SECTION 16.11. Severability. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement will be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable Law, but if any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect under any applicable Law or rule in any jurisdiction, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability will not affect any other provision or the effectiveness or validity of any provision in any other jurisdiction, and this Agreement will be reformed, construed and enforced in such jurisdiction as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein.

SECTION 16.12. Further Action. The parties shall execute and deliver all documents, provide all information and take or refrain from taking such actions as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to achieve the purposes of this Agreement.

SECTION 16.13. Delivery by Electronic Transmission. This Agreement and any signed agreement or instrument entered into in connection with this Agreement or contemplated hereby, and any amendments hereto or thereto, to the extent signed and delivered by means of an electronic transmission, including by a facsimile machine or via email, shall be treated in all manner and respects as an original agreement or instrument and shall be considered to have the same binding legal effect as if it were the original signed version thereof delivered in person. At the request of any party hereto or to any such agreement or instrument, each other party hereto or thereto shall re-execute original forms thereof and deliver them to all other parties. No party hereto or to any such agreement or instrument shall raise the use of electronic transmission by a facsimile machine or via email to deliver a signature or the fact that any signature or agreement or instrument was transmitted or communicated through such electronic transmission as a defense to the formation of a contract and each such party forever waives any such defense.

SECTION 16.14. Right of Offset. Whenever the Company is to pay any sum (other than pursuant to Article IV) to any Member, any amounts that such Member owes to the Company which are not the subject of a good faith dispute may be deducted from that sum before payment. For the avoidance of doubt, the distribution of Units to the Corporation shall not be subject to this Section 16.14.

SECTION 16.15. Effectiveness. This Agreement shall be effective upon the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”).

SECTION 16.16. Entire Agreement. This Agreement and those documents expressly referred to herein embody the complete agreement and understanding among the parties and supersede and preempt any prior understandings, agreements or representations by or among the parties, written or oral, which may have related to the subject matter hereof in any way. For the avoidance of doubt, the Original Agreement, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time is superseded by this Agreement as of Effective Time and shall be of no further force and effect thereafter.

SECTION 16.17. Remedies. Each Member shall have all rights and remedies set forth in this Agreement and all rights and remedies which such Person has been granted at any time under any other agreement or contract and all of the rights which such Person has under any Law. Any Person having any rights under any provision of this Agreement or any other agreements contemplated hereby shall be entitled to enforce such rights specifically (without posting a bond or other security), to recover damages by reason of any breach of any provision of this Agreement and to exercise all other rights granted by Law.

SECTION 16.18. Descriptive Headings; Interpretation. The descriptive headings of this Agreement are inserted for convenience only and do not constitute a substantive part of this Agreement. Whenever required by the context, any pronoun used in this Agreement shall include the corresponding masculine, feminine or neuter forms, and the singular form of nouns, pronouns and verbs shall include the plural and vice versa. The use of the word “including” in this Agreement shall be by way of example rather than by limitation and shall mean, “including, without limitation”. Reference to any agreement, document or instrument means such agreement, document or instrument as amended or otherwise modified from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof, and if applicable hereof. Without limiting the generality of the immediately preceding sentence, no amendment or other modification to any agreement, document or instrument that requires the consent of any Person pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or any other agreement will be given effect hereunder unless such Person has consented in writing to such amendment or modification. Wherever required by the context, references to a Fiscal Year shall refer to a portion thereof. The use of the words “or,” “either” and “any” shall not be exclusive. The parties hereto have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement. In the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as if drafted jointly by the parties hereto, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of the authorship of any of the provisions of this Agreement. Wherever a conflict exists between this Agreement and any other agreement, this Agreement shall control but solely to the extent of such conflict.

SECTION 16.19. LTIP Agreement Conflicts. Except as otherwise provided in Article X and Section 16.03, in the event of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement relating to LTIP Units and any applicable LTIP Agreement, the relevant terms of the LTIP Agreement shall take precedence.

On the Closing Date, the Borrower shall pay the Backup Servicer Commitment Fee to the Backup Servicer.

(L) Payment of Fees. Except for the Commitment Fee, the fees (the "Fees") set forth in this Section 2.4 shall be payable on each Monthly Payment Date by the Borrower from available Collections as set forth and in the order of priority established pursuant to Section 2.5.

Section 2.5 Note; Repayment of the Advances.

(A) The Loan made by the Lenders shall be evidenced by one or more Notes each executed by the Borrower payable by the Borrower, solely in respect of its Allocated Loan Amount and other Obligations, to the Lenders in a maximum aggregate principal face amount equal to the Loan and delivered to the Collateral Agent pursuant to Article III. (B) On each Monthly Payment Date, the Paying Agent shall apply all Receipts deposited or transferred to each Collection Account during the related Collection Period (the “Distributable Collections”) to the Obligations of the Borrower and to fund the Cash Trap Reserve Account in the following order of priority (such allocations to be made by the Paying Agent based on information contained in the Monthly Report relating to such Collection Period, subject to the Monthly Report Review Procedure by the Calculation Agent):

(i) first, (a) to the Servicer, the amount of any unreimbursed Servicing Advances and Servicer Advance Interest, then (b) to the payment of any Monthly Operating Expenses related to the Borrower’s Collections which are due and payable at such time in respect of the preceding Collection Period, and any Monthly Operating Expenses which are accrued and unpaid for any other Collection Periods (excluding any payments in respect of any indemnification obligations or Additional Servicing Fees) and to the Paying Agent, the Paying Agent Fees of the Borrower, to the Collateral Agent, Collateral Agent Fees of the Borrower, to the Calculation Agent, Calculation Agent Fees of the Borrower, to the Backup Servicer, the Backup Servicing Fee, and to the Administrative Agent, the Administrative Agent Fees of the Borrower, including, with respect to each such party, the amount of any indemnification obligations of the Loan Parties hereunder due to any such party, as well as any other expenses which are due and payable to any such party at such time;

(v) fifth, ratably, in the event that the aggregate outstanding principal amount of all the Borrower's Advances shall exceed the Borrower's Borrowing Base, to the Lenders, the payment and reduction of the outstanding principal amount of such Advances in an amount equal to such excess;

(vi) sixth, ratably, in respect of all Mandatory Prepayments, to the Lenders, for prepayment and reduction of the outstanding principal amount of the Borrower's Advances and to the Servicer, the remaining Servicing Fee due and owing;

(vii) seventh, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of a Cash Trap Event, 100% of Distributable Collections remaining in the Collection Account of the Borrower, up to the aggregate amount of all Obligations then due from the Borrower, shall be deposited in the Cash Trap Reserve Account;

(viii) eighth, to the Servicer, any amounts owed by the Borrower to the Servicer in respect of indemnification obligations and the Management Fee;

(ix) ninth, any Distributable Collections remaining in the Collection Account after giving effect to the preceding distributions in this Section 2.5(B) shall be distributed to the Parent; provided, that there is no Potential Default in the payment of the current Obligations of the Borrower which could be cured by the application of such funds. The Borrower may direct that a distribution be made to the Servicer, subject to the foregoing proviso.

Section 2.6 Payments.

(A) Date and Time of Payment. Two (2) Business Days prior to the applicable Monthly Payment Date, Servicer shall provide a statement of principal and interest required to be paid on the Loan on such Monthly Payment Date. The Borrower shall receive credit for payments on the Loan which are transferred to the account of the Paying Agent as provided below (i) on the day that such funds are received by the Paying Agent if such receipt occurs by 2:00 p.m. (New York time) on such day, or (ii) on the next succeeding Business Day after such funds are received by the Paying Agent if such receipt occurs after 2:00 p.m. (New York time). Whenever any payment to be made hereunder shall be stated to be due on a day that is not a Business Day, the payment may be made on the next succeeding Business Day.

(B) Manner of Payment; Application of Payments. The Borrower promises to pay all of the Obligations relating to the Borrower's Allocated Loan Amount as such amounts become due or are declared due pursuant to the terms of this Loan Agreement. All payments by the Borrower in respect of Obligations shall be made without deduction, defense, set off or counterclaim and in immediately available funds delivered to the Paying Agent by wire transfer to such accounts at such banks as the Paying Agent may from time to time designate. Payment shall be made in accordance with Section 2.5(B). The Paying Agent is instructed to, and hereby agrees to, pay over all payments so received by the Paying Agent on behalf of the Lenders to the Lenders, pro-rata, by wire transfer to such accounts at such banks as each Lender may from time to time designate, at least five (5) Business Days prior to the date of payment to such Lender, subject to Section 2.6(A); provided that all payments to be made to a Lender hereunder on any day will be deposited by the Paying Agent into the Aggregation Account and the Paying Agent will send the Lender a single wire from the Aggregation Account in respect of all such payments on such day.

Section 2.7 Maturity.

(A) Maturity Date. To the extent not sooner due and payable in accordance with the Loan Documents, the then outstanding principal balance of the Note, including all Advances, all accrued and unpaid interest thereon (and including interest through the end of the Interest Accrual Period then in effect), and any fees payable under Section 2.4 or otherwise, and all other Obligations shall be due and payable on the Maturity Date for the Note.

Section 2.8 Prepayment.

(A) Manner of Prepayment. The Borrower may prepay its Allocated Loan Amount in whole on any date (i) upon written notice to the Paying Agent and the Lenders, which notice shall be given at least two (2) Business Days prior to the proposed date of such prepayment, (ii) subject to the priority of payments set forth in Section 2.5(B) and (iii) upon payment of the applicable Yield Maintenance, if any; provided that in connection with a refinancing, this provision does not restrict a prepayment by the Borrower to less than all the Lenders. No Yield Maintenance is payable in connection with any prepayment that occurs in connection with Early Termination Fees; Loss Proceeds received as a result of any condemnation or casualty of a Site, an Amortization Event or any other Mandatory Prepayment. (B) Yield Maintenance. If any prepayment of all or any portion of the Borrower's Allocated Loan Amount shall occur, then except as provided in clause (A) above, the Borrower shall pay the Yield Maintenance on the Allocated Loan Amount (or portion thereof) being prepaid to the Paying Agent on behalf of the Lenders together with such prepayment, as liquidated damages (which shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Paying Agent on behalf of the Lenders in connection with such prepayment) and compensation for costs incurred, and in addition to all other amounts due and owing to the Paying Agent on behalf of the Lenders.

Section 2.9 [Intentionally Omitted].

Section 2.10 Outstanding Balance. The balance on the Collateral Agent's books and records shall be presumptive evidence (absent manifest error) of the amounts owing to each Lender by the Borrower; provided that any failure to record any transaction affecting such balance or any error in so recording shall not limit or otherwise affect the Borrower's obligation to pay its Obligations.

Section 2.11 Reasonableness of Charges. The Borrower agrees that (i) the actual costs and damages that the Lenders would suffer by reason of an Event of Default (exclusive of the attorneys' fees and other costs incurred in connection with enforcement by the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent of Lenders' rights under the Loan Documents) or a prepayment would be difficult and needlessly expensive to calculate and establish, (ii) the amount of Yield Maintenance is reasonable, taking into consideration the circumstances known to the parties at this time, (iii) such Yield Maintenance, and the Lenders' reasonable attorneys' fees and other costs and expenses incurred in connection with enforcement by the Collateral Agent and the Lenders of their interests under the Loan Documents shall be due and payable as provided herein, and (iv) such Yield Maintenance, and the obligation to pay the Lenders' reasonable attorneys' fees and other enforcement costs do not, individually or collectively, constitute a penalty.

Section 2.12 Agents. The Borrower and its related Obligor expressly acknowledge and agree that the Collateral Agent Fees, Backup Servicing Fees (including the Servicing Fee when the Backup Servicer is acting as Successor Servicer), Calculation Agent Fees and Paying Agent Fees, and any other fees, costs and expenses, including Servicing Advances and Servicer Advance Interest, reimbursements and indemnifications to the extent incurred or payable hereunder or in connection with the making or administration of the Borrower's Allocated Loan Amount, any rating of the Borrower's Allocated Loan Amount, including rating agency fees, all other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, charges, costs and fees (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with the negotiation, documentation, closing, administration, servicing, enforcement, interpretation, and collection of the Borrower's Allocated Loan Amount, and in the preservation and protection of each agent's rights hereunder and thereunder (such right to reimbursements and indemnifications, the "Administrative Expenses"), shall be payable by the Borrower and its related Obligor and shall constitute a portion of the Obligations. The applicable agent shall use reasonable efforts to provide a reasonably detailed statement of Administrative Expenses for which the Borrower and its related Obligor are liable five (5) Business Days prior to the date when due; provided that failure to timely provide such statement shall not relieve the Borrower and its related Obligor from the obligation to pay all such Administrative Expenses. Without limitation, the Borrower and its related Obligor shall pay all costs and expenses, including without limitation reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by Administrative Agent, Backup Servicer (including in its role as Successor Servicer), Paying Agent, Calculation Agent, or Collateral Agent, in any case or proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code (or any law succeeding or replacing any of the same) with respect to the Borrower or any of its related Obligor. The Borrower shall cooperate with any effort to have the Loan rated by any rating agency.

Section 4.3 Financial Statements. All financial statements concerning the Borrower and its related Obligor which have been furnished by or on behalf of the Borrower to the Administrative Agent pursuant to this Loan Agreement present fairly in all material respects the financial condition of the Persons covered thereby.

Section 4.4 Indebtedness and Contingent Obligations. As of the Closing, such Obligor shall have no outstanding Indebtedness or Contingent Obligations other than the Obligations or any other Permitted Indebtedness.

Section 4.5 [Intentionally Omitted].

Section 4.6 [Intentionally Omitted].

Section 4.7 [Intentionally Omitted].

Section 4.8 [Intentionally Omitted].

Section 4.9 Litigation; Adverse Facts. There are no judgments outstanding against such Obligor, or affecting any of the Collateral or any property of such Obligor, nor is there any action, charge, claim, demand, suit, proceeding, petition, governmental investigation or arbitration now pending or, to such Obligor's Knowledge, threatened against such Obligor or any of the Collateral or any property of such Obligor that could, in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Change with respect to the Borrower.

Section 4.10 Payment of Taxes. All material federal, state and local tax returns and reports of such Obligor required to be filed have been timely filed (or such Obligor has timely filed for an extension and the applicable extension has not expired), and all material taxes, assessments, fees and other governmental charges (including any payments in lieu of taxes) upon such Person and upon its properties, assets, income and franchises which are due and payable have been paid except to the extent same are being contested in accordance with Section 5.3(B).

Section 4.11 Adverse Contracts. Except for the Loan Documents, such Obligor is not party to or bound by, nor is any property of such Person subject to or bound by, any contract or other agreement which restricts such Person's ability to conduct its business in the ordinary course as currently conducted that, either individually or in the aggregate, has a Material Adverse Change on such Obligor or could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Change on such Obligor.

Section 4.12 Performance of Agreements. No such Obligor is in default in the performance, observance or fulfillment of any of the obligations, covenants or conditions contained in any Contractual Obligation of such Obligor which could, in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Change, and no condition exists that, with the giving of notice or the lapse of time or both, would constitute such a default which could, in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Change.

Section 4.13 Governmental Regulation. No Obligor is subject to regulation under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the Federal Power Act or the Investment Company Act of 1940 or to any federal or state statute or regulation limiting its ability to incur indebtedness for borrowed money.

Section 4.14 Employee Benefit Plans and ERISA Affiliates. No Obligor maintains or contributes to, or has any obligation (including a contingent obligation) under, or liability with respect to, any Employee Benefit Plan. No Obligor or any of their respective ERISA Affiliates has or will have any liability relating to ERISA that could result in a Lien on any Other Pledged Site and no Lien on the assets of such Obligor in favor of the Pension Benefit Guarantee Corporation established pursuant to Subtitle A of Title IV or ERISA (or any successor) or any Employee Benefit Plan has arisen during the six year period prior to the date on which this representation is made or deemed made.

Section 4.15 Broker's Fees. No broker's or finder's fee, commission or similar compensation will be payable by or pursuant to any contract or other obligation of such Obligor with respect to the making of the Loan or any of the other transactions contemplated hereby or by any of the Loan Documents as a result of any action taken by any Loan Party. Such Obligor shall indemnify, defend, protect, pay and hold the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent and the Lenders harmless from any and all broker's or finder's fees claimed to be due in connection with the making of the Loan arising from the Borrower's and its related Obligor's actions.

Section 4.16 Solvency. No Obligor (a) has entered into the transactions contemplated hereby or by any Loan Document with the actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor and (b) such Obligor received reasonably equivalent value in exchange for its obligations under the Loan Documents. After giving effect to the Loan, the fair saleable value of such Obligor's assets exceed and will, immediately following the making of the Loan, exceed such Obligor's total liabilities, including, without limitation, subordinated, unliquidated, disputed and Contingent Obligations, but excluding its obligations under any guaranty executed by it which is part of the Loan Documents. The fair saleable value of such Obligor's assets is and will, immediately following the making of the Loan, be greater than the Obligor's probable liabilities, including the maximum amount of its Contingent Obligations on its debts as such debts become absolute and matured. Such Obligor's assets do not and, immediately following the making of the Loan will not, constitute unreasonably small capital to carry out its business as conducted or as proposed to be conducted. Such Obligor does not intend to, and does not believe that it will, incur Indebtedness and liabilities (including Contingent Obligations and other commitments) beyond its ability to pay such Indebtedness and liabilities as they mature (taking into account the timing and amounts of cash to be received by such Obligor and the amounts to be payable on or in respect of obligations of the Obligor).

Section 4.17 Disclosure. No financial statements or other information furnished to the Administrative Agent by or on behalf of the Borrower contains any untrue representation, warranty or statement of a material fact, or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained therein not misleading. No Loan Document or any other document, certificate or written statement for use in connection with the Loan and prepared by or on behalf of the Borrower, or any information provided by or on behalf of the Borrower and contained in, or used in preparation of, any document or certificate for use in connection with the Loan, contains any untrue representation, warranty or statement of a material fact, or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained therein not misleading. There is no fact known to the Borrower, or any of its related Obligor, or its Holding Company that has or is reasonably likely to cause a Material Adverse Change on the Borrower and that has not been disclosed in writing to the Administrative Agent by the Borrower.

Section 4.18 Use of Proceeds and Margin Security. The Borrower shall use the proceeds of its Advances only for the purposes set forth herein and consistent with all applicable laws, statutes, rules and regulations. No portion of the proceeds of such Advances shall be used by the Borrower or its related Obligor in any manner that might cause the borrowing or the application of such proceeds to violate Regulation T, Regulation U or Regulation X or any other regulation of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Section 4.19 Insurance. Set forth on Schedule 4.19 is a complete and accurate description of all policies of insurance for such Obligor that are in effect as of the Closing Date. the extent that the Borrower is primarily engaged, directly or through a wholly-owned subsidiary or subsidiaries, in a business or businesses other than that of investing, reinvesting, owning, holding or trading in securities), and (ii) does not hold itself out as engaging in, is not engaged in, and does not propose to engage in, any of the businesses or activities referred to in Section 3(a)(1) of the Act.

(B) For any calculation of the Borrowing Base, the Collateral of the Borrower included for the purposes of calculating Eligible Free Cash flow satisfies the Eligibility Criteria set forth in the Eligibility and Concentration Criteria Annex.

(C) The Cash Flow Tape with respect to the Borrower delivered to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent is accurate in all material respects.

(D) The stratifications provided in Schedule M with respect to the Borrower are accurate in all material respects.

The requirements of this Section 5.4 shall apply to any separate policies of insurance taken out by the Obligors concurrent in form or contributing in the event of loss with the Insurance Policies. Losses payable under any such property policies of insurance shall be payable to the Collateral Agent notwithstanding (1) any act, failure to act or negligence of the Obligors or their agents or employees, Collateral Agent or any other insured party which might, absent such agreement, result in a forfeiture or all or part of such insurance payment, other than the willful misconduct of the Collateral Agent knowingly in violation of the conditions of such policy, (2) the occupation or use of the Sites or any part thereof for purposes more hazardous than permitted by the terms of such policy, (3) any foreclosure or other action or proceeding taken pursuant to this Loan Agreement or (4) any change in title to or ownership of the Sites or any part thereof. Notwithstanding anything in this Loan Agreement to the contrary (other than as specifically provided in Sections 3.3, 3.4 and 4.1 of Annex A-4, which shall supersede the terms of this Section 5.9 as to the Contracts and Sites described therein), except during an Event of Default, the Borrower and its related Obligors shall be permitted to (A) make Non Material Modifications of existing Contracts or (B) modify, terminate or assign any Contract which the Borrower and its related Obligors reasonably deem necessary in accordance with prudent business practices, provided that (i) the Borrower and its related Obligors provide written notice to the

RESERVES

Section 6.1 Security Interest in Reserve; Other Matters Pertaining to Reserve. (A) The Borrower hereby pledges, assigns and grants to the Collateral Agent a security interest in and to all of the Borrower's right, title and interest in and to the Account Collateral, including the Reserve, as security for payment and performance of all of its Obligations hereunder and under the Note and the other Loan Documents. The Reserve constitutes Account Collateral and is subject to the security interest in favor of the Collateral Agent created herein and all provisions of this Loan Agreement and the other Loan Documents pertaining to Account Collateral.

(B) In addition to the rights and remedies provided in Article VII and elsewhere herein, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default with respect to the Borrower, Collateral Agent shall have all rights and remedies pertaining to the Reserve and other Account Collateral of the Borrower as are provided for in any of the Loan Documents or under any applicable law. Without limiting the foregoing, subject to Section 17.7, upon and at all times after the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default with respect to the Borrower, the Administrative Agent may (after payment of any amounts due hereunder pursuant to Section 2.5(B)(i) direct the Collateral Agent to use the Reserve and other Account Collateral (or any portion thereof) of the Borrower for any purpose with respect to the Borrower's Obligations, including but not limited to any combination of the following: (i) payment of any of the Obligations of the Borrower including Administrative Expenses pursuant to Section 7.2, provided, however, that such application of funds shall not cure or be deemed to cure any default; (ii) payment for the work or obligation for which such Reserve and other Account Collateral were reserved or were required to be reserved; and (iii) application of the Reserve and other Account Collateral in connection with the exercise of any and all rights and remedies in respect of the Borrower's Obligations available to the Collateral Agent, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders at law or in equity or under this Loan Agreement or pursuant to any of the other Loan Documents. Nothing contained in this Loan Agreement shall obligate the Administrative Agent or the Lenders to apply all or any portion of the funds contained in the Reserve and other Account Collateral during the continuance of an Event of Default to the payment of the Borrower's Obligations under the Loan or in any specific order of priority, except as provided in this Section.

(C) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Administrative Agent will direct the Collateral Agent to apply the Reserve with respect to the Borrower to the payment of (i) any amounts payable in respect of the Borrower under Section 2.4 or Section 2.5 and (ii) attributable and owing tax payments in respect of any Obligor certified by the Servicer.

Section 6.2 Funds Deposited with Agent.

(A) Interest, Offsets. Except only as expressly provided otherwise herein, all funds of the Obligors which are deposited in the Collection Account or held in the General Reserve Account, Escrow Account or Cash Trap Reserve Account hereunder shall be held in one or more Permitted Investments pursuant to the written direction of the Servicer; provided that after the occurrence of an Event of Default, if the Backup Servicer is acting as Successor Servicer, or if no such direction is provided, such funds shall be invested pursuant to the written direction of the Administrative Agent. All interest or dividends which accrue on amounts in the General Reserve Account, the Escrow Account and the Collection Account shall be taxable to the Borrower and, on each Payment Date, such interest and dividends accrued as of the close of business on the last day of the preceding calendar month (based on the valuation report furnished by the Paying Agent), shall be liquidated and the proceeds thereof shall be transferred from the General Reserve Account and each Collection Account to the Aggregation Account by the Paying Agent for transfer to the Servicer, on behalf of the Borrower (or to the Borrower directly, if the Backup Servicer is Successor Servicer) on such Payment Date. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, the amount of such interest or dividends accrued, or the proceeds thereof, shall be disregarded for purposes of the calculation of Debt Service Coverage Ratio, and for Sections 2.5(B)(iv), Section 3.2(A)(xi), Section 6.1(C) and Section 15.5. The amount of actual losses sustained on a liquidation of a Permitted Investment shall be deposited by the Borrower into its Collection Account (with regard to losses sustained in such Collection Account) or the General Reserve Account (with regard to losses sustained therein) no later than three (3) Business Days following such liquidation. Additional provisions pertaining to investments are set forth in Article VII. After repayment of all of the Obligations of the Borrower, all funds held in the Reserve of the Borrower will be promptly returned to, or as directed by, the Borrower. Neither the Collection Account Bank nor the bank where the General Reserve Account is held (the “Reserve Bank”) nor the Escrow Account shall have any obligation to invest and/or reinvest any cash deposited with the Collection Account Bank or the Reserve Bank or the Escrow Account Bank or any other moneys held by either pursuant to this Loan Agreement in the absence of timely and specific written, if the Backup Servicer is acting as Successor Servicer, investment direction from the Servicer; provided that after the occurrence of an Event of Default or if no such direction is provided, the Collection Account Bank, the Reserve Bank and the Escrow Account Bank shall invest such funds pursuant to the written direction of the Administrative Agent. In no event shall the Collection Account Bank, the Reserve Bank or the Escrow Account Bank be liable for the selection of investments or for investment losses incurred thereon. Neither the Collection Account Bank, the Reserve Bank, nor the Escrow Account Bank shall have any liability in respect of losses incurred as a result of the liquidation of any investment prior to its stated maturity or the failure of the Servicer or the Administrative Agent, as applicable, to provide timely written investment direction.

(B) Funding at the initial Advance. The Borrower and its related Obligors shall deposit with Collateral Agent the amounts necessary to fund its Reserve as set forth below. Deposits into such Reserve may occur by deduction from the proceeds of the Installments on the date of the initial Advance if the Collateral Agent receives written direction from the Borrower to do so. Notwithstanding such deductions, if any, the initial Advance shall be deemed for all purposes to be fully disbursed at Closing and any subsequent Installment of the Loan shall be deemed for all purposes to be fully disbursed when made to the Escrow Agent and, if applicable, to the Reserve. On the date of the initial Advance or Advances, the General Reserve Account shall be funded in the amount of $2,600,000 in aggregate for the Borrower.

Section 6.3 Cash Trap Reserve. Upon the commencement of an Amortization Event, the Paying Agent, at the written direction of the Servicer, will apply any amounts in the Cash Trap Reserve Account on the next Due Date as a Mandatory Prepayment of principal, provided that all Servicing Advances and Servicer Advance Interest and any other amounts payable under 2.5(B)(i) shall be repaid first. Provided that no Event of Default exists and the Servicer determines that no Cash Trap Event is then occurring, any funds remaining in the Cash Trap Reserve Account after payments of any amounts due under Section 2.5(B) shall be released to the Borrower. Any determinations made by the Servicer as to the existence of a Cash Trap Event shall be made by it in its reasonable good faith determination.

(R) Servicing Termination Event. A Servicing Termination Event shall occur; or

(S) Ground Lease. Any default by the Borrower or any related Obligor beyond any applicable grace period shall occur under any Ground Lease, where such default is reasonably likely to cause a Material Adverse Change with respect to the Borrower and the Borrower or related Obligor has not effectuated a Release of such affected Site within thirty (30) days of the expiration of such grace period or, subject to Annex A-4 as applicable, any actual or attempted surrender, termination, modification or amendment of any Ground Lease without Administrative Agent's prior written consent; or

(T) Easements. Any default by the Borrower or any related Obligor beyond any applicable grace period shall occur under any Easement, where such default is reasonably likely to cause a Material Adverse Change with respect to the Borrower and such Obligors have not effectuated a Release of such affected Site within thirty (30) days of the expiration of such grace period or, subject to Annex A-4 as applicable, any actual or attempted surrender, termination, modification or amendment of any Easement without Administrative Agent's prior written consent.

If more than one of the foregoing paragraphs shall describe the same condition or event, then Administrative Agent shall have the right to select which paragraph or paragraphs shall apply. In any such case, Administrative Agent shall have the right (but not the obligation) to designate the paragraph or paragraphs which provide for non-written notice (or for no notice) or for a shorter time to cure (or for no time to cure).

Section 8.2 Acceleration and Remedies.

(A) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default described in any of Subsections 8.1(F) or 8.1(G), the unpaid principal amount of and accrued interest and fees on the Loan and all other Obligations of the Borrower as to which such Event of Default relates shall automatically become immediately due and payable, without presentment, demand, protest, notice of intent to accelerate, notice of acceleration or other requirements of any kind, all of which are hereby expressly waived by the Obligors. Upon and at any time after the occurrence of any other Event of Default, subject to Section 17.7, at the option of Majority Lenders, which may be exercised with notice to the Collateral Agent but without demand to anyone, all of the Borrower's Allocated Loan Amount and all or any portion of the Borrower's other Obligations shall immediately become due and payable. The Administrative Agent shall give reasonable notice to the Backup Servicer (including as Successor Servicer) and the Collateral Agent of its determinations under this Section.

(B) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, subject to Section 17.7, at the option of the Majority Lenders, all or any one or more of the rights, powers, privileges and other remedies available to the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent against the Borrower and its Obligors under this Loan Agreement (including Article X and Annex A-3 hereto) or any of the other Loan Documents, or at law or in equity, may be exercised by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent at any time and from time to time, whether or not all or any of the Obligations shall be declared due and payable, and whether or not the Collateral Agent shall have commenced any foreclosure proceeding or other action for the enforcement of its rights and remedies under any of the Loan Documents with respect to the Borrower's Collateral. Any such actions taken by the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent shall be cumulative and concurrent and may be pursued independently, singly, successively, together or otherwise, at such time and in such order as the Administrative Agent may determine in its sole discretion, to the fullest extent permitted by law, without impairing or otherwise affecting the other rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent and/or the Collateral Agent permitted by law, equity or contract or as set forth herein or in the other Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if an Event of Default is continuing with respect to the Borrower (i) to the fullest extent permitted by law, neither the Administrative Agent nor the Collateral Agent shall be subject to any "one action" or "election of remedies" law or rule, and (ii) all liens and other rights, remedies or privileges provided to the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent shall remain in full force and effect until the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent has exhausted all of their remedies against the Borrower's Sites, if any, Contracts and the Mortgages, if any, have been foreclosed, sold and/or otherwise realized upon in satisfaction of the Borrower's Obligations or such Obligations have been paid in full. For the avoidance of doubt, and notwithstanding anything contained herein or in Annex A-4 to the contrary, the Collateral Agent shall only perform its powers and/or other remedies contained in this Section 8.2(B) and Annex A-4 at the written direction of the Administrative Agent (acting pursuant to the written direction of the Majority Lenders) and shall be entitled to request indemnity satisfactory to it against any risk or liability related to its exercise of such power or remedy.

(C) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, subject to Section 17.7, the Collateral Agent shall, at the direction of the Administrative Agent, have the right from time to time to partially foreclose the Mortgages on the Borrower's Sites in any manner and for any amounts secured by such Mortgages then due and payable as directed by the Administrative Agent including, without limitation, the following circumstances: (i) in the event the Borrower defaults beyond any applicable grace period in the payment of one or more scheduled payments of principal and interest, the Collateral Agent may foreclose such Mortgage to recover such delinquent payments, or (ii) in the event the Collateral Agent at the direction of the Administrative Agent elects to accelerate less than the entire outstanding principal balance of the Advances made to the Borrower, the Collateral Agent may foreclose any the Borrower's Mortgage to recover so much of the principal balance of the Loan as the Administrative Agent may accelerate and such other sums secured by the Mortgage as the Administrative Agent may elect. Notwithstanding one or more partial foreclosures, the Site shall remain subject to the Mortgage to secure payment of sums secured by the Mortgage and not previously recovered.

(D) During the continuance of an Event of Default, subject to Section 17.7, Collateral Agent shall have the right from time to time to sever the Note and the other Loan Documents into one or more separate notes, mortgages and other security documents in such denominations as the Administrative Agent, shall direct for purposes of evidencing and enforcing its rights and remedies provided hereunder. The Obligors shall execute and deliver to the Collateral Agent from time to time, within ten (10) days after the request of the Administrative Agent, a severance agreement and such other documents as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably request in order to effect the severance described in the preceding sentence, all in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent. The Obligors hereby absolutely and irrevocably appoint the Administrative Agent as their true and lawful attorney-in-fact, coupled with an interest, in their name and stead to make and execute all documents reasonably necessary to effect the aforesaid severance if the Obligors fail to do so within ten (10) days of the Collateral Agent's or Administrative Agent's written request, the Obligors ratifying all that their said attorney-in-fact shall do by virtue thereof.

(E) Any amounts recovered from the Sites, Contracts or any other Collateral for the Loan of the Borrower after an Event of Default with respect to the Borrower shall be applied by the Paying Agent, pursuant to Section 7.2.

(F) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, all rights of each related Obligor and each related Holding Company to exercise the voting and other consensual rights it would otherwise be entitled to exercise in or related to the Capital Stock of any Obligor which it owns, directly or indirectly, shall immediately cease, and all such rights shall thereupon become vested in the Collateral Agent, which shall have the sole right to exercise such voting and other consensual rights.

(G) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, all rights of each related Obligor and each related Holding Company to receive Distributions which it would otherwise be authorized to receive and retain pursuant to or related to the Capital Stock of any Obligor which it owns, directly or indirectly, shall immediately cease and all such rights shall thereupon become vested in the Collateral Agent, which shall have the sole right to receive and hold such Distributions as Pledged Collateral.

(H) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Borrower, its related Obligors and its Holding Company agree that the Collateral Agent may, at any time and from time to time, subject to Section 17.7, cause such Obligor or Holding Company to distribute any cash proceeds resulting from the enforcement of rights exercised by the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Lenders on the Collateral then held by such Obligor or Holding Company, or any other cash of such Obligor, to the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Lenders to satisfy the Borrower's Obligations by (i) submitting a notice to the applicable bank in respect of the applicable bank account where such proceeds are required to be held pursuant to the operating agreement of such Obligor that the Collateral Agent is exercising its rights as secured party in such bank account to make such distribution, such notice to be in the form as the Administrative Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, may determine or (ii) such other methods as the Administrative Agent shall determine in its sole and absolute discretion.

(I) [Intentionally Omitted].

(J) [Intentionally Omitted].

(K) The rights, powers and remedies of the Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent under this Loan Agreement shall be cumulative and not exclusive of any other right, power or remedy which the Collateral Agent and Administrative Agent may have against the Obligors pursuant to this Loan Agreement or the other Loan Documents, or existing at law or in equity or otherwise. The Collateral Agent's and Administrative Agent's rights, powers and remedies may be pursued singly, concurrently or otherwise, at such time and in such order as either of the agents may determine in their sole discretion. No delay or omission to exercise any remedy, right or power accruing upon an Event of Default shall impair any such remedy, right or power or shall be construed as a waiver thereof, but any such remedy, right or power may be exercised from time to time and as often as may be deemed expedient. A waiver of one Default or Event of Default with respect to any Obligors shall not be construed to be a waiver of any subsequent Default or Event of Default by any Obligor or to impair any remedy, right or power consequent thereon.

Section 8.3 Performance by the Administrative Agent. (A) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, if any of the Obligor shall fail to perform, or cause to be performed, any material covenant, duty or agreement contained in any of the Loan Documents (subject to applicable notice and cure periods), the Administrative Agent may perform or attempt to perform such covenant, duty or agreement on behalf of such Obligor including causing the obligations of any such Obligor to be satisfied with the proceeds of any Reserve of the Borrower. In such event, such Obligor shall, at the request of Administrative Agent, promptly pay to Administrative Agent, or reimburse, as applicable, the applicable Reserve, any actual amount reasonably expended or disbursed by Administrative Agent in such performance or attempted performance, together with interest thereon at the Default Rate (including reimbursement of any amount from such Reserve), from the date of such expenditure or disbursement, until paid. Any amounts advanced or expended by Administrative Agent to perform or attempt to perform any such matter shall be added to and included within the indebtedness evidenced by the Note and shall be secured by all of the Collateral securing the Obligations of the related Borrower. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is expressly agreed that Administrative Agent shall not have any liability or responsibility for the performance of any obligation of the Obligor under this Loan Agreement or any other Loan Document, and it is further expressly agreed that no such performance by Administrative Agent shall cure any Event of Default hereunder.

(B) The Administrative Agent and the Lenders may cease or suspend any and all performance required of the Administrative Agent or the Lenders to the Loan Parties, as the case may be, under the Loan Documents upon and at any time after the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default.

Section 8.4 Evidence of Compliance. Promptly following request by the Administrative Agent, each Obligor shall provide such documents and instruments as shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent to evidence compliance with any material provision of the Loan Documents applicable to the Obligor.

PLEDGE OF OTHER COMPANY COLLATERAL

Section 10.1 Grant of Security Interest/UCC Collateral. Borrower and each of its related Obligors hereby pledges, assigns and grants to the Collateral Agent to secure the Borrower's Advances and the Borrower's other Obligations, a security interest in and to all of the Borrower's and Obligor's assets, fixtures and personal property including, but not limited to, all (i) equipment in all of its forms, now or hereafter existing, all parts thereof and all accessions thereto, including but not limited to machinery, towers, satellite receivers, antennas, headend electronics, furniture, motor vehicles, aircraft and rolling stock, (ii) of the Borrower's and Obligor's fixtures now existing or hereafter acquired, all substitutes and replacements therefor, all accessions and attachments thereto, and all tools, parts and equipment now or hereafter added

The Other Company Collateral is subject to the security interest in favor of the Collateral Agent created herein and all provisions of this Loan Agreement and the other Loan Documents. The Borrower and each other Obligor hereby authorizes the Collateral Agent and the Administrative Agent (without obligation) to file such financing statements as may be necessary to perfect the Collateral Agent's interest in the Other Company Collateral. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default of the Borrower, the Collateral Agent shall have all rights and remedies pertaining to the Other Company Collateral of the Borrower and its related Obligors as are provided for in any of the Loan Documents or under any applicable law including, without limitation, the Collateral Agent's rights of enforcement with respect to the Other Company Collateral or any part thereof, exercising its rights of enforcement with respect to the Other Company Collateral or any part thereof under the UCC as amended (or under the UCC in force in any other jurisdiction to the extent the same is applicable law) and in conjunction with, in addition to, or in substitution for, such rights and remedies of the following:

(A) Collateral Agent may enter upon the Borrower's or Obligor's premises to take possession of, assemble and collect the Other Company Collateral or to render it unusable.

(B) Collateral Agent may require the Borrower or Obligor to assemble the Other Company Collateral and make it available at a place Collateral Agent designates which is mutually convenient to allow Collateral Agent to take possession or dispose of the Other Company Collateral.

(C) Written notice mailed to the Borrower or such Obligor as provided herein at least ten (10) days prior to the date of public sale of the Other Company Collateral or prior to the date after which private sale of the Other Company Collateral will be made shall constitute reasonable notice.

(D) In the event of a foreclosure sale, the Other Company Collateral and the other Sites may, at the option of the Collateral Agent, be sold as a whole.

(E) It shall not be necessary that the Collateral Agent take possession of the Other Company Collateral or any part thereof prior to the time that any sale pursuant to the provisions of this section is conducted and it shall not be necessary that the Other Company Collateral or any part thereof be present at the location of such sale.

(F) Prior to application of proceeds of disposition of the Other Company Collateral to the Obligations of the Borrower, such proceeds shall be applied to the reasonable expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale or lease, selling, leasing and the like and the reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses incurred by the Collateral Agent.

ARTICLE XI

RESTRICTIONS ON LIENS, TRANSFERS; ASSUMABILITY; RELEASE OF PROPERTIES

Section 11.1 Restrictions on Transfer and Encumbrance. Except as expressly permitted under this Article XI or the applicable Annex regarding transfers of Sites and Contracts among the Obligors related the Borrower (provided that appropriate amendments to the Loan Documents are delivered in connection with such transfer as are necessary to continue the Collateral Agent's first priority perfected security interest in the Collateral), neither Borrower nor any of its Obligors shall cause or suffer to occur or exist, directly or indirectly, voluntarily or involuntarily, by operation of law or otherwise, any sale, transfer, mortgage, pledge, Lien or encumbrance (other than the Permitted Encumbrances) of (i) all or any part of its Sites or Contracts or any interest therein (except in connection with a termination permitted pursuant to Annex A-4 as applicable), or (ii) (except for transfer among the Borrower and its Obligors, or mergers among its Obligors, in each case, with consent of the Administrative Agent not to be unreasonably withheld) any direct or indirect ownership or beneficial interest in any Obligor, irrespective of the number of tiers of ownership without the Administrative Agent's prior written consent, which may be granted or withheld in its sole and absolute discretion. The Borrower agrees that Parent shall not transfer ownership of the Servicer.

Section 11.2 Transfers of Beneficial Interests. The following voluntary or involuntary sales, encumbrances, conveyances, transfers and pledges (each, a “Transfer”) of a direct, indirect or beneficial interest shall be permitted without Administrative Agent’s consent (“Permitted Ownership Interest Transfers”):

(A) A Transfer by Parent of no more than forty percent (40%) in the aggregate of the direct ownership interests in any Capital Stock of the Holding Company, provided that for the avoidance of doubt, clause (A) applies to any Transfer in respect of a Bona-fide IPO; and

(B) A Transfer by Parent of no more than forty percent (40%) in the aggregate of the direct ownership interests in any Capital Stock of the Servicer;

Provided that, in any case, (x) that Parent must continue to retain sixty percent (60%) of Holding Company; and (y) the current cash equity of Holding Company is at least $30,000,000.

A sale, transfer, or assignment of Capital Stock of any Loan Party (as described in clause 3 of the definition “Change of Control”), shall be a Permitted Ownership Interest Transfer; provided that the proceeds thereof are applied to a repayment of the Obligations (as a Mandatory Prepayment) by the Borrower upon thirty (30) days from written notice from the Administrative Agent that such repayment is not waived.

ARTICLE XII

RECOURSE; LIMITATIONS ON RECOURSE

Section 12.1 Limitations on Recourse. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Loan Agreement, the Mortgages or any of the Loan Documents, none of the Administrative Agent or Lenders shall be deemed to have waived any right which the Administrative Agent or Lender may have under Section 506(a), 506(b), 1111(b) or any other provisions of the Bankruptcy Code to file a claim for the full amount of the Obligations secured by the Mortgages or to require that all collateral shall continue to secure all of the Obligations owing to the Collateral Agent on behalf of the Lenders in accordance with the Loan Documents.

Section 12.2 Intentionally Omitted

Section 12.3 Miscellaneous. No provision of this Article shall (i) affect the enforcement of the Environmental Indemnity, the Holdco Guaranties, the Upstream Guaranties or any guaranty or similar agreement executed in connection with the Loan, (ii) release or reduce the debt evidenced by the Note, (iii) impair the lien of any of the Mortgages or any other security document, (iv) impair the rights of the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent to enforce any provisions of the Loan Documents, or (v) limit the Collateral Agent’s or Administrative Agent’s ability to obtain a deficiency judgment or judgment on the Note or otherwise against any Obligor to the extent necessary to obtain any amount for which such Obligor may be liable in accordance with this Article or any other Loan Document.

WAIVERS OF DEFENSES OF GUARANTORS AND SURETIES

Section 13.1 Waivers. To the extent that any Obligor (in this Article, a “Waiving Party”) is deemed for any reason to be a guarantor or surety of or for any other Obligor or Affiliate or to have rights or obligations in the nature of the rights or obligations of a guarantor or surety (whether by reason of execution of a guaranty, provision of security for the obligations of another, or otherwise) then this Article shall apply. This Article shall not affect the rights of the Waiving Party other than to waive or limit rights and defenses that Waiving Party would have (i) in its capacity as a guarantor or surety or (ii) in its capacity as one having rights or obligations in the nature of a guarantor or surety.

Waiving Party hereby waives diligence, presentment, demand of payment, filing of claims with a court in the event of receivership or bankruptcy of any of the other Obligors, protest or notice with respect to any of the obligations of any of the other Obligors, setoffs and counterclaims and all presentments, demands for performance, notices of nonperformance, protests, notices of protest, notices of dishonor and notices of acceptance, the benefits of all statutes of limitation, and all other demands whatsoever (and shall not require that the same be made on any of the other Obligors as a condition precedent to the obligations of Waiving Party), and covenants that the Loan Documents will not be discharged, except by complete payment and performance of the obligations evidenced and secured thereby, except only as limited by the express contractual provisions of the Loan Documents. Waiving Party further waives all notices that the principal amount, or any portion thereof, and/or any interest on any instrument or document evidencing all or any part of the obligations of any of the other Obligors to the Administrative Agent and Lenders is due, notices of any and all proceedings to collect from any of the other Obligors or any endorser or any other guarantor of all or any part of their obligations, or from any other person or entity, and, to the extent permitted by law, notices of exchange, sale, surrender or other handling of any security or collateral given to the Collateral Agent and Lenders to secure payment of all or any part of the obligations of any of the other Obligors.

Except only to the extent provided otherwise in the express contractual provisions of the Loan Documents, Waiving Party hereby agrees that all of its obligations under the Loan Documents shall remain in full force and effect, without defense, offset or counterclaim of any kind, notwithstanding that any right of Waiving Party against any of the other Obligors or defense of Waiving Party against the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and Lenders may be impaired, destroyed, or otherwise affected by reason of any action or inaction on the part of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and Lenders. Waiving Party waives all rights and defenses arising out of an election of remedies by the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or Lenders, even though that election of remedies may have destroyed the Waiving Party’s rights of subrogation and reimbursement against the other Obligors.

The Administrative Agent is hereby authorized, without notice (except notice shall be provided to the Collateral Agent, Paying Agent and Calculation Agent) or demand, from time to time, (a) to renew, extend, accelerate or otherwise change the time for payment of, or other terms relating to, all or any part of the obligations of any of the other Obligors; (b) to accept partial payments on all or any part of the obligations of any of the other Obligors; (c) to take and hold security or collateral for the payment of all or any part of the obligations of any of the other Obligors; (d) to exchange, enforce, waive and release any such security or collateral for such obligations; (e) to apply such security or collateral and direct the order or manner of sale thereof as in its discretion it may determine; and (f) to settle, release, exchange, enforce, waive, compromise or collect or otherwise liquidate all or any part of such obligations and any security or collateral for such obligations. Any of the foregoing may be done in any manner, and Waiving Party agrees that the same shall not affect or impair the obligations of Waiving Party under the Loan Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any action by the Administrative Agent pursuant to this paragraph shall require the prior written consent of: (i) the Collateral Agent, to the extent such action affects the rights, obligations, indemnities or protections of the Collateral Agent, (ii) the Paying Agent, to the extent such action affects the rights, obligations, indemnities or protections of the Paying Agent, or (iii) the Calculation Agent, to the extent such action affects the rights, obligations, indemnities or protections of the Calculation Agent.

Waiving Party hereby assumes responsibility for keeping itself informed of the financial condition of all of the other Obligors and any and all endorsers and/or other guarantors of all or any part of the obligations of the other Obligors, and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of such obligations, and Waiving Party hereby agrees that none of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any Lender shall have any duty to advise Waiving Party of information known to it regarding such condition or any such circumstances.

Waiving Party agrees that none of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent or any person or entity acting for or on behalf of the Administrative Agent or the Lenders shall be under any obligation to marshal any assets in favor of Waiving Party or against or in payment of any or all of the obligations secured hereby. Waiving Party further agrees that, to the extent that any of the other Obligors or any other guarantor of all or any part of the obligations of the other Obligors makes a payment or payments to the Paying Agent, or the Collateral Agent receives any proceeds of collateral for any of the obligations of the other Obligors, which payment or payments or any part thereof are subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside and/or required to be repaid or refunded, then, to the extent of such payment or repayment, the part of such obligations which has been paid, reduced or satisfied by such amount shall be reinstated and continued in full force and effect as of the time immediately preceding such initial payment, reduction or satisfaction.

Waiving Party (i) shall have no right of subrogation with respect to the obligations of the other Obligors until the obligations of such Obligors are paid in full (except any indemnification or reimbursement obligation for which no unsatisfied demand has been made); (ii) waives any right to enforce any remedy that the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent now has or may hereafter have against any of the other Obligors, any endorser or any guarantor of all or any part of such obligations or any other person; and (iii) waives any benefit of, and any right to participate in, any security or collateral given to the Collateral Agent to secure the payment or performance of all or any part of such obligations or any other liability of the other parties to the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, Paying Agent or the Lenders.

Waiving Party agrees that any and all claims that it may have against any of the other Obligor, any endorser or any other guarantor of all or any part of the obligations of the other Obligor, or against any of their respective properties, shall be subordinate and subject in right of payment to the prior payment in full of all obligations secured hereby. Notwithstanding any right of any of the Waiving Party to ask, demand, sue for, take or receive any payment from the other Obligor, all rights, liens and security interests of Waiving Party, whether now or hereafter arising and howsoever existing, in any assets of any of the other Obligor (whether constituting part of the security or collateral given to the Collateral Agent to secure payment of all or any part of the obligations of the other Obligor or otherwise) shall be and hereby are subordinated to the rights of the Collateral Agent Administrative Agent, and the Lenders in those assets.

The obligations and liabilities of the Obligors under this Section 14.2 shall survive the termination of this Loan Agreement, the resignation or removal of the Collateral Agent, the Calculation Agent, the Paying Agent and/or the Administrative Agent and the exercise by the Administrative Agent or the Collateral Agent of any of their rights or remedies under the Loan Documents, including the acquisition of the Sites by foreclosure or a conveyance in lieu of foreclosure.

Any party may change the address at which it is to receive notices to another address in the United States at which business is conducted (and not a post-office box or other similar receptacle), by giving notice of such change of address in accordance with the foregoing. This provision shall not invalidate or impose additional requirements for the delivery or effectiveness of any notice given in accordance with applicable statutes or rules of court. Each party consents to the service of process in the manner provided for notice herein and agrees that nothing herein will affect the right of any party hereto to serve process by any other manner in accordance with applicable law. If there is any assignment or transfer of any Lender's interest in the Loan, then the new Lender shall give notice to the parties in accordance with this Section, specifying the address, phone number and e-mail address at which the new Lender shall receive notice, and they shall be entitled to notice at such address in accordance with this Section.

Section 14.6 Survival of Warranties and Certain Agreements. All agreements, representations and warranties made herein shall survive the execution and delivery of this Loan Agreement, the making of the Loan hereunder and the execution and delivery of the Note. Notwithstanding anything in this Loan Agreement or implied by law to the contrary, the agreements of the Obligors to indemnify or release Lender or Persons related to Lender, or to pay Lender's costs, expenses, or taxes shall survive the payment of the Loan and the termination of this Loan Agreement.

Section 14.7 Failure or Indulgence Not Waiver; Remedies Cumulative. No failure or delay on the part of any Lender, Administrative Agent or Collateral Agent in the exercise of any power, right or privilege hereunder or under the Note or any other Loan Document shall impair such power, right or privilege or be construed to be a waiver of any default or acquiescence therein, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such power, right or privilege preclude other or further exercise thereof or of any other right, power or privilege. All rights and remedies existing under this Loan Agreement, the Note and the other Loan Documents are cumulative to, and not exclusive of, any rights or remedies otherwise available.

Section 14.8 Marshalling; Payments Set Aside. None of the Collateral Agent, Administrative Agent or Lenders shall be under any obligation to marshal any assets in favor of any Person or against or in payment of any or all of the Obligations. To the extent that any Person makes a payment or payments to the Paying Agent or any Lender, or the Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent or any Lender enforces its remedies or exercises its rights of set off, and such payment or payments or the proceeds of such enforcement or set off or any part thereof are subsequently invalidated, declared to be fraudulent or preferential, set aside and/or required to be repaid to a trustee, receiver or any other party under any bankruptcy law, state or federal law, common law or equitable cause, then to the extent of such recovery, the Obligations or part thereof originally intended to be satisfied, and all Liens, if any, and rights and remedies therefor, shall be revived and continued in full force and effect as if such payment had not been made or such enforcement or set off had not occurred.

Section 14.9 Severability. The invalidity, illegality or unenforceability in any jurisdiction of any provision in or obligation under this Loan Agreement, the Note or other Loan Documents shall not affect or impair the validity, legality or enforceability of the remaining provisions or obligations under this Loan Agreement, the Note or other Loan Documents or of such provision or obligation in any other jurisdiction.

Section 14.10 Headings. Section and subsection headings in this Loan Agreement are included herein for convenience of reference only and shall not constitute a part of this Loan Agreement for any other purpose or be given any substantive effect.

Section 14.11 Applicable Law. THIS LOAN AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS WERE NEGOTIATED IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AND EXECUTED AND DELIVERED IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AND THE PROCEEDS OF THE LOAN WERE DISBURSED FROM NEW YORK, WHICH STATE THE PARTIES AGREE HAS A SUBSTANTIAL RELATIONSHIP TO THE PARTIES AND TO THE UNDERLYING TRANSACTION EMBODIED HEREBY, AND IN ALL RESPECTS, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITING THE GENERALITY OF THE FOREGOING, MATTERS OF CONSTRUCTION, VALIDITY AND PERFORMANCE. THIS LOAN AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS AND THE OBLIGATIONS ARISING HEREUNDER AND THEREUNDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK APPLICABLE TO CONTRACTS MADE AND PERFORMED IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK AND ANY APPLICABLE LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA EXCEPT THAT AT ALL TIMES THE PROVISIONS FOR THE CREATION, PERFECTION AND ENFORCEMENT OF THE LIENS AND SECURITY INTERESTS CREATED PURSUANT TO THE DEEDS OF TRUST AND THE ASSIGNMENT OF LEASES SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE WHERE THE PROPERTY IS LOCATED, EXCEPT THAT THE SECURITY INTERESTS IN ACCOUNT COLLATERAL SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK OR THE STATE WHERE THE SAME IS HELD, AT THE OPTION OF THE MAJORITY LENDERS.

Section 14.12 Successors and Assigns. This Loan Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns except that the Obligors may not assign their rights or obligations hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents except as expressly provided in Article XI, and the Lenders and their successors and assigns may not assign, sell or participate any interest in this Loan Agreement without notice to the Parent, the Borrower, the Collateral Agent and the Register Agent (as defined below), and provided that (i) the Borrower has the right to accept or deny any such assignment (except while Event of Default has occurred and is continuing or if such assignment is to another Lender or an Approved Fund of such Lender), such acceptance (x) not to be unreasonably withheld, and (y) to be deemed to be given if no response is given after five (5) days after receipt of notice of such assignment and (ii) such assignment must have the written consent of the Parent if the proposed assignee is any tier 1 carrier, any obligor under a Contract, any cell site backhaul competitor of any of the Borrower, any wireless infrastructure fund or sponsor that owns wireless infrastructure (any such entity, a “Disqualified Entity”). The Lenders agree not to share any of the Borrower’s Information with any Disqualified Entity without the Borrower’s consent. No Agent shall have any liability in respect of, or have any duty to investigate, any representation or warranty which any Person shall make regarding its status as a “Disqualified Entity”. A Lender may not assign its loan hereunder unless it has: (i) received an executed instrument of assignment from such assignee which binds such assignee to the terms of this Loan Agreement or a trade ticket with a joinder and delivers such executed instrument or trade ticket with a joinder to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Register Agent, (ii) such assignee provides its tax ID number and a completed W-9 form to the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Register Agent, and (iii) such assignee provides the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Register Agent with any additional information it may require. The Collateral Agent shall maintain at the address referred to in Section 14.5 a register for the recordation of names and address of the Lenders and their successors and assigns and the principal amount owing to each such person from time to time (the “Register”). Upon the assignment of an interest in this Loan Agreement, the Collateral Agent shall record the assignment in the Register, including the name and address of the assignee and the principal amount owing to the assignee. The Administrative Agent will provide such names, addresses and amounts to the Collateral Agent and shall update such information within five (5) Business Days after any change thereof, and the Collateral Agent is entitled to rely on such information. The Collateral Agent may appoint one or more persons to act as its agent in respect of the Register (each a “Register Agent”). The Register shall be available for inspection by any Lender or its successors and assigns at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior notice.

Section 14.13 Sophisticated Parties, Reasonable Terms, No Fiduciary Relationship. The Obligors, on behalf of themselves and all Obligors, represent, warrant and acknowledge that (i) they are sophisticated real estate investors, familiar with transactions of this kind, and (ii) they have entered into this Loan Agreement and the other Loan Documents after conducting their own assessment of the alternatives available to them in the market, and after lengthy negotiations in which they have been represented by legal counsel of their choice. The Obligors, on behalf of themselves and all Obligors, also acknowledge and agree that the rights of each Lender under this Loan Agreement and the other Loan Documents are reasonable and appropriate, taking into consideration all of the facts and circumstances including without limitation the quantity of the Loan, the nature of the Sites, and the risks incurred by each Lender in this transaction. No provision in this Loan Agreement or in any of the other Loan Documents and no course of dealing between the parties shall be deemed to create (i) any partnership or joint venture between any Lender and the Obligors or any other Person, or (ii) any fiduciary or similar duty by any Lender to the Obligors or any other Person. The relationship between any Lender and the Obligors are exclusively the relationship of a creditor and a debtor, and all relationships between any Lender and any Obligor are ancillary to such creditor/debtor relationship.

Section 14.14 Noncompliant Lender. If there is an assignment, sale, or participation to a Lender Transferee for which consent of the Borrower or Parent is required pursuant to Section 14.12 hereof and not received, the Borrower may prepay such Lender Transferee at any time, along with any applicable Yield Maintenance, and is permitted as a prepayment under Section 2.8 hereof. If there is any other assignment, sale, or participation to a Lender Transferee in violation of Section 14.12, or if any Lender shall fail to make any Installment payment when due, such Lender Transferee or Lender, as the case may be, shall be a “Noncompliant Lender.” A Noncompliant Lender shall be disregarded for the purposes of determining the Majority Lenders, and the Borrower may prepay such Noncompliant Lender at any time, provided that the Commitment of such Lender may not be increased or extended without the consent of such Lender and any waiver, amendment, or modification requiring the consent of the all the Lenders that affects the rights of such Noncompliant Lender more adversely than other Lenders shall require the consent of such Noncompliant Lender. The Borrower may prepay such Noncompliant Lender at any time, and no Yield Maintenance will be payable to such Noncompliant Lender. Any prepayment pursuant to this Section shall be made upon written notice to the Paying Agent at least two (2) Business Days prior to the proposed date of such prepayment.

Section 14.15 Limitation of Liability. No party, nor any Affiliate, officer, director, employee, attorney, or agent of such party, shall have any liability with respect to, and the other parties hereto hereby waive, release, and agree not to sue any of them upon, any claim for any special, indirect, incidental, or consequential damages suffered or incurred by the Obligors in connection with, arising out of, or in any way related to, this Loan Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents, or any of the transactions contemplated by this Loan Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents. The other parties hereto hereby waive, release, and agree not to sue any Lender or any of such Lender’s Affiliates, officers, directors, employees, attorneys, or agents for punitive damages in respect of any claim in connection with, arising out of, or in any way related to, this Loan Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents, or any of the transactions contemplated by this Loan Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby, except to the extent the same is caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Lender.

Section 14.16 No Duty. All attorneys, accountants, appraisers, and other professional Persons and consultants retained by Lenders shall have the right to act exclusively in the interest of Lenders and shall have no duty of disclosure, duty of loyalty, duty of care, or other duty or obligation of any type or nature whatsoever to any of the Obligors or Affiliates thereof, or any other Person.

Section 14.17 Entire Agreement. This Loan Agreement, the Note, and the other Loan Documents referred to herein embody the final, entire agreement among the parties hereto and supersede any and all prior commitments, agreements, representations, and understandings, whether written or oral, relating to the subject matter hereof and may not be contradicted or varied by evidence of prior, contemporaneous, or subsequent oral agreements or discussions of the parties hereto. There are no oral agreements among the parties to the Loan Documents.

Section 14.18 Construction; Supremacy of Loan Agreement. The Borrower and Lenders acknowledge that each of them has had the benefit of legal counsel of its own choice and has been afforded an opportunity to review this Loan Agreement and the other Loan Documents with its legal counsel and that this Loan Agreement and the other Loan Documents shall be construed as if jointly drafted by the Borrower and Lenders. If any term, condition or provision of this Loan Agreement shall be inconsistent with any term, condition or provision of any other Loan Document, then this Loan Agreement shall control.

Section 14.19 Consent to Jurisdiction. EACH LOAN PARTY HEREBY CONSENTS TO THE JURISDICTION OF ANY STATE OR FEDERAL COURT LOCATED WITHIN THE COUNTY OF NEW YORK, STATE OF NEW YORK OR WITHIN THE COUNTY AND STATE IN WHICH THE PROPERTY IS LOCATED AND IRREVOCABLY AGREES THAT, ALL ACTIONS OR PROCEEDINGS ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS LOAN AGREEMENT OR EACH OF THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS SHALL BE LITIGATED IN SUCH COURTS. THE LOAN PARTIES ACCEPT FOR THEMSELVES AND IN CONNECTION WITH THE PROPERTY, GENERALLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY, THE NONEXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE AFORESAID COURTS AND WAIVES ANY DEFENSE OF FORUM NON CONVENIENS, AND IRREVOCABLY AGREES TO BE BOUND BY ANY JUDGMENT RENDERED THEREBY IN CONNECTION WITH THIS LOAN AGREEMENT, THE NOTE, SUCH OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS OR SUCH OBLIGATION. NOTHING HEREIN SHALL AFFECT THE RIGHT TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW OR SHALL LIMIT THE RIGHT OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT, THE COLLATERAL AGENT OR THE LENDERS TO BRING PROCEEDINGS AGAINST THE BORROWER IN THE COURTS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

Section 14.20 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH LOAN PARTY AND EACH LENDER AND EACH AGENT HEREBY WAIVES ITS RESPECTIVE RIGHTS TO A JURY TRIAL OF ANY CLAIM OR CAUSE OF ACTION BASED UPON OR ARISING OUT OF THIS LOAN AGREEMENT, ANY OF THE LOAN DOCUMENTS, OR ANY DEALINGS BETWEEN ANY LOAN PARTY AND LENDER OR ANY AGENT RELATING TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS LOAN TRANSACTION AND THE LENDER/BORROWER/AGENT RELATIONSHIP THAT IS BEING ESTABLISHED. EACH OF THE LOAN PARTIES AND EACH LENDER AND AGENT ALSO WAIVES ANY BOND OR SURETY OR SECURITY UPON SUCH BOND WHICH MIGHT, BUT FOR THIS WAIVER, BE REQUIRED OF IT. THE SCOPE OF THIS WAIVER IS INTENDED TO BE ALL-ENCOMPASSING OF ANY AND ALL DISPUTES THAT MAY BE FILED IN ANY COURT AND THAT RELATE TO THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THIS TRANSACTION, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION, CONTRACT CLAIMS, TORT CLAIMS, BREACH OF DUTY CLAIMS, AND ALL OTHER COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY CLAIMS. EACH OF THE LOAN PARTIES AND LENDER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT THIS WAIVER IS A MATERIAL INDUCEMENT TO ENTER INTO THIS LOAN AGREEMENT, THAT EACH HAS ALREADY RELIED ON THE WAIVER IN ENTERING INTO THIS LOAN AGREEMENT AND THAT EACH WILL CONTINUE TO RELY ON THE WAIVER IN THE FUTURE. EACH OF THE LOAN PARTIES AND LENDER FURTHER WARRANTS AND REPRESENTS THAT IT HAS REVIEWED THIS WAIVER WITH ITS LEGAL COUNSEL, AND THAT IT KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY WAIVES ITS JURY TRIAL RIGHTS FOLLOWING CONSULTATION WITH LEGAL COUNSEL. THIS WAIVER IS IRREVOCABLE, MEANING THAT IT MAY NOT BE MODIFIED EITHER ORALLY OR IN WRITING, AND THE WAIVER SHALL APPLY TO ANY SUBSEQUENT AMENDMENTS, RENEWALS, SUPPLEMENTS OR MODIFICATIONS TO THIS LOAN AGREEMENT, THE LOAN DOCUMENTS, OR TO ANY OTHER DOCUMENTS OR AGREEMENT RELATING TO THE LOAN. IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, THIS LOAN AGREEMENT MAY BE FILED AS A WRITTEN CONSENT TO A TRIAL BY THE COURT.

Section 14.21 Counterparts; Effectiveness. This Loan Agreement and other Loan Documents and any amendments or supplements thereto may be executed in any number of counterparts and by different parties hereto in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed an original, but all of which counterparts together shall constitute but one and the same instrument. This Loan Agreement shall become effective upon the execution of a counterpart hereof by each of the parties hereto.

Section 14.22 [Intentionally Omitted].

Section 14.23 [Intentionally Omitted].

Section 14.24 Additional Inspections; Reports. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Loan Agreement to the contrary, if for any reason whatsoever the Administrative Agent suspects that any conditions exist or may exist at any Site of the Borrower which might cause a Material Adverse Change, the Administrative Agent shall have the right, at the Borrower's sole reasonable cost and expense, to cause such inspections and reports to be prepared and performed with respect to any Site as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably determine.

Section 14.25 Cross-Default; Cross-Collateralization; Waiver of Marshalling of Assets. Each of the Obligors and the Holding Company acknowledges that the Lenders have made the applicable portion of the Loan to the Borrower upon the security of the Sites, the Contracts and the Other Company Collateral of the Borrower and its Obligors and Holding Company and in reliance upon the aggregate value of the Sites, the Contracts and the Other Company Collateral of the Borrower and the Obligors and the Capital Stock of Borrower pledged by its Holding Company taken together being of greater value as collateral security than the sum of each such Site, such Contracts and the Borrower's and its Obligors' in the Other Company Collateral, and Holding Company's interest in the Capital Stock of Borrower, taken separately. Each of the related Obligors of the Borrower agrees that the Mortgages and other security agreements given hereunder with respect to the Borrower's Obligations are and will be cross-collateralized and cross-defaulted with each other so that (i) an Event of Default of the Borrower hereunder shall constitute an Event of Default under each of the Mortgages and the other security agreements related to the Borrower and its other Obligors given hereunder which secure the applicable portion of the Note related to the Borrower; (ii) subject to any limitations contained therein, each Mortgage and the other security agreements given hereunder shall constitute security for the applicable portion of the Note related to the Borrower as if a single blanket lien were placed on all of the Sites, the Contracts, and the Other Company Collateral of the Borrower as security for the applicable portion of the Note related to the Borrower; and (iii) such cross-collateralization of the Borrower and its related Obligors shall in no event be deemed to constitute a fraudulent conveyance.

(A) To the fullest extent permitted by law, each of the Obligors and the Holding Company, for itself and its successors and assigns, waives all rights to a marshalling of the assets of each of the Obligors, each of the Obligor's and Holding Company's members and others with interests in each of the Obligors, and of the Sites, the Contracts, and the Other Company Collateral, or to a sale in inverse order of alienation in the event of foreclosure of all or any of the Mortgages or the Other Company Collateral, and agrees not to assert any right under any laws pertaining to the marshalling of assets, the sale in inverse order of alienation, homestead exemption, the administration of estates of decedents, or any other matters whatsoever to defeat, reduce or affect the right of the Collateral Agent or Administrative Agent, each on behalf of the Lenders under the Loan Documents, to a sale of the Sites, the Contracts and the Other Company Collateral of the Borrower or any related Obligor for the collection of the applicable portion of the Loan of the Borrower without any prior or different resort for collection or of the right of the Collateral Agent or Administrative Agent, each on behalf of the Lenders, to the payment of the applicable portion of the Loan of the Borrower out of the net proceeds of the Sites, the Contracts and the Other Company Collateral of the related Obligor and Holding Company and in preference to every other claimant whatsoever. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Servicer or any of its designees is hereby authorized and empowered to subcontract with any other Person with the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent (in any case, at the Servicer's sole cost and expense), for servicing, administering or collecting, in whole or in part, the Sites and Contracts of the Borrower whereupon such other Person with which the Servicer so subcontracts shall be entitled such rights and powers of the Servicer hereunder as may be delegated to it; provided, however, that the Servicer shall remain fully liable for the performance of the duties and obligations of the Servicer and such subcontracted party, pursuant to the terms hereof. On and after any date in which the Backup Servicer is the Successor Servicer, it shall be entitled to receive the Servicing Fee each month, and such amounts shall be payable in the same order of priority as the Backup Servicer is paid the Backup Servicing Fee in Section 2.5(B)(i). (E) No Conflict. The Servicer's execution and delivery of the Loan Documents, and the performance of the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound, and fulfillment of the terms hereof and thereof applicable to the Servicer, do not conflict with or violate any law applicable to the Servicer, or conflict with, result in any breach of any of the enforceable terms and provisions of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, any indenture, contract, agreement, mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument to which the Servicer is a party or by which it or its properties are bound.

(F) No Proceedings. Except as disclosed in writing to the Administrative Agent, as of the date hereof, there are no proceedings or investigations pending or, to the best of the Servicer's knowledge, threatened against the Servicer before any Governmental Authority (i) asserting the illegality, invalidity or unenforceability, or seeking any determination or ruling that would affect the legality, binding effect, validity or enforceability, of any of the Loan Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound, (ii) seeking to prevent the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by any of the Loan Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound, or (iii) seeking any determination or ruling that is reasonably likely to materially and adversely affect the financial condition or operations of the Servicer or the performance by the Servicer of its obligations under any of the Loan Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound.

(G) No Consents. No authorization, consent, license, order or approval of or registration or declaration with any Governmental Authority is required to be obtained, effected or given by the Servicer in connection with the execution and delivery by it of any of the Loan Documents or the performance by it of its obligations under the Loan Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound.

(H) Information. Each certificate, information, exhibit, financial statement, document, book or record or report furnished or to be furnished by the Servicer to the Administrative Agent, any Lender or the Borrower in connection with this Loan Agreement is accurate in all material respects as of its date, and no such document contains or will contain any material misstatement of fact or omits or will omit to state a material fact or any fact necessary to make the statements contained therein not materially misleading as of its date.

(G) Servicer Calculations. Servicer shall make the determinations and calculations required to be made by it in a commercially reasonable manner.

(H) Reporting Requirements.

(i) The Servicer shall furnish to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders (and with respect to (a) and (b), also to the Collateral Agent, the Paying Agent and the Calculation Agent), or cause to be furnished:

In addition to the foregoing, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, and any independent accountants or other parties appointed by the Administrative Agent, shall have the right, upon reasonable prior written notice to the Servicer, to conduct, at the expense of the Servicer, a review of the Collateral and all books, records and other documentation relating thereto, including, without limitation, an operational audit (which audit shall be similar to the operational audit conducted by the Administrative Agent and its legal counsel prior to the Closing Date); provided, however, that the right provided for in this sentence may, so long as no Servicer Default is then outstanding or continuing, be exercised no more often than twice in any twelve month period; provided, further that the Administrative Agent shall have the right, upon reasonable prior written notice to the Servicer, to require, at the expense of the Servicer, a pro forma financial report by an Approved Accounting Firm for purposes of calculating a Cash Trap Event or Amortization Event as needed.

The errors and omissions policy shall insure against losses resulting from the errors, omissions and negligent acts of such officers, employees and other persons. Each such policy shall be maintained in an amount of at least $5,000,000 or such lower amount as the Administrative Agent may designate in writing to the Servicer from time to time, and in a form reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent. Upon the request of the Administrative Agent, the Servicer shall cause to be delivered to the Administrative Agent, a certification evidencing coverage under such fidelity policy and errors and omissions policy. Any such insurance policy shall contain a provision or endorsement providing that such policy may not be canceled without ten (10) days prior written notice to the Lenders.

The Administrative Agent, the Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent and the Collateral Agent and the Lenders shall be entitled to conclusively rely upon each such Monthly Report and the information contained therein, subject to the Monthly Report Review Procedure. The Monthly Report shall set forth, including all Sites and Contracts as of the last day of the immediately preceding Collection Period, (a) each delinquent Contract (with an explanation for such status) as of the end of such month, (b) each Defaulted Contract (with an explanation for such status) as of the end of such month, (c) any Contract or Site which has been removed or Released, (d) a certification from the Servicer, on the date such Monthly Report is furnished, of each of the following: (1) the quarterly Tangible Net Worth of the Servicer (if the Servicer is an Affiliate of the Borrower); (2) that the representations and warranties of the Servicer contained in Section 15.3 of this Loan Agreement are true and correct in all material respects on such date, except for changes to the Schedules to this Loan Agreement and the other Loan Documents reflecting events, conditions or transactions permitted by or not in violation of this Loan Agreement and except to the extent any such representation or warranty speaks expressly only as of a different date, (3) that the Servicer is in compliance with its covenants under Sections 15.4 and 15.5 of this Loan Agreement or a description of any non-compliance, (4) that there has occurred no event which constitutes a Servicer Default (or a description of any Servicer Default), (5) that there has occurred no Cash Trap Event or Amortization Event; and (6) that there has occurred no event which constitutes an Event of Default, Change of Control, or any breach of the representations of Article IV or the covenants of Article V (or a description of any such event or breach), (e) the amount on deposit in the General Reserve Account as of the last day of the preceding Collection Period, (f) the Borrowing Base for such month calculated as of the last day of the preceding Collection Period, and (g) the distributions to be made pursuant to Section 2.6 for the next Monthly Payment Date.

(B) The Calculation Agent shall, within two (2) Business Days after receipt of the Monthly Report, review such Monthly Report (the “Monthly Report Review Procedure”) and, if the Calculation Agent determines that there are any errors in such Monthly Report, the Calculation Agent shall to deliver written notice of such errors to the Borrower, the Servicer, the Paying Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders (a “Monthly Report Error Notice”). In the event that the Calculation Agent delivers a Monthly Report Error Notice, the Servicer shall work with the Calculation Agent to resolve the errors described in such Monthly Report Error Notice and Servicer shall prepare and deliver a revised Monthly Report to the Calculation Agent, the Administrative Agent, the Paying Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Lenders with respect to the related Monthly Payment Date no later than the Business Day before the Monthly Payment Date. The determination of the Calculation Agent shall be binding on the Servicer, the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Borrower. For the avoidance of doubt, the Calculation Agent’s sole duty with respect to the Monthly Report Review Procedure is to review the Allocated Loan Amounts outstanding by Borrower, as well as the amounts contained in the Collection Account, Reserve Account and Escrow Account, and confirm each against such amounts listed in the Monthly Report and it is acknowledged and agreed that the Calculation Agent shall in no way be responsible or liable for verifying the veracity, correctness, completeness or basis of any other data contained in the Monthly Report.

(C) The Servicer shall provide the Financial Statements required under Section 5.1, at the times required therein, to the same extent required of the Borrower.

Section 15.6 Notices to the Parent and the Borrower. In the event that the initial Servicer or an Affiliate thereof is no longer acting as the Servicer, any Successor Servicer shall deliver or make available to the Parent and the Borrower, each certificate and report required to be delivered thereafter pursuant to Section 15.5.

Section 15.7 Adjustments. If the Servicer makes a mistake with respect to the amount of any Collections or payment and deposits, pays or causes to be deposited or paid, an amount that is less than or more than the actual amount thereof, the Servicer shall appropriately adjust the amounts subsequently deposited into the applicable account or lockbox or paid out to reflect such mistake and account for such adjustment in the Monthly Report for the date of such adjustment. Any Site or Contract in respect of which a dishonored check is received shall be deemed not to have been paid.

Section 15.8 Grant of License. The Servicer hereby grants the Administrative Agent and the Collateral Agent an irrevocable license (with respect to the services, computer hardware and software that it owns) or sublicense (with respect to all other such services, hardware and software) to use such services, hardware or software in connection with the servicing, collection and monitoring of the Sites and Contracts and any accounts related thereto (subject to reasonable confidentiality restrictions and restrictions limiting such use to the collection, servicing and monitoring of the Sites and Contracts and the accounts related thereto). As of the Closing Date, all such computer software and hardware is currently owned by the Servicer or is licensed to the Servicer or the Servicer otherwise has the right to use such software and hardware (except as may be otherwise expressly provided in the related licensing agreement) until the termination hereof. The license granted hereby shall be irrevocable, and shall terminate on the Business Day following the date on which all Obligations have been paid in full.

Section 16.2 Merger or Consolidation of, or Assumption of the Obligations of, the Servicer. The Servicer shall not consolidate with or merge into any other Person or convey or transfer its properties and assets substantially as an entirety to any Person.

Section 16.3 Limitations on Liability. None of the members, managers, officers, directors, partners, employees, agents, shareholders, or holders of limited liability company interests, as applicable, of or in the Servicer, past, present or future, shall be under any liability to the Borrower, Lender, Administrative Agent or any other Person for any action taken or for refraining from the taking of any action in such capacities or otherwise pursuant to this Loan Agreement or for any obligation or covenant under this Loan Agreement, it being understood that, with respect to the Servicer, this Loan Agreement and the obligations created hereunder shall be, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, solely the corporate, partnership or limited liability company, as applicable, obligations of the Servicer. The Servicer shall not be under any obligation to appear in, prosecute or defend any legal action which is not incidental to its duties as Servicer in accordance with this Loan Agreement and which in its reasonable judgment may involve it in any material expense or liability.

Section 16.4 Indemnification by Servicer. The Servicer shall defend, indemnify, hold harmless and reimburse the Lenders, the Administrative Agent, the Paying Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Calculation Agent and their respective officers, directors, employees, attorneys and agents from and against any and all costs, expenses, losses, damages, claims, and liabilities, suffered or sustained by any such person arising out of or resulting from any breach of the Servicer's obligations contained herein, (except those resulting solely from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of any such person claiming indemnification hereunder) and any breach of the Servicer representations and warranties and covenants contained herein. Any determination permitting the resignation of the Servicer shall be evidenced by an opinion of counsel who is not an employee of the Servicer or any Affiliate of the Servicer delivered to, and in form reasonably satisfactory to, the Lenders. No resignation shall become effective until a Successor Servicer shall have assumed the responsibilities and obligations of the Servicer in accordance with Section 17.2 hereof. ARTICLE XVII

SERVICER DEFAULTS

Section 17.1 Servicer Defaults. Upon the occurrence of a Servicer Default, and for so long as such Servicer Default shall not have been remedied or waived by the Administrative Agent:

(A) By notice then given in writing to the Servicer (such notice being a “Termination Notice”), the Administrative Agent may terminate all but not less than all of the rights and obligations of the Servicer as servicer under this Loan Agreement and any related Loan Document with respect to which such notice was so given. None of Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, the Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge of a Servicer Default until a Responsible Officer thereof has received written notice thereof.

(B) After receipt by the Servicer of a Termination Notice, and on the date that a Successor Servicer shall have been appointed by the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 17.2, all authority and power of the Servicer under this Loan Agreement and each other Loan Document shall pass to and be vested in such Successor Servicer (a “Servicing Transfer”); and, without limitation, the Administrative Agent is hereby authorized, empowered and instructed (upon the failure of the Servicer to cooperate or to execute or deliver such documents or instruments) to execute and deliver, on behalf of the Servicer, as attorney-in-fact or otherwise, all documents and other instruments, and to do and accomplish all other acts or things necessary or appropriate to effect the purposes of such Servicing Transfer including, without limitation, all actions necessary or advisable to collect and direct payments in respect of Collections and to enforce the Collateral Agent’s rights and remedies with respect to the Collateral. The initial Successor Servicer shall be the Backup Servicer, subject to the conditions set forth herein and the ability of the Backup Servicer to appoint a subservicer for certain functions. The Servicer hereby agrees to cooperate, at its sole cost and expense, with the Administrative Agent and such Successor Servicer in (i) effecting the termination of the responsibilities and rights of the Servicer to conduct servicing hereunder and under the applicable Loan Documents, including, without limitation, the transfer to such Successor Servicer of all authority of the Servicer to service on behalf of the Administrative Agent the Sites and the Contracts as provided under this Loan Agreement and under the other applicable Loan Documents, including such authority over all Collections which shall on the date of such Servicing Transfer be held in trust by the Servicer for deposit to any of the Accounts hereunder or any other account, or which shall thereafter be received with respect to the Sites and the Contracts, and (ii) assisting the Successor Servicer. The Servicer shall, at its sole cost and expense, as soon as practicable, and in any event within three (3) Business Days of such Servicing Transfer, (A) assemble such documents, instruments and other records (including computer tapes and disks), which evidence the affected Collateral, and which are necessary or desirable to collect the affected Sites or Contracts and shall make the same available to the Successor Servicer or the Administrative Agent or its designee at a place selected by the Successor Servicer or the Administrative Agent and in such form as the Successor Servicer or the Administrative Agent may reasonably request, and (B) segregate all cash, checks and other instruments received by it from time to time constituting Collections in respect of the Sites or the Contracts in a manner acceptable to the Successor Servicer and the Administrative Agent, and, promptly upon receipt, remit all such cash, checks and instruments to the Successor Servicer or the Administrative Agent or its designee.

Section 17.2 Agent to Act; Appointment of Successor.

(A) On and after the receipt by the Servicer of a Termination Notice pursuant to Section 17.1 or upon a resignation by the Servicer pursuant to Section 16.5, the Servicer shall continue to perform all servicing functions under this Loan Agreement and the applicable Loan Documents, until (i) in the case of any such receipt, the date specified in such Termination Notice or otherwise specified by the Administrative Agent in writing or, if no such date is specified in such Termination Notice or otherwise specified by the Administrative Agent, until a date mutually agreed upon by the Servicer and the Administrative Agent, and (ii) in the case of any such resignation, until a Successor Servicer shall have assumed the responsibilities and obligations of the Servicer pursuant to this Section 17.2. The Administrative Agent shall as promptly as possible after the giving of a Termination Notice or such a resignation appoint the Backup Servicer subject to the conditions set forth herein and the ability of the Backup Servicer to appoint a subservicer for certain functions (or, in the case of the termination or resignation of the Backup Servicer as Servicer, an Eligible Servicer) as a successor servicer (the “Successor Servicer”), and such Successor Servicer shall accept its appointment by a written assumption in a form acceptable to the Administrative Agent. In the event that a Successor Servicer has not been appointed or has not accepted its appointment by the earlier of 60 days after the date of such Termination Notice or at the time when such terminated or resigning Servicer ceases to act as the Servicer hereunder, the Administrative Agent shall petition a court of competent jurisdiction to appoint any established institution that is an Eligible Servicer as the Successor Servicer hereunder.

(B) Upon its appointment, the Successor Servicer shall be the successor in all respects to the terminated or resigning Servicer with respect to servicing functions under this Loan Agreement and each related Loan Document and shall be subject to all the responsibilities, duties and liabilities relating thereto placed on the Servicer by the terms and provisions hereof and thereof accruing from and after the effective date of such appointment. From and after such appointment, all references in this Loan Agreement and any such related Loan Document to the Servicer shall be deemed to refer to such Successor Servicer.

(C) Notwithstanding anything else herein to the contrary, in no event shall the Administrative Agent or the Lenders be liable for any servicing fee or for any differential in the amount of the servicing fee paid hereunder and the amount necessary to induce any Successor Servicer to act as successor Servicer under this Loan Agreement and the transactions set forth or provided for herein.

(D) All authority and power granted to the Successor Servicer under this Loan Agreement shall automatically terminate upon the later of (x) the termination and cancellation of this Loan Agreement and the termination or expiry of the Commitments and (y) the payment in full in cash of all Obligations owing to all Persons under the Loan Documents (a “Successor Servicer Termination Event”), and (except any agency grant on behalf of the Lenders or Administrative Agent) shall thereafter pass to and be vested in the Borrower (or its designee) and, without limitation, the Borrower is hereby authorized and empowered to execute and deliver, on behalf of the Successor Servicer, as attorney-in-fact or otherwise, all documents and other instruments, and to do and accomplish all other acts or things necessary or appropriate to effect the purposes of such transfer of servicing rights. Upon the occurrence of such Successor Servicer Termination Event, the Successor Servicer agrees (i) to cooperate with the Borrower (or its designee) in effecting the termination of the responsibilities and rights of the Successor Servicer to conduct servicing of the Sites and the Contracts and (ii) to transfer its electronic records relating to the Collateral to the Borrower (or their designee) in such electronic form as the Borrower (or its designee) may reasonably request and shall transfer all other records, correspondence and documents to Borrower (or their designee) in the manner and at such times as the Borrower (or its designee) shall reasonably request at Borrower’s sole expense.

Section 17.3 Backup Servicer as Servicer; Servicing Advances.

(A) For any period where the Backup Servicer is acting as Successor Servicer, the Servicer will be required to make an advance (each, a “Debt Service Advance”), so long as it does not determine such advance to be a Nonrecoverable Servicing Advance, on the Business Day preceding each Monthly Payment Date in an amount equal to the excess of (i) the amount of accrued interest due and payable on such Monthly Payment Date (not including any Yield Maintenance) (the “Monthly Payment Amount”) over (ii) the amount of Distributable Collections available to pay such Monthly Payment Amount on such date. The Servicer will not be required to advance any principal, Yield Maintenance, default interest, interest on interest, or any amount to any Reserve Account. For any period where the Backup Servicer is acting as Successor Servicer, it will be required to make Collateral Protection Advances so long as it does not determine such advance to be a Nonrecoverable Servicing Advance. The Backup Servicer as Successor Servicer will be entitled to interest (compounded monthly) on any Servicing Advance that it makes, which interest will accrue at the Prime Rate +3% (“Servicer Advance Interest”) from the date the Servicing Advance is made until the date it is reimbursed. Servicing Advances and accrued interest thereon will be reimbursed and paid to the Servicer as set forth in Section 2.5(B)(i). The Servicer will not be required to make any Servicing Advance which it determines would be a Nonrecoverable Servicing Advance. The determination by the Servicer that it has made a Nonrecoverable Servicing Advance or that any proposed Servicing Advance, if made, would constitute a Nonrecoverable Servicing Advance, must be evidenced by an officer’s certificate delivered to the Administrative Agent specifying the reasons for such determination.

“Collateral Protection Advance” means all customary, reasonable and necessary out-of-pocket costs and expenses (excluding costs and expenses of the Servicer’s overhead) incurred by the Servicer from time to time in the performance of its servicing obligations, including the costs and expenses incurred in connection with, (a) the preservation, ownership and protection of the Collateral which, in the Servicer’s sole discretion exercised in good faith and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, are necessary to prevent an immediate or material loss to the Borrower’s or any Obligor’s interest in such Collateral, (b) the payment of premiums for Insurance Policies, (c) any enforcement or judicial proceedings, including court costs, attorneys’ fees and expenses, costs for third party experts, including environmental consultants and (d) any other item specifically identified as a Collateral Protection Advance herein; provided, however, the Servicer will not be responsible for advancing (i) the cost to cure any failure of the Collateral to comply with any applicable law, including any environmental laws, or to contain, clean up or remedy an environmental condition present at any Site; (ii) any losses arising with respect to defects in the title to any Collateral, or lack of a survey or updated survey; (iii) any costs of capital improvements to any Site other than those necessary to prevent an immediate or material loss to the Borrower’s interest in such Site; (iv) amounts required to cure any damages resulting from causes not required to be insured under this Agreement, and not so insured; (v) any premiums for any Insurance Policies to the extent it did not have actual notice of the nonpayment by the Borrower of such premiums at least 30 days prior to the date such Insurance Premiums would lapse or (vi) any amounts necessary to fund any reserve or escrow account.

“Nonrecoverable Servicing Advance” shall mean any portion of a Servicing Advance previously made or to be made that, together with any then outstanding Servicing Advances, as determined by the Servicer, in its reasonable good faith judgment, will not be ultimately recoverable (with interest thereon) from subsequent payments or collections (including condemnation proceeds or proceeds from the operation or disposition of the Collateral) or from any funds on deposit in the Collection Account, giving due consideration to the limited assets of the Obligors. In making such determination, the Servicer may consider only the obligations of the Obligors under the terms of the Loan Documents as they may have been modified, the related Collateral in “as is” or then-current condition and the timing and availability of anticipated cash flows as modified by such party’s assumptions regarding the possibility and effect of future adverse changes, together with such other factors, including an estimate of future expenses, timing of recovery, the inherent risk of a protracted period to complete liquidation or the potential inability to liquidate collateral as a result of intervening creditor claims or of a bankruptcy proceeding affecting an Obligor and the effect thereof on the existence, validity and priority of any security interest encumbering the Collateral, the direct and indirect equity interests in the Obligors, available cash on deposit in the Lock-Box Accounts attributable to the Eligible Contracts and the Collection Account attributed to the Borrower and the net proceeds derived from any of the foregoing. The Servicer may update or change its nonrecoverability determination at any time. Any such determination made by the Servicer will be conclusive and binding on the Lenders so long as it was made in accordance with the Servicing Standard.

“Servicing Advance” shall mean any Debt Service Advance or Collateral Protection Advance.

Servicing Standard” means (i) the same care, skill, prudence and diligence with which the Backup Servicer (including, for purposes of this definition in each case, while it is acting as Successor Servicer) generally services and administers comparable obligations for other third parties, giving due consideration to customary and usual standards of practice of prudent servicing by institutional servicers; (ii) with a view to timely payment of all scheduled payments of interest and, if the Loans come into and continue in default, the maximization of the recovery on the Loan to the Lenders, on a net present value basis (the relevant discounting of anticipated collections that will be distributable to Lenders to be performed at the Interest Rate); (iii) in accordance with applicable law and (iv) without regard to (A) any relationship that the Backup Servicer or any affiliate thereof may have with the Borrower, the Parent, or any Tenant, any of their respective affiliates or any other party to the Loan Documents; (B) the ownership of any Note by the Servicer or any affiliate thereof; (C) the obligation of the Backup Servicer to make Servicing Advances; (D) the right of the Servicer or any affiliate thereof to receive compensation for its services or reimbursement of costs, generally under the Loan Documents or with respect to any particular transaction and (E) any debt of the Obligors or any affiliate thereof held by the Backup Servicer or any affiliate thereof.

Section 17.4 Backup Servicer Authority.

(A) As Successor Servicer, the Backup Servicer may appoint a subservicer to assist it with performing its duties under this Loan Agreement and the costs and fees in connection with any such subservicer acting in such capacity shall be paid by the Backup Servicer as a Collateral Protection Advance. Such subservicer may be appointed to perform property management functions, and the Servicer shall not be liable for the actions of any such subservicer, so long as they were hired in good faith in accordance with the Servicing Standard.

Section 17.5 Resignation.

(A) The Backup Servicer, including in its role as Successor Servicer, may assign its rights and obligations hereunder (i) if a qualified replacement Backup Servicer, satisfactory to the Borrower and Administrative Agent (and upon confirmation of no downgrade of a rating from Fitch), accepts and assumes such rights and obligations or (ii) upon an Increase to which the Backup Servicer, including in its role as Successor Servicer, did not consent.

Section 17.6 Delivery of Reports; Reliance on Information.

(A) The Backup Servicer, including in its role as Successor Servicer, shall receive a copy the Monthly Report Error Notice, and all reports delivered pursuant to 15.4(H).

(B) In connection with the performance of its obligations under this Loan Agreement and the other Loan Documents, the Backup Servicer, including in its role as Successor Servicer, shall be entitled to conclusively rely upon written information or any certification provided to it by the Borrower, the initial Servicer and any other Loan Party, without the obligation to investigate the accuracy or completeness of any such information or any certification, and shall have no liability in reliance thereon.

Section 17.7 Permitted Collateral Transfer.

(A) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the other Loan Documents, none of the Collateral Agent, Paying Agent, Administrative Agent or Lender, nor any other party, will be able to prevent the Backup Servicer, as Successor Servicer, from transferring ownership of all or any portion of the Collateral, or exercising any other rights or remedies under Article VIII with respect to the Collateral, if any Servicing Advance or Servicer Advance Interest is outstanding, and the Backup Servicer, as Successor Servicer, determines in accordance with the Servicing Standard, that such transfer of ownership or other exercise of any such rights or remedies would be in the best interest of the Lenders. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the other Loan Documents, no advice, direction or objection from or by Collateral Agent, Paying Agent, Administrative Agent or any Lender or any other party may: (i) require or cause the Backup Servicer (including in its role as Successor Servicer) to violate applicable law, the terms of the Notes or the Loan Documents or any other provision of this Loan Agreement, including the Backup Servicer's obligation to act in accordance with the Servicing Standard; (ii) expose the Backup Servicer (including in its role as Successor Servicer), or any of its respective Affiliates, officers, directors, members, managers, employees, agents or partners, to any material claim, suit or liability; or (iii) materially expand the scope of the Backup Servicer's (including in its role as Successor Servicer) responsibilities under the Loan Documents. The Borrower and Obligors hereby grant to the Backup Servicer (in its role as Successor Servicer) all rights, powers and remedies granted to the Collateral Agent, Paying Agent, Administrative Agent and/or Lenders pursuant to this Loan Agreement, including Article VIII, in order to enable Backup Servicer (in its role as Successor Servicer) to carry out its rights pursuant to this Section 17.7, and each of the Collateral Agent, Paying Agent, Administrative Agent and Lenders hereby agrees to the grant of such rights, powers and remedies and to the Backup Servicer's (in its role as Successor Servicer) ability to exercise them pursuant to this Section 17.7. Each of the parties hereto (subject to any rights and protections it may have under this Agreement or the related Loan Documents) agrees to execute and deliver to the Backup Servicer any documents or powers of attorney prepared by and reasonably requested in writing by the Backup Servicer (in its role as Successor Servicer) to perform its rights, remedies, duties and obligations under this Loan Agreement (the form of which such documents must be satisfactory to the party delivering such document or power of attorney). Any amounts received by the Backup Servicer (in its role as Successor Servicer) pursuant to the exercise of its rights under this Section 17.7 shall be deposited into the Collection Account for distribution by the Paying Agent in accordance with Section 7.2. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary: (i) each party to this Agreement: (A) may conclusively assume that it is authorized and permitted to perform any action requested by the Backup Servicer (in its role as Successor Servicer) pursuant to this Section 17.7, and (B) shall incur no liability to any other party hereto or any other Person for acting in accordance with the request of the Backup Servicer (in its role as Successor Servicer) pursuant to this Section 17.7, and (ii) in no event shall the Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent, the Collateral Agent or the Administrative Agent be responsible for or incur any liability with respect to the actions of the Backup Servicer (in its role as Successor Servicer) performed pursuant this Section 17.7.

Section 17.8 Maintenance of Insurance.

Best, (i) a fidelity bond providing coverage against losses that may be sustained as a result of its officers or employees misappropriation of funds, and (ii) a policy or policies of insurance covering loss occasioned by the errors and omissions of its officers and employees in connection with its obligation to service the Notes, in each case, which bond or policies shall be in such form and amount as would be required for the Backup Servicer to be a qualified Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac seller-servicer of multifamily mortgage loans. Notwithstanding the foregoing, so long as the long-term unsecured debt obligations of the Backup Servicer or its direct or indirect parent are rated at least “A” by Fitch, the Backup Servicer shall be allowed to provide self-insurance with respect to its fidelity bond and errors and omissions policy. The coverage shall be in the form and amount that would meet the servicing requirements of prudent institutional commercial mortgage loan lenders and servicers. Coverage of the Backup Servicer under a policy or bond by the terms thereof obtained by an Affiliate of the Backup Servicer and providing the required coverage shall satisfy the requirements of this Section.

Section 17.9 Additional Backup Servicer Fees.

Section 18.1 Appointment and Authority. Each of the Lenders hereby irrevocably appoints Guggenheim Corporate Funding, LLC, to act on its behalf as the Administrative Agent hereunder and under each other Loan Document and authorizes such Administrative Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to such Administrative Agent by the terms hereof or thereof, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto. The Administrative Agent hereby acknowledges and agrees that, in its capacity as successor administrative agent to UBS Stamford Branch, it shall be bound by the terms and conditions of the Collateral Agent Agreement as if it were originally named as a party therein. The provisions of this Article are solely for the benefit of the Administrative Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Paying Agent, the Calculation Agent and the Lenders, and neither the Borrower nor the Loan Parties shall have rights as third party beneficiaries of any of such provisions.

Section 18.2 Rights as a Lender. The Administrative Agent shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent and the term "Lender" or "Lenders" shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated or unless the context otherwise requires, include each person serving as the Administrative Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Such person and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Borrower or any Subsidiary or other Affiliate thereof as if such person were not the Administrative Agent hereunder and without any duty to account therefor to the Lenders.

Section 18.3 Exculpatory Provisions. The Administrative Agent shall have no duties or obligations except those expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Administrative Agent:

(i) shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default has occurred and is continuing;

(ii) shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers expressly contemplated hereby or by the other Loan Documents that the Administrative Agent is required to exercise as directed in writing by the Majority Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be expressly provided for herein or in the other Loan Documents); provided that the Administrative Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its judgment or the judgment of its counsel, may expose the Administrative Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Loan Document or requirements of any applicable Governmental Authority; and

(iii) shall not, except as expressly set forth herein and in the other Loan Documents, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to Borrower or any of its Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by the person serving as the Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity.

No Agent shall be liable for any action taken or not taken by it (x) with the consent or at the request of the Majority Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary, or as the Administrative Agent shall believe in good faith shall be necessary, under the circumstances as provided in Section 14.3) or (y) in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct. No Agent shall be deemed to have knowledge of any Default unless and until notice describing such Default is given to such Agent by the Borrower or a Lender.

The Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Loan Agreement or any other Loan Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein or the occurrence of any Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Loan Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other agreement, instrument or document or (v) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article III or elsewhere herein, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Administrative Agent. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the use of the term “agent” in this Loan Agreement with reference to the Administrative Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable law. Instead, such term is used merely as a matter of market custom and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between independent contracting parties.

Section 18.4 Reliance by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any Note, notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise authenticated by the proper person. The Administrative Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan, that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender, the Administrative Agent may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice to the contrary from such Lender prior to the making of such Loan. The Administrative Agent may consult with legal counsel, independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall be entitled to rely upon the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with such advice.

Section 18.5 [Intentionally Omitted].

Section 18.6 Resignation or Removal of the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent may at any time give notice of its resignation to the Lenders and the Borrower. The Servicer may request to the Lenders in writing that the Administrative Agent be removed, which removal shall be effective with the written consent of the Majority Lenders, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, or the Majority Lenders may also request to the Servicer in writing that the Administrative Agent be removed, which removal shall be effective with the written consent of the Servicer (in either case, a “Removal”). Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation or upon a Removal, the Majority Lenders shall have the right, in consultation with the Borrower, to appoint a successor, which shall be a bank with an office in the United States, or an Affiliate of any such bank with an office in the United States. If no such successor shall have been so appointed by the Majority Lenders and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Administrative Agent gives notice of its resignation or Removal, then the retiring Administrative Agent may on behalf of the Lenders, appoint a successor Administrative Agent meeting the qualifications set forth above provided that if the Administrative Agent shall notify the Borrower and the Lenders that no qualifying person has accepted such appointment, then such resignation or Removal shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice and (1) the retiring Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents and (2) all communications and determinations provided to be made by, to or through the Administrative Agent shall instead be made by or to each Lender directly, until such time as the Majority Lenders appoint a successor Administrative Agent as provided for above in this paragraph. Upon the acceptance of a successor’s appointment as Administrative Agent hereunder, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring (or retired) Administrative Agent, and the retiring Administrative Agent shall be discharged from all of its duties and obligations hereunder or under the other Loan Documents (if not already discharged therefrom as provided above in this paragraph). The fees payable by the Borrower to a successor Administrative Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrower and such successor. After the retiring Administrative Agent’s resignation or Removal hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, the provisions of this Article XVIII and Section 19.5 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Administrative Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while the retiring Administrative Agent was acting as Administrative Agent.

Section 18.7 Non-Reliance on the Administrative Agent and Other Lenders. Each Lender acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Loan Agreement. Each Lender further represents and warrants that it has had the opportunity to review the Loan Documents and each other document made available to it in connection with this Loan Agreement and has acknowledged and accepted the terms and conditions applicable to the recipients thereof. Each Lender also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Loan Agreement, any other Loan Document or any related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder.

Section 18.8 Intentionally Omitted.

Section 18.9 Intentionally Omitted.

Section 18.10 Enforcement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any other Loan Document, the authority to enforce rights and remedies hereunder and under the other Loan Documents against the Loan Parties or any of them shall be vested exclusively in, and all actions and proceedings at law in connection with such enforcement shall be instituted and maintained exclusively by, the Administrative Agent, or as the Majority Lenders may require or otherwise direct, for the benefit of all the Lenders; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not prohibit (a) the Administrative Agent from exercising on its own behalf the rights and remedies that inure to its benefit (solely in its capacity as Administrative Agent) hereunder and under the other Loan Documents, (b) any Lender from exercising setoff rights in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Loan Agreement, or (C) any Lender from filing proofs of claim or appearing and filing pleadings on its own behalf during the pendency of a proceeding relative to any Loan Party under any bankruptcy or insolvency law.

Section 18.11 Intentionally Omitted.

Section 18.12 Action on Instructions of Lenders. In all cases where the Administrative Agent makes a decision or determination hereunder or may give a notice or take or forbear from taking similar action, it shall do so at the written direction (which may be by email) of the Majority Lenders. The Administrative Agent shall in all cases be fully protected in acting, or in refraining from acting, hereunder and under any other Loan Document in accordance with written instructions signed by the Lenders, and such instructions and any action taken or failure to act pursuant thereto shall be binding on all of the Lenders and on all holders of the Notes. The Administrative Agent shall be fully justified in failing or refusing to take any action hereunder and under any other Loan Document unless it shall first be indemnified to its satisfaction by the Lenders pro rata against any and all liability, cost and expense that it may incur by reason of taking or continuing to take any such action.

ARTICLE XIX

THE PAYING AGENT

Section 19.1 Appointment. Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas is hereby appointed by the other parties hereto as the initial Paying Agent, and accepts such appointment.

Section 19.2 Representations and Warranties. The Paying Agent represents to the other parties hereto as follows:

(A) The Paying Agent is a banking corporation validly existing under the laws of the State of New York.

(B) The Paying Agent has the requisite power and authority to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under this Loan Agreement, and has taken all necessary action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance by it of this Loan Agreement.

(C) This Loan Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Paying Agent and constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Paying Agent, enforceable against the Paying Agent in accordance with its respective terms, except that such enforcement may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, liquidation, or other similar laws affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights generally, and by general principles of equity, including, without limitation, concepts of materiality, reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing (regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding in equity or at law).

Section 19.3 Limitation of Liability of Paying Agent. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, this Loan Agreement has been executed by Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas, not in its individual capacity, but solely as the Paying Agent and in no event shall Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas have any liability for the representations, warranties, covenants, agreements or other obligations of the other parties hereto or in any of the certificates, notices or agreements delivered pursuant hereto, as to all of which recourse shall be had solely to the assets of the party responsible therefor.

Section 19.4 Certain Matters Affecting the Paying Agent. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary:

(A) The Paying Agent undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Loan Agreement. The Paying Agent shall not have any duties or responsibilities except those expressly set forth in this Loan Agreement and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Loan Agreement against the Paying Agent.

(B) The Paying Agent shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by an officer or officers of the Paying Agent, unless it shall be conclusively determined by the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction not subject to appeal or review that the Paying Agent was grossly negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts.

(C) The Paying Agent shall not be liable with respect to any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in accordance with any direction given or certificate or other document delivered to the Paying Agent under this Loan Agreement.

(D) None of the provisions of this Loan Agreement shall require the Paying Agent to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers if it shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or indemnity satisfactory to it against such risk or liability is not assured to it.

(E) The Paying Agent may conclusively rely and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting upon any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, consent, order, approval or other paper or document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper party or parties.

(F) Whenever in the administration of the provisions of this Loan Agreement the Paying Agent shall deem it necessary or desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking or suffering any action to be taken hereunder, such matter may, be deemed to be conclusively proved and established by a certificate delivered to the Paying Agent hereunder and such certificate, shall be full warrant to the Paying Agent for any action taken, suffered or omitted by it under the provisions of this Loan Agreement.

(G) The Paying Agent may consult with counsel and the advice or any opinion of counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or omitted by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with such advice or opinion of counsel.

(H) The Paying Agent shall not be bound to make any investigation into (i) the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, entitlement order, approval or other paper or document (ii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth in this Loan Agreement or the other Loan Documents, (iii) the occurrence of any Default, Event of Default, Servicer Default, Amortization Event, Cash Trap Event, or the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of this Loan Agreement, the Loan Documents or any other agreement, instrument or document related thereto, (iv) the creation, perfection or priority of any lien purported to be created by this Loan Agreement or the other Loan Documents, (v) the value or the sufficiency of any Collateral, or (vi) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in this Loan Agreement or the other Loan Documents.

(I) The Paying Agent shall have no obligation to invest and reinvest any cash held in any of the accounts hereunder in the absence of a timely and specific written investment direction pursuant to the terms of this Loan Agreement. In no event shall the Paying Agent be liable for the selection of investments or for investment losses incurred thereon. The Paying Agent shall have no liability in respect of losses incurred as a result of the liquidation of any investment prior to its stated maturity or the failure of another party to timely provide a written investment direction pursuant to the terms of this Loan Agreement.

(J) The Paying Agent may execute any of the powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents, attorneys, custodians or nominees appointed with due care, and shall not be responsible for the monitoring of or any willful misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent, attorney, custodian or nominee so appointed.

(K) Any corporation or entity into which the Paying Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Paying Agent shall be a party, or any corporation or entity succeeding to the business of the Paying Agent shall be the successor of the Paying Agent hereunder without the execution or filing of any paper with any party hereto or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto except where an instrument of transfer or assignment is required by law to effect such succession, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding.

(L) In no event shall the Paying Agent be liable for special, indirect or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, lost profits), even if the Paying Agent has been advised of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(M) In no event shall the Paying Agent be liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Loan Agreement or any related documents because of circumstances beyond the Paying Agent's control, including, but not limited to, a failure, termination, or suspension of a clearing house, securities depository, settlement system or central payment system in any applicable part of the world or acts of God, flood, war (whether declared or undeclared), civil or military disturbances or hostilities, nuclear or natural catastrophes, political unrest, explosion, severe weather or accident, earthquake, terrorism, fire, riot, labor disturbances, strikes or work stoppages for any reason, embargo, government action, including any laws, ordinances, regulations or the like (whether domestic, federal, state, county or municipal or foreign) which delay, restrict or prohibit the providing of the services contemplated by this Loan Agreement or any related documents, or the unavailability of communications or computer facilities, the failure of equipment or interruption of communications or computer facilities, or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility, or any other causes beyond the Paying Agent's control whether or not of the same class or kind as specified above.

(N) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities indemnities and benefits given to the Paying Agent under this Loan Agreement are extended to and shall be enforceable by the Calculation Agent, the Collateral Agent, and the Paying Agent in each of their capacities hereunder and the other Loan Documents (including but not limited to any future or successor capacities), and each agent, custodian, co-trustee and other Person employed by any of them to act hereunder.

(O) The Paying Agent shall not be liable for failing to comply with its obligations under this Loan Agreement in so far as the performance of such obligations is dependent upon the timely receipt of instructions and/or other information from any other person that are not received or not received by the time required.

(P) The Paying Agent shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Loan Agreement at the request or direction of any of the Lenders or the Administrative Agent unless such Lenders and/or the Administrative Agent shall have offered to the Paying Agent security, pre-funding or indemnity satisfactory to it against the costs, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) and liabilities that might be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction.

(Q) The Paying Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Default, Event of Default, Amortization Event, Cash Trap Event, or Servicer Default, except any Default, Event of Default, Amortization Event, Cash Trap Event, or Servicer Default of which a responsible officer of the Paying Agent has received written notification at the address specified in Section 14.5 and such notice references the Loans and this Loan Agreement. None of the Paying Agent, Calculation Agent, Collateral Agent (including in its capacity as Register Agent) shall be deemed to have knowledge of any "Noncompliant Lender" designations, except any "Noncompliant Lender" designations of which a responsible officer of the Paying Agent, Calculation Agent, Collateral Agent, as applicable, has received written notification at the address specified in Section 14.5 and such notice references the Loan and this Loan Agreement.

(R) The right of the Paying Agent to perform any discretionary act enumerated in this Loan Agreement shall not be construed as a duty.

(S) The Paying Agent shall have no duty (A) to see to any recording or filing of any document or instrument referred to herein or any financing statement or continuation statement evidencing a security interest, or to see to the maintenance of any such recording or filing or to any re-recording or re-filing of any thereof, (B) to see to any insurance, or (C) to see to the payment or discharge of any tax, assessment, or other governmental charge or any lien or encumbrance of any kind owing with respect to, assessed or levied against, any part of the Collateral.

(T) Each Lender acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Paying Agent and based on the financial statements prepared by or on behalf of the Borrower, the Servicer, the other Obligors and the Holding Company and such other documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Loan Agreement and the other Loan Documents. Each Lender also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Paying Agent and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit decisions in taking or not taking action under this Loan Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

Section 19.5 Indemnification. The Borrower and the Servicer (if the Servicer is an Affiliate of the Borrower) agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless each of the Paying Agent, the Collateral Agent, the Calculation Agent, and each of their officers, directors, employees, affiliates and agents (collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") for any liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses (including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) and disbursements of any kind and nature whatsoever, regardless of the merit, which may be imposed on, incurred by or demanded, claimed or asserted against the Indemnified Party in any way directly or indirectly relating to or arising out of this Loan Agreement or any other document delivered in connection herewith or the transactions contemplated hereby, or the enforcement of any of the terms hereof or of any such other documents, provided, that none of the Borrower or the Servicer shall be liable for any of the foregoing to the extent arising from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of an Indemnified Party as determined by the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, no longer subject to appeal or review. The provisions of this Section 19.5 shall survive the termination of this Loan Agreement or any related agreement or the earlier of the resignation or removal of the Paying Agent, the Collateral Agent, or the Calculation Agent.

Section 19.6 Compensation. The Borrower shall pay each of the Paying Agent, the Collateral Agent and the Calculation Agent, from time to time, such compensation for their services as the Servicer, the Collateral Agent, the Calculation Agent and the Paying Agent shall agree in writing.

Section 19.7 Successor Paying Agent. The Paying Agent may resign at any time by giving at least thirty (30) days prior written notice thereof to the other parties hereto; provided, that no such resignation shall become effective until a successor Paying Agent has been appointed hereunder. The Paying Agent may be removed at any time for cause by written notice received by the Paying Agent from the Administrative Agent. Upon any such resignation or removal, the Administrative Agent shall have the right to appoint a successor Paying Agent. If no successor Paying Agent shall have been so appointed and shall have accepted such appointment within thirty (30) days after the exiting Paying Agent's giving notice of resignation or receipt of notice of removal, then the exiting Paying Agent may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to appoint a successor Paying Agent. Upon the acceptance of any appointment as the Paying Agent hereunder by a successor Paying Agent, such successor Paying Agent shall thereupon succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the exiting Paying Agent, and the exiting Paying Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder. After any exiting Paying Agent's resignation hereunder, the provisions of this Article XIX shall continue in effect for its benefit in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by it while it was acting as the Paying Agent hereunder.

Section 19.8 Withholding Tax.

(A) Withholding. To the extent required by any applicable law, the Borrower or the Paying Agent (for purposes of this Section 19.8, a "Payor") may withhold from any payment to any Lender, Administrative Agent, Paying Agent or any other recipient of any payment under this Loan Agreement (for purposes of this Section 19.8, a "Recipient") an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding Tax. Without limiting the provisions of Section 4.10, (x) each Lender shall, and does hereby, indemnify any Payor, and shall make payable in respect thereof within 30 days after demand therefor, against any and all Excluded Taxes and any and all related losses, claims, liabilities and expenses (including fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for the Administrative Agent or the Paying Agent) incurred by or asserted against the Payor by the IRS or any other Governmental Authority as a result of the failure of the Payor to properly withhold Tax from amounts paid to or for the account of any Lender because the appropriate form was not delivered or not properly executed, or because such Lender failed to notify the Paying Agent of a change in circumstance that rendered the exemption from, or reduction of withholding Tax ineffective and (y) each Borrower shall, and does hereby, indemnify each Recipient, and shall make payable in respect thereof within 30 days after demand therefor, against any and all Indemnified Taxes and any and all related losses, claims, liabilities and expenses (including fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for the Administrative Agent or the Paying Agent) incurred by or asserted against such Recipient by the IRS or any other Governmental Authority arising therefrom. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Recipient by the Payor shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Paying Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under this Loan Agreement or any other Loan Document against any amount due the Paying Agent under this Section 19.8. The agreements in this Section 19.8 shall survive the resignation and/or replacement of the Paying Agent, any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all other Obligations.

(B) Non-U.S. Lender or Administrative Agent. Each Recipient that is not a “United States person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (each, a “Non-U.S. Recipient”), agrees that it will deliver to each Payor an original United States Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”) Form W-8 entitling such Recipient as of the date hereof (or as of the date such Non-U.S. Recipient becomes a Recipient hereunder) and any other form required, including but not limited to IRS Form W-8BEN-E to receive payments under this Loan Agreement without deduction of U.S. Withholding Taxes (or, in the case of a Recipient that is an assignee or successor, entitling such Recipient to receive payments under this Loan Agreement subject to a U.S. Withholding Tax rate that is less than or equal to the U.S. Withholding Tax rate to which its assignor or predecessor was subject immediately prior to such assignment). Except as provided in the following sentence, each Non-U.S. Recipient further undertakes to deliver to each Payor renewals or additional copies of such form (or any successor form) (x) on or before the date that such form expires or becomes obsolete, (y) after the occurrence of any event requiring a change in the most recent forms so delivered by it, and (z) as may be reasonably requested by Payor.

(C) U.S. Lender Administrative Agent. Each Recipient that is a “United States person” within the meaning of Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, agrees that it will deliver to each Payor an original IRS Form W-9 entitling such Recipient as of the date hereof (or as of the date such U.S. Recipient becomes a Recipient hereunder) to receive payments under this Loan Agreement without deduction of U.S. backup withholding tax.

For purposes hereof, the following terms have the following meanings:

“Excluded Taxes” means any of the following Taxes imposed on or with respect to any Recipient or required to be withheld or deducted from a payment to a Recipient, (a) Taxes imposed on or measured by net income (however denominated), franchise Taxes, and branch profits Taxes, in each case, (i) imposed as a result of such Recipient being organized under the laws of, or having its principal office or, in the case of any Lender, its lending office located in, the jurisdiction imposing such Tax (or any political subdivision thereof) or (ii) that are Other Connection Taxes, (b) in the case of a Lender, U.S. federal withholding Taxes imposed on amounts payable to or for the account of such Lender with respect to an applicable interest in an Advance or Commitment pursuant to a law in effect on the date on which (i) such Lender acquires such interest in the Advance or Commitment or (ii) such Lender changes its Lending Office, except in each case to the extent that amounts with respect to such Taxes were payable either to such Lender's assignor immediately before such Lender became a party hereto or to such Lender immediately before it changed its lending office, (c) Taxes attributable to such Recipient's failure to comply with Sections 19.8.(b) or (c) and (d) any U.S. federal withholding Taxes imposed pursuant to FATCA.

"FATCA" means Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as of the date of this Loan Agreement (or any amended or successor version that is substantively comparable and not materially more onerous to comply with), any current or future regulations or official interpretations thereof and any agreements entered into pursuant to Section 1471(b)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

"Indemnified Taxes" means (a) Taxes, other than Excluded Taxes, imposed on or with respect to any payment made by or on account of any obligation of the Borrower under any Loan Document and (b) to the extent not otherwise described in (a), Other Taxes.

"Other Connection Taxes" means, with respect to any Recipient, Taxes imposed as a result of a present or former connection between such Recipient and the jurisdiction imposing such Tax (other than connections arising from such Recipient having executed, delivered, become a party to, performed its obligations under, received payments under, received or perfected a security interest under, engaged in any other transaction pursuant to or enforced any Loan Document, or sold or assigned an interest in any Advance or Loan Document).

"Other Taxes" means all present or future stamp, court or documentary, intangible, recording, filing or similar Taxes that arise from any payment made under, from the execution, delivery, performance, enforcement or registration of, from the receipt or perfection of a security interest under, or otherwise with respect to, any Loan Document, except any such Taxes that are Other Connection Taxes imposed with respect to an assignment.

"Taxes" means all present or future taxes, levies, imposts, duties, deductions, withholdings, assessments, fees or other charges imposed by any Governmental Authority, including any interest, additions to tax or penalties applicable thereto.

Section 19.9 Rights of the Collateral Agent. The Collateral Agent shall be entitled to all of the same rights, privileges, protections, immunities and indemnities in this Loan Agreement as are contained in the Collateral Agent Agreement, all of which are incorporated herein mutatis mutandis, in addition to any such rights, privileges, protections, immunities and indemnities contained herein.

Section 19.10 Real Property Documents. Each Lender acknowledges and agrees that the Collateral Agent will have no obligation or liability with respect to any actions or liabilities contained in or with respect to any Mortgages or any related filings (collectively, the “Real Property Documents”), recorded in connection with the transaction contemplated by this Loan Agreement, notwithstanding that the Collateral Agent is the named mortgagee or beneficiary, as applicable, or assignee thereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Administrative Agent or Lenders direct the Collateral Agent to take any action in connection with such Real Property Documents, or the property related thereto, the Collateral Agent shall cooperate to give effect to such directions but, unless indemnity acceptable to the Collateral Agent (in its sole discretion) has been provided to it, shall have no obligation to take any such action with respect to such Real Property Documents in the event that it determines, in its sole discretion, that the taking of such action would expose itself to liability, financial or otherwise, pursuant to the provisions of such Real Property Document or the laws of the applicable governing jurisdiction. In such case, the Collateral Agent will cooperate with the Administrative Agent and the Lenders to effect an assignment of such Real Property Documents upon direction of the Administrative Agent or the Majority Lenders, as applicable. Pending any such assignment, the Collateral Agent shall have no obligation to take any action in connection with such Real Property Document. Notwithstanding the foregoing, but without limitation thereof, and in addition to any right or remedy available to the Collateral Agent thereunder or under applicable law, the Borrower hereby indemnifies, defends and holds the Collateral Agent and each of its officers, directors, employees and agents harmless from any losses or liabilities incurred in connection with any Real Property Documents with respect to its Collateral, prior to the Collateral Agent’s affirmative agreement to take action in connection therewith in accordance with the written direction of the Administrative Agent and/or the Lenders.

5.6 This Amendment has been duly executed and delivered by each Loan Party and constitutes a legal, valid binding obligation of such Loan Party, enforceable against such Loan Party in accordance with its terms, except as such enforceability may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, moratorium or other similar laws of general application and equitable principles relating to or affecting creditors' rights.

6. Integration. This Amendment and the Loan Documents represent the entire agreement about this subject matter and supersede prior negotiations or agreements. All prior agreements, understandings, representations, warranties, and negotiations between the parties about the subject matter of this Amendment and the Loan Documents merge into this Amendment and the Loan Documents.

The Guarantor irrevocably and unconditionally:

- (a) guarantees to each Finance Party punctual performance by each other Obligor of all that Obligor's obligations under the Finance Documents;
- (b) undertakes with each Finance Party that whenever another Obligor does not pay any amount when due under or in connection with any Finance Document, the Guarantor shall immediately on demand pay that amount as if it was the principal obligor; and
- (c) agrees with each Finance Party that if any obligation guaranteed by it is or becomes unenforceable, invalid or illegal, it will, as an independent and primary obligation, indemnify that Finance Party immediately on demand against any cost, loss or liability it incurs as a result of an Obligor not paying any amount which would, but for such unenforceability, invalidity or illegality, have been payable by it under any Finance Document on the date when it would have been due, but so that the amount payable by the Guarantor under this indemnity (except with respect to the Security Agent) will not exceed the amount it would have had to pay under this Clause 16 if the amount claimed had been recoverable on the basis of a guarantee.

16.2. Continuing Guarantee

This guarantee is a continuing guarantee and will extend to the ultimate balance of sums payable by each Obligor under the Finance Documents, regardless of any intermediate payment or discharge in whole or in part.

16.3. Reinstatement

If any discharge, release or arrangement (whether in respect of the obligations of an Obligor or any security for those obligations or otherwise) is made by a Finance Party in whole or in part on the basis of any payment, security or other disposition which is avoided or must be restored in insolvency, liquidation, administration or otherwise, without limitation, then the liability of the Guarantor under this Clause 16 will continue or be reinstated as if the discharge, release or arrangement had not occurred.

16.4. Waiver of defences

The obligations of the Guarantor under this Clause 16 will not be affected by any act, omission, matter or thing which, but for this Clause 16, would reduce, release or prejudice any of its obligations under this Clause 16 (without limitation and whether or not known to it or any Finance Party) including:

- (a) any time, waiver or consent granted to, or composition with, any Obligor or other person;
- (b) the release of any other Obligor or any other person under the terms of any composition or arrangement with any creditor of any member of the Group or Obligor;

- (d) any incapacity or lack of power, authority or legal personality of or dissolution or change in the members or status of an Obligor or any other person;
- (e) any amendment, novation, supplement, extension restatement (however fundamental and whether or not more onerous) or replacement of a Finance Document or any other document or security including, without limitation, any change in the purpose of, any extension of or increase in any facility or the addition of any new facility under any Finance Document or other document or security;
- (f) any unenforceability, illegality or invalidity of any obligation of any person under any Finance Document or any other document or security; or
- (g) any insolvency or similar proceedings.

The Guarantor waives any right it may have of first requiring any Finance Party (or any trustee or agent on its behalf) to proceed against or enforce any other rights or security or claim payment from any person before claiming from the Guarantor under this Clause 16. This waiver applies irrespective of any law or any provision of a Finance Document to the contrary.

16.7. Appropriations

Until all amounts owed or which may become owing by the Obligors under or in connection with the Finance Documents have been irrevocably paid in full, each Finance Party (or any trustee or agent on its behalf) may:

- (a) refrain from applying or enforcing any other moneys, security or rights held or received by that Finance Party (or any trustee or agent on its behalf) in respect of those amounts, or apply and enforce the same in such manner and order as it sees fit (whether against those amounts or otherwise) (and the Guarantor shall not be entitled to the benefit of the same); and
- (b) hold in an interest-bearing suspense account any moneys received from the Guarantor or on account of the Guarantor's liability under this Clause 16.

16.8. Deferral of Guarantor's rights

Until all amounts which may be or become payable by the Obligors under or in connection with the Finance Documents have been irrevocably paid in full and unless the Agent otherwise directs, the Guarantor will not exercise any rights which it may have by reason of performance by it of its obligations under the Finance Documents or by reason of any amount being payable, or liability arising, under this Clause 16:

- (a) to be indemnified by an Obligor;

- (b) to claim any contribution from any other guarantor of any Obligor's obligations under the Finance Documents;
- (c) to take the benefit (in whole or in part and whether by way of subrogation or otherwise) of any rights of the Finance Parties under the Finance Documents or of any other guarantee or security taken pursuant to, or in connection with, the Finance Documents by any Finance Party;

- (e) to exercise any right of set-off against any Obligor; and/or
- (f) to claim or prove as a creditor of any Obligor in competition with any Finance Party.

If the Guarantor receives any benefit, payment or distribution in relation to any such rights, then to the extent necessary to enable all amounts which may be or become payable to the Finance Parties by the Obligors under or in connection with the Finance Documents to be repaid in full it shall (i) hold that benefit, payment or distribution on trust for the Finance Parties and (ii) promptly pay or transfer the same to the Agent or as the Agent may direct for application in accordance with Clause 31 (Payment mechanics).

CHANGES TO PARTIES

22. CHANGES TO THE LENDERS

22.1. Assignments and transfers by the Lenders

Subject to this Clause 22 and to Clause 23 (Restriction on Debt Purchase Transactions), a Lender (the “Existing Lender”) may:

- (a) assign any of its rights; or
- (b) transfer by novation any of its rights and obligations, under any Finance Document to an Eligible Assignee (the “New Lender”).

22.2. Conditions of assignment or transfer

- (a) An Existing Lender must provide notice to the Borrower before it may make an assignment or transfer in accordance with Clause 22.1 (Assignments and transfers by the Lenders) (and provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no potential New Lender shall cease to be an Eligible Assignee solely as a result of its name being added to the Prohibited Assignee/Participant List at the Borrower’s request after such notice has been provided but before such potential New Lender has actually become a New Lender under this Agreement).
- (b) An assignment will only be effective on:
 - (i) receipt by the Agent (whether in the Assignment Agreement or otherwise) of written confirmation from the New Lender (in form and substance satisfactory to the Agent) that the New Lender will assume the same obligations to the other Finance Parties and the other Secured Parties as it would have been under if it was an Original Lender;
 - (ii) the performance by the Agent of all necessary “know your customer” or other similar checks under all applicable laws and regulations in relation to such assignment to a New Lender, the completion of which the Agent shall promptly notify to the Existing Lender and the New Lender; and
 - (iii) the recordation of such assignment in the Register.
- (c) A transfer will only be effective if the procedure set out in Clause 22.5 (Procedure for transfer) is complied with.
- (d) If:
 - (i) a Lender assigns or transfers any of its rights or obligations under the Finance Documents or changes its Facility Office; and

- (ii) as a result of circumstances existing at the date the assignment, transfer or change occurs, an Obligor would be obliged to make a payment to the New Lender or Lender acting through its new Facility Office under Clause 12 (Increased Costs), then the New Lender or Lender acting through its new Facility Office is only entitled to receive payment under that Clause to the same extent as the Existing Lender or Lender acting through its previous Facility Office would have been if the assignment, transfer or change had not occurred. This paragraph (d) shall not apply in relation to an assignment or transfer made in the ordinary course of the primary syndication of the Facility.

- (e) Each New Lender, by executing the relevant Transfer Certificate or Assignment Agreement, confirms, for the avoidance of doubt, that the Agent has authority to execute on its behalf any amendment or waiver that has been approved by or on behalf of the requisite Lender or Lenders in accordance with this Agreement on or prior to the date on which the transfer or assignment becomes effective in accordance with this Agreement and that it is bound by that decision to the same extent as the Existing Lender would have been had it remained a Lender.

22.3. Assignment or transfer fee

Unless the Agent otherwise agrees and excluding an assignment or transfer (i) to an Affiliate of a Lender, (ii) to a Related Fund or (iii) made in connection with primary syndication of the Facility, the New Lender shall, on the date upon which an assignment or transfer takes effect, pay to the Agent (for its own account) a fee of USD 3,500.

22.4. Limitation of responsibility of Existing Lenders

- (a) Unless expressly agreed to the contrary, an Existing Lender makes no representation or warranty and assumes no responsibility to a New Lender for:
 - (i) the legality, validity, effectiveness, adequacy or enforceability of the Transaction Documents, the Transaction Security or any other documents;
 - (ii) the financial condition of any Obligor;
 - (iii) the performance and observance by any Obligor or any other member of the Group of its obligations under the Transaction Documents or any other documents; or
 - (iv) the accuracy of any statements (whether written or oral) made in or in connection with any Transaction Document or any other document,and any representations or warranties implied by law are excluded.
- (b) Each New Lender confirms to the Existing Lender, the other Finance Parties and the Secured Parties that it:

- (i) has made (and shall continue to make) its own independent investigation and assessment of the financial condition and affairs of each Obligor and its related entities in connection with its participation in this Agreement and has not relied exclusively on any information provided to it by the Existing Lender or any other Finance Party in connection with any Transaction Document or the Transaction Security; and
 - (ii) will continue to make its own independent appraisal of the creditworthiness of each Obligor and its related entities whilst any amount is or may be outstanding under the Finance Documents or any Commitment is in force.
- (c) Nothing in any Finance Document obliges an Existing Lender to:
- (i) accept a re-transfer or re-assignment from a New Lender of any of the rights and obligations assigned or transferred under this Clause 22; or
 - (ii) support any losses directly or indirectly incurred by the New Lender by reason of the non-performance by any Obligor of its obligations under the Transaction Documents or otherwise.

22.5. Procedure for transfer

- (a) Subject to the conditions set out in Clause 22.2 (Conditions of assignment or transfer) a transfer is effected in accordance with paragraph (c) below when the Agent executes an otherwise duly completed Transfer Certificate delivered to it by the Existing Lender and the New Lender and the Agent records such transfer in the Register. The Agent shall, subject to paragraph (b) below, as soon as reasonably practicable after receipt by it of a duly completed Transfer Certificate appearing on its face to comply with the terms of this Agreement and delivered in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, execute that Transfer Certificate.
- (b) The Agent shall only be obliged to execute a Transfer Certificate delivered to it by the Existing Lender and the New Lender once it is satisfied it has complied with all necessary “know your customer” or similar checks under all applicable laws and regulations in relation to the transfer to such New Lender.
- (c) Subject to Clause 22.9 (Pro rata interest settlement), on the Transfer Date:
 - (i) to the extent that in the Transfer Certificate the Existing Lender seeks to transfer by novation its rights and obligations under the Finance Documents and in respect of the Transaction Security, each of the Obligors and the Existing Lender shall be released from further obligations towards one another under the Finance Documents and in respect of the Transaction Security and their respective rights against one another under the Finance Documents and in respect of the Transaction Security shall be cancelled (being the “Discharged Rights and Obligations”);

- (ii) each of the Obligors and the New Lender shall (subject to the provisions of paragraph (d) of Clause 22.2 (Conditions of assignment or transfer)) assume obligations towards one another and/or acquire rights against one another which differ from the Discharged Rights and Obligations only insofar as that Obligor or other member of the Group and the New Lender have assumed and/or acquired the same in place of that Obligor and the Existing Lender;
- (iii) the Agent, the Security Agent, the New Lender and the other Lenders, shall acquire the same rights and assume the same obligations between themselves and in respect of the Transaction Security as they would have acquired and assumed had the New Lender been an Original Lender with the rights, and/or obligations acquired or assumed by it as a result of the transfer and to that extent the Agent, the Security Agent, and the Existing Lender shall each be released from further obligations to each other under the Finance Documents; and
- (iv) the New Lender shall become a Party as a “Lender”.

22.6. Procedure for assignment

- (a) Subject to the conditions set out in Clause 22.2 (Conditions of assignment or transfer) an assignment is effected in accordance with paragraph (c) below when the Agent executes an otherwise duly completed Assignment Agreement delivered to it by the Existing Lender and the New Lender and records such assignment in the Register. The Agent shall, subject to paragraph (b) below, as soon as reasonably practicable after receipt by it of a duly completed Assignment Agreement appearing on its face to comply with the terms of this Agreement and delivered in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, execute that Assignment Agreement.
- (b) The Agent shall only be obliged to execute an Assignment Agreement delivered to it by the Existing Lender and the New Lender once it is satisfied it has complied with all necessary “know your customer” or similar checks under all applicable laws and regulations in relation to the assignment to such New Lender.
- (c) Subject to Clause 22.9 (Pro rata interest settlement), on the Transfer Date:
 - (i) the Existing Lender will assign absolutely to the New Lender its rights under the Finance Documents and in respect of the Transaction Security expressed to be the subject of the assignment in the Assignment Agreement;
 - (ii) the Existing Lender will be released from the obligations (the “Relevant Obligations”) expressed to be the subject of the release in the Assignment Agreement (and any corresponding obligations by which it is bound in respect of the Transaction Security); and

- (iii) the New Lender shall become a Party as a “Lender” and will be bound by obligations equivalent to the Relevant Obligations.
- (d) Except, for the avoidance of doubt, in respect of the obligations to have assignments recorded in the Register, Lenders may utilise procedures other than those set out in this Clause 22.6 to assign their rights under the Finance Documents (but not, without the consent of the relevant Obligor or unless in accordance with Clause 22.5 (Procedure for transfer), to obtain a release by that Obligor from the obligations owed to that Obligor by the Lenders nor the assumption of equivalent obligations by a New Lender) so long as they comply with the conditions set out in Clause 22.2 (Conditions of assignment or transfer).

22.7. Copy of Transfer Certificate or Assignment Agreement to Borrower

The Agent shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after it has executed a Transfer Certificate or an Assignment Agreement, send to the Borrower a copy of that Transfer Certificate or Assignment Agreement.

- (a) any charge, assignment or other Security to secure obligations to a federal reserve or central bank; and
- (b) in the case of any Lender which is a fund, any charge, assignment or other Security granted to any holders (or trustee or representatives of holders) of obligations owed, or securities issued, by that Lender as security for those obligations or securities, except that no such charge, assignment or Security shall:

- (i) release a Lender from any of its obligations under the Finance Documents or substitute the beneficiary of the relevant charge, assignment or other Security for the Lender as a party to any of the Finance Documents; or
- (ii) require any payments to be made by an Obligor or grant to any person any more extensive rights than those required to be made or granted to the relevant Lender under the Finance Documents.

22.9. Pro rata interest settlement

- (a) If the Agent has notified the Lenders that it is able to distribute interest payments on a “pro rata basis” to Existing Lenders and New Lenders then (in respect of any transfer pursuant to Clause 22.5 (Procedure for transfer) or any assignment pursuant to Clause 22.6 (Procedure for assignment) the Transfer Date of which, in each case, is after the date of such notification and is not on the last day of an Interest Period):

- (i) any interest or fees in respect of the relevant participation which are expressed to accrue by reference to the lapse of time shall continue to accrue in favour of the Existing Lender up to but excluding the Transfer Date (“Accrued Amounts”) and shall become due and payable to the Existing Lender (without further interest accruing on them) on the last day of the current Interest Period (or, if the Interest Period is longer than six Months, on the next of the dates which falls at six Monthly intervals after the first day of that Interest Period); and
 - (ii) the rights assigned or transferred by the Existing Lender will not include the right to the Accrued Amounts so that, for the avoidance of doubt:
 - (A) when the Accrued Amounts become payable, those Accrued Amounts will be payable for the account of the Existing Lender; and
 - (B) the amount payable to the New Lender on that date will be the amount which would, but for the application of this Clause 22.9, have been payable to it on that date, but after deduction of the Accrued Amounts.
- (b) In this Clause 22.9 references to “Interest Period” shall be construed to include a reference to any other period for accrual of fees.

22.10. Register

The Agent, acting solely for this purpose as an agent of the Parent and Borrower, shall maintain a copy of each Assignment Agreement and Transfer Certificate delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders, and the Commitments of, and principal amounts (and stated interest) of each Loan owing to, each Lender pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the “Register”). The entries in the Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and the Borrower, the Security Agent, the Agent and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement. - (b) A Lender proposing to sell a Voting Participation to an Eligible Participant shall give notice to the Parent and the Agent of such proposed sale, which notice shall identify the relevant Eligible Participant (and provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no potential participant shall cease to be an Eligible Participant solely as a result of its name being added to the Prohibited Assignee/Participant List at the Borrower's request after such notice has been provided but before such potential participant has actually acquired the relevant participation in accordance with this Agreement).
- (c) No sale of a Voting Participation by a Lender pursuant to this Clause 22.11 shall be effective unless:
 - (i) the Lender's obligations under the Finance Documents shall remain unchanged, and the Lender shall remain solely responsible for the performance of such obligations; and
 - (ii) the Lender shall continue to deal solely and directly with Agent in connection with its rights and obligations under the Finance Documents.
- (d) No Eligible Participant acquiring any participation interest from a Lender shall have any right to communicate with, give instructions to, request information from, or demand payment from, any Lender Party other than the Lender from whom such Eligible Participant acquired such participation interest.

- (A) all Lenders if the relevant Finance Document stipulates the matter is an all Lender material loan amendment matter decision; and

- (c) Save in the case of decisions stipulated to be a matter for any other Lender or group of Lenders under the relevant Finance Document and unless a contrary indication appears in a Finance Document, any instructions given to the Agent by the Majority Lenders shall override any conflicting instructions given by any other Parties and will be binding on all Finance Parties save for the Security Agent.
- (d) The Agent may refrain from acting in accordance with any instructions of any Lender or group of Lenders until it has received any indemnification and/or security that it may in its discretion require (which may be greater in extent than that contained in the Finance Documents and which may include payment in advance) for any cost, loss or liability which it may incur in complying with those instructions.
- (e) In the absence of instructions (except in relation to any exercise of the discretion which is given to it under this Agreement where it shall act only upon instructions in accordance with paragraph (b) above), the Agent may act (or refrain from acting) as it considers to be in the best interest of the Lenders.

- (c) Except where a Finance Document specifically provides otherwise, the Agent is not obliged to review or check the adequacy, accuracy or completeness of any document it forwards to another Party.
- (d) If the Agent receives notice from a Party referring to this Agreement, describing a Default and stating that the circumstance described is a Default, it shall promptly notify the other Finance Parties.

- (e) If the Agent is aware of the non-payment of any principal, interest, commitment fee or other fee payable to a Finance Party (other than the Agent or the Security Agent) under this Agreement, it shall promptly notify the other Finance Parties.

- as sufficient evidence that that is the case and, in the case of paragraph (A) above, may assume the truth and accuracy of that certificate.

- (b) The Agent may assume (unless it has received notice to the contrary in its capacity as agent for the Lenders) that:
 - (i) no Default has occurred (unless it has actual knowledge of a Default arising under Clause 21.1 (Non-payment));
 - (ii) any right, power, authority or discretion vested in any Party or any group of Lenders has not been exercised; and

- (e) The Agent may rely on the advice or services of any lawyers, accountants, tax advisers, surveyors or other professional advisers or experts (whether obtained by the Agent or by any other Party) and shall not be liable for any damages, costs or losses to any person, any diminution in value or any liability whatsoever arising as a result of its so relying.
- (f) The Agent may act in relation to the Finance Documents through its officers, employees and agents and the Agent shall not:
 - (i) be liable for any error of judgment made by any such person; or
 - (ii) be bound to supervise, or be in any way responsible for any loss incurred by reason of misconduct, omission or default on the part of, any such person,unless such error or such loss was directly caused by the Agent's gross negligence or wilful misconduct.
- (g) Unless a Finance Document expressly provides otherwise the Agent may disclose to any other Party any information it reasonably believes it has received as agent under this Agreement.
- (h) Notwithstanding any other provision of any Finance Document to the contrary, the Agent is not obliged to do or omit to do anything if it would, or might in its reasonable opinion, constitute a breach of any law or regulation or a breach of a fiduciary duty or duty of confidentiality.

- (i) Notwithstanding any provision of any Finance Document to the contrary, the Agent is not obliged to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of its duties, obligations or responsibilities or the exercise of any right, power, authority or discretion if it has grounds for believing the repayment of such funds or adequate indemnity against, or security for, such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

25.7. Responsibility for documentation

The Agent is not responsible or liable for:

- (a) the adequacy, accuracy or completeness of any information (whether oral or written) supplied by the Agent, an Obligor or any other person in or in connection with any Finance Document or the Data Room or the transactions contemplated in the Finance Documents or any other agreement, arrangement or document entered into, made or executed in anticipation of, under or in connection with any Finance Document;

25.8. No duty to monitor

The Agent shall not be bound to enquire:

- (a) whether or not any Default has occurred;

- (c) The Agent will not be liable for any delay (or any related consequences) in crediting an account with an amount required under the Finance Documents to be paid by the Agent if the Agent has taken all necessary steps as soon as reasonably practicable to comply with the regulations or operating procedures of any recognised clearing or settlement system used by the Agent for that purpose.
- (d) Nothing in this Agreement shall oblige the Agent to carry out:
 - (i) any “know your customer” or other checks in relation to any person; or
 - (ii) any check on the extent to which any transaction contemplated by this Agreement might be unlawful for any Lender,

- (b) Subject to paragraph (c) below, the Borrower shall immediately on demand reimburse any Lender for any payment that Lender makes to the Agent pursuant to paragraph (a) above.
- (c) Paragraph (b) above shall not apply to the extent that the indemnity payment in respect of which the Lender claims reimbursement relates to a liability of the Agent to an Obligor.

- (a) The Agent may resign and appoint one of its Affiliates acting through an office in the US or the United Kingdom as successor by giving notice to the Lenders and the Borrower.

- (b) Alternatively the Agent may resign by giving 30 days' written notice to the Lenders and the Borrower, in which case the Majority Lenders (after consultation with the Parent) may appoint a Successor Agent.
- (c) If the Majority Lenders have not appointed a Successor Agent in accordance with paragraph (b) above within 20 days after notice of resignation was given, the retiring Agent (after consultation with the Borrower) may appoint a Successor Agent (acting through an office in the US or the United Kingdom).
- (d) If the Agent wishes to resign because (acting reasonably) it has concluded that it is no longer appropriate for it to remain as agent and the Agent is entitled to appoint a Successor Agent under paragraph (c) above, the Agent may (if it concludes (acting reasonably) that it is necessary to do so in order to persuade the proposed Successor Agent to become a party to this Agreement as Agent, but subject to Clause 37.3 (Other exceptions)) agree with the proposed Successor Agent amendments to this Clause 25 and any other term of this Agreement dealing with the rights or obligations of the Agent consistent with then current market practice for the appointment and protection of corporate trustees together with any reasonable amendments to the agency fee payable under this Agreement which are consistent with the Successor Agent's normal fee rates and those amendments will bind the Parties.
- (e) The retiring Agent shall, at its own cost, make available to the Successor Agent such documents and records and provide such assistance as the Successor Agent may reasonably request for the purposes of performing its functions as Agent under the Finance Documents. - (f) The Agent's resignation notice shall only take effect upon the appointment of a successor.
- (g) Upon the appointment of a successor, the retiring Agent shall be discharged from any further obligation in respect of the Finance Documents (other than its obligations under paragraph (e) above) but shall remain entitled to the benefit of Clause 13.3 (Indemnity to the Agent) and this Clause 25 (and any agency fees for the account of the retiring Agent shall cease to accrue from (and shall be payable on) that date). Any successor and each of the other Parties shall have the same rights and obligations amongst themselves as they would have had if such successor had been an original Party.

As from such date, the retiring Agent shall be discharged from any further obligation in respect of the Finance Documents (other than its obligations under paragraph (b) above) but shall remain entitled to the benefit of Clause 13.3 (Indemnity to the Agent) and this Clause 25 (and any agency fees for the account of the retiring Agent shall cease to accrue from (and shall be payable on) that date).
- (d) Any Successor Agent and each of the other Parties shall have the same rights and obligations amongst themselves as they would have had if such successor had been an original Party.

25.13. Confidentiality

- (a) In acting as agent for the Finance Parties, the Agent shall be regarded as acting through its agency division which shall be treated as a separate entity from any other of its divisions or departments.
- (b) If information is received by another division or department of the Agent, it may be treated as confidential to that division or department and the Agent shall not be deemed to have notice of it.

25.14. Relationship with the Lenders

- (a) Subject to Clause 22.9 (Pro rata interest settlement), the Agent may treat the person shown in its records as Lender at the opening of business (in the place of the Agent's principal office as notified to the Finance Parties from time to time) as the Lender acting through its Facility Office:
 - (i) entitled to or liable for any payment due under any Finance Document on that day; and
 - (ii) entitled to receive and act upon any notice, request, document or communication or make any decision or determination under any Finance Document made or delivered on that day,

- (c) The Agent shall not have the right to designate a Default or Event of Default or to direct the enforcement of the Security hereunder without the consent of the requisite Lenders under and in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, nor shall the Agent have the right to receive any information from any Obligor hereunder unless the Lenders are also entitled to receive such information.

25.15. Credit appraisal by the Lenders

Without affecting the responsibility of any Obligor for information supplied by it or on its behalf in connection with any Finance Document, each Lender confirms to the Agent that it has been, and will continue to be, solely responsible for making its own independent appraisal and investigation of all risks arising under or in connection with any Finance Document including but not limited to:

For the purposes of the Finance Documents that Party shall be regarded as having received any amount so deducted.

25.17. Credit appraisal by the Secured Parties

Without affecting the responsibility of any Obligor for information supplied by it or on its behalf in connection with any Finance Document, each Secured Party (other than the Security Agent) confirms to the Security Agent that it has been, and will continue to be, solely responsible for making its own independent appraisal and investigation of all risks arising under or in connection with any Finance Document including but not limited to:

25.19. Bankruptcy Disclosure and Proofs of Claim

In case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Bankruptcy Laws relative to any Finance Party, the Security Agent on behalf of the Majority Lenders (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Security Agent shall have made any demand on Borrower) shall be entitled and empowered (but not obligated) by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

Finance Documents. To the extent that the payment of any such compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Agent, the Security Agent, or their respective agents and counsel, and any other amounts due to the Agent and Security Agent under the Finance Documents out of the estate in any such proceeding, shall be denied for any reason, payment of the same shall be secured by Security on, and shall be paid out of, any and all distributions, dividends, money, securities and other properties that the Lenders may be entitled to receive in such proceeding whether in liquidation or under any plan of reorganization or arrangement or otherwise. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorise the Security Agent to authorise or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Secured Obligations or the rights of any Lender or to authorise the Security Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender in any such proceeding.

25.20. Anti-Money Laundering and Terrorism

- (f) The Security Agent shall not be required to exercise any discretion with respect to any right, power or authority under the Finance Documents where either:
- (i) it has not received any instructions as to the exercise of that discretion; or

 - (e) Notwithstanding any other provision of any Finance Document to the contrary, the Security Agent is not obliged to do or omit to do anything if it would, or might in its reasonable opinion, constitute a breach of any law or regulation or a breach of a fiduciary duty (it being understood and agreed that the Security Agent has no fiduciary duty under, or in connection with, any Finance Document) or duty of confidentiality.
 - (f) Notwithstanding any provision of any Finance Document to the contrary, the Security Agent is not obliged to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any liability in the performance of its duties, obligations or responsibilities or the exercise of any right, power, authority or discretion if it has grounds for believing the repayment of such funds or indemnity or pre-funding satisfactory to it against, or security for, such risk or liability is not reasonably assured to it.

- (j) The Security Agent shall not be required to take any action under this Agreement or any other Finance Document if taking such action (A) would subject the Security Agent to a tax in any jurisdiction where it is not then subject to a tax, or (B) would require the Security Agent to qualify to do business in any jurisdiction where it is not then so qualified (provided that in each case it shall notify the Agent as soon as reasonably practicable of any such circumstance that prevents it taking such action).

26.8. Responsibility for documentation

None of the Security Agent, any Receiver nor any Delegate is responsible or liable for:

26.9. No duty to monitor

The Security Agent shall not be bound to enquire:

- (a) whether or not any Default or Event of Default has occurred;

- (b) No Party (other than the Security Agent, that Receiver or that Delegate (as applicable)) may take any proceedings against any officer, employee or agent of the Security Agent, a Receiver or a Delegate in respect of any claim it might have against the Security Agent, a Receiver or a Delegate or in respect of any act or omission of any kind by that officer, employee or agent in relation to any Finance Document or any Security Property and any officer, employee or agent of the Security Agent, a Receiver or a Delegate may rely on this Clause subject to Clause 1.4 (Third party rights) and the provisions of the Third Parties Act.
- (c) Nothing in this Agreement shall oblige the Security Agent to carry out:

of care) but without reference to any special conditions or circumstances known to the Security Agent, Receiver or Delegate (as the case may be) at any time which increase the amount of that loss. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, in no event shall the Security Agent, any Receiver or Delegate be liable for any loss of profits, goodwill, reputation, business opportunity or anticipated saving, or for special, punitive, indirect or consequential damages of any kind whatsoever, whether or not the Security Agent, Receiver or Delegate (as the case may be) has been advised of the possibility of such loss or damages and regardless of the form of action.

26.11. Finance Parties' indemnity to the Security Agent

- (a) Each Finance Party (other than the Security Agent) shall (in the proportion that the Liabilities due to it bear to the aggregate of the Liabilities due to all the Finance Parties for the time being (or, if the Liabilities due to the Finance Parties are zero, immediately prior to their being reduced to zero)), indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Security Agent and every Receiver and every Delegate and their respective officers, directors, employees, representatives and agents, within 5 Business Days of demand, against any cost, loss, expense (including reasonable legal and agents' fees and expenses), claim, obligation, damage or liability of whatever kind or nature incurred by any of them (otherwise than by reason of the relevant Security Agent's, Receiver's or Delegate's gross negligence or wilful misconduct as determined by a final non-appealable judgment issued by a court of competent jurisdiction) directly or indirectly in acting as Security Agent, Receiver or Delegate under, or exercising any authority conferred under, the Finance Documents (unless the relevant Security Agent, Receiver or Delegate has been reimbursed by an Obligor or pursuant to a Finance Document).
- (b) Subject to paragraph (c) below, the Borrower shall immediately on demand reimburse any Finance Party for any payment that Finance Party makes to the Security Agent pursuant to paragraph (a) above.

- (d) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement or in the other Finance Documents to the contrary (including without limitation Clause 31.5 (Payments) of this Agreement), the Borrower, the Parent, the Agent and each Finance Party each hereby agree that, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default the Security Agent shall be paid or reimbursed, as applicable, for any of its accrued and unpaid fees, costs, expenses or indemnities prior to any payments made pursuant to Clause 31.5 (Payments). In the event that (i) the Security Agent has outstanding fees, costs, expenses and indemnities during the continuance of an Event of Default, and (ii) the Agent or any Finance Party (other than the Security Agent) receives payments under the Finance Documents during the continuance of such Event of Default when the Security Agent's fees, costs, expenses and indemnities remain outstanding, then the Agent or such Finance Party, as applicable, shall hold such amounts in trust for the benefit of the Security Agent and shall promptly remit such amounts to the Security Agent, up to the amount of the Security Agent's outstanding fees, costs, expenses and indemnities.

- (c) If the Majority Lenders have not appointed a successor Security Agent in accordance with paragraph (b) above within 20 days after written notice of resignation was given, the retiring Security Agent (after consultation with the Agent) may appoint a successor Security Agent or may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor.
- (d) The retiring Security Agent shall, at the cost of the Borrower, make available to the Successor Agent such documents and records and provide such assistance as the successor Security Agent may reasonably request for the purposes of performing its functions as Security Agent under the Finance Documents. - (e) The Security Agent's resignation notice shall only take effect upon:
 - (i) the appointment of a successor; and
 - (ii) the transfer of all the Security Property to that successor.
- (f) Upon the appointment of a successor, the retiring Security Agent shall be discharged from any further obligation in respect of the Finance Documents (other than its obligations under paragraph (b) of Clause 26.22 (Winding up of trust) and paragraph (d) above) but shall remain entitled to the benefit of this Clause 26, Clause 13.4 (Indemnity to the Security Agent) and any other provision which by its terms survives the resignation or removal of the Security Agent (and any Security Agent fees for the account of the retiring Security Agent shall cease to accrue from (and shall be payable on) that date). Any successor and each of the other Parties shall have the same rights and obligations amongst themselves as they would have had if that successor had been an original Party.

In the event that any Finance Party or Lender fails to provide any information required to be provided by it to the Security Agent, then the Security Agent may (but shall not be obligated to) take such actions as are required to be taken by it based on the most recent information available to it until such Finance Party or Lender provides the required information.

 - (1) release the Security created pursuant to the Transaction Security Documents over the relevant asset;
 - (2) apply the net cash proceeds of sale or disposal in or towards payment of the Liabilities in accordance with Clause 31.5 (Payments); and/or

 - (B) Each party to this Agreement shall promptly enter into any release and/or other document and take any action which may be necessary or which the Security Agent may reasonably request to give effect to paragraph (a) above.
 - (C) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, in connection with any release of Security or any Obligor to be executed by the Security Agent (other than with respect to any

26.33. Same Rights of Security Agent

The Security Agent shall be afforded all of the same rights, protections, immunities and indemnities afforded to it hereunder (i) in each other capacity in which it may act under the Finance Documents and (ii) in each other Finance Agreement to which it is party, whether or not such rights, protections, immunities and indemnities are set forth therein.

26.34. Merger of Security Agent

Any corporation into which the Security Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated, or any corporation resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Security Agent shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to the business of the Security Agent shall be the successor of the Security Agent hereunder without the execution or filing of any paper with any party hereto or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto except where an instrument of transfer or assignment is required by law to effect such succession (in particular, to ensure the benefit of the Security Property continues to be held on trust for the benefit of the Secured Parties in the same manner, and the Finance Parties continue to have the same Security over the same assets of the Obligors and Secured Companies, in each case as prior to the succession or merger, in which case the Security Agent shall promptly take all actions and execute all documents (including assignments, transfers, mortgages, charges, notices and instructions) as may be required by the Agent (in form and substance satisfactory to the Agent) in order to ensure this is the case).

26.35. Illegality

The Security Agent may refrain from doing anything (including disclosing any information) which might, in its opinion, constitute a breach of any law or regulation and may do anything which, in its opinion, is necessary or desirable to comply with any law or regulation.

26.36. Right to realise Security and enforce guarantees

Notwithstanding anything in the Finance Documents to the contrary, the Borrower, the Agent, the Security Agent and each Secured Party hereby agree that:

- (a) (no Secured Party shall have any right individually to realise upon any of the Transaction Security or to enforce the guarantee and indemnity in Clause 16 (Guarantee and Indemnity), it being understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies hereunder and under any of the Finance Documents may be exercised solely by the Agent or the Security Agent, as applicable, for the benefit of the Secured Parties in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the other Finance Documents and all powers, rights and remedies under the Transaction Security Documents may be exercised solely by the Security Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties in accordance with the terms thereof; and

- (b) in the event of a foreclosure or similar enforcement action by the Security Agent on any of the Transaction Security pursuant to a public or private sale or other disposition (including, without limitation, pursuant to Section 363(k), Section 1129(b)(2)(a)(ii) or otherwise of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code or similar provisions under any other applicable Bankruptcy Law), such Security Agent (or any Lender, except with respect to a “credit bid” pursuant to Section 363(k), Section 1129(b)(2)(a)(ii) or otherwise of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code or similar provisions under any other applicable Bankruptcy Law) may be the purchaser or licensor of any or all of such Transaction Security at any such sale or other disposition and such Security Agent, as agent for and representative of Secured Parties (but not any Lender or Lenders in its or their respective individual capacities) shall be entitled, upon instructions from Majority Lenders, for the purpose of bidding and making settlement or payment of the purchase price for all or any portion of the Transaction Security sold at any such sale or disposition, to use and apply any of the Secured Obligations as a credit on account of the purchase price, for any assets, payable by such Security Agent at such sale or other disposition.

27. ENFORCEMENT OF TRANSACTION SECURITY

27.1. Enforcement Instructions

- (a) The Security Agent may refrain from enforcing the Transaction Security unless, subject to the Security Agent’s right to indemnification, instructed otherwise by the Majority Lenders.
- (b) Subject to the Transaction Security having become enforceable in accordance with its terms, the Majority Lenders may give or refrain from giving instructions to the Security Agent to enforce or refrain from enforcing the Transaction Security as they see fit.
- (c) The Security Agent is entitled to rely on and comply with instructions given in accordance with this Clause 27.1.

27.2. Manner of enforcement

If the Transaction Security is being enforced pursuant to Clause 27.1 (Enforcement Instructions), the Security Agent shall enforce the Transaction Security in such manner (including, without limitation, the selection of any administrator (or any analogous officer in any jurisdiction) of any Obligor to be appointed by the Security Agent) as the Majority Lenders shall instruct.

27.3. Waiver of rights

To the extent permitted under applicable law and subject to Clause 27.1 (Enforcement Instructions), Clause 27.2 (Manner of enforcement) and Clause 26.26 (Order of application), each of the Secured Parties and the Obligors waives all rights it may otherwise have to require that the Transaction Security be enforced in any particular order or manner or at any particular time or that any amount received or recovered from any person, or by virtue of the enforcement of any of the Transaction Security or of any other security interest, which is capable of being applied in or towards discharge of any of the Secured Obligations is so applied.

27.4. Enforcement through Security Agent only

The Secured Parties shall not have any independent power to enforce, or have recourse to, any of the Transaction Security or to exercise any right, power, authority or discretion arising under the Transaction Security Documents except through the Security Agent.

- (b) oblige any Finance Party to investigate or claim any credit, relief, remission or repayment available to it or the extent, order and manner of any claim; or
- (c) oblige any Finance Party to disclose any information relating to its affairs (tax or otherwise) or any computations in respect of Tax, except to the extent reasonably necessary to determine the amount of any additional payment to be made by an Obligor in respect of any Indemnified Tax pursuant to Clause 11.2 or to determine the amount of any indemnification payment to be made by the Borrower pursuant to Clause 11.3.

29. SHARING AMONG THE FINANCE PARTIES

29.1. Payments to Finance Parties

If a Finance Party (a “Recovering Finance Party”) receives or recovers any amount from an Obligor other than in accordance with Clause 31 (Payment mechanics) (a “Recovered Amount”) and applies that amount to a payment due under the Finance Documents then:

- (a) the Recovering Finance Party shall, within three Business Days, notify details of the receipt or recovery, to the Agent;
- (b) the Agent shall determine whether the receipt or recovery is in excess of the amount the Recovering Finance Party would have been paid had the receipt or recovery been received or made by the Agent and distributed in accordance with Clause 31 (Payment mechanics), without taking account of any Tax which would be imposed on the Agent in relation to the receipt, recovery or distribution; and

- (c) the Recovering Finance Party shall, within three Business Days of demand by the Agent, pay to the Agent an amount (the “Sharing Payment”) equal to such receipt or recovery less any amount which the Agent determines may be retained by the Recovering Finance Party as its share of any payment to be made, in accordance with Clause 31.5 (Payments).

29.2. Redistribution of payments

The Agent shall treat the Sharing Payment as if it had been paid by the relevant Obligor and distribute it between the Finance Parties (other than the Recovering Finance Party) (the “Sharing Finance Parties”) in accordance with Clause 31.5 (Payments) towards the obligations of that Obligor to the Sharing Finance Parties.

29.3. Recovering Finance Party’s rights

On a distribution by the Agent under Clause 29.2 (Redistribution of payments) of a payment received by a Recovering Finance Party, as between the relevant Obligor and the Recovering Finance Party, an amount of the Recovered Amount equal to the Sharing Payment will be treated as not having been paid by that Obligor.

29.4. Reversal of redistribution

If any part of the Sharing Payment received or recovered by a Recovering Finance Party becomes repayable and is repaid by that Recovering Finance Party, then:

- (a) each Sharing Finance Party shall, upon request of the Agent, pay to the Agent for the account of that Recovering Finance Party an amount equal to the appropriate part of its share of the Sharing Payment (together with an amount as is necessary to reimburse that Recovering Finance Party for its proportion of any interest on the Sharing Payment which that Recovering Finance Party is required to pay) (the “Redistributed Amount”); and
- (b) as between the relevant Obligor and each relevant Sharing Finance Party, an amount equal to the relevant Redistributed Amount will be treated as not having been paid by that Obligor.

29.5. Exceptions

- (a) This Clause 29.5 shall not apply to the extent that the Recovering Finance Party would not, after making any payment pursuant to this Clause, have a valid and enforceable claim against the relevant Obligor.

- (b) A Recovering Finance Party is not obliged to share with any other Finance Party any amount which the Recovering Finance Party has received or recovered as a result of taking legal or arbitration proceedings, if:
 - (i) it notified the other Finance Party of the legal or arbitration proceedings; and
 - (ii) the other Finance Party had an opportunity to participate in those legal or arbitration proceedings but did not do so as soon as reasonably practicable having received notice and did not take separate legal or arbitration proceedings.

The Servicer hereby accepts such appointment and shall act and be appointed as such without any further action hereunder or thereunder.
- (b) The Servicer may use an affiliated company as a subservicer to assist the Servicer with performing its duties hereunder, provided, however, that the use of a subservicer shall not relieve the Servicer of its obligations hereunder.

30.2. Authority of the Servicer

- (a) The Servicer shall have full power and authority, acting alone or through any party properly designated by it, to do any and all things in connection with its servicing and administration duties described herein which it may deem necessary or desirable. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Servicer or any of its designees is hereby authorized and empowered to subcontract with any other Person, at the Servicer's sole cost and expense, for servicing, administering or collecting, in whole or in part, with respect to this Agreement whereupon such other Person with which the Servicer so subcontracts shall be entitled such rights and powers of the Servicer hereunder as may be delegated to it; provided, however, that the Servicer shall remain fully liable for the performance of the duties and obligations of the Servicer and such subcontracted party, pursuant to the terms hereof and provided that the liability of the Borrower to pay the Servicer the Management Fee in accordance with Clause 30.3 (Compensation) below shall continue at all times to be only a liability to the Servicer and no other such person or delegate (and otherwise subject to the terms of this Agreement).

- (b) The Finance Parties shall execute any documents furnished by the Servicer which are necessary or appropriate to enable the Servicer to carry out its servicing and administrative duties hereunder and which are acceptable in form and substance to the relevant Finance Party provided, however, that no Finance Party shall have any liability with respect to, or in connection with, the execution and/or use or misuse of any such documents.

- (a) Subject to paragraph (d) below and to Clause 30.4 (Subordination of the Servicer Liabilities) below, as full compensation for its servicing activities hereunder (and including but not limited to structuring and advisory services), and as reimbursement for any expense incurred by it in connection therewith, on each Payment Date, the Borrower hereby agrees to pay the Servicer the Management Fee that accrued in respect of the Collection Period ending on the most recent Collection Period End Date prior to such Payment Date.
- (b) The Servicer shall not have any claim or any right of setoff or banker's lien against, or any right to otherwise deduct from, any Ground Rents.
- (c) The Finance Parties acknowledge and agree that the Servicer may remit the Management Fees it receives hereunder to the Parent in the form of payment for management and other services provided by the Parent, and such payment shall not constitute Transaction Security or Ground Rents available for the payment of interest on, or the repayment of principal of the Loan.
- (d) If in any two consecutive Collection Periods a Dividend Restriction Event has occurred and is continuing, the Management Fee payable by the Borrower pursuant to paragraph (a) above shall continue to accrue but shall not be paid or be due and payable to the Servicer until such time as there is no Dividend Restriction Event continuing in respect of a Collection Period.
- (e) In any Collection Period in which an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Management Fee payable by the Borrower pursuant to paragraph (a) above shall cease to accrue or be due and payable to the Servicer for the whole of such Collection Period (such that the Borrower is no longer obliged at any time to make any such payment of any such Management Fee for any such Collection Period).
- (f) For the avoidance of doubt, following the service of a notice on the Borrower to accelerate the Loans pursuant to Clause 21.10 (Acceleration), the Servicers' appointment hereunder shall automatically terminate. Following such termination, the Servicer shall only be entitled to payment of any Management Fee that has accrued but not been paid, to the Servicer, prior to the acceleration of the Loans occurring.

30.4. Subordination of the Servicer Liabilities

- (a) Each of the Parties agrees that:
 - (i) the Liabilities owed by the Obligors to the Finance Parties shall rank prior in right and priority of payment to the Servicer Liabilities; and

- (b) The Obligors may not make (and shall procure that no member of the Group shall make) any payment of the Servicer Liabilities at any time except to the extent expressly permitted by this Agreement.
- (c) The Borrower shall not, and shall procure that no member of the Group shall, enter into any arrangement or agreement with the Parent or any direct or indirect shareholder of the Parent or the Servicer or any of their Affiliates or any Sponsor Affiliate (in each case which is not a member of the Group or Obligor) (each a “Relevant Entity”) whereby any management, advisory or other fee is payable to any such Relevant Entity, except as expressly set out in this Agreement.
- (d) Prior to the Termination Date, the Servicer may not take, accept or receive the benefit of any Security, guarantee, indemnity or other assurance against loss in respect of the Servicer Liabilities.
- (e) The Servicer shall not be entitled to and shall not take any Enforcement Action in respect of any of the Servicer Liabilities at any time prior to the Termination Date.
- (f) If at any time prior to the Termination Date the Servicer receives or recovers from any member of the Group any payment or distribution of, or on account of or in relation to, any of the Servicer Liabilities which is not a Permitted Distribution or was not permitted to accrue pursuant to Clause 30.3 (Compensation) on account of, or in relation to, any of the Servicer Liabilities after the occurrence of an Event of Default, the Servicer will promptly pay or distribute that amount to the Agent for application to the Finance Parties in accordance with Clause 31.5 (Payments).
- (g) The Servicer will do all things that the Agent (acting reasonably) requests in order to give effect to this Clause 30.4 (Subordination of the Servicer Liabilities).

As of the date of this Agreement:

- (a) The Servicer is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under all applicable laws of its Original Jurisdiction and has, in all material respects, full power and authority to own its properties and conduct its business as such properties are presently owned and as such business is presently conducted, and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations under the Finance Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound.

- (b) The Servicer is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing as a foreign corporation, limited liability company or partnership (or is exempt from such requirements), and has obtained all necessary licenses and approvals, in each jurisdiction in which failure to so qualify or to obtain such licenses or approvals would cause, or could reasonably be expected to cause, a Material Adverse Effect.
- (c) The Servicer's execution, delivery and performance of the Finance Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate, limited liability company or partnership, as applicable, and shareholder, member or partner, as applicable, actions on the part of the Servicer.
- (d) Each of the Finance Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Servicer enforceable against it in accordance with its terms except as such enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, moratorium or other laws affecting creditors' rights generally, and except as such enforceability may be limited by general principles of equity (whether considered in a suit at law or in equity).
- (e) The Servicer's execution and delivery of the Finance Documents, and the performance of the transactions contemplated by the Finance Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound, and fulfilment of the terms hereof and thereof applicable to the Servicer, do not conflict with or violate any law applicable to the Servicer, or conflict with, result in any breach of any of the enforceable terms and provisions of, or constitute (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, any indenture, contract, agreement, mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument to which the Servicer is a party or by which it or its properties are bound.
- (f) Except as disclosed in writing to the Agent, as of the date hereof, there are no proceedings or investigations pending or, to the best of the Servicer's knowledge, threatened against the Servicer before any Governmental Authority (i) asserting the illegality, invalidity or unenforceability, or seeking any determination or ruling that would affect the legality, binding effect, validity or enforceability, of any of the Finance Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound, (ii) seeking to prevent the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by any of the Finance Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound, or (iii) seeking any determination or ruling that is reasonably likely to materially and adversely affect the financial condition or operations of the Servicer or the performance by the Servicer of its obligations under any of the Finance Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound.
- (g) No authorization, consent, license, order or approval of or registration or declaration with any Governmental Authority is required to be obtained, effected or given by the Servicer in connection with the execution and delivery by it of any of the Finance Documents or the performance by it of its obligations under the Facility Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound.

30.6. Covenants of the Servicer

From the Closing Date until the earlier of (x) the Termination Date and the repayment in full of the Loans and (y) the last date on which the person acting as Servicer so acts, the Servicer hereby covenants that:

- (a) the Servicer shall preserve and maintain its corporate or other existence, rights, franchises and privileges in the jurisdiction of its organization, and qualify and remain qualified in good standing as a foreign corporation or other type of organization, as applicable, in each jurisdiction where the failure to maintain such qualification could reasonably be expected to materially and adversely affect (i) the interests of the Finance Parties, (b) the Transaction Security or (c) the ability of the Servicer to perform its obligations hereunder or any other Finance Documents to which it is a party or by which it is bound; and
- (b) the Servicer shall furnish to the Agent, the Security Agent and the Lenders, or cause to be furnished, within three (3) Business Days after becoming aware thereof, written notice of the occurrence of any Event of Default or Default.

31. PAYMENT MECHANICS

31.1. Payments to the Agent

- (a) On each date on which an Obligor or a Lender is required to make a payment under a Finance Document, that Obligor or Lender shall make the same available to the Agent (unless a contrary indication appears in a Finance Document) for value on the due date at the time and in such funds specified by the Agent as being customary at the time for settlement of transactions in the relevant currency in the place of payment.
- (b) Payment shall be made to such account in the principal financial centre of the country of that currency (or, in relation to euro, in a principal financial centre in such Participating Member State or London, as specified by the Agent) and with such bank as the Agent, in each case, specifies.

31.2. Distributions by the Agent

Each payment received by the Agent under the Finance Documents for another Party shall, subject to Clause 31.3 (Distributions to an Obligor) and Clause 31.4 (Clawback and pre-funding) be made available by the Agent as soon as practicable after receipt to the Party entitled to receive payment in accordance with this Agreement (in the case of a Lender, for the account of its Facility Office), to such account as that Party may notify to the Agent by not less than five Business Days' notice with a bank specified by that Party and (for avoidance of doubt, if applicable) in accordance with Clause 31.5 (Payments).

31.3. Distributions to an Obligor

The Agent may (with the consent of the relevant Obligor or in accordance with Clause 32 (Set- Off)) apply any amount received by it for any Obligor in or towards payment (on the date and in the currency and funds of receipt) of any amount due from that Obligor under the Finance Documents or in or towards purchase of any amount of any currency to be so applied.

31.4. Clawback and pre-funding

- (a) Where a sum is to be paid to the Agent under the Finance Documents for another Party, the Agent is not obliged to pay that sum to that other Party (or to enter into or perform any related exchange contract) until it has been able to establish to its reasonable satisfaction that it has actually received that sum.
- (b) Unless paragraph (c) below applies, if the Agent pays an amount to another Party and it proves to be the case that the Agent had not actually received that amount, then the Party to whom that amount (or the proceeds of any related exchange contract) was paid by the Agent shall on demand refund the same to the Agent together with interest on that amount from the date of payment to the date of receipt by the Agent, calculated by the Agent to reflect its cost of funds.
- (c) If the Agent has notified the Lenders that it is willing to make available amounts for the account of the Borrower before receiving funds from the Lenders then if and to the extent that the Agent does so but it proves to be the case that it does not then receive funds from a Lender in respect of a sum which it paid to the Borrower:
 - (i) the Agent shall notify the Borrower of that Lender's identity and the Borrower shall on demand refund it to the Agent; and
 - (ii) the Lender by whom those funds should have been made available or, if that Lender fails to do so, the Borrower shall on demand pay to the Agent the amount (as certified by the Agent) which will indemnify the Agent against any funding cost incurred by it as a result of paying out that sum before receiving those funds from that Lender.

31.5. Payments

- (a) On each Payment Date, the Borrower shall pay (directly to the Lender the payments set out in 31.5 (ii), (iv) and (vi) below whilst the Original Lender is the sole Lender and to the Agent in the event that there is more than one Lender, and to the Agent all other payments (namely those set out in 31.5(i), (iii) and (v))) the following amounts due and payable under the Finance Documents in respect of such Payment Date:

- (i) an amount equal to the fees in respect of such Payment Date (including Agent fees, Security Agent fees, security trustee fees and issuer fees payable to the Agent, Security Agent, security trustee or any other person), or any other amount, as approved by the Agent from time to time, necessary to pay such administrative fees in relation to the Loan;
 - (ii) an amount equal to the accrued interest, fees (excluding any Management Fee and any Make-Whole) or commission due but unpaid to the Finance Parties under the Finance Documents;
 - (iii) to the Debt Service Reserve Account, an amount sufficient to cause the balance of the Debt Service Reserve Account (after giving effect to the deposit of such amount) to ensure compliance with the Minimum Required Balance as determined and required to be maintained in accordance with Clause 20.27 (Debt Service Reserve Account);
 - (iv) an amount of any payment of principal to be made on such Payment Date (including any Make-Whole);
 - (v) to the Agent (to such account specified by the Agent) an amount equal to any other sum due and payable to the Finance Parties under the Finance Documents; and
 - (vi) an amount equal to any properly invoiced fees, costs and expenses payable by the Borrower to the Lender in accordance with Clause 15.4.
- (b) The payments listed in clause 31.5(a) above shall be paid by the Agent or the Borrower (as the case may be) to such account(s) as directed by or on behalf of the Lender or such other beneficiary of such amounts, as applicable.

31.6. Set-off by Obligors

All payments to be made by an Obligor under the Finance Documents shall be calculated and be made without (and free and clear of any deduction for) set-off or counterclaim.

31.7. Business Days

- (a) Any payment under the Finance Documents which is due to be made on a day that is not a Business Day shall be made on the next Business Day in the same calendar month (if there is one) or the preceding Business Day (if there is not).
- (b) During any extension of the due date for payment of any principal or Unpaid Sum under this Agreement interest is payable on the principal or Unpaid Sum at the rate payable on the original due date.

31.8. Currency of account

 - (ii) any translation from one currency or currency unit to another shall be at the official rate of exchange recognised by the central bank for the conversion of that currency or currency unit into the other, rounded up or down by the Agent (acting reasonably).
- (b) If a change in any currency of a country occurs, this Agreement will, to the extent the Agent (acting reasonably and after consultation with the Borrower) specifies to be necessary, be amended to comply with any generally accepted conventions and market practice in the Relevant Market and otherwise to reflect the change in currency.

31.10. Disruption to Payment Systems etc.

If either the Agent determines (in its discretion) that a Disruption Event has occurred or the Agent is notified by the Borrower that a Disruption Event has occurred:

- (a) the Agent may, and shall if requested to do so by the Borrower, consult with the Borrower with a view to agreeing with the Borrower such changes to the operation or administration of the Facility as the Agent may deem necessary in the circumstances;
- (b) the Agent shall not be obliged to consult with the Borrower in relation to any changes mentioned in paragraph (a) above if, in its opinion, it is not practicable to do so in the circumstances and, in any event, shall have no obligation to agree to such changes;
- (c) the Agent may consult with the Finance Parties in relation to any changes mentioned in paragraph (a) above but shall not be obliged to do so if, in its opinion, it is not practicable to do so in the circumstances;
- (d) any such changes agreed upon by the Agent and the Borrower shall (whether or not it is finally determined that a Disruption Event has occurred) be binding upon the Parties as an amendment to (or, as the case may be, waiver of) the terms of the Finance Documents notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 37 (Amendments and Waivers);
- (e) the Agent shall not be liable for any damages, costs or losses to any person, any diminution in value or any liability whatsoever (including, without limitation for negligence, gross negligence or any other category of liability whatsoever but not including any claim based on the fraud of the Agent) arising as a result of its taking, or failing to take, any actions pursuant to or in connection with this Clause 31.10; and

32. SET-OFF

In any event the Borrower shall at its own cost supply the Agent with at least one copy in paper form of any information required to be provided by it.
- (c) The Agent shall supply each Website Lender with the address of and any relevant password specifications for the Designated Website following designation of that website by the Borrower and the Agent.

- (e) If the Borrower notifies the Agent under paragraph (d)(i) or (d)(v) above, all information to be provided by the Borrower under this Agreement after the date of that notice shall be supplied in paper form unless and until the Agent and each Website Lender is satisfied that the circumstances giving rise to the notification are no longer continuing.

- (f) Any Website Lender may request, through the Agent, one paper copy of any information required to be provided under this Agreement which is posted onto the Designated Website. The Borrower shall at its own cost comply with any such request within 10 Business Days.

33.7. English language

- (a) Any notice given under or in connection with any Finance Document must be in English.
- (b) All other documents provided under or in connection with any Finance Document must be:
 - (i) in English; or
 - (ii) if not in English, and if so required by the Agent or the Security Agent (if it is a recipient thereof), accompanied by a certified English translation and, in this case, the English translation will prevail unless the document is a constitutional, statutory or other official document.

33.8. Security Agent's Communications with Lenders

The Security Agent shall be entitled to carry out all dealings with the Lenders through the Agent and may give to the Agent any notice or other communication required to be given by the Security Agent to a Lender.

34. CALCULATIONS AND CERTIFICATES

34.1. Accounts

If, at any time, any provision of a Finance Document is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect under any law of any jurisdiction, neither the legality, validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions nor the legality, validity or enforceability of such provision under the law of any other jurisdiction will in any way be affected or impaired.

36. REMEDIES AND WAIVERS

No failure to exercise, nor any delay in exercising, on the part of any Finance Party or Secured Party, any right or remedy under a Finance Document shall operate as a waiver of any such right or remedy or constitute an election to affirm any Finance Document. No election to affirm any Finance Document on the part of any Finance Party or Secured Party shall be effective unless it is in writing. No single or partial exercise of any right or remedy shall prevent any further or other exercise or the exercise of any other right or remedy. The rights and remedies provided in each Finance Document are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

37. AMENDMENTS AND WAIVERS

37.1. Required consents

- (a) Subject to Clause 37.2 (All Lender material loan amendment matters), Clause 37.3 (Other exceptions) and Clause 37.1(b), any term of the Finance Documents (other than any Fee Letter) may be amended or waived only with the written consent of the Majority Lenders and the Borrower and any such amendment or waiver will be binding on all Parties.
- (b) The Agent may make changes to this Agreement, without obtaining the prior consent of the Lenders or the Borrower, if such amendments relate to: (i) typographical errors; (ii) changes of an administrative nature; or (ii) such other similar types of amendments that will not adversely affect the rights of the Lenders, the Security Agent or Borrower.
- (c) The Agent may give effect to, on behalf of any Finance Party, any amendment or waiver permitted by this Clause 37.
- (d) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraphs (c), (d) and (e) of Clause 25.6 (Rights and discretions), the Agent and/or the Security Agent may require the Parent to deliver an officer's certificate and an opinion of counsel with respect to whether any potential amendment, waiver or consent is authorized or permitted by the terms of this Agreement and/or may engage, pay for and rely on the services of lawyers in determining the consent level required for and effecting any amendment, waiver or consent under this Agreement.

- (e) Each Obligor agrees to any such amendment or waiver permitted by this Clause 37 which is agreed to by the Borrower. This includes any amendment or waiver which would, but for this paragraph (e), require the consent of all of the Obligors.

37.2. All Lender material loan amendment matters

An amendment, waiver or (in the case of a Transaction Security Document) a consent of, or in relation to, any term of any Finance Document that has the effect of changing or which relates to:

- (a) the definition of “Majority Lenders” in Clause 1.1 (Definitions);
- (b) an extension to the date of payment of any amount under the Finance Documents (including under Clause 7 (Mandatory prepayment and cancellation) and any related definitions);
- (c) unless specifically permitted under the terms of the Finance Documents, a change in currency of any previously issued Tranche under the Finance Documents;
- (d) a reduction in the rate of interest applicable to any Loan or a reduction in the amount of any payment of principal, interest, fees or Make Whole payable in each case, other than in accordance with Clause 9.4 (Notification of rates of interest);

- (i) the release of any guarantee and indemnity granted under Clause 16 (Guarantee and Indemnity) or any Transaction Security unless permitted under this Agreement or any other Finance Document or relating to a sale or disposal of an asset which is the subject of the Transaction Security where such sale or disposal is expressly permitted under this Agreement or any other Finance Document; or
 - (j) any amendment to the order of priority or subordination under any Finance Document,
- shall not be made, or given, without the prior consent of all the Lenders and (for avoidance of doubt) the Borrower.

37.4. Replacement of Lender

- (a) If:
 - (i) any Lender becomes a Non-Consenting Lender (as defined in paragraph (d) below); or
 - (ii) an Obligor becomes obliged to repay any amount in accordance with Clause 6.1 (Illegality) or to pay additional amounts pursuant to Clause 12.1 (Increased costs), Clause 11.2 (Tax gross-up) or Clause 11.3 (Tax indemnity) to any Lender,then the Borrower may, on 20 Business Days' prior written notice to the Agent, the Security Agent and such Lender, replace such Lender by requiring such Lender to (and, to the extent permitted by law, such Lender shall) transfer pursuant to Clause 22 (Changes to the Lenders) all (and not part only) of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to a Lender or other bank, financial institution, trust, fund or other entity (a "Replacement Lender") selected by the Borrower and which confirms its willingness to assume and does assume all the obligations of the transferring Lender in accordance with Clause 22 (Changes to the Lenders) for a purchase price in cash payable at the time of transfer in an amount equal to the outstanding principal amount of such Lender's participation in the outstanding Loans and all accrued interest, Make Whole (for the avoidance of doubt, whilst the Original Lender is the sole Lender, Make Whole will only apply to Clause 37.4(a)(i)) and other amounts payable in relation thereto under the Finance Documents.

- (b) If a Replacement Lender cannot be appointed in accordance with Clause 37.4(a)(ii) above, the Borrower shall then have the right to repay that part of the Lender's participation of the Loan in respect of which such obligation of the Obligor under Clause 37.4(a)(ii) has arisen.
- (c) The replacement of a Lender pursuant to this Clause 37.4 shall be subject to the following conditions:
 - (i) the Borrower shall have no right to replace the Agent or Security Agent;
 - (ii) none of the Agent, the Security Agent or any Lender shall have any obligation to the Borrower to find a Replacement Lender;
 - (iii) in the event of a replacement of a Non-Consenting Lender such replacement must take place no later than 60 days after the date on which that Lender is deemed a Non-Consenting Lender;
 - (iv) in no event shall the Lender replaced under this Clause 37.4 be required to pay or surrender to such Replacement Lender any of the fees received by such Lender pursuant to the Finance Documents; and
 - (v) the Lender shall only be obliged to transfer its rights and obligations pursuant to paragraph (a) above once it is satisfied that it has complied with all necessary "know your customer" or other similar checks under all applicable laws and regulations in relation to that transfer.
- (d) A Lender shall perform the checks described in paragraph (c)(v) above as soon as reasonably practicable following delivery of a notice referred to in paragraph (a) above and shall notify the Agent and the Borrower when it is satisfied that it has complied with those checks.
- (e) In the event that:
 - (i) the Borrower or the Agent (at the request of the Borrower) has requested the Lenders to give a consent in relation to, or to agree to a waiver or amendment of, any provisions of the Finance Documents;
 - (ii) the consent, waiver or amendment in question requires the approval of all the Lenders; and
 - (iii) Lenders whose Commitments aggregate more than eighty five per cent. (85%) of the Total Commitments (or, if the Total Commitments have been reduced to zero, aggregated more than eighty five per cent. (85%) of the Total Commitments prior to that reduction) have consented or agreed to such waiver or amendment, then any Lender who does not and continues not to consent or agree to such waiver or amendment shall be deemed a “Non-Consenting Lender”.

In consideration of the mutual promises and covenants made herein and the mutual benefits to be derived herefrom, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Grants.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the Company’s 2020 Equity Incentive Plan (the “Plan”) and the First Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of OpCo, as amended or amended and restated from time to time (the “Operating Agreement”) (all capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Operating Agreement, unless otherwise specified):

(i) OpCo hereby grants to the Member, as of the Grant Date, 2,622,066 LTIP Units, and

(ii) the Company hereby grants to the Member, as of the Grant Date, in tandem with the LTIP Units, 2,622,066 Non-Economic Shares (within the meaning of the Plan), which shall consist of 1,386,033 shares of Class B Common Stock (the “Tandem Common Shares”) and 1,236,033 Series B Founder Preferred Shares (the “Tandem Preferred Shares”). On the Seven-Year End Date (as defined below), each outstanding Tandem Preferred Share shall automatically convert into a share of Class B Common Stock on such date in accordance with the First Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company or, at any time after the Domestication (as defined in the Plan), the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company, in each case, as may be amended or amended and restated from time to time (as applicable, the “Organizational Document”). Each outstanding Tandem Preferred Share may also be converted into a share of Class B Common Stock prior to the Seven-Year End Date, at the option of the Member as described in the Grant Date Articles (as defined below). In the event of such automatic or optional conversion, all references herein to such Tandem Preferred Share shall be deemed to refer to the share of Class B Common Stock into which such Tandem Preferred Share was converted. The “Seven-Year End Date” means the Mandatory Conversion Date (as defined in the First Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company, as in effect on the Grant Date and without regard to any amendments thereto following the Grant Date (the “Grant Date Articles”)).

The LTIP Notional Amount for each LTIP Unit granted hereunder shall equal $10.00. The LTIP Units are “Other Equity-Based Awards” within the meaning of Section 9 of the Plan. The Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares are Restricted Stock awards as set forth under Section 7 of the Plan.

(b) 693,017 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Common Shares, each granted hereunder, shall be Series A LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Common Shares, shall be subject solely to service-based vesting conditions (the “Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”), 693,016 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Common Shares, each granted hereunder shall be Series A LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Common Shares, shall be subject to both service-based and performance-based vesting conditions (the “Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”), and 1,236,033 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Preferred Shares, each granted hereunder, shall be Series B LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Preferred Shares, shall be subject solely to performance-based vesting conditions (the “Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards”). The date on which any applicable service-based vesting conditions are scheduled to be satisfied is referred to below as the applicable “Service-Vesting Date”, the date on which any applicable performance-based vesting conditions are satisfied is referred to below as the “Performance-Vesting Date”, and the date that all applicable service-based and performance-based vesting conditions (other than the condition that an LTIP Unit become an Equitized LTIP Unit) are satisfied (or deemed satisfied) is referred to as the “Vesting Date”.

2. Vesting.

(a) Time-Vesting LTIP Awards. The Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest in equal annual installments over the five (5)-year period commencing on the Grant Date, provided that no Termination of Employment (as defined in the Plan) has occurred prior to the applicable Service-Vesting Date.

(b) Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards.

(i) Performance Condition. Subject to the Performance-Vesting Service Condition (as defined in clause (ii) below), the percentage of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards specified in the table below shall vest on the first Year-End Trading Date (as defined below) following the Grant Date and on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date that the 10-Day VWAP (as defined below) meets or exceeds the applicable price per share specified below (each, a “Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle”), which first Year-End Trading Date shall be considered the Performance-Vesting Date in respect of the applicable portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards. “Year-End Trading Date” means the last “Trading Day” (as defined in the Grant Date Articles) of the relevant “Financial Year” (as defined in the Grant Date Articles). “10-Day VWAP” means the Dividend Price (as defined in the Grant Date Articles); provided that (i) the reference therein to the relevant “Dividend Year” shall instead be replaced with a reference to the relevant Financial Year and (ii) the final sentence of the definition of Average Price (as defined in the Grant Date Articles, which term is used in the definition of “Dividend Price”) shall be deleted and replaced with the following sentence: “If the Average Price cannot be calculated for that security on that date on any of the foregoing bases, the Average Price of that security on such date shall be the fair market value as mutually determined in good faith by the Grantee and the Board.”

| Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle | Vesting Percentage |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| $11.50 | 25% |
| $13.50 | 25% |
| $15.50 | 25% |
| $17.50 | 25% |

For the avoidance of doubt, a Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle need only be satisfied once and, except as set forth in Section 2(e) or 2(f) below, vesting will not occur for any portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards unless and until the Performance-Vesting Service Condition is also satisfied with respect to such portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards.

(ii) Service Condition. The service-based vesting condition shall be satisfied with respect to 50% of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Grant Date and 50% on the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Grant Date, provided that no Termination of Employment has occurred prior to the applicable Service-Vesting Date (the “Performance-Vesting Service Condition”). Notwithstanding the foregoing; provided that the Performance-Vesting Service Condition has been satisfied in respect of the relevant Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle may be satisfied (or deemed satisfied pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) after Termination of Employment due to death or Disability, but in no event later than the Seven-Year End Date. To the extent that any Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle has not been satisfied (or deemed satisfied pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date, any then remaining unvested Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and related Tandem Common Shares shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of such Seven-Year End Date.

(c) Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards.

(i) The Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards shall vest in full on the first Year-End Trading Date following the Grant Date and on or prior to the end of the Nine-Year End Date (as defined below) that the 10-Day VWAP meets or exceeds $20.00 (the “Nine-Year Share Price Hurdle”). The “Nine-Year End Date” means the Mandatory Conversion Date (as defined in the Grant Date Certificate); provided that the reference therein to the “seventh (7th) full Financial Year” shall instead be replaced with a reference to “ninth (9th) full Financial Year”.

(ii) If, on any Year-End Trading Date that occurs on or after the Grant Date and on or prior to the Nine-Year End Date, the 10-Day VWAP exceeds $10.00 (the “Floor Amount”), then a percentage of the Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards shall vest ratably, as determined based on the percentage of the difference between the Floor Amount and the Nine-Year Share Price Hurdle that has been achieved (the “Ratable Vesting Percentage”). For example, if the 10-day VWAP on December 31, 2020 is then $14.00, the Ratable Vesting

Percentage shall be forty percent (40%). If the 10-Day VWAP on December 31, 2021 is then $13.00, the Ratable Vesting Percentage shall be zero and there shall be no additional vesting on such date. If the 10-day VWAP on December 31, 2022 is then $15.00, the aggregate Ratable Vesting Percentage shall be fifty percent (50%), and an additional ten percent (10%) of the Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards shall vest on such date.

(iii) In the event that the 10-Day VWAP has not exceeded the Floor Amount on any Year-End Trading Date on or prior to the Nine-Year End Date, then each Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Award and related Tandem Preferred Share shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of such Nine-Year End Date. In the event that the 10-Day VWAP has exceeded the Floor Amount on any Year-End Trading Date on or prior to the Nine-Year End Date but has not equaled or exceeded the Nine-Year Share Price Hurdle, then any unvested Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards and related Tandem Preferred Shares shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of the Nine-Year End Date.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or in the Plan to the contrary, in the event that, prior to the applicable Vesting Date, the Member incurs a Termination of Employment for Cause (as defined in the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement among the Company, OpCo and the Member, dated as of February 10, 2020, as amended or amended and restated (the “Employment Agreement”)) or due to the Member’s voluntary resignation without Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement), all Unvested Awards (as defined below) shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, be forfeited and canceled without consideration. The Member’s LTIP Capital Account with respect to an LTIP Unit that has been forfeited, canceled or terminated shall be treated as provided in Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, “Unvested Award” means any LTIP Unit and the related Non-Economic Shares granted to the Member hereunder (and any Award (as defined in the Plan) into which such LTIP Unit and the related Non-Economic Shares has been converted pursuant to Section 4(c) of the Plan or Section 2(f) of this Agreement), in each case that remains subject to any service-based or performance-based vesting conditions set forth in this Section 2 (other than the condition that such LTIP Unit become an Equitized LTIP Unit).

(e) In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment on or prior to the applicable Vesting Date due to a Termination of Employment by the Company not for Cause or a resignation with Good Reason, all outstanding Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount (as defined in Section 5 of this Agreement)) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting Date in respect of all then outstanding and previously unvested LTIP Units shall be the date of the Member’s Termination of Employment. In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment on or prior to the applicable Vesting Date due to (i) the Member’s Disability or (ii) the Member’s death, all unvested Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting Date shall be the date of the Member’s Termination of Employment, and the service-based vesting condition for all other Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be deemed satisfied as follows: (A) in the case of the Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the LTIP Units shall vest in respect of the one (1)-year vesting period in which the Member’s Termination of Employment occurs and, as applicable, the immediately following one (1)-year vesting period (i.e., collectively, an additional forty percent (40%) of the original grant of Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest, assuming the Member's Termination of Employment occurred during the four (4)-year period commencing on the Grant Date) and (B) in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the service-based vesting condition shall be deemed satisfied on a pro-rata basis based on the number of full or partial years that have elapsed between the Grant Date and the date of the Termination of Employment, plus one (1) additional year of service; provided, however, that vesting will not occur for any portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) unless and until the applicable Seven-Year Share Price Hurdles are achieved (or deemed achieved pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date. Any remaining Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards that have not vested on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of the Seven-Year End Date. For example, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, if the Termination of Employment due to death or Disability occurs on the twenty (20)-month anniversary of the Grant Date, then such LTIP Units shall vest as follows: (A) 100% (3/3rds) of the outstanding Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards scheduled to vest on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Grant Date shall remain outstanding, subject to achievement of such goals on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date, and (B) approximately 43% (3/7ths) of the outstanding Seven-Year Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards scheduled to vest on the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Grant Date shall remain outstanding, subject to achievement of such goals on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date.

(f) Change in Control.

(i) Upon a Change in Control (as defined in the Plan), all outstanding Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards shall immediately vest in full.

(ii) Upon a Change in Control, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, all Seven-Year Share Price Hurdles shall be deemed satisfied, and all Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards that remain subject to the Performance-Vesting Service Condition may either (A) remain outstanding or (B) be converted in accordance with Section 2(f)(iii) into an award in respect of stock of, or other equity interests in, the acquirer (or one of its Affiliates) based on the value of such Unvested Award (which value, in the case of an Equitized LTIP Unit, shall be determined as if redeemed for a share of Class A Common Stock, in the case of all such LTIP Units on a one-for-one basis and, in the case of a Non-Equitized LTIP Unit, shall be determined in accordance with Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement at the time of such Change in Control) and, following conversion, any such award will be considered an Unvested Award to the extent provided in this Agreement. In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment following the Change in Control under any circumstance set forth in Section 2(e), all Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting Date shall be the date of the Member's Termination of Employment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, solely to the extent required to avoid taxation and penalties under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be settled no later than March 15th of the calendar year (or, if applicable, two and one-half (2 1/2) months after the end of the applicable service recipient's fiscal year) following the later of (1) the calendar year (or fiscal year, as applicable) in which the Change in Control occurs and (2) the calendar year (or fiscal year, as applicable) in which the Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) are no longer subject to a "substantial risk of forfeiture" within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code.

(iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event of a Change in Control, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, unless (A) either (1) the Unvested Awards remain outstanding following the Change in Control or (2) provision is made in connection with the Change in Control for assumption of Unvested Awards or substitution of such Unvested Awards for new awards ("Replacement Awards") covering equity interests in a successor entity, with appropriate adjustments to the number of Unvested Awards, as determined by the Committee (as defined in the Plan) in accordance with Section 2(f)(ii) of this Agreement and Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement prior to the Change in Control pursuant to Section 4(c)(ii) of the Plan, and (B) the material terms and conditions of such Unvested Awards (other than the Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle) as in effect immediately prior to the Change in Control are preserved following the Change in Control (including, without limitation, with respect to the schedule to satisfy the Performance-Vesting Service Condition, the intrinsic value of the Unvested Awards (or similar potential fair value in accordance with Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement, in the case of a Non-Equitized LTIP Unit), transferability of the Unvested Awards (and interests into which the Unvested Awards may be converted or exchanged) prior to and following the Change in Control and voting power in respect of the Unvested Awards), such Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full upon such Change in Control, and the Vesting Date shall be the date of such Change in Control.

(iv) To the extent that the conversion, assumption or substitution of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and the related Tandem Common Shares in connection with a Change in Control would result in the Member incurring tax liability with respect to such Awards, subject to applicable law and any policies of the Company or any successor that impose trading restrictions (such as blackout periods), the Member shall be permitted to sell the number of securities subject to the replacement award that the Company determines to be necessary to satisfy the Member's tax liability incurred in connection with such exchange. Any such securities that the Member is entitled to sell pursuant to this Section 2(f)(iv) will no longer be considered Unvested Awards. In connection with a Change in Control, if any Replacement Awards that are granted to the Member pursuant to Section 2(f)(iii) would be taxable to the Member as ordinary income rather than as long-term capital gains, the material terms and conditions of the Unvested Awards shall not be deemed preserved unless the Member is granted an additional number of Replacement Awards to make the Member substantially whole for such incremental tax liability or the Member is otherwise compensated for such incremental tax liability. The amount of the incremental tax liability shall be determined using the tax rates in effect as of the date of the grant of such Replacement Awards.

3. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Company hereby represents and warrants that the Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares (i) have been duly authorized and validly issued, (ii) are fully paid and non-assessable, (iii) have been issued in compliance with applicable law, (iv) are not issued in breach or violation of any contract or preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or other similar rights, (v) are free and clear of all Encumbrances except for (A) applicable transfer restrictions pursuant to applicable law, this Agreement, the Shareholder Agreement, the Plan and the Operating Agreement and (B) the applicable vesting conditions pursuant to this Agreement and (vi) are uncertificated.

(b) OpCo hereby represents and warrants that the LTIP Units (i) have been duly authorized and validly issued, (ii) have been issued in compliance with applicable law, (iii) are not issued in breach or violation of any contract or preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or other similar rights, (iv) are free and clear of all Encumbrances except for (A) applicable transfer restrictions pursuant to applicable law, this Agreement, the Shareholder Agreement, the Plan and the Operating Agreement and (B) the applicable vesting conditions pursuant to this Agreement and (v) are uncertificated.

(c) The Member represents and warrants that all of the representations and warranties set forth on Appendix A are true and correct in all respects.

4. Nontransferability.

Subject to Section 3.02(c)(iv) of the Operating Agreement, from and after the Grant Date, the Member shall be permitted to transfer the LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares), whether such LTIP Units are vested or unvested, solely in accordance with Article X of the Operating Agreement or the Shareholder Agreement. In the event of any such transfer pursuant to the foregoing, prior to the applicable Vesting Date, the Unvested Awards shall remain subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including with respect to vesting and forfeiture) that are applicable to Unvested Awards until such LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares) are no longer Unvested Awards. From and after the applicable Vesting Date, the LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares) shall be subject to Section 3.02(c)(iv) of the Operating Agreement and shall not be transferable by the Member, except as set forth in Article X of the Operating Agreement or the Shareholder Agreement.

5. Allocations, Distributions and Dividends.

Allocations and distributions with respect to the LTIP Units (including tax distributions) shall be handled in the manner specified in the Operating Agreement. The amount of any distributions credited under Section 4.01(b) of the Operating Agreement to the Member's LTIP Units prior to the Vesting Date are referred to herein as "Unvested Distribution Amounts". Any such Unvested Distribution Amounts shall be settled through a cash payment (less any prior tax distributions pursuant to Section 4.01(c) of the Operating Agreement in respect of Unvested Distribution Amounts) to the Member upon the applicable Vesting Date. Upon the forfeiture of an Unvested Award pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, all Unvested Distribution Amounts (excluding the amount of tax distributions previously paid pursuant to Section 4.01(c) of the Operating Agreement) allocated to the Member's forfeited LTIP Units shall also be forfeited. The Member's LTIP Capital Account that has been forfeited, canceled or terminated shall be treated as provided in Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement, as applicable. From and after the time that the LTIP Units become fully vested, the rights of the Member to receive distributions with respect to any LTIP Unit shall be governed by the Operating Agreement.

6. Tax Distributions.

7. Section 83(b) Election.

The Member agrees that the Member will make a protective election to be taxed immediately on the value of the LTIP Units and related Non-Economic Shares on the Grant Date; provided that the Member shall not be in breach of this Agreement if Member fails to comply with this Section 7. In order to do so, the Member must file an election with the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Code, and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder (a "Section 83(b) Election") with respect to the LTIP Units and related Non-Economic Shares within 30 days following the Grant Date, on a form attached hereto as Appendix B. The Member will provide a copy of such Section 83(b) Election to OpCo not later than ten (10) days after filing the election with the Internal Revenue Service or other governmental authority.

8. Payment of Transfer Taxes, Fees and Other Expenses.

(a) The Company agrees to pay, or to cause its applicable Affiliate to pay, any and all original issue taxes and stock transfer taxes that may be imposed with respect to the delivery of any LTIP Units or Shares (as defined in the Plan) pursuant to this Agreement, together with any and all other fees and expenses necessarily incurred by the Company or any of its Affiliates in connection therewith.

(b) The Company, or its applicable Affiliates, shall be entitled to withhold from any payments, distributions and allocations to the Member any amounts required to be so withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of any other federal, state, local or foreign law. If the Company, or its applicable Affiliate, pays any taxes (including any related interest, penalties or additions to tax) in respect of LTIP Units or Shares on the Member's behalf, (i) except if the Member is an "executive officer" (within the meaning of Rule 3b-7 under the Exchange Act (as defined in the Plan)), as may be required to comply with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, if requested by OpCo, the Member agrees to reimburse and shall reimburse OpCo for such taxes within thirty (30) days following the Company's request or (ii) if such taxes are paid by OpCo, such taxes shall be governed by Section 5.05 of the Operating Agreement.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 8(a) and Section 8(b), the Member shall be solely responsible for the payment of any taxes in respect of LTIP Units and Shares and shall hold the Company and its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers and employees harmless from any liability arising from the Member's failure to comply with the foregoing provisions of this Section 8(c).

9. Adjustment Provisions.

In the event of any extraordinary dividend or other extraordinary distribution (whether in the form of cash, Shares, other securities or other property), recapitalization, rights offering, stock split, reverse stock split, split-up or spin-off or any other event that constitutes an “equity restructuring” within the meaning of GAAP (as defined in the Plan), the Committee shall, in accordance with Section 4(c)(i) of the Plan, adjust any outstanding LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares, as well as any unsatisfied share price hurdles and the Floor Amount.

10. Rights of a Shareholder.

The Member shall have the voting rights with respect to the Shares issued to the Member upon the grant of the related LTIP Unit immediately upon the Grant Date, regardless of whether such LTIP Unit (and related Share) is vested or unvested.

11. Effect of Agreement.

Except as otherwise provided hereunder, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of any successor or successors of the Company or OpCo. The invalidity or enforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement or the Plan shall confer upon the Member any right to continue in the employ of the Company or any of its Affiliates or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or any such Affiliates to terminate the Member’s service at any time. Until shares of Class A Common Stock are actually delivered to the Member upon a Redemption or Direct Exchange pursuant to Article XI of the Operating Agreement, the Member shall not have any rights as a shareholder in respect of shares of Class A Common Stock; provided that the Member shall have all rights as a shareholder in respect of shares of Class B Common Stock and Series B Founder Preferred Shares.

12. Laws Applicable to Construction; Consent to Jurisdiction.

(a) Notwithstanding anything in the Operating Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to principles of conflict of laws that could cause the application of the law of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware. In addition to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Unvested Awards are subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, which is hereby incorporated by reference, and the LTIP Units and Shares are subject to the Operating Agreement, which is hereby incorporated by reference. In addition, Shares are subject to the Organizational Document and the Shareholder Agreement, which are hereby incorporated by reference. By signing this Agreement, the Member agrees to and is bound by the Plan, the Operating Agreement, the Organizational Document and the Shareholder Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in the Operating Agreement to the contrary, any controversy or claim between the Member and the Company, OpCo or any of its or their Affiliates arising out of or relating to or concerning the provisions of this Agreement or the Plan shall be resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions set forth in the Employment Agreement.

13. Section 409A of the Code.

It is intended that the LTIP Units, the Shares and all amounts payable with respect thereto (including the Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be exempt from Section 409A of the Code.

14. Conflicts and Interpretation.

In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Operating Agreement, the Plan and/or this Agreement relating to LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares, the agreements shall take precedence in the following order: (a) this Agreement, (b) the Operating Agreement and (c) the Plan; provided that, with respect to the process for, and restrictions and limitations on, amending the Operating Agreement, Section 16.03 of the Operating Agreement (Amendments) shall take precedence over this Agreement. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement with respect to LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares, the Operating Agreement shall govern the Member's rights and obligations with respect to OpCo under the Operating Agreement. In the event of any ambiguity in this Agreement, or any matters as to which this Agreement is silent, the Plan shall govern including, without limitation, the provisions thereof pursuant to which the Committee has the power, among others, to (i) interpret the Plan, (ii) prescribe, amend and rescind rules and regulations relating to the Plan, and (iii) make all other determinations deemed necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan; provided that all actions by the Committee shall be taken reasonably and in good faith.

15. Amendment.

Any modification, amendment or waiver to this Agreement that shall impair the rights of the Member shall require an instrument in writing to be signed by the Member, the Company and OpCo. The waiver by any of the Member, the Company or OpCo of compliance with any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, or of any subsequent breach by such party of a provision of this Agreement.

16. Severability.

If any term, provision, covenant or condition of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, then such provision, covenant or condition shall, as to such jurisdiction, be modified or restricted to the extent necessary to make such provision valid, binding and enforceable, or, if such provision cannot be modified or restricted, then such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be deemed to be excised from this Agreement and any such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability with respect to such provision shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction, and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

17. Headings.

The headings of paragraphs herein are included solely for convenience of reference and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

18. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which together shall constitute one and the same original.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, as of the date first above written, each of the Company and OpCo has caused this Agreement to be executed on behalf of itself or its applicable Affiliate by a duly authorized officer and the Member has hereunto set the Member’s hand.

Investment Intent and Other Representations of the Member

1. Investment Intent.

The Member hereby represents and warrants that the LTIP Units (which, for purposes of this Appendix A, shall be deemed to include the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares) must be held for investment purposes and are not being received with a view to distribution thereof, and covenants and agrees to make such other reasonable and customary representations as requested by OpCo or the Company, as applicable, regarding matters relevant to compliance with applicable securities laws as are deemed necessary by counsel to OpCo or the Company, as applicable.

2. Other Representations.

The Member hereby represents and warrants to OpCo or the Company, as applicable, as follows:

(a) Access to Information. Because of the Member's business relationship with the Company and its Affiliates and with the management of the Company and its Affiliates, the Member has had access to all material and relevant information concerning OpCo, the Company and their respective Affiliates, thereby enabling the Member to make an informed investment decision with respect to Member's receipt of the LTIP Units, and all pertinent data and information requested by the Member from OpCo, the Company or their respective representatives, as the case may be, concerning the business and financial condition of OpCo, the Company or their respective Affiliates, as the case may be, and the terms and conditions of this Agreement have been furnished to the Member. The Member acknowledges that the Member has had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers and obtain additional information from OpCo, the Company and their respective Affiliates and their representatives concerning the present and proposed business and financial condition of OpCo, the Company and their Affiliates.

(b) Financial Sophistication. The Member, either individually, or together with one or more financial advisors to which Member has access, has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that the Member is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the acceptance of the LTIP Units.

(c) Understanding the Investment Risks. The Member understands that:

(i) the LTIP Units represent a highly speculative investment, and there can be no assurance as to the success of OpCo, the Company or their respective Affiliates in their business;

(ii) the LTIP Units cannot be transferred except in very limited circumstances in accordance with the provisions of the Operating Agreement and the Award Agreement to which this Appendix A is attached (the "Award Agreement"), and at present, no market for the LTIP Units exists and it is not anticipated that a market for the LTIP Units will develop in the future;

(iii) the LTIP Units may be worthless; and

(iv) ownership of the LTIP Units may result in taxable income to the Member without a corresponding cash or in-kind distribution.

(d) Understanding the Nature of LTIP Units. The Member understands and agrees that:

(i) the LTIP Units will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the “Securities Act”), or any applicable state securities laws; they are being issued in reliance upon certain exemptions contained in the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, and the representations and warranties of the Member contained herein are essential to any claim of exemption by OpCo and the Company under the Securities Act and such state laws;

(v) OpCo and the Company have not made any representations to the Member that OpCo or the Company, as applicable, will register the LTIP Units under the Securities Act or any applicable state securities laws, or any representations with respect to compliance with any exemption therefrom;

(vi) the Member is aware of the conditions restricting the sale or transfer of the LTIP Units under the Operating Agreement, the Award Agreement, the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws; and

(vii) OpCo or the Company, as applicable, may, from time to time, make “stop transfer” notations in its transfer record to ensure compliance with the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws, and any additional restrictions imposed by state securities administrators.

(e) No Brokers; Additional Representations. The Member acknowledges that:

(i) neither the Member nor anyone acting on the Member’s behalf has paid or will pay a commission or other remuneration to any person in connection with the acceptance of the LTIP Units; and

(ii) at the time and as a condition of delivery of documents evidencing the LTIP Units, the Member will be deemed to have made all the representations and warranties contained in this Appendix A with respect to such LTIP Units and may be required to make other representations concerning investment intent as a condition of the delivery of such LTIP Units by OpCo and the Company.

AWARD AGREEMENTfor*LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN UNITS AND RESTRICTED STOCK

THIS AWARD AGREEMENT, dated as of February 10, 2020 (the “Grant Date”), is entered into by and among Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited (to be known as “Digital Landscape Group, Inc.”), a company organized under the laws of the British Virgin Islands (or any successor thereto, the “Company”), APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“OpCo”), and Jay Birnbaum (the “Member”).

WITNESSETH

In consideration of the mutual promises and covenants made herein and the mutual benefits to be derived herefrom, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Grants.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the Company’s 2020 Equity Incentive Plan (the “Plan”) and the First Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of OpCo, as amended or amended and restated from time to time (the “Operating Agreement”) (all capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Operating Agreement, unless otherwise specified):

(i) OpCo hereby grants to the Member, as of the Grant Date, 200,000 LTIP Units, and

(ii) the Company hereby grants to the Member, as of the Grant Date, in tandem with the LTIP Units, 200,000 Non-Economic Shares (within the meaning of the Plan), which shall consist of 200,000 shares of Class B Common Stock (the “Tandem Common Shares”).

The LTIP Notional Amount for each LTIP Unit granted hereunder shall equal $10.00. The LTIP Units are “Other Equity-Based Awards” within the meaning of Section 9 of the Plan. The Tandem Common Shares are Restricted Stock awards as set forth under Section 7 of the Plan.

(b) 100,000 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Common Shares, each granted hereunder, shall be Series A LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Common Shares, shall be subject solely to service-based vesting conditions (the “Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”) and 100,000 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Common Shares, each granted hereunder shall be Series A LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Common Shares, shall be subject to both service-based and performance-based vesting conditions (the “Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”). The date on which any applicable service-based vesting conditions are scheduled to be satisfied is referred to below as the applicable “Service-Vesting Date”, the date on which any applicable performance-based vesting conditions are satisfied is referred to below as the “Performance-Vesting Date”, and the date that all applicable service-based and performance-based vesting conditions (other than the condition that an LTIP Unit become an Equitized LTIP Unit) are satisfied (or deemed satisfied) is referred to as the “Vesting Date”.

2. Vesting.

(a) Time-Vesting LTIP Awards. The Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest in equal annual installments over the five (5)-year period commencing on the Grant Date, provided that no Termination of Employment (as defined in the Plan) has occurred prior to the applicable Service-Vesting Date.

(b) Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards.

(i) Performance Condition. Subject to the Performance-Vesting Service Condition (as defined in clause (ii) below), the percentage of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards specified in the table below shall vest on the first Year-End Trading Date (as defined below) following the Grant Date and on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date that the 10-Day VWAP (as defined below) meets or exceeds the applicable price per share specified below (each, a “Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle”), which first Year-End Trading Date shall be considered the Performance-Vesting Date in respect of the applicable portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards. “Year-End Trading Date” means the last “Trading Day” (as defined in the Grant Date Articles) of the relevant “Financial Year” (as defined in the Grant Date Articles). “10-Day VWAP” means the Dividend Price (as defined in the Grant Date Articles); provided that (i) the reference therein to the relevant “Dividend Year” shall instead be replaced with a reference to the relevant Financial Year and (ii) the final sentence of the definition of Average Price (as defined in the Grant Date Articles, which term is used in the definition of “Dividend Price”) shall be deleted and replaced with the following sentence: “If the Average Price cannot be calculated for that security on that date on any of the foregoing bases, the Average Price of that security on such date shall be the fair market value as mutually determined in good faith by the Grantee and the Board.”

| Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle | Vesting Percentage |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| $11.50 | 25% |
| $13.50 | 25% |
| $15.50 | 25% |
| $17.50 | 25% |

For the avoidance of doubt, a Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle need only be satisfied once and, except as set forth in Section 2(e) or 2(f) below, vesting will not occur for any portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards unless and until the Performance-Vesting Service Condition is also satisfied with respect to such portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards.

(ii) Service Condition. The service-based vesting condition shall be satisfied with respect to 50% of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Grant Date and 50% on the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Grant Date, provided that no Termination of Employment has occurred prior to the applicable Service-Vesting Date (the “Performance-Vesting Service Condition”). Notwithstanding the foregoing; provided that the Performance-Vesting Service Condition has been satisfied in respect of the relevant Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle may be satisfied (or deemed satisfied pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) after Termination of Employment due to death or Disability, but in no event later than the Seven-Year End Date. To the extent that any Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle has not been satisfied (or deemed satisfied pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date, any then remaining unvested Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and related Tandem Common Shares shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of such Seven-Year End Date.

(c) [Reserved.]

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or in the Plan to the contrary, in the event that, prior to the applicable Vesting Date, the Member incurs a Termination of Employment for Cause (as defined in the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement among the Company, OpCo and the Member, dated as of February 10, 2020, as amended or amended and restated (the “Employment Agreement”) or due to the Member’s voluntary resignation without Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement), all Unvested Awards (as defined below) shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, be forfeited and canceled without consideration. The Member’s LTIP Capital Account with respect to an LTIP Unit that has been forfeited, canceled or terminated shall be treated as provided in Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, “Unvested Award” means any LTIP Unit and the related Non-Economic Shares granted to the Member hereunder (and any Award (as defined in the Plan) into which such LTIP Unit and the related Non-Economic Shares has been converted pursuant to Section 4(c) of the Plan or Section 2(f) of this Agreement), in each case that remains subject to any service-based or performance-based vesting conditions set forth in this Section 2 (other than the condition that such LTIP Unit become an Equitized LTIP Unit).

(e) In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment on or prior to the applicable Vesting Date due to a Termination of Employment by the Company not for Cause or a resignation with Good Reason, all outstanding Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount (as defined in Section 5 of this Agreement)) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting Date in respect of all then outstanding and previously unvested LTIP Units shall be the date of the Member’s Termination of Employment. In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment on or prior to the applicable Vesting Date due to (i) the Member’s Disability or (ii) the Member’s death, the service-based vesting condition for all Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be deemed satisfied as follows: (A) in the case of the Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the LTIP Units shall vest in respect of the one (1) -year vesting period in which the Member’s Termination of Employment occurs and, as applicable, the immediately following one (1)-year vesting period (i.e., collectively, an additional forty percent (40%) of the original grant of Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest, assuming the Member's Termination of Employment occurred during the four (4)-year period commencing on the Grant Date) and (B) in the case of the Performance-Vested Series A LTIP Awards, the service-based vesting condition shall be deemed satisfied on a pro-rata basis based on the number of full or partial years that have elapsed between the Grant Date and the date of the Termination of Employment, plus one (1) additional year of service; provided, however, that vesting will not occur for any portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) unless and until the applicable Seven-Year Share Price Hurdles are achieved (or deemed achieved pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date. Any remaining Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards that have not vested on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of the Seven-Year End Date. For example, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, if the Termination of Employment due to death or Disability occurs on the twenty (20) month anniversary of the Grant Date, then such LTIP Units shall vest as follows: (A) 100% (3/3rds) of the outstanding Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards scheduled to vest on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Grant Date shall remain outstanding, subject to achievement of such goals on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date, and (B) approximately 43% (3/7^{ths}) of the outstanding Seven-Year Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards scheduled to vest on the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Grant Date shall remain outstanding, subject to achievement of such goals on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date.

(f) Change in Control.

(i) Upon a Change in Control (as defined in the Plan), all outstanding Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall immediately vest in full.

(ii) Upon a Change in Control, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, all Seven-Year Share Price Hurdles shall be deemed satisfied, and all Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards that remain subject to the Performance-Vesting Service Condition may either (A) remain outstanding or (B) be converted in accordance with Section 2(f)(iii) into an award in respect of stock of, or other equity interests in, the acquirer (or one of its Affiliates) based on the value of such Unvested Award (which value, in the case of an Equitized LTIP Unit, shall be determined as if redeemed for a share of Class A Common Stock, in the case of all such LTIP Units on a one-for-one basis and, in the case of a Non-Equitized LTIP Unit, shall be determined in accordance with Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement at the time of such Change in Control) and, following conversion, any such award will be considered an Unvested Award to the extent provided in this Agreement. In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment following the Change in Control under any circumstance set forth in Section 2(e), all Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting Date shall be the date of the Member's Termination of Employment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, solely to the extent required to avoid taxation and penalties under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be settled no later than March 15th of the calendar year (or, if applicable, two and one-half (2 1/2) months after the end of the applicable service recipient's fiscal year) following the later of (1) the calendar year (or fiscal year, as applicable) in which the Change in Control occurs and (2) the calendar year (or fiscal year, as applicable) in which the Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) are no longer subject to a "substantial risk of forfeiture" within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code.

(iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event of a Change in Control, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, unless (A) either (1) the Unvested Awards remain outstanding following the Change in Control or (2) provision is made in connection with the Change in Control for assumption of Unvested Awards or substitution of such Unvested Awards for new awards ("Replacement Awards") covering equity interests in a successor entity, with appropriate adjustments to the number of Unvested Awards, as determined by the Committee (as defined in the Plan) in accordance with Section 2(f)(ii) of this Agreement and Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement prior to the Change in Control pursuant to Section 4(c)(ii) of the Plan, and (B) the material terms and conditions of such Unvested Awards (other than the Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle) as in effect immediately prior to the Change in Control are preserved following the Change in Control (including, without limitation, with respect to the schedule to satisfy the Performance-Vesting Service Condition, the intrinsic value of the Unvested Awards (or similar potential fair value in accordance with Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement, in the case of a Non-Equitized LTIP Unit), transferability of the Unvested Awards (and interests into which the Unvested Awards may be converted or exchanged) prior to and following the Change in Control and voting power in respect of the Unvested Awards), such Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full upon such Change in Control, and the Vesting Date shall be the date of such Change in Control.

(iv) To the extent that the conversion, assumption or substitution of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and the related Tandem Common Shares in connection with a Change in Control would result in the Member incurring tax liability with respect to such Awards, subject to applicable law and any policies of the Company or any successor that impose trading restrictions (such as blackout periods), the Member shall be permitted to sell the number of securities subject to the replacement award that the Company determines to be necessary to satisfy the Member's tax liability incurred in connection with such exchange. Any such securities that the Member is entitled to sell pursuant to this Section 2(f)(iv) will no longer be considered Unvested Awards. In connection with a Change in Control, if any Replacement Awards that are granted to the Member pursuant to Section 2(f)(iii) would be taxable to the Member as ordinary income rather than as long-term capital gains, the material terms and conditions of the Unvested Awards shall not be deemed preserved unless the Member is granted an additional number of Replacement Awards to make the Member substantially whole for such incremental tax liability or the Member is otherwise compensated for such incremental tax liability. The amount of the incremental tax liability shall be determined using the tax rates in effect as of the date of the grant of such Replacement Awards.

3. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Company hereby represents and warrants that the Tandem Common Shares (i) have been duly authorized and validly issued, (ii) are fully paid and non-assessable, (iii) have been issued in compliance with applicable law, (iv) are not issued in breach or violation of any contract or preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or other similar rights, (v) are free and clear of all Encumbrances except for (A) applicable transfer restrictions pursuant to applicable law, this Agreement, the Plan and the Operating Agreement and (B) the applicable vesting conditions pursuant to this Agreement and (vi) are uncertificated.

(b) OpCo hereby represents and warrants that the LTIP Units (i) have been duly authorized and validly issued, (ii) have been issued in compliance with applicable law, (iii) are not issued in breach or violation of any contract or preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or other similar rights, (iv) are free and clear of all Encumbrances except for (A) applicable transfer restrictions pursuant to applicable law, this Agreement, the Plan and the Operating Agreement and (B) the applicable vesting conditions pursuant to this Agreement and (v) are uncertificated.

(c) The Member represents and warrants that all of the representations and warranties set forth on Appendix A are true and correct in all respects.

4. Nontransferability.

Subject to Section 3.02(c)(iv) of the Operating Agreement, from and after the Grant Date, the Member shall be permitted to transfer the LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares), whether such LTIP Units are vested or unvested, solely in accordance with Article X of the Operating Agreement. In the event of any such transfer pursuant to the foregoing, prior to the applicable Vesting Date, the Unvested Awards shall remain subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including with respect to vesting and forfeiture) that are applicable to Unvested Awards until such LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares) are no longer Unvested Awards. From and after the applicable Vesting Date, the LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares) shall be subject to Section 3.02(c)(iv) of the Operating Agreement and shall not be transferable by the Member, except as set forth in Article X of the Operating Agreement (which shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Tandem Common Shares, treating the Tandem Common Shares as LTIP Units).

5. Allocations, Distributions and Dividends.

Allocations and distributions with respect to the LTIP Units (including tax distributions) shall be handled in the manner specified in the Operating Agreement. The amount of any distributions credited under Section 4.01(b) of the Operating Agreement to the Member's LTIP Units prior to the Vesting Date are referred to herein as "Unvested Distribution Amounts". Any such Unvested Distribution Amounts shall be settled through a cash payment (less any prior tax distributions pursuant to Section 4.01(c) of the Operating Agreement in respect of Unvested Distribution Amounts) to the Member upon the applicable Vesting Date. Upon the forfeiture of an Unvested Award pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, all Unvested Distribution Amounts (excluding the amount of tax distributions previously paid pursuant to Section 4.01(c) of the Operating Agreement) allocated to the Member's forfeited LTIP Units shall also be forfeited. The Member's LTIP Capital Account that has been forfeited, canceled or terminated shall be treated as provided in Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement, as applicable. From and after the time that the LTIP Units become fully vested, the rights of the Member to receive distributions with respect to any LTIP Unit shall be governed by the Operating Agreement.

6. Tax Distributions.

7. Section 83(b) Election.

The Member agrees that the Member will make a protective election to be taxed immediately on the value of the LTIP Units and related Non-Economic Shares on the Grant Date; provided that the Member shall not be in breach of this Agreement if Member fails to comply with this Section 7. In order to do so, the Member must file an election with the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Code, and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder (a "Section 83(b) Election") with respect to the LTIP Units and related Non-Economic Shares within 30 days following the Grant Date, on a form attached hereto as Appendix B. The Member will provide a copy of such Section 83(b) Election to OpCo not later than ten (10) days after filing the election with the Internal Revenue Service or other governmental authority.

8. Payment of Transfer Taxes, Fees and Other Expenses.

(a) The Company agrees to pay, or to cause its applicable Affiliate to pay, any and all original issue taxes and stock transfer taxes that may be imposed with respect to the delivery of any LTIP Units or Shares (as defined in the Plan) pursuant to this Agreement, together with any and all other fees and expenses necessarily incurred by the Company or any of its Affiliates in connection therewith.

(b) The Company, or its applicable Affiliates, shall be entitled to withhold from any payments, distributions and allocations to the Member any amounts required to be so withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of any other federal, state, local or foreign law. If the Company, or its applicable Affiliate, pays any taxes (including any related interest, penalties or additions to tax) in respect of LTIP Units or Shares on the Member's behalf, (i) except if the Member is an "executive officer" (within the meaning of Rule 3b-7 under the Exchange Act (as defined in the Plan)), as may be required to comply with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, if requested by OpCo, the Member agrees to reimburse and shall reimburse OpCo for such taxes within thirty (30) days following the Company's request or (ii) if such taxes are paid by OpCo, such taxes shall be governed by Section 5.05 of the Operating Agreement.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 8(a) and Section 8(b), the Member shall be solely responsible for the payment of any taxes in respect of LTIP Units and Shares and shall hold the Company and its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers and employees harmless from any liability arising from the Member's failure to comply with the foregoing provisions of this Section 8(c).

9. Adjustment Provisions.

In the event of any extraordinary dividend or other extraordinary distribution (whether in the form of cash, Shares, other securities or other property), recapitalization, rights offering, stock split, reverse stock split, split-up or spin-off or any other event that constitutes an “equity restructuring” within the meaning of GAAP (as defined in the Plan), the Committee shall, in accordance with Section 4(c)(i) of the Plan, adjust any outstanding LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares, as well as any unsatisfied share price hurdles and the Floor Amount.

10. Rights of a Shareholder.

The Member shall have the voting rights with respect to the Shares issued to the Member upon the grant of the related LTIP Unit immediately upon the Grant Date, regardless of whether such LTIP Unit (and related Share) is vested or unvested.

11. Effect of Agreement.

Except as otherwise provided hereunder, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of any successor or successors of the Company or OpCo. The invalidity or enforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement or the Plan shall confer upon the Member any right to continue in the employ of the Company or any of its Affiliates or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or any such Affiliates to terminate the Member’s service at any time. Until shares of Class A Common Stock are actually delivered to the Member upon a Redemption or Direct Exchange pursuant to Article XI of the Operating Agreement, the Member shall not have any rights as a shareholder in respect of shares of Class A Common Stock; provided that the Member shall have all rights as a shareholder in respect of shares of Class B Common Stock.

12. Laws Applicable to Construction; Consent to Jurisdiction.

(a) Notwithstanding anything in the Operating Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to principles of conflict of laws that could cause the application of the law of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware. In addition to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Unvested Awards are subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, which is hereby incorporated by reference, and the LTIP Units and Shares are subject to the Operating Agreement, which is hereby incorporated by reference. In addition, Shares are subject to the Organizational Document, which are hereby incorporated by reference. By signing this Agreement, the Member agrees to and is bound by the Plan, the Operating Agreement and the Organizational Document.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in the Operating Agreement to the contrary, any controversy or claim between the Member and the Company, OpCo or any of its or their Affiliates arising out of or relating to or concerning the provisions of this Agreement or the Plan shall be resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions set forth in the Employment Agreement.

13. Section 409A of the Code.

It is intended that the LTIP Units, the Shares and all amounts payable with respect thereto (including the Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be exempt from Section 409A of the Code.

14. Conflicts and Interpretation.

In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Operating Agreement, the Plan and/or this Agreement relating to LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares, the agreements shall take precedence in the following order: (a) this Agreement, (b) the Operating Agreement and (c) the Plan; provided that, with respect to the process for, and restrictions and limitations on, amending the Operating Agreement, Section 16.03 of the Operating Agreement (Amendments) shall take precedence over this Agreement. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement with respect to LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares, the Operating Agreement shall govern the Member's rights and obligations with respect to OpCo under the Operating Agreement. In the event of any ambiguity in this Agreement, or any matters as to which this Agreement is silent, the Plan shall govern including, without limitation, the provisions thereof pursuant to which the Committee has the power, among others, to (i) interpret the Plan, (ii) prescribe, amend and rescind rules and regulations relating to the Plan, and (iii) make all other determinations deemed necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan; provided that all actions by the Committee shall be taken reasonably and in good faith.

15. Amendment.

Any modification, amendment or waiver to this Agreement that shall impair the rights of the Member shall require an instrument in writing to be signed by the Member, the Company and OpCo. The waiver by any of the Member, the Company or OpCo of compliance with any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, or of any subsequent breach by such party of a provision of this Agreement.

16. Severability.

If any term, provision, covenant or condition of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, then such provision, covenant or condition shall, as to such jurisdiction, be modified or restricted to the extent necessary to make such provision valid, binding and enforceable, or, if such provision cannot be modified or restricted, then such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be deemed to be excised from this Agreement and any such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability with respect to such provision shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction, and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

17. Headings.

The headings of paragraphs herein are included solely for convenience of reference and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

18. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which together shall constitute one and the same original.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, as of the date first above written, each of the Company and OpCo has caused this Agreement to be executed on behalf of itself or its applicable Affiliate by a duly authorized officer and the Member has hereunto set the Member’s hand.

(a) Access to Information. Because of the Member's business relationship with the Company and its Affiliates and with the management of the Company and its Affiliates, the Member has had access to all material and relevant information concerning OpCo, the Company and their respective Affiliates, thereby enabling the Member to make an informed investment decision with respect to Member's receipt of the LTIP Units, and all pertinent data and information requested by the Member from OpCo, the Company or their respective representatives, as the case may be, concerning the business and financial condition of OpCo, the Company or their respective Affiliates, as the case may be, and the terms and conditions of this Agreement have been furnished to the Member. The Member acknowledges that the Member has had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers and obtain additional information from OpCo, the Company and their respective Affiliates and their representatives concerning the present and proposed business and financial condition of OpCo, the Company and their Affiliates.

(b) Financial Sophistication. The Member, either individually, or together with one or more financial advisors to which Member has access, has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that the Member is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the acceptance of the LTIP Units.

(c) Understanding the Investment Risks. The Member understands that:

(i) the LTIP Units represent a highly speculative investment, and there can be no assurance as to the success of OpCo, the Company or their respective Affiliates in their business;

(ii) the LTIP Units cannot be transferred except in very limited circumstances in accordance with the provisions of the Operating Agreement and the Award Agreement to which this Appendix A is attached (the "Award Agreement"), and at present, no market for the LTIP Units exists and it is not anticipated that a market for the LTIP Units will develop in the future;

(iii) the LTIP Units may be worthless; and

(iv) ownership of the LTIP Units may result in taxable income to the Member without a corresponding cash or in-kind distribution.

(d) Understanding the Nature of LTIP Units. The Member understands and agrees that:

(i) the LTIP Units will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the “Securities Act”), or any applicable state securities laws; they are being issued in reliance upon certain exemptions contained in the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, and the representations and warranties of the Member contained herein are essential to any claim of exemption by OpCo and the Company under the Securities Act and such state laws;

(ii) the LTIP Units are “restricted securities” as that term is defined in Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act;

(iii) the Member may not sell, transfer, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of or encumber the LTIP Units except as allowed under the provisions of the Award Agreement, the Operating Agreement and the Plan;

(iv) only OpCo and the Company, as applicable, can register the LTIP Units under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, but it is not anticipated that the LTIP Units will be registered in any event;

(v) OpCo and the Company have not made any representations to the Member that OpCo or the Company, as applicable, will register the LTIP Units under the Securities Act or any applicable state securities laws, or any representations with respect to compliance with any exemption therefrom;

(vi) the Member is aware of the conditions restricting the sale or transfer of the LTIP Units under the Operating Agreement, the Award Agreement, the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws; and

(vii) OpCo or the Company, as applicable, may, from time to time, make “stop transfer” notations in its transfer record to ensure compliance with the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws, and any additional restrictions imposed by state securities administrators.

(e) No Brokers; Additional Representations. The Member acknowledges that:

(i) neither the Member nor anyone acting on the Member’s behalf has paid or will pay a commission or other remuneration to any person in connection with the acceptance of the LTIP Units; and

(ii) at the time and as a condition of delivery of documents evidencing the LTIP Units, the Member will be deemed to have made all the representations and warranties

contained in this Appendix A with respect to such LTIP Units and may be required to make other representations concerning investment intent as a condition of the delivery of such LTIP Units by OpCo and the Company.

AWARD AGREEMENTfor*LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN UNITS AND RESTRICTED STOCK

THIS AWARD AGREEMENT, dated as of March 18, 2020 (the “Grant Date”), is entered into by and among Digital Landscape Group, Inc., a company organized under the laws of the British Virgin Islands (or any successor thereto, the “Company”), APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“OpCo”), and Jay Birnbaum (the “Member”).

WITNESSETH

In consideration of the mutual promises and covenants made herein and the mutual benefits to be derived herefrom, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Grants.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the Company’s 2020 Equity Incentive Plan (the “Plan”) and the First Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of OpCo, as amended or amended and restated from time to time (the “Operating Agreement”) (all capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Operating Agreement, unless otherwise specified):

(i) OpCo hereby grants to the Member, as of the Grant Date, 200,000 LTIP Units, and

(ii) the Company hereby grants to the Member, as of the Grant Date, in tandem with the LTIP Units, 200,000 Non-Economic Shares (within the meaning of the Plan), which shall consist of 200,000 shares of Class B Common Stock (the “Tandem Common Shares”).

The LTIP Notional Amount for each LTIP Unit granted hereunder shall equal $10.00. The LTIP Units are “Other Equity-Based Awards” within the meaning of Section 9 of the Plan. The Tandem Common Shares are Restricted Stock awards as set forth under Section 7 of the Plan.

(b) 100,000 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Common Shares, each granted hereunder, shall be Series A LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Common Shares, shall be subject solely to service-based vesting conditions (the “Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”) and 100,000 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Common Shares, each granted hereunder shall be Series A LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Common Shares, shall be subject to both service-based and performance-based vesting conditions (the “Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”). The date on which any applicable service-based vesting conditions are scheduled to be satisfied is referred to below as the applicable “Service-Vesting Date”, the date on which any applicable performance-based vesting conditions are satisfied is referred to below as the “Performance-Vesting Date”, and the date that all applicable service-based and performance-based vesting conditions (other than the condition that an LTIP Unit become an Equitized LTIP Unit) are satisfied (or deemed satisfied) is referred to as the “Vesting Date”.

2. Vesting.

(a) Time-Vesting LTIP Awards. The Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest in equal annual installments over the five (5)-year period commencing on February 10, 2020 (the “Vesting Commencement Date”), provided that no Termination of Employment (as defined in the Plan) has occurred prior to the applicable Service-Vesting Date.

(b) Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards.

(i) Performance Condition. Subject to the Performance-Vesting Service Condition (as defined in clause (ii) below), the percentage of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards specified in the table below shall vest on the first Year-End Trading Date (as defined below) following the Vesting Commencement Date and on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date (as defined below) that the 10-Day VWAP (as defined below) meets or exceeds the applicable price per share specified below (each, a “Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle”), which first Year-End Trading Date shall be considered the Performance-Vesting Date in respect of the applicable portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards. “Seven-Year End Date” means the Mandatory Conversion Date (as defined in the First Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company, as in effect on the Vesting Commencement Date and without regard to any amendments thereto following the Grant Date (the “Grant Date Articles”)). “Year-End Trading Date” means the last “Trading Day” (as defined in the Grant Date Articles) of the relevant “Financial Year” (as defined in the Grant Date Articles). “10-Day VWAP” means the Dividend Price (as defined in the Grant Date Articles); provided that (i) the reference therein to the relevant “Dividend Year” shall instead be replaced with a reference to the relevant Financial Year and (ii) the final sentence of the definition of Average Price (as defined in the Grant Date Articles, which term is used in the definition of “Dividend Price”) shall be deleted and replaced with the following sentence: “If the Average Price cannot be calculated for that security on that date on any of the foregoing bases, the Average Price of that security on such date shall be the fair market value as mutually determined in good faith by the Grantee and the Board.”

| Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle | Vesting Percentage |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| $11.50 | 25% |
| $13.50 | 25% |
| $15.50 | 25% |
| $17.50 | 25% |

For the avoidance of doubt, a Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle need only be satisfied once and, except as set forth in Section 2(e) or 2(f) below, vesting will not occur for any portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards unless and until the Performance-Vesting Service Condition is also satisfied with respect to such portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards.

(ii) Service Condition. The service-based vesting condition shall be satisfied with respect to 50% of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date and 50% on the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date, provided that no Termination of Employment has occurred prior to the applicable Service-Vesting Date (the “Performance-Vesting Service Condition”). Notwithstanding the foregoing; provided that the Performance-Vesting Service Condition has been satisfied in respect of the relevant Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle may be satisfied (or deemed satisfied pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) after Termination of Employment due to death or Disability, but in no event later than the Seven-Year End Date. To the extent that any Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle has not been satisfied (or deemed satisfied pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date, any then remaining unvested Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and related Tandem Common Shares shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of such Seven-Year End Date.

(c) [Reserved.]

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or in the Plan to the contrary, in the event that, prior to the applicable Vesting Date, the Member incurs a Termination of Employment for Cause (as defined in the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement among the Company, OpCo and the Member, dated as of February 10, 2020, as amended or amended and restated (the “Employment Agreement”) or due to the Member’s voluntary resignation without Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement), all Unvested Awards (as defined below) shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, be forfeited and canceled without consideration. The Member’s LTIP Capital Account with respect to an LTIP Unit that has been forfeited, canceled or terminated shall be treated as provided in Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, “Unvested Award” means any LTIP Unit and the related Non-Economic Shares granted to the Member hereunder (and any Award (as defined in the Plan) into which such LTIP Unit and the related Non-Economic Shares has been converted pursuant to Section 4(c) of the Plan or Section 2(f) of this Agreement), in each case that remains subject to any service-based or performance-based vesting conditions set forth in this Section 2 (other than the condition that such LTIP Unit become an Equitized LTIP Unit).

(e) In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment on or prior to the applicable Vesting Date due to a Termination of Employment by the Company not for Cause or a resignation with Good Reason, all outstanding Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount (as defined in Section 5 of this Agreement)) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting Date in respect of all then outstanding and previously unvested LTIP Units shall be the date of the Member’s Termination of Employment. In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment on or prior to the applicable Vesting Date due to (i) the Member's Disability or (ii) the Member's death, the service-based vesting condition for all Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be deemed satisfied as follows: (A) in the case of the Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the LTIP Units shall vest in respect of the one (1)- year vesting period in which the Member's Termination of Employment occurs and, as applicable, the immediately following one (1)-year vesting period (i.e., collectively, an additional forty percent (40%) of the original grant of Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest, assuming the Member's Termination of Employment occurred during the four (4)-year period commencing on the Vesting Commencement Date) and (B) in the case of the Performance-Vested Series A LTIP Awards, the service-based vesting condition shall be deemed satisfied on a pro-rata basis based on the number of full or partial years that have elapsed between the Vesting Commencement Date and the date of the Termination of Employment, plus one (1) additional year of service; provided, however, that vesting will not occur for any portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) unless and until the applicable Seven-Year Share Price Hurdles are achieved (or deemed achieved pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date. Any remaining Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards that have not vested on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of the Seven-Year End Date. For example, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, if the Termination of Employment due to death or Disability occurs on the twenty (20)-month anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date, then such LTIP Units shall vest as follows: (A) 100% (3/3rds) of the outstanding Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards scheduled to vest on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date shall remain outstanding, subject to achievement of such goals on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date, and (B) approximately 43% (3/7^{ths}) of the outstanding Seven-Year Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards scheduled to vest on the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Vesting Commencement Date shall remain outstanding, subject to achievement of such goals on or prior to the Seven- Year End Date.

(f) Change in Control.

(i) Upon a Change in Control (as defined in the Plan), all outstanding Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall immediately vest in full.

(ii) Upon a Change in Control, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, all Seven-Year Share Price Hurdles shall be deemed satisfied, and all Performance- Vesting Series A LTIP Awards that remain subject to the Performance-Vesting Service Condition may either (A) remain outstanding or (B) be converted in accordance with Section 2(f)(iii) into an award in respect of stock of, or other equity interests in, the acquirer (or one of its Affiliates) based on the value of such Unvested Award (which value, in the case of an Equitized LTIP Unit, shall be determined as if redeemed for a share of Class A Common Stock, in the case of all such LTIP Units on a one-for-one basis and, in the case of a Non-Equitized LTIP Unit, shall be determined in accordance with Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement at the time of such Change in Control) and, following conversion, any such award will be considered an Unvested Award to the extent provided in this Agreement. In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment following the Change in Control under any circumstance set forth in Section 2(e), all Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting Date shall be the date of the Member's Termination of Employment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, solely to the extent required to avoid taxation and penalties under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be settled no later than March 15th of the calendar year (or, if applicable, two and one-half (2 1/2) months after the end of the applicable service recipient's fiscal year) following the later of (1) the calendar year (or fiscal year, as applicable) in which the Change in Control occurs and (2) the calendar year (or fiscal year, as applicable) in which the Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) are no longer subject to a "substantial risk of forfeiture" within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code.

(iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event of a Change in Control, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, unless (A) either (1) the Unvested Awards remain outstanding following the Change in Control or (2) provision is made in connection with the Change in Control for assumption of Unvested Awards or substitution of such Unvested Awards for new awards ("Replacement Awards") covering equity interests in a successor entity, with appropriate adjustments to the number of Unvested Awards, as determined by the Committee (as defined in the Plan) in accordance with Section 2(f)(ii) of this Agreement and Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement prior to the Change in Control pursuant to Section 4(c)(ii) of the Plan, and (B) the material terms and conditions of such Unvested Awards (other than the Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle) as in effect immediately prior to the Change in Control are preserved following the Change in Control (including, without limitation, with respect to the schedule to satisfy the Performance-Vesting Service Condition, the intrinsic value of the Unvested Awards (or similar potential fair value in accordance with Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement, in the case of a Non-Equitized LTIP Unit), transferability of the Unvested Awards (and interests into which the Unvested Awards may be converted or exchanged) prior to and following the Change in Control and voting power in respect of the Unvested Awards), such Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full upon such Change in Control, and the Vesting Date shall be the date of such Change in Control.

(iv) To the extent that the conversion, assumption or substitution of the Performance- Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and the related Tandem Common Shares in connection with a Change in Control would result in the Member incurring tax liability with respect to such Awards, subject to applicable law and any policies of the Company or any successor that impose trading restrictions (such as blackout periods), the Member shall be permitted to sell the number of securities subject to the replacement award that the Company determines to be necessary to satisfy the Member's tax liability incurred in connection with such exchange. Any such securities that the Member is entitled to sell pursuant to this Section 2(f)(iv) will no longer be considered Unvested Awards. In connection with a Change in Control, if any Replacement Awards that are granted to the Member pursuant to Section 2(f)(iii) would be taxable to the Member as ordinary income rather than as long-term capital gains, the material terms and conditions of the Unvested

Awards shall not be deemed preserved unless the Member is granted an additional number of Replacement Awards to make the Member substantially whole for such incremental tax liability or the Member is otherwise compensated for such incremental tax liability. The amount of the incremental tax liability shall be determined using the tax rates in effect as of the date of the grant of such Replacement Awards.

3. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Company hereby represents and warrants that the Tandem Common Shares (i) have been duly authorized and validly issued, (ii) are fully paid and non-assessable, (iii) have been issued in compliance with applicable law, (iv) are not issued in breach or violation of any contract or preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or other similar rights, (v) are free and clear of all Encumbrances except for (A) applicable transfer restrictions pursuant to applicable law, this Agreement, the Plan and the Operating Agreement and (B) the applicable vesting conditions pursuant to this Agreement and (vi) are uncertificated.

(b) OpCo hereby represents and warrants that the LTIP Units (i) have been duly authorized and validly issued, (ii) have been issued in compliance with applicable law, (iii) are not issued in breach or violation of any contract or preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or other similar rights, (iv) are free and clear of all Encumbrances except for (A) applicable transfer restrictions pursuant to applicable law, this Agreement, the Plan and the Operating Agreement and (B) the applicable vesting conditions pursuant to this Agreement and (v) are uncertificated.

(c) The Member represents and warrants that all of the representations and warranties set forth on Appendix A are true and correct in all respects.

4. Nontransferability.

Subject to Section 3.02(c)(iv) of the Operating Agreement, from and after the Grant Date, the Member shall be permitted to transfer the LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares), whether such LTIP Units are vested or unvested, solely in accordance with Article X of the Operating Agreement. In the event of any such transfer pursuant to the foregoing, prior to the applicable Vesting Date, the Unvested Awards shall remain subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including with respect to vesting and forfeiture) that are applicable to Unvested Awards until such LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares) are no longer Unvested Awards. From and after the applicable Vesting Date, the LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares) shall be subject to Section 3.02(c)(iv) of the Operating Agreement and shall not be transferable by the Member, except as set forth in Article X of the Operating Agreement (which shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Tandem Common Shares, treating the Tandem Common Shares as LTIP Units).

5. Allocations, Distributions and Dividends.

Allocations and distributions with respect to the LTIP Units (including tax distributions) shall be handled in the manner specified in the Operating Agreement. The amount of any distributions credited under Section 4.01(b) of the Operating Agreement to the Member's LTIP Units prior to the Vesting Date are referred to herein as "Unvested Distribution Amounts". Any such Unvested Distribution Amounts shall be settled through a cash payment (less any prior tax distributions pursuant to Section 4.01(c) of the Operating Agreement in respect of Unvested Distribution Amounts) to the Member upon the applicable Vesting Date. Upon the forfeiture of an Unvested Award pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, all Unvested Distribution Amounts (excluding the amount of tax distributions previously paid pursuant to Section 4.01(c) of the Operating Agreement) allocated to the Member's forfeited LTIP Units shall also be forfeited. The Member's LTIP Capital Account that has been forfeited, canceled or terminated shall be treated as provided in Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement, as applicable. From and after the time that the LTIP Units become fully vested, the rights of the Member to receive distributions with respect to any LTIP Unit shall be governed by the Operating Agreement.

6. Tax Distributions.

7. Section 83(b) Election.

The Member agrees that the Member will make a protective election to be taxed immediately on the value of the LTIP Units and related Non-Economic Shares on the Grant Date; provided that the Member shall not be in breach of this Agreement if Member fails to comply with this Section 7. In order to do so, the Member must file an election with the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Code, and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder (a "Section 83(b) Election") with respect to the LTIP Units and related Non- Economic Shares within 30 days following the Grant Date, on a form attached hereto as Appendix B. The Member will provide a copy of such Section 83(b) Election to OpCo not later than ten (10) days after filing the election with the Internal Revenue Service or other governmental authority.

8. Payment of Transfer Taxes, Fees and Other Expenses.

(a) The Company agrees to pay, or to cause its applicable Affiliate to pay, any and all original issue taxes and stock transfer taxes that may be imposed with respect to the delivery of any LTIP Units or Shares (as defined in the Plan) pursuant to this Agreement, together with any and all other fees and expenses necessarily incurred by the Company or any of its Affiliates in connection therewith.

(b) The Company, or its applicable Affiliates, shall be entitled to withhold from any payments, distributions and allocations to the Member any amounts required to be so withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of any other federal, state, local or foreign law. If the Company, or its applicable Affiliate, pays any taxes (including any related interest, penalties or additions to tax) in respect of LTIP Units or Shares on the Member's behalf, (i) except if the Member is an "executive officer" (within the meaning of Rule 3b-7 under the Exchange Act (as defined in the Plan)), as may be required to comply with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, if requested by OpCo, the Member agrees to reimburse and shall reimburse OpCo for such taxes within thirty (30) days following the Company's request or (ii) if such taxes are paid by OpCo, such taxes shall be governed by Section 5.05 of the Operating Agreement.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 8(a) and Section 8(b), the Member shall be solely responsible for the payment of any taxes in respect of LTIP Units and Shares and shall hold the Company and its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers and employees harmless from any liability arising from the Member's failure to comply with the foregoing provisions of this Section 8(c).

9. Adjustment Provisions.

In the event of any extraordinary dividend or other extraordinary distribution (whether in the form of cash, Shares, other securities or other property), recapitalization, rights offering, stock split, reverse stock split, split-up or spin-off or any other event that constitutes an "equity restructuring" within the meaning of GAAP (as defined in the Plan), the Committee shall, in accordance with Section 4(c)(i) of the Plan, adjust any outstanding LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares, as well as any unsatisfied share price hurdles and the Floor Amount.

10. Rights of a Shareholder.

The Member shall have the voting rights with respect to the Shares issued to the Member upon the grant of the related LTIP Unit immediately upon the Grant Date, regardless of whether such LTIP Unit (and related Share) is vested or unvested.

11. Effect of Agreement.

Except as otherwise provided hereunder, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of any successor or successors of the Company or OpCo. The invalidity or enforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement or the Plan shall confer upon the Member any right to continue in the employ of the Company or any of its Affiliates or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or any such Affiliates to terminate the Member's service at any time. Until shares of Class A Common Stock are actually delivered to the Member upon a Redemption or Direct Exchange pursuant to Article XI of the Operating Agreement, the Member shall not have any rights as a shareholder in respect of shares of Class A Common Stock; provided that the Member shall have all rights as a shareholder in respect of shares of Class B Common Stock.

12. Laws Applicable to Construction; Consent to Jurisdiction.

(a) Notwithstanding anything in the Operating Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to principles of conflict of laws that could cause the application of the law of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware. In addition to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Unvested Awards are subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, which is hereby incorporated by reference, and the LTIP Units and Shares are subject to the Operating Agreement, which is hereby incorporated by reference. In addition, Shares are subject to the Organizational Document, which are hereby incorporated by reference. By signing this Agreement, the Member agrees to and is bound by the Plan, the Operating Agreement and the Organizational Document.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in the Operating Agreement to the contrary, any controversy or claim between the Member and the Company, OpCo or any of its or their Affiliates arising out of or relating to or concerning the provisions of this Agreement or the Plan shall be resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions set forth in the Employment Agreement.

13. Section 409A of the Code.

It is intended that the LTIP Units, the Shares and all amounts payable with respect thereto (including the Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be exempt from Section 409A of the Code.

14. Conflicts and Interpretation.

In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Operating Agreement, the Plan and/or this Agreement relating to LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares, the agreements shall take precedence in the following order: (a) this Agreement, (b) the Operating Agreement and (c) the Plan; provided that, with respect to the process for, and restrictions and limitations on, amending the Operating Agreement, Section 16.03 of the Operating Agreement (Amendments) shall take precedence over this Agreement. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement with respect to LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares, the Operating Agreement shall govern the Member's rights and obligations with respect to OpCo under the Operating Agreement. In the event of any ambiguity in this Agreement, or any matters as to which this Agreement is silent, the Plan shall govern including, without limitation, the provisions thereof pursuant to which the Committee has the power, among others, to (i) interpret the Plan, (ii) prescribe, amend and rescind rules and regulations relating to the Plan, and (iii) make all other determinations deemed necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan; provided that all actions by the Committee shall be taken reasonably and in good faith.

15. Amendment.

Any modification, amendment or waiver to this Agreement that shall impair the rights of the Member shall require an instrument in writing to be signed by the Member, the Company and OpCo. The waiver by any of the Member, the Company or OpCo of compliance with any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, or of any subsequent breach by such party of a provision of this Agreement.

16. Severability.

If any term, provision, covenant or condition of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, then such provision, covenant or condition shall, as to such jurisdiction, be modified or restricted to the extent necessary to make such provision valid, binding and enforceable, or, if such provision cannot be modified or restricted, then such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be deemed to be excised from this Agreement and any such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability with respect to such provision shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction, and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

17. Headings.

The headings of paragraphs herein are included solely for convenience of reference and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

18. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which together shall constitute one and the same original.

IN WITNESS WHE REOF, as of the date first above written, each of the Company and OpCo has caused this Agreement to be executed on behalf of itself or its applicable Affiliate by a duly authorized officer and the Member has hereunto set the Member’s hand.

Investment Intent and Other Representations of the Member

1. Investment Intent.

The Member hereby represents and warrants that the LTIP Units (which, for purposes of this Appendix A, shall be deemed to include the related Tandem Common Shares) must be held for investment purposes and are not being received with a view to distribution thereof, and covenants and agrees to make such other reasonable and customary representations as requested by OpCo or the Company, as applicable, regarding matters relevant to compliance with applicable securities laws as are deemed necessary by counsel to OpCo or the Company, as applicable.

2. Other Representations.

The Member hereby represents and warrants to OpCo or the Company, as applicable, as follows:

(a) Access to Information. Because of the Member's business relationship with the Company and its Affiliates and with the management of the Company and its Affiliates, the Member has had access to all material and relevant information concerning OpCo, the Company and their respective Affiliates, thereby enabling the Member to make an informed investment decision with respect to Member's receipt of the LTIP Units, and all pertinent data and information requested by the Member from OpCo, the Company or their respective representatives, as the case may be, concerning the business and financial condition of OpCo, the Company or their respective Affiliates, as the case may be, and the terms and conditions of this Agreement have been furnished to the Member. The Member acknowledges that the Member has had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers and obtain additional information from OpCo, the Company and their respective Affiliates and their representatives concerning the present and proposed business and financial condition of OpCo, the Company and their Affiliates.

(b) Financial Sophistication. The Member, either individually, or together with one or more financial advisors to which Member has access, has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that the Member is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the acceptance of the LTIP Units.

(c) Understanding the Investment Risks. The Member understands that:

(i) the LTIP Units represent a highly speculative investment, and there can be no assurance as to the success of OpCo, the Company or their respective Affiliates in their business;

(ii) the LTIP Units cannot be transferred except in very limited circumstances in accordance with the provisions of the Operating Agreement and the Award Agreement to which this Appendix A is attached (the "Award Agreement"), and at present, no market for the LTIP Units exists and it is not anticipated that a market for the LTIP Units will develop in the future;

(iii) the LTIP Units may be worthless; and

(iv) ownership of the LTIP Units may result in taxable income to the Member without a corresponding cash or in-kind distribution.

(d) Understanding the Nature of LTIP Units. The Member understands and agrees that:

(i) the LTIP Units will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the “Securities Act”), or any applicable state securities laws; they are being issued in reliance upon certain exemptions contained in the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, and the representations and warranties of the Member contained herein are essential to any claim of exemption by OpCo and the Company under the Securities Act and such state laws;

(ii) the LTIP Units are “restricted securities” as that term is defined in Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act;

(iii) the Member may not sell, transfer, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of or encumber the LTIP Units except as allowed under the provisions of the Award Agreement, the Operating Agreement and the Plan;

(iv) only OpCo and the Company, as applicable, can register the LTIP Units under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, but it is not anticipated that the LTIP Units will be registered in any event;

(v) OpCo and the Company have not made any representations to the Member that OpCo or the Company, as applicable, will register the LTIP Units under the Securities Act or any applicable state securities laws, or any representations with respect to compliance with any exemption therefrom;

(vi) the Member is aware of the conditions restricting the sale or transfer of the LTIP Units under the Operating Agreement, the Award Agreement, the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws; and

(vii) OpCo or the Company, as applicable, may, from time to time, make “stop transfer” notations in its transfer record to ensure compliance with the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws, and any additional restrictions imposed by state securities administrators.

(e) No Brokers; Additional Representations. The Member acknowledges that:

(i) neither the Member nor anyone acting on the Member’s behalf has paid or will pay a commission or other remuneration to any person in connection with the acceptance of the LTIP Units; and

(ii) at the time and as a condition of delivery of documents evidencing the LTIP Units, the Member will be deemed to have made all the representations and warranties contained in this Appendix A with respect to such LTIP Units and may be required to make other representations concerning investment intent as a condition of the delivery of such LTIP Units by OpCo and the Company.

AWARD AGREEMENTfor*LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN UNITS AND RESTRICTED STOCK

THIS AWARD AGREEMENT, dated as of February 10, 2020 (the “Grant Date”), is entered into by and among Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited (to be known as “Digital Landscape Group, Inc.”), a company organized under the laws of the British Virgin Islands (or any successor thereto, the “Company”), APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“OpCo”), and Glenn Breisinger (the “Member”).

WITNESSETH

In consideration of the mutual promises and covenants made herein and the mutual benefits to be derived herefrom, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Grants.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the Company’s 2020 Equity Incentive Plan (the “Plan”) and the First Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of OpCo, as amended or amended and restated from time to time (the “Operating Agreement”) (all capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Operating Agreement, unless otherwise specified):

(i) OpCo hereby grants to the Member, as of the Grant Date, 655,000 LTIP Units, and

(ii) the Company hereby grants to the Member, as of the Grant Date, in tandem with the LTIP Units, 655,000 Non-Economic Shares (within the meaning of the Plan), which shall consist of 655,000 shares of Class B Common Stock (the “Tandem Common Shares”).

The LTIP Notional Amount for each LTIP Unit granted hereunder shall equal $10.00. The LTIP Units are “Other Equity-Based Awards” within the meaning of Section 9 of the Plan. The Tandem Common Shares are Restricted Stock awards as set forth under Section 7 of the Plan.

(b) 355,000 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Common Shares, each granted hereunder, shall be Series A LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Common Shares, shall be subject solely to service-based vesting conditions (the “Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”) and 300,000 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Common Shares, each granted hereunder shall be Series A LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Common Shares, shall be subject to both service-based and performance-based vesting conditions (the “Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”). The date on which any applicable service-based vesting conditions are scheduled to be satisfied is referred to below as the applicable “Service-Vesting Date”, the date on which any applicable performance-based vesting conditions are satisfied is referred to below as the “Performance-Vesting Date”, and the date that all applicable service-based and performance-based vesting conditions (other than the condition that an LTIP Unit become an Equitized LTIP Unit) are satisfied (or deemed satisfied) is referred to as the “Vesting Date”.

2. Vesting.

(a) Time-Vesting LTIP Awards. (i) 300,000 Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest in equal annual installments over the five (5)-year period commencing on the Grant Date (the “Five-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”) and (ii) 55,000 Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest in equal annual installments over the three (3)-year period commencing on the Grant Date (the “Three-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”), provided that no Termination of Employment (as defined in the Plan) has occurred prior to the applicable Service-Vesting Date.

(b) Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards.

(i) Performance Condition. Subject to the Performance-Vesting Service Condition (as defined in clause (ii) below), the percentage of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards specified in the table below shall vest on the first Year-End Trading Date (as defined below) following the Grant Date and on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date that the 10-Day VWAP (as defined below) meets or exceeds the applicable price per share specified below (each, a “Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle”), which first Year-End Trading Date shall be considered the Performance-Vesting Date in respect of the applicable portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards. “Year-End Trading Date” means the last “Trading Day” (as defined in the Grant Date Articles) of the relevant “Financial Year” (as defined in the Grant Date Articles). “10-Day VWAP” means the Dividend Price (as defined in the Grant Date Articles); provided that (i) the reference therein to the relevant “Dividend Year” shall instead be replaced with a reference to the relevant Financial Year and (ii) the final sentence of the definition of Average Price (as defined in the Grant Date Articles, which term is used in the definition of “Dividend Price”) shall be deleted and replaced with the following sentence: “If the Average Price cannot be calculated for that security on that date on any of the foregoing bases, the Average Price of that security on such date shall be the fair market value as mutually determined in good faith by the Grantee and the Board.”

| Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle | Vesting Percentage |
|--|-------------------------------|
| $11.50 | 25% |
| $13.50 | 25% |
| $15.50 | 25% |
| $17.50 | 25% |

For the avoidance of doubt, a Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle need only be satisfied once and, except as set forth in Section 2(e) or 2(f) below, vesting will not occur for any portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards unless and until the Performance-Vesting Service Condition is also satisfied with respect to such portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards.

(ii) Service Condition. The service-based vesting condition shall be satisfied with respect to 50% of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Grant Date and 50% on the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Grant Date, provided that no Termination of Employment has occurred prior to the applicable Service-Vesting Date (the "Performance-Vesting Service Condition"). Notwithstanding the foregoing; provided that the Performance-Vesting Service Condition has been satisfied in respect of the relevant Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle may be satisfied (or deemed satisfied pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) after Termination of Employment due to death or Disability, but in no event later than the Seven-Year End Date. To the extent that any Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle has not been satisfied (or deemed satisfied pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date, any then remaining unvested Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and related Tandem Common Shares shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of such Seven-Year End Date.

(c) [Reserved.]

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or in the Plan to the contrary, in the event that, prior to the applicable Vesting Date, the Member incurs a Termination of Employment for Cause (as defined in the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement among the Company, OpCo and the Member, dated as of February 10, 2020, as amended or amended and restated (the "Employment Agreement") or due to the Member's voluntary resignation without Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement), all Unvested Awards (as defined below) shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, be forfeited and canceled without consideration. The Member's LTIP Capital Account with respect to an LTIP Unit that has been forfeited, canceled or terminated shall be treated as provided in Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Unvested Award" means any LTIP Unit and the related Non-Economic Shares granted to the Member hereunder (and any Award (as defined in the Plan) into which such LTIP Unit and the related Non-Economic Shares has been converted pursuant to Section 4(c) of the Plan or Section 2(f) of this Agreement), in each case that remains subject to any service-based or performance-based vesting conditions set forth in this Section 2 (other than the condition that such LTIP Unit become an Equitized LTIP Unit).

(e) In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment on or prior to the applicable Vesting Date due to a Termination of Employment by the Company not for Cause or a resignation with Good Reason, all outstanding Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount (as defined in Section 5 of this Agreement)) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting Date in respect of all then outstanding and previously unvested LTIP Units shall be the date of the Member's Termination of Employment. In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment on or prior to the applicable Vesting Date due to (i) the Member's Disability or (ii) the Member's death, the service-based vesting condition for all Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be deemed satisfied as follows: (A) in the case of the Five-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the LTIP Units shall vest in respect of the one (1)-year vesting period in which the Member's Termination of Employment occurs and, as applicable, the immediately following one (1)-year vesting period (i.e., collectively, an additional forty percent (40%) of the original grant of Five-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest, assuming the Member's Termination of Employment occurred during the four (4)-year period commencing on the Grant Date), (B) in the case of the Three-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the LTIP Units shall vest in respect of the one (1)-year vesting period in which the Member's Termination of Employment occurs and, as applicable, the immediately following one (1)-year vesting period (i.e., collectively, an additional sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66.67%) of the original grant of Three-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest, assuming the Member's Termination of Employment occurred during the two (2)-year period commencing on the Grant Date) and (C) in the case of the Performance-Vested Series A LTIP Awards, the service-based vesting condition shall be deemed satisfied on a pro-rata basis based on the number of full or partial years that have elapsed between the Grant Date and the date of the Termination of Employment, plus one (1) additional year of service; provided, however, that vesting will not occur for any portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) unless and until the applicable Seven-Year Share Price Hurdles are achieved (or deemed achieved pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date. Any remaining Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards that have not vested on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of the Seven-Year End Date. For example, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, if the Termination of Employment due to death or Disability occurs on the twenty (20) month anniversary of the Grant Date, then such LTIP Units shall vest as follows: (A) 100% (3/3rds) of the outstanding Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards scheduled to vest on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Grant Date shall remain outstanding, subject to achievement of such goals on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date, and (B) approximately 43% (3/7^{ths}) of the outstanding Seven-Year Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards scheduled to vest on the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Grant Date shall remain outstanding, subject to achievement of such goals on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date.

(f) Change in Control.

(i) Upon a Change in Control (as defined in the Plan), all outstanding Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall immediately vest in full.

(ii) Upon a Change in Control, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, all Seven-Year Share Price Hurdles shall be deemed satisfied, and all Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards that remain subject to the Performance-Vesting Service Condition may either (A) remain outstanding or (B) be converted in accordance with Section 2(f)(iii) into an award in respect of stock of, or other equity interests in, the acquirer (or one of its Affiliates) based on the value of such Unvested Award (which value, in the case of an Equitized LTIP Unit, shall be determined as if redeemed for a share of Class A Common Stock, in the case of all such LTIP Units on a one-for-one basis and, in the case of a Non-Equitized LTIP Unit, shall be determined in accordance with Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement at the time of such Change in Control) and, following conversion, any such award will be considered an Unvested Award to the extent provided in this Agreement. In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment following the Change in Control under any circumstance set forth in Section 2(e), all Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting Date shall be the date of the Member's Termination of Employment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, solely to the extent required to avoid taxation and penalties under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), the Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be settled no later than March 15th of the calendar year (or, if applicable, two and one-half (2 1/2) months after the end of the applicable service recipient’s fiscal year) following the later of (1) the calendar year (or fiscal year, as applicable) in which the Change in Control occurs and (2) the calendar year (or fiscal year, as applicable) in which the Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) are no longer subject to a “substantial risk of forfeiture” within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code.

(iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event of a Change in Control, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, unless (A) either (1) the Unvested Awards remain outstanding following the Change in Control or (2) provision is made in connection with the Change in Control for assumption of Unvested Awards or substitution of such Unvested Awards for new awards (“Replacement Awards”) covering equity interests in a successor entity, with appropriate adjustments to the number of Unvested Awards, as determined by the Committee (as defined in the Plan) in accordance with Section 2(f)(ii) of this Agreement and Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement prior to the Change in Control pursuant to Section 4(c)(ii) of the Plan, and (B) the material terms and conditions of such Unvested Awards (other than the Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle) as in effect immediately prior to the Change in Control are preserved following the Change in Control (including, without limitation, with respect to the schedule to satisfy the Performance-Vesting Service Condition, the intrinsic value of the Unvested Awards (or similar potential fair value in accordance with Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement, in the case of a Non-Equitized LTIP Unit), transferability of the Unvested Awards (and interests into which the Unvested Awards may be converted or exchanged) prior to and following the Change in Control and voting power in respect of the Unvested Awards), such Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full upon such Change in Control, and the Vesting Date shall be the date of such Change in Control.

(iv) To the extent that the conversion, assumption or substitution of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and the related Tandem Common Shares in connection with a Change in Control would result in the Member incurring tax liability with respect to such Awards, subject to applicable law and any policies of the Company or any successor that impose trading restrictions (such as blackout periods), the Member shall be permitted to sell the number of securities subject to the replacement award that the Company determines to be necessary to satisfy the Member’s tax liability incurred in connection with such exchange. Any such securities that the Member is entitled to sell pursuant to this Section 2(f)(iv) will no longer be considered Unvested Awards. In connection with a Change in Control, if any Replacement Awards that are granted to the Member pursuant to Section 2(f)(iii) would be taxable to the Member as ordinary income rather than as long-term capital gains, the material terms and conditions of the Unvested Awards shall not be deemed preserved unless the Member is granted an additional number of Replacement Awards to make the Member substantially whole for such incremental tax liability or the Member is otherwise compensated for such incremental tax liability. The amount of the incremental tax liability shall be determined using the tax rates in effect as of the date of the grant of such Replacement Awards.

3. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Company hereby represents and warrants that the Tandem Common Shares (i) have been duly authorized and validly issued, (ii) are fully paid and non-assessable, (iii) have been issued in compliance with applicable law, (iv) are not issued in breach or violation of any contract or preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or other similar rights, (v) are free and clear of all Encumbrances except for (A) applicable transfer restrictions pursuant to applicable law, this Agreement, the Plan and the Operating Agreement and (B) the applicable vesting conditions pursuant to this Agreement and (vi) are uncertificated.

(b) OpCo hereby represents and warrants that the LTIP Units (i) have been duly authorized and validly issued, (ii) have been issued in compliance with applicable law, (iii) are not issued in breach or violation of any contract or preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or other similar rights, (iv) are free and clear of all Encumbrances except for (A) applicable transfer restrictions pursuant to applicable law, this Agreement, the Plan and the Operating Agreement and (B) the applicable vesting conditions pursuant to this Agreement and (v) are uncertificated.

(c) The Member represents and warrants that all of the representations and warranties set forth on Appendix A are true and correct in all respects.

4. Nontransferability.

Subject to Section 3.02(c)(iv) of the Operating Agreement, from and after the Grant Date, the Member shall be permitted to transfer the LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares), whether such LTIP Units are vested or unvested, solely in accordance with Article X of the Operating Agreement. In the event of any such transfer pursuant to the foregoing, prior to the applicable Vesting Date, the Unvested Awards shall remain subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including with respect to vesting and forfeiture) that are applicable to Unvested Awards until such LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares) are no longer Unvested Awards. From and after the applicable Vesting Date, the LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares) shall be subject to Section 3.02(c)(iv) of the Operating Agreement and shall not be transferable by the Member, except as set forth in Article X of the Operating Agreement (which shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Tandem Common Shares, treating the Tandem Common Shares as LTIP Units).

5. Allocations, Distributions and Dividends.

Allocations and distributions with respect to the LTIP Units (including tax distributions) shall be handled in the manner specified in the Operating Agreement. The amount of any distributions credited under Section 4.01(b) of the Operating Agreement to the Member's LTIP Units prior to the Vesting Date are referred to herein as "Unvested Distribution Amounts". Any such Unvested Distribution Amounts shall be settled through a cash payment (less any prior tax distributions pursuant to Section 4.01(c) of the Operating Agreement in respect of Unvested Distribution Amounts) to the Member upon the applicable Vesting Date. Upon the forfeiture of an Unvested Award pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, all Unvested Distribution Amounts (excluding the amount of tax distributions previously paid pursuant to Section 4.01(c) of the Operating Agreement) allocated to the Member's forfeited LTIP Units shall also be forfeited. The Member's LTIP Capital Account that has been forfeited, canceled or terminated shall be treated as provided in Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement, as applicable. From and after the time that the LTIP Units become fully vested, the rights of the Member to receive distributions with respect to any LTIP Unit shall be governed by the Operating Agreement.

6. Tax Distributions.

7. Section 83(b) Election.

The Member agrees that the Member will make a protective election to be taxed immediately on the value of the LTIP Units and related Non-Economic Shares on the Grant Date; provided that the Member shall not be in breach of this Agreement if Member fails to comply with this Section 7. In order to do so, the Member must file an election with the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Code, and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder (a "Section 83(b) Election") with respect to the LTIP Units and related Non-Economic Shares within 30 days following the Grant Date, on a form attached hereto as Appendix B. The Member will provide a copy of such Section 83(b) Election to OpCo not later than ten (10) days after filing the election with the Internal Revenue Service or other governmental authority.

8. Payment of Transfer Taxes, Fees and Other Expenses.

(a) The Company agrees to pay, or to cause its applicable Affiliate to pay, any and all original issue taxes and stock transfer taxes that may be imposed with respect to the delivery of any LTIP Units or Shares (as defined in the Plan) pursuant to this Agreement, together with any and all other fees and expenses necessarily incurred by the Company or any of its Affiliates in connection therewith.

(b) The Company, or its applicable Affiliates, shall be entitled to withhold from any payments, distributions and allocations to the Member any amounts required to be so withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of any other federal, state, local or foreign law. If the Company, or its applicable Affiliate, pays any taxes (including any related interest, penalties or additions to tax) in respect of LTIP Units or Shares on the Member's behalf, (i) except if the Member is an "executive officer" (within the meaning of Rule 3b-7 under the Exchange Act (as defined in the Plan)), as may be required to comply with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, if requested by OpCo, the Member agrees to reimburse and shall reimburse OpCo for such taxes within thirty (30) days following the Company's request or (ii) if such taxes are paid by OpCo, such taxes shall be governed by Section 5.05 of the Operating Agreement.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 8(a) and Section 8(b), the Member shall be solely responsible for the payment of any taxes in respect of LTIP Units and Shares and shall hold the Company and its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers and employees harmless from any liability arising from the Member's failure to comply with the foregoing provisions of this Section 8(c).

9. Adjustment Provisions.

In the event of any extraordinary dividend or other extraordinary distribution (whether in the form of cash, Shares, other securities or other property), recapitalization, rights offering, stock split, reverse stock split, split-up or spin-off or any other event that constitutes an “equity restructuring” within the meaning of GAAP (as defined in the Plan), the Committee shall, in accordance with Section 4(c)(i) of the Plan, adjust any outstanding LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares, as well as any unsatisfied share price hurdles and the Floor Amount.

10. Rights of a Shareholder.

The Member shall have the voting rights with respect to the Shares issued to the Member upon the grant of the related LTIP Unit immediately upon the Grant Date, regardless of whether such LTIP Unit (and related Share) is vested or unvested.

11. Effect of Agreement.

Except as otherwise provided hereunder, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of any successor or successors of the Company or OpCo. The invalidity or enforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement or the Plan shall confer upon the Member any right to continue in the employ of the Company or any of its Affiliates or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or any such Affiliates to terminate the Member’s service at any time. Until shares of Class A Common Stock are actually delivered to the Member upon a Redemption or Direct Exchange pursuant to Article XI of the Operating Agreement, the Member shall not have any rights as a shareholder in respect of shares of Class A Common Stock; provided that the Member shall have all rights as a shareholder in respect of shares of Class B Common Stock.

12. Laws Applicable to Construction; Consent to Jurisdiction.

(a) Notwithstanding anything in the Operating Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to principles of conflict of laws that could cause the application of the law of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware. In addition to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Unvested Awards are subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, which is hereby incorporated by reference, and the LTIP Units and Shares are subject to the Operating Agreement, which is hereby incorporated by reference. In addition, Shares are subject to the Organizational Document, which are hereby incorporated by reference. By signing this Agreement, the Member agrees to and is bound by the Plan, the Operating Agreement and the Organizational Document.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in the Operating Agreement to the contrary, any controversy or claim between the Member and the Company, OpCo or any of its or their Affiliates arising out of or relating to or concerning the provisions of this Agreement or the Plan shall be resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions set forth in the Employment Agreement.

13. Section 409A of the Code.

It is intended that the LTIP Units, the Shares and all amounts payable with respect thereto (including the Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be exempt from Section 409A of the Code.

14. Conflicts and Interpretation.

In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Operating Agreement, the Plan and/or this Agreement relating to LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares, the agreements shall take precedence in the following order: (a) this Agreement, (b) the Operating Agreement and (c) the Plan; provided that, with respect to the process for, and restrictions and limitations on, amending the Operating Agreement, Section 16.03 of the Operating Agreement (Amendments) shall take precedence over this Agreement. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement with respect to LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares, the Operating Agreement shall govern the Member's rights and obligations with respect to OpCo under the Operating Agreement. In the event of any ambiguity in this Agreement, or any matters as to which this Agreement is silent, the Plan shall govern including, without limitation, the provisions thereof pursuant to which the Committee has the power, among others, to (i) interpret the Plan, (ii) prescribe, amend and rescind rules and regulations relating to the Plan, and (iii) make all other determinations deemed necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan; provided that all actions by the Committee shall be taken reasonably and in good faith.

15. Amendment.

Any modification, amendment or waiver to this Agreement that shall impair the rights of the Member shall require an instrument in writing to be signed by the Member, the Company and OpCo. The waiver by any of the Member, the Company or OpCo of compliance with any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, or of any subsequent breach by such party of a provision of this Agreement.

16. Severability.

If any term, provision, covenant or condition of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, then such provision, covenant or condition shall, as to such jurisdiction, be modified or restricted to the extent necessary to make such provision valid, binding and enforceable, or, if such provision cannot be modified or restricted, then such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be deemed to be excised from this Agreement and any such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability with respect to such provision shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction, and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

17. Headings.

The headings of paragraphs herein are included solely for convenience of reference and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

18. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which together shall constitute one and the same original.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, as of the date first above written, each of the Company and OpCo has caused this Agreement to be executed on behalf of itself or its applicable Affiliate by a duly authorized officer and the Member has hereunto set the Member’s hand.

Investment Intent and Other Representations of the Member

1. Investment Intent.

The Member hereby represents and warrants that the LTIP Units (which, for purposes of this Appendix A, shall be deemed to include the related Tandem Common Shares) must be held for investment purposes and are not being received with a view to distribution thereof, and covenants and agrees to make such other reasonable and customary representations as requested by OpCo or the Company, as applicable, regarding matters relevant to compliance with applicable securities laws as are deemed necessary by counsel to OpCo or the Company, as applicable.

2. Other Representations.

The Member hereby represents and warrants to OpCo or the Company, as applicable, as follows:

(a) Access to Information. Because of the Member's business relationship with the Company and its Affiliates and with the management of the Company and its Affiliates, the Member has had access to all material and relevant information concerning OpCo, the Company and their respective Affiliates, thereby enabling the Member to make an informed investment decision with respect to Member's receipt of the LTIP Units, and all pertinent data and information requested by the Member from OpCo, the Company or their respective representatives, as the case may be, concerning the business and financial condition of OpCo, the Company or their respective Affiliates, as the case may be, and the terms and conditions of this Agreement have been furnished to the Member. The Member acknowledges that the Member has had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers and obtain additional information from OpCo, the Company and their respective Affiliates and their representatives concerning the present and proposed business and financial condition of OpCo, the Company and their Affiliates.

(b) Financial Sophistication. The Member, either individually, or together with one or more financial advisors to which Member has access, has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that the Member is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the acceptance of the LTIP Units.

(c) Understanding the Investment Risks. The Member understands that:

(i) the LTIP Units represent a highly speculative investment, and there can be no assurance as to the success of OpCo, the Company or their respective Affiliates in their business;

(ii) the LTIP Units cannot be transferred except in very limited circumstances in accordance with the provisions of the Operating Agreement and the Award Agreement to which this Appendix A is attached (the "Award Agreement"), and at present, no market for the LTIP Units exists and it is not anticipated that a market for the LTIP Units will develop in the future;

(iii) the LTIP Units may be worthless; and

(iv) ownership of the LTIP Units may result in taxable income to the Member without a corresponding cash or in-kind distribution.

(d) Understanding the Nature of LTIP Units. The Member understands and agrees that:

(i) the LTIP Units will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the “Securities Act”), or any applicable state securities laws; they are being issued in reliance upon certain exemptions contained in the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, and the representations and warranties of the Member contained herein are essential to any claim of exemption by OpCo and the Company under the Securities Act and such state laws;

(ii) the LTIP Units are “restricted securities” as that term is defined in Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act;

(iii) the Member may not sell, transfer, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of or encumber the LTIP Units except as allowed under the provisions of the Award Agreement, the Operating Agreement and the Plan;

(iv) only OpCo and the Company, as applicable, can register the LTIP Units under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, but it is not anticipated that the LTIP Units will be registered in any event;

(v) OpCo and the Company have not made any representations to the Member that OpCo or the Company, as applicable, will register the LTIP Units under the Securities Act or any applicable state securities laws, or any representations with respect to compliance with any exemption therefrom;

(vi) the Member is aware of the conditions restricting the sale or transfer of the LTIP Units under the Operating Agreement, the Award Agreement, the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws; and

(vii) OpCo or the Company, as applicable, may, from time to time, make “stop transfer” notations in its transfer record to ensure compliance with the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws, and any additional restrictions imposed by state securities administrators.

(e) No Brokers; Additional Representations. The Member acknowledges that:

(i) neither the Member nor anyone acting on the Member’s behalf has paid or will pay a commission or other remuneration to any person in connection with the acceptance of the LTIP Units; and

(ii) at the time and as a condition of delivery of documents evidencing the LTIP Units, the Member will be deemed to have made all the representations and warranties contained in this Appendix A with respect to such LTIP Units and may be required to make other representations concerning investment intent as a condition of the delivery of such LTIP Units by OpCo and the Company.

AWARD AGREEMENT

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN UNITS AND RESTRICTED STOCK

THIS AWARD AGREEMENT, dated as of February 10, 2020 (the “Grant Date”), is entered into by and among Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited (to be known as “Digital Landscape Group, Inc.”), a company organized under the laws of the British Virgin Islands (or any successor thereto, the “Company”), APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“OpCo”), and Scott Bruce (the “Member”).

WITNESSETH

In consideration of the mutual promises and covenants made herein and the mutual benefits to be derived herefrom, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Grants.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the Company’s 2020 Equity Incentive Plan (the “Plan”) and the First Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of OpCo, as amended or amended and restated from time to time (the “Operating Agreement”) (all capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Operating Agreement, unless otherwise specified):

(i) OpCo hereby grants to the Member, as of the Grant Date, 1,015,909 LTIP Units, and

(ii) the Company hereby grants to the Member, as of the Grant Date, in tandem with the LTIP Units, 1,015,909 Non-Economic Shares (within the meaning of the Plan), which shall consist of 940,909 shares of Class B Common Stock (the “Tandem Common Shares”) and 75,000 Series B Founder Preferred Shares (the “Tandem Preferred Shares”). On the Seven-Year End Date (as defined below), each outstanding Tandem Preferred Share shall automatically convert into a share of Class B Common Stock on such date in accordance with the First Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company or, at any time after the Domestication (as defined in the Plan), the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company, in each case, as may be amended or amended and restated from time to time (as applicable, the “Organizational Document”). Each outstanding Tandem Preferred Share may also be converted into a share of Class B Common Stock prior to the Seven-Year End Date, at the option of the Member as described in the Grant Date Articles (as defined below). In the event of such automatic or optional conversion, all references herein to such Tandem Preferred Share shall be deemed to refer to the share of Class B Common Stock into which such Tandem Preferred Share was converted. The “Seven-Year End Date” means the Mandatory Conversion Date (as defined in the First Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company, as in effect on the Grant Date and without regard to any amendments thereto following the Grant Date (the “Grant Date Articles”).

The LTIP Notional Amount for each LTIP Unit granted hereunder shall equal $10.00. The LTIP Units are “Other Equity-Based Awards” within the meaning of Section 9 of the Plan. The Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares are Restricted Stock awards as set forth under Section 7 of the Plan.

(b) 525,455 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Common Shares, each granted hereunder, shall be Series A LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Common Shares, shall be subject solely to service-based vesting conditions (the “Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”), 415,454 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Common Shares, each granted hereunder shall be Series A LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Common Shares, shall be subject to both service-based and performance-based vesting conditions (the “Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”) and 75,000 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Preferred Shares, each granted hereunder, shall be Series B LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Preferred Shares, shall be subject solely to performance-based vesting conditions (the “Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards”). The date on which any applicable service-based vesting conditions are scheduled to be satisfied is referred to below as the applicable “Service-Vesting Date”, the date on which any applicable performance-based vesting conditions are satisfied is referred to below as the “Performance-Vesting Date”, and the date that all applicable service-based and performance-based vesting conditions (other than the condition that an LTIP Unit become an Equitized LTIP Unit) are satisfied (or deemed satisfied) is referred to as the “Vesting Date”.

2. Vesting.

(a) Time-Vesting LTIP Awards. (i) 415,455 Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest in equal annual installments over the five (5)-year period commencing on the Grant Date (the “Five-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”) and (ii) 110,000 Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest in equal annual installments over the three (3)-year period commencing on the Grant Date (the “Three-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”), provided that no Termination of Employment (as defined in the Plan) has occurred prior to the applicable Service-Vesting Date.

(b) Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards.

(i) Performance Condition. Subject to the Performance-Vesting Service Condition (as defined in clause (ii) below), the percentage of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards specified in the table below shall vest on the first Year-End Trading Date (as defined below) following the Grant Date and on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date that the 10-Day VWAP (as defined below) meets or exceeds the applicable price per share specified below (each, a “Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle”), which first Year-End Trading Date shall be considered the Performance-Vesting Date in respect of the applicable portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards. “Year-End Trading Date” means the last “Trading Day” (as defined in the Grant Date Articles) of the relevant “Financial Year” (as defined in the Grant Date Articles). “10-Day VWAP” means the Dividend Price (as defined in the Grant Date Articles); provided that (i) the reference therein to the relevant “Dividend

Year” shall instead be replaced with a reference to the relevant Financial Year and (ii) the final sentence of the definition of Average Price (as defined in the Grant Date Articles, which term is used in the definition of “Dividend Price”) shall be deleted and replaced with the following sentence: “If the Average Price cannot be calculated for that security on that date on any of the foregoing bases, the Average Price of that security on such date shall be the fair market value as mutually determined in good faith by the Grantee and the Board.”

|--------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| $11.50 | 25% |
| $13.50 | 25% |
| $15.50 | 25% |
| $17.50 | 25% |

For the avoidance of doubt, a Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle need only be satisfied once and, except as set forth in Section 2(e) or 2(f) below, vesting will not occur for any portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards unless and until the Performance-Vesting Service Condition is also satisfied with respect to such portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards.

(ii) Service Condition. The service-based vesting condition shall be satisfied with respect to 50% of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Grant Date and 50% on the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Grant Date, provided that no Termination of Employment has occurred prior to the applicable Service-Vesting Date (the “Performance-Vesting Service Condition”). Notwithstanding the foregoing; provided that the Performance-Vesting Service Condition has been satisfied in respect of the relevant Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle may be satisfied (or deemed satisfied pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) after Termination of Employment due to death or Disability, but in no event later than the Seven-Year End Date. To the extent that any Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle has not been satisfied (or deemed satisfied pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date, any then remaining unvested Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and related Tandem Common Shares shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of such Seven-Year End Date.

(c) Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards.

(i) The Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards shall vest in full on the first Year-End Trading Date following the Grant Date and on or prior to the end of the Nine-Year End Date (as defined below) that the 10-Day VWAP meets or exceeds $20.00 (the “Nine-Year Share Price Hurdle”). The “Nine-Year End Date” means the Mandatory Conversion Date (as defined in the Grant Date Certificate); provided that the reference therein to the “seventh (7th) full Financial Year” shall instead be replaced with a reference to “ninth (9th) full Financial Year”.

(ii) If, on any Year-End Trading Date that occurs on or after the Grant Date and on or prior to the Nine-Year End Date, the 10-Day VWAP exceeds $10.00 (the “Floor Amount”), then a percentage of the Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards shall vest ratably, as determined based on the percentage of the difference between the Floor Amount and the Nine-Year Share Price Hurdle that has been achieved (the “Ratable Vesting Percentage”). For example, if the 10-day VWAP on December 31, 2020 is then $14.00, the Ratable Vesting Percentage shall be forty percent (40%). If the 10-Day VWAP on December 31, 2021 is then $13.00, the Ratable Vesting Percentage shall be zero and there shall be no additional vesting on such date. If the 10-day VWAP on December 31, 2022 is then $15.00, the aggregate Ratable Vesting Percentage shall be fifty percent (50%), and an additional ten percent (10%) of the Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards shall vest on such date.

(iii) In the event that the 10-Day VWAP has not exceeded the Floor Amount on any Year-End Trading Date on or prior to the Nine-Year End Date, then each Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Award and related Tandem Preferred Share shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of such Nine-Year End Date. In the event that the 10-Day VWAP has exceeded the Floor Amount on any Year-End Trading Date on or prior to the Nine-Year End Date but has not equaled or exceeded the Nine-Year Share Price Hurdle, then any unvested Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards and related Tandem Preferred Shares shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of the Nine-Year End Date.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or in the Plan to the contrary, in the event that, prior to the applicable Vesting Date, the Member incurs a Termination of Employment for Cause (as defined in the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement among the Company, OpCo and the Member, dated as of February 10, 2020, as amended or amended and restated (the “Employment Agreement”) or due to the Member’s voluntary resignation without Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement), all Unvested Awards (as defined below) shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, be forfeited and canceled without consideration. The Member’s LTIP Capital Account with respect to an LTIP Unit that has been forfeited, canceled or terminated shall be treated as provided in Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, “Unvested Award” means any LTIP Unit and the related Non-Economic Shares granted to the Member hereunder (and any Award (as defined in the Plan) into which such LTIP Unit and the related Non-Economic Shares has been converted pursuant to Section 4(c) of the Plan or Section 2(f) of this Agreement), in each case that remains subject to any service-based or performance-based vesting conditions set forth in this Section 2 (other than the condition that such LTIP Unit become an Equitized LTIP Unit).

(e) In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment on or prior to the applicable Vesting Date due to a Termination of Employment by the Company not for Cause or a resignation with Good Reason, all outstanding Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount (as defined in Section 5 of this Agreement)) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting Date in respect of all then outstanding and previously unvested LTIP Units shall be the date of the Member’s Termination of Employment. In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment on or prior to the applicable Vesting Date due to (i) the Member’s Disability or (ii) the Member’s death, all unvested Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting

Date shall be the date of the Member's Termination of Employment, and the service-based vesting condition for all other Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be deemed satisfied as follows: (A) in the case of the Five-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the LTIP Units shall vest in respect of the one (1) year vesting period in which the Member's Termination of Employment occurs and, as applicable, the immediately following one (1)-year vesting period (i.e., collectively, an additional forty percent (40%) of the original grant of Five-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest, assuming the Member's Termination of Employment occurred during the four (4)-year period commencing on the Grant Date), (B) in the case of the Three-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the LTIP Units shall vest in respect of the one (1)-year vesting period in which the Member's Termination of Employment occurs and, as applicable, the immediately following one (1)-year vesting period (i.e., collectively, an additional sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66.67%) of the original grant of Three-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest, assuming the Member's Termination of Employment occurred during the two (2)-year period commencing on the Grant Date) and (C) in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the service-based vesting condition shall be deemed satisfied on a pro-rata basis based on the number of full or partial years that have elapsed between the Grant Date and the date of the Termination of Employment, plus one (1) additional year of service; provided, however, that vesting will not occur for any portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) unless and until the applicable Seven-Year Share Price Hurdles are achieved (or deemed achieved pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date. Any remaining Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards that have not vested on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of the Seven-Year End Date. For example, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, if the Termination of Employment due to death or Disability occurs on the twenty (20)-month anniversary of the Grant Date, then such LTIP Units shall vest as follows: (A) 100% (3/3rds) of the outstanding Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards scheduled to vest on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Grant Date shall remain outstanding, subject to achievement of such goals on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date, and (B) approximately 43% (3/7^{ths}) of the outstanding Seven-Year Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards scheduled to vest on the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Grant Date shall remain outstanding, subject to achievement of such goals on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date.

(f) Change in Control.

(i) Upon a Change in Control (as defined in the Plan), all outstanding Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards shall immediately vest in full.

(ii) Upon a Change in Control, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, all Seven-Year Share Price Hurdles shall be deemed satisfied, and all Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards that remain subject to the Performance-Vesting Service Condition may either (A) remain outstanding or (B) be converted in accordance with Section 2(f)(iii) into an award in respect of stock of, or other equity interests in, the acquirer (or one of its Affiliates) based on the value of such Unvested Award (which value, in the case of an Equitized LTIP Unit, shall be determined as if redeemed for a share of Class A Common Stock, in the case of all such LTIP Units on a one-for-one basis and, in the case of a Non-Equitized LTIP Unit, shall be determined in accordance with Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement at the time of such Change in Control) and, following conversion, any such award will be considered an Unvested Award to the extent provided in this Agreement. In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment following the Change in Control under any circumstance set forth in Section 2(e), all Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting Date shall be the date of the Member's Termination of Employment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, solely to the extent required to avoid taxation and penalties under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be settled no later than March 15th of the calendar year (or, if applicable, two and one-half (2 1/2) months after the end of the applicable service recipient's fiscal year) following the later of (1) the calendar year (or fiscal year, as applicable) in which the Change in Control occurs and (2) the calendar year (or fiscal year, as applicable) in which the Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) are no longer subject to a "substantial risk of forfeiture" within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code.

(iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event of a Change in Control, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, unless (A) either (1) the Unvested Awards remain outstanding following the Change in Control or (2) provision is made in connection with the Change in Control for assumption of Unvested Awards or substitution of such Unvested Awards for new awards ("Replacement Awards") covering equity interests in a successor entity, with appropriate adjustments to the number of Unvested Awards, as determined by the Committee (as defined in the Plan) in accordance with Section 2(f)(ii) of this Agreement and Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement prior to the Change in Control pursuant to Section 4(c)(ii) of the Plan, and (B) the material terms and conditions of such Unvested Awards (other than the Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle) as in effect immediately prior to the Change in Control are preserved following the Change in Control (including, without limitation, with respect to the schedule to satisfy the Performance-Vesting Service Condition, the intrinsic value of the Unvested Awards (or similar potential fair value in accordance with Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement, in the case of a Non-Equitized LTIP Unit), transferability of the Unvested Awards (and interests into which the Unvested Awards may be converted or exchanged) prior to and following the Change in Control and voting power in respect of the Unvested Awards), such Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full upon such Change in Control, and the Vesting Date shall be the date of such Change in Control.

(iv) To the extent that the conversion, assumption or substitution of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and the related Tandem Common Shares in connection with a Change in Control would result in the Member incurring tax liability with respect to such Awards, subject to applicable law and any policies of the Company or any successor that impose trading restrictions (such as blackout periods), the Member shall be permitted to sell the number of securities subject to the replacement award that the Company determines to be necessary to satisfy the Member's tax liability incurred in connection with such exchange.

Any such securities that the Member is entitled to sell pursuant to this Section 2(f)(iv) will no longer be considered Unvested Awards. In connection with a Change in Control, if any Replacement Awards that are granted to the Member pursuant to Section 2(f)(iii) would be taxable to the Member as ordinary income rather than as long-term capital gains, the material terms and conditions of the Unvested Awards shall not be deemed preserved unless the Member is granted an additional number of Replacement Awards to make the Member substantially whole for such incremental tax liability or the Member is otherwise compensated for such incremental tax liability. The amount of the incremental tax liability shall be determined using the tax rates in effect as of the date of the grant of such Replacement Awards.

3. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Company hereby represents and warrants that the Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares (i) have been duly authorized and validly issued, (ii) are fully paid and non-assessable, (iii) have been issued in compliance with applicable law, (iv) are not issued in breach or violation of any contract or preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or other similar rights, (v) are free and clear of all Encumbrances except for (A) applicable transfer restrictions pursuant to applicable law, this Agreement, the Plan, the Operating Agreement and the Shareholder Agreement and (B) the applicable vesting conditions pursuant to this Agreement and (vi) are uncertificated.

(b) OpCo hereby represents and warrants that the LTIP Units (i) have been duly authorized and validly issued, (ii) have been issued in compliance with applicable law, (iii) are not issued in breach or violation of any contract or preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or other similar rights, (iv) are free and clear of all Encumbrances except for (A) applicable transfer restrictions pursuant to applicable law, this Agreement, the Plan, the Operating Agreement and the Shareholder Agreement and (B) the applicable vesting conditions pursuant to this Agreement and (v) are uncertificated.

(c) The Member represents and warrants that all of the representations and warranties set forth on Appendix A are true and correct in all respects.

4. Nontransferability.

Subject to Section 3.02(c)(iv) of the Operating Agreement, from and after the Grant Date, the Member shall be permitted to transfer the LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares), whether such LTIP Units are vested or unvested, solely in accordance with Article X of the Operating Agreement or, solely with respect to the Tandem Preferred Shares, the Shareholder Agreement. In the event of any such transfer pursuant to the foregoing, prior to the applicable Vesting Date, the Unvested Awards shall remain subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including with respect to vesting and forfeiture) that are applicable to Unvested Awards until such LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares) are no longer Unvested Awards. From and after the applicable Vesting Date, the LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares) shall be subject to Section 3.02(c)(iv) of the Operating Agreement and shall not be transferable by the Member, except as set forth in Article X of the Operating Agreement (which shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Tandem Common Shares, treating the Tandem Common Shares as LTIP Units) and, solely with respect to the Tandem Preferred Shares, the Shareholder Agreement.

5. Allocations, Distributions and Dividends.

Allocations and distributions with respect to the LTIP Units (including tax distributions) shall be handled in the manner specified in the Operating Agreement. The amount of any distributions credited under Section 4.01(b) of the Operating Agreement to the Member's LTIP Units prior to the Vesting Date are referred to herein as "Unvested Distribution Amounts". Any such Unvested Distribution Amounts shall be settled through a cash payment (less any prior tax distributions pursuant to Section 4.01(c) of the Operating Agreement in respect of Unvested Distribution Amounts) to the Member upon the applicable Vesting Date. Upon the forfeiture of an Unvested Award pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, all Unvested Distribution Amounts (excluding the amount of tax distributions previously paid pursuant to Section 4.01(c) of the Operating Agreement) allocated to the Member's forfeited LTIP Units shall also be forfeited. The Member's LTIP Capital Account that has been forfeited, canceled or terminated shall be treated as provided in Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement, as applicable. From and after the time that the LTIP Units become fully vested, the rights of the Member to receive distributions with respect to any LTIP Unit shall be governed by the Operating Agreement.

6. Tax Distributions.

7. Section 83(b) Election.

The Member agrees that the Member will make a protective election to be taxed immediately on the value of the LTIP Units and related Non-Economic Shares on the Grant Date; provided that the Member shall not be in breach of this Agreement if Member fails to comply with this Section 7. In order to do so, the Member must file an election with the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Code, and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder (a "Section 83(b) Election") with respect to the LTIP Units and related Non-Economic Shares within 30 days following the Grant Date, on a form attached hereto as Appendix B. The Member will provide a copy of such Section 83(b) Election to OpCo not later than ten (10) days after filing the election with the Internal Revenue Service or other governmental authority.

8. Payment of Transfer Taxes, Fees and Other Expenses.

(a) The Company agrees to pay, or to cause its applicable Affiliate to pay, any and all original issue taxes and stock transfer taxes that may be imposed with respect to the delivery of any LTIP Units or Shares (as defined in the Plan) pursuant to this Agreement, together with any and all other fees and expenses necessarily incurred by the Company or any of its Affiliates in connection therewith.

(b) The Company, or its applicable Affiliates, shall be entitled to withhold from any payments, distributions and allocations to the Member any amounts required to be so withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of any other federal, state, local or foreign law. If the Company, or its applicable Affiliate, pays any taxes (including any related interest, penalties or additions to tax) in respect of LTIP Units or Shares on the Member's behalf, (i) except if the Member is an "executive officer" (within the meaning of Rule 3b-7 under the Exchange Act (as defined in the Plan)), as may be required to comply with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, if requested by OpCo, the Member agrees to reimburse and shall reimburse OpCo for such taxes within thirty (30) days following the Company's request or (ii) if such taxes are paid by OpCo, such taxes shall be governed by Section 5.05 of the Operating Agreement.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 8(a) and Section 8(b), the Member shall be solely responsible for the payment of any taxes in respect of LTIP Units and Shares and shall hold the Company and its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers and employees harmless from any liability arising from the Member's failure to comply with the foregoing provisions of this Section 8(c).

9. Adjustment Provisions.

In the event of any extraordinary dividend or other extraordinary distribution (whether in the form of cash, Shares, other securities or other property), recapitalization, rights offering, stock split, reverse stock split, split-up or spin-off or any other event that constitutes an "equity restructuring" within the meaning of GAAP (as defined in the Plan), the Committee shall, in accordance with Section 4(c)(i) of the Plan, adjust any outstanding LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares, as well as any unsatisfied share price hurdles and the Floor Amount.

10. Rights of a Shareholder.

The Member shall have the voting rights with respect to the Shares issued to the Member upon the grant of the related LTIP Unit immediately upon the Grant Date, regardless of whether such LTIP Unit (and related Share) is vested or unvested.

11. Effect of Agreement.

Except as otherwise provided hereunder, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of any successor or successors of the Company or OpCo. The invalidity or enforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement or the Plan shall confer upon the Member any right to continue in the employ of the Company or any of its Affiliates or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or any such Affiliates to terminate the Member's service at any time. Until shares of Class A Common Stock are actually delivered to the Member upon a Redemption or Direct Exchange pursuant to Article XI of the Operating Agreement, the Member shall not have any rights as a shareholder in respect of shares of Class A Common Stock; provided that the Member shall have all rights as a shareholder in respect of shares of Class B Common Stock and Series B Founder Preferred Shares.

12. Laws Applicable to Construction; Consent to Jurisdiction.

(a) Notwithstanding anything in the Operating Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to principles of conflict of laws that could cause the application of the law of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware. In addition to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Unvested Awards are subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, which is hereby incorporated by reference, and the LTIP Units and Shares are subject to the Operating Agreement, which is hereby incorporated by reference. In addition, Shares are subject to the Organizational Document, which are hereby incorporated by reference and, solely with respect to the Tandem Preferred Shares, the Shareholder Agreement. By signing this Agreement, the Member agrees to and is bound by the Plan, the Operating Agreement, the Organizational Document and the Shareholder Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in the Operating Agreement to the contrary, any controversy or claim between the Member and the Company, OpCo or any of its or their Affiliates arising out of or relating to or concerning the provisions of this Agreement or the Plan shall be resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions set forth in the Employment Agreement.

13. Section 409A of the Code.

It is intended that the LTIP Units, the Shares and all amounts payable with respect thereto (including the Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be exempt from Section 409A of the Code.

14. Conflicts and Interpretation.

In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Operating Agreement, the Plan and/or this Agreement relating to LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares, the agreements shall take precedence in the following order: (a) this Agreement, (b) the Operating Agreement and (c) the Plan; provided that, with respect to the process for, and restrictions and limitations on, amending the Operating Agreement, Section 16.03 of the Operating Agreement (Amendments) shall take precedence over this Agreement. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement with respect to LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares, the Operating Agreement shall govern the Member's rights and obligations with respect to OpCo under the Operating Agreement. In the event of any ambiguity in this Agreement, or any matters as to which this Agreement is silent, the Plan shall govern including, without limitation, the provisions thereof pursuant to which the Committee has the power, among others, to (i) interpret the Plan, (ii) prescribe, amend and rescind rules and regulations relating to the Plan, and (iii) make all other determinations deemed necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan; provided that all actions by the Committee shall be taken reasonably and in good faith.

15. Amendment.

Any modification, amendment or waiver to this Agreement that shall impair the rights of the Member shall require an instrument in writing to be signed by the Member, the Company and OpCo. The waiver by any of the Member, the Company or OpCo of compliance with any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, or of any subsequent breach by such party of a provision of this Agreement.

16. Severability.

If any term, provision, covenant or condition of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, then such provision, covenant or condition shall, as to such jurisdiction, be modified or restricted to the extent necessary to make such provision valid, binding and enforceable, or, if such provision cannot be modified or restricted, then such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be deemed to be excised from this Agreement and any such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability with respect to such provision shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction, and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

17. Headings.

The headings of paragraphs herein are included solely for convenience of reference and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

18. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which together shall constitute one and the same original.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, as of the date first above written, each of the Company and OpCo has caused this Agreement to be executed on behalf of itself or its applicable Affiliate by a duly authorized officer and the Member has hereunto set the Member’s hand.

Investment Intent and Other Representations of the Member

1. Investment Intent.

The Member hereby represents and warrants that the LTIP Units (which, for purposes of this Appendix A, shall be deemed to include the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares) must be held for investment purposes and are not being received with a view to distribution thereof, and covenants and agrees to make such other reasonable and customary representations as requested by OpCo or the Company, as applicable, regarding matters relevant to compliance with applicable securities laws as are deemed necessary by counsel to OpCo or the Company, as applicable.

2. Other Representations.

The Member hereby represents and warrants to OpCo or the Company, as applicable, as follows:

(a) Access to Information. Because of the Member's business relationship with the Company and its Affiliates and with the management of the Company and its Affiliates, the Member has had access to all material and relevant information concerning OpCo, the Company and their respective Affiliates, thereby enabling the Member to make an informed investment decision with respect to Member's receipt of the LTIP Units, and all pertinent data and information requested by the Member from OpCo, the Company or their respective representatives, as the case may be, concerning the business and financial condition of OpCo, the Company or their respective Affiliates, as the case may be, and the terms and conditions of this Agreement have been furnished to the Member. The Member acknowledges that the Member has had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers and obtain additional information from OpCo, the Company and their respective Affiliates and their representatives concerning the present and proposed business and financial condition of OpCo, the Company and their Affiliates.

(b) Financial Sophistication. The Member, either individually, or together with one or more financial advisors to which Member has access, has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that the Member is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the acceptance of the LTIP Units.

(c) Understanding the Investment Risks. The Member understands that:

(i) the LTIP Units represent a highly speculative investment, and there can be no assurance as to the success of OpCo, the Company or their respective Affiliates in their business;

(ii) the LTIP Units cannot be transferred except in very limited circumstances in accordance with the provisions of the Operating Agreement and the Award Agreement to which this Appendix A is attached (the "Award Agreement"), and at present, no market for the LTIP Units exists and it is not anticipated that a market for the LTIP Units will develop in the future;

(iii) the LTIP Units may be worthless; and

(iv) ownership of the LTIP Units may result in taxable income to the Member without a corresponding cash or in-kind distribution.

(d) Understanding the Nature of LTIP Units. The Member understands and agrees that:

(i) the LTIP Units will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the “Securities Act”), or any applicable state securities laws; they are being issued in reliance upon certain exemptions contained in the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, and the representations and warranties of the Member contained herein are essential to any claim of exemption by OpCo and the Company under the Securities Act and such state laws;

(ii) the LTIP Units are “restricted securities” as that term is defined in Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act;

(iii) the Member may not sell, transfer, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of or encumber the LTIP Units except as allowed under the provisions of the Award Agreement, the Operating Agreement and the Plan;

(iv) only OpCo and the Company, as applicable, can register the LTIP Units under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, but it is not anticipated that the LTIP Units will be registered in any event;

(v) OpCo and the Company have not made any representations to the Member that OpCo or the Company, as applicable, will register the LTIP Units under the Securities Act or any applicable state securities laws, or any representations with respect to compliance with any exemption therefrom;

(vi) the Member is aware of the conditions restricting the sale or transfer of the LTIP Units under the Operating Agreement, the Award Agreement, the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws; and

(vii) OpCo or the Company, as applicable, may, from time to time, make “stop transfer” notations in its transfer record to ensure compliance with the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws, and any additional restrictions imposed by state securities administrators.

(e) No Brokers; Additional Representations. The Member acknowledges that:

(i) neither the Member nor anyone acting on the Member’s behalf has paid or will pay a commission or other remuneration to any person in connection with the acceptance of the LTIP Units; and

(ii) at the time and as a condition of delivery of documents evidencing the LTIP Units, the Member will be deemed to have made all the representations and warranties

contained in this Appendix A with respect to such LTIP Units and may be required to make other representations concerning investment intent as a condition of the delivery of such LTIP Units by OpCo and the Company.

AWARD AGREEMENTfor*LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN UNITS AND RESTRICTED STOCK

THIS AWARD AGREEMENT, dated as of February 10, 2020 (the “Grant Date”), is entered into by and among Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited (to be known as “Digital Landscape Group, Inc.”), a company organized under the laws of the British Virgin Islands (or any successor thereto, the “Company”), APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“OpCo”), and Richard Goldstein (the “Member”).

WITNESSETH

In consideration of the mutual promises and covenants made herein and the mutual benefits to be derived herefrom, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Grants.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the Company’s 2020 Equity Incentive Plan (the “Plan”) and the First Amended and Restated Limited Liability Company Agreement of OpCo, as amended or amended and restated from time to time (the “Operating Agreement”) (all capitalized terms used herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Operating Agreement, unless otherwise specified):

(i) OpCo hereby grants to the Member, as of the Grant Date, 1,015,909 LTIP Units, and

(ii) the Company hereby grants to the Member, as of the Grant Date, in tandem with the LTIP Units, 1,015,909 Non-Economic Shares (within the meaning of the Plan), which shall consist of 940,909 shares of Class B Common Stock (the “Tandem Common Shares”) and 75,000 Series B Founder Preferred Shares (the “Tandem Preferred Shares”). On the Seven-Year End Date (as defined below), each outstanding Tandem Preferred Share shall automatically convert into a share of Class B Common Stock on such date in accordance with the First Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company or, at any time after the Domestication (as defined in the Plan), the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company, in each case, as may be amended or amended and restated from time to time (as applicable, the “Organizational Document”). Each outstanding Tandem Preferred Share may also be converted into a share of Class B Common Stock prior to the Seven-Year End Date, at the option of the Member as described in the Grant Date Articles (as defined below). In the event of such automatic or optional conversion, all references herein to such Tandem Preferred Share shall be deemed to refer to the share of Class B Common Stock into which such Tandem Preferred Share was converted. The “Seven-Year End Date” means the Mandatory Conversion Date (as defined in the First Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company, as in effect on the Grant Date and without regard to any amendments thereto following the Grant Date (the “Grant Date Articles”)).

The LTIP Notional Amount for each LTIP Unit granted hereunder shall equal $10.00. The LTIP Units are “Other Equity-Based Awards” within the meaning of Section 9 of the Plan. The Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares are Restricted Stock awards as set forth under Section 7 of the Plan.

(b) 525,455 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Common Shares, each granted hereunder, shall be Series A LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Common Shares, shall be subject solely to service-based vesting conditions (the “Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”), 415,454 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Common Shares, each granted hereunder shall be Series A LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Common Shares, shall be subject to both service-based and performance-based vesting conditions (the “Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”) and 75,000 LTIP Units, along with an equal number of Tandem Preferred Shares, each granted hereunder, shall be Series B LTIP Units and, together with such number of Tandem Preferred Shares, shall be subject solely to performance-based vesting conditions (the “Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards”). The date on which any applicable service-based vesting conditions are scheduled to be satisfied is referred to below as the applicable “Service-Vesting Date”, the date on which any applicable performance-based vesting conditions are satisfied is referred to below as the “Performance-Vesting Date”, and the date that all applicable service-based and performance-based vesting conditions (other than the condition that an LTIP Unit become an Equitized LTIP Unit) are satisfied (or deemed satisfied) is referred to as the “Vesting Date”.

2. Vesting.

(a) Time-Vesting LTIP Awards. (i) 415,455 Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest in equal annual installments over the five (5)-year period commencing on the Grant Date (the “Five-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”) and (ii) 110,000 Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest in equal annual installments over the three (3)-year period commencing on the Grant Date (the “Three-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards”), provided that no Termination of Employment (as defined in the Plan) has occurred prior to the applicable Service-Vesting Date.

(b) Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards.

(i) Performance Condition. Subject to the Performance-Vesting Service Condition (as defined in clause (ii) below), the percentage of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards specified in the table below shall vest on the first Year-End Trading Date (as defined below) following the Grant Date and on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date that the 10-Day VWAP (as defined below) meets or exceeds the applicable price per share specified below (each, a “Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle”), which first Year-End Trading Date shall be considered the Performance-Vesting Date in respect of the applicable portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards. “Year-End Trading Date” means the last “Trading Day” (as defined in the Grant Date Articles) of the relevant “Financial Year” (as defined in the Grant Date Articles). “10-Day VWAP” means the Dividend Price (as defined in the Grant Date Articles); provided that (i) the reference therein to the relevant “Dividend

Year” shall instead be replaced with a reference to the relevant Financial Year and (ii) the final sentence of the definition of Average Price (as defined in the Grant Date Articles, which term is used in the definition of “Dividend Price”) shall be deleted and replaced with the following sentence: “If the Average Price cannot be calculated for that security on that date on any of the foregoing bases, the Average Price of that security on such date shall be the fair market value as mutually determined in good faith by the Grantee and the Board.”

|--------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| $11.50 | 25% |
| $13.50 | 25% |
| $15.50 | 25% |
| $17.50 | 25% |

For the avoidance of doubt, a Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle need only be satisfied once and, except as set forth in Section 2(e) or 2(f) below, vesting will not occur for any portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards unless and until the Performance-Vesting Service Condition is also satisfied with respect to such portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards.

(ii) Service Condition. The service-based vesting condition shall be satisfied with respect to 50% of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Grant Date and 50% on the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Grant Date, provided that no Termination of Employment has occurred prior to the applicable Service-Vesting Date (the “Performance-Vesting Service Condition”). Notwithstanding the foregoing; provided that the Performance-Vesting Service Condition has been satisfied in respect of the relevant Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle may be satisfied (or deemed satisfied pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) after Termination of Employment due to death or Disability, but in no event later than the Seven-Year End Date. To the extent that any Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle has not been satisfied (or deemed satisfied pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date, any then remaining unvested Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and related Tandem Common Shares shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of such Seven-Year End Date.

(c) Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards.

(i) The Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards shall vest in full on the first Year-End Trading Date following the Grant Date and on or prior to the end of the Nine-Year End Date (as defined below) that the 10-Day VWAP meets or exceeds $20.00 (the “Nine-Year Share Price Hurdle”). The “Nine-Year End Date” means the Mandatory Conversion Date (as defined in the Grant Date Certificate); provided that the reference therein to the “seventh (7th) full Financial Year” shall instead be replaced with a reference to “ninth (9th) full Financial Year”.

(ii) If, on any Year-End Trading Date that occurs on or after the Grant Date and on or prior to the Nine-Year End Date, the 10-Day VWAP exceeds $10.00 (the “Floor Amount”), then a percentage of the Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards shall vest ratably, as determined based on the percentage of the difference between the Floor Amount and the Nine-Year Share Price Hurdle that has been achieved (the “Ratable Vesting Percentage”). For example, if the 10-day VWAP on December 31, 2020 is then $14.00, the Ratable Vesting Percentage shall be forty percent (40%). If the 10-Day VWAP on December 31, 2021 is then $13.00, the Ratable Vesting Percentage shall be zero and there shall be no additional vesting on such date. If the 10-day VWAP on December 31, 2022 is then $15.00, the aggregate Ratable Vesting Percentage shall be fifty percent (50%), and an additional ten percent (10%) of the Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards shall vest on such date.

(iii) In the event that the 10-Day VWAP has not exceeded the Floor Amount on any Year-End Trading Date on or prior to the Nine-Year End Date, then each Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Award and related Tandem Preferred Share shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of such Nine-Year End Date. In the event that the 10-Day VWAP has exceeded the Floor Amount on any Year-End Trading Date on or prior to the Nine-Year End Date but has not equaled or exceeded the Nine-Year Share Price Hurdle, then any unvested Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards and related Tandem Preferred Shares shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of the Nine-Year End Date.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement or in the Plan to the contrary, in the event that, prior to the applicable Vesting Date, the Member incurs a Termination of Employment for Cause (as defined in the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement among the Company, OpCo and the Member, dated as of February 10, 2020, as amended or amended and restated (the “Employment Agreement”) or due to the Member’s voluntary resignation without Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement), all Unvested Awards (as defined below) shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, be forfeited and canceled without consideration. The Member’s LTIP Capital Account with respect to an LTIP Unit that has been forfeited, canceled or terminated shall be treated as provided in Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, “Unvested Award” means any LTIP Unit and the related Non-Economic Shares granted to the Member hereunder (and any Award (as defined in the Plan) into which such LTIP Unit and the related Non-Economic Shares has been converted pursuant to Section 4(c) of the Plan or Section 2(f) of this Agreement), in each case that remains subject to any service-based or performance-based vesting conditions set forth in this Section 2 (other than the condition that such LTIP Unit become an Equitized LTIP Unit).

(e) In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment on or prior to the applicable Vesting Date due to a Termination of Employment by the Company not for Cause or a resignation with Good Reason, all outstanding Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount (as defined in Section 5 of this Agreement)) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting Date in respect of all then outstanding and previously unvested LTIP Units shall be the date of the Member’s Termination of Employment. In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment on or prior to the applicable Vesting Date due to (i) the Member’s Disability or (ii) the Member’s death, all unvested Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting

Date shall be the date of the Member's Termination of Employment, and the service-based vesting condition for all other Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be deemed satisfied as follows: (A) in the case of the Five-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the LTIP Units shall vest in respect of the one (1) year vesting period in which the Member's Termination of Employment occurs and, as applicable, the immediately following one (1)-year vesting period (i.e., collectively, an additional forty percent (40%) of the original grant of Five-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest, assuming the Member's Termination of Employment occurred during the four (4)-year period commencing on the Grant Date), (B) in the case of the Three-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the LTIP Units shall vest in respect of the one (1)-year vesting period in which the Member's Termination of Employment occurs and, as applicable, the immediately following one (1)-year vesting period (i.e., collectively, an additional sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66.67%) of the original grant of Three-Year Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards shall vest, assuming the Member's Termination of Employment occurred during the two (2)-year period commencing on the Grant Date) and (C) in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, the service-based vesting condition shall be deemed satisfied on a pro-rata basis based on the number of full or partial years that have elapsed between the Grant Date and the date of the Termination of Employment, plus one (1) additional year of service; provided, however, that vesting will not occur for any portion of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) unless and until the applicable Seven-Year Share Price Hurdles are achieved (or deemed achieved pursuant to Section 2(f)(ii)) on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date. Any remaining Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards that have not vested on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration as of the Seven-Year End Date. For example, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, if the Termination of Employment due to death or Disability occurs on the twenty (20)-month anniversary of the Grant Date, then such LTIP Units shall vest as follows: (A) 100% (3/3rds) of the outstanding Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards scheduled to vest on the third (3rd) anniversary of the Grant Date shall remain outstanding, subject to achievement of such goals on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date, and (B) approximately 43% (3/7^{ths}) of the outstanding Seven-Year Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards scheduled to vest on the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Grant Date shall remain outstanding, subject to achievement of such goals on or prior to the Seven-Year End Date.

(f) Change in Control.

(i) Upon a Change in Control (as defined in the Plan), all outstanding Time-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and Performance-Vesting Series B LTIP Awards shall immediately vest in full.

(ii) Upon a Change in Control, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, all Seven-Year Share Price Hurdles shall be deemed satisfied, and all Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards that remain subject to the Performance-Vesting Service Condition may either (A) remain outstanding or (B) be converted in accordance with Section 2(f)(iii) into an award in respect of stock of, or other equity interests in, the acquirer (or one of its Affiliates) based on the value of such Unvested Award (which value, in the case of an Equitized LTIP Unit, shall be determined as if redeemed for a share of Class A Common Stock, in the case of all such LTIP Units on a one-for-one basis and, in the case of a Non-Equitized LTIP Unit, shall be determined in accordance with Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement at the time of such Change in Control) and, following conversion, any such award will be considered an Unvested Award to the extent provided in this Agreement. In the event that the Member incurs a Termination of Employment following the Change in Control under any circumstance set forth in Section 2(e), all Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full, and the Vesting Date shall be the date of the Member's Termination of Employment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, solely to the extent required to avoid taxation and penalties under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), the Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be settled no later than March 15th of the calendar year (or, if applicable, two and one-half (2 1/2) months after the end of the applicable service recipient's fiscal year) following the later of (1) the calendar year (or fiscal year, as applicable) in which the Change in Control occurs and (2) the calendar year (or fiscal year, as applicable) in which the Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) are no longer subject to a "substantial risk of forfeiture" within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code.

(iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in the event of a Change in Control, in the case of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards, unless (A) either (1) the Unvested Awards remain outstanding following the Change in Control or (2) provision is made in connection with the Change in Control for assumption of Unvested Awards or substitution of such Unvested Awards for new awards ("Replacement Awards") covering equity interests in a successor entity, with appropriate adjustments to the number of Unvested Awards, as determined by the Committee (as defined in the Plan) in accordance with Section 2(f)(ii) of this Agreement and Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement prior to the Change in Control pursuant to Section 4(c)(ii) of the Plan, and (B) the material terms and conditions of such Unvested Awards (other than the Seven-Year Share Price Hurdle) as in effect immediately prior to the Change in Control are preserved following the Change in Control (including, without limitation, with respect to the schedule to satisfy the Performance-Vesting Service Condition, the intrinsic value of the Unvested Awards (or similar potential fair value in accordance with Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement, in the case of a Non-Equitized LTIP Unit), transferability of the Unvested Awards (and interests into which the Unvested Awards may be converted or exchanged) prior to and following the Change in Control and voting power in respect of the Unvested Awards), such Unvested Awards (and any related Unvested Distribution Amount) shall immediately vest in full upon such Change in Control, and the Vesting Date shall be the date of such Change in Control.

(iv) To the extent that the conversion, assumption or substitution of the Performance-Vesting Series A LTIP Awards and the related Tandem Common Shares in connection with a Change in Control would result in the Member incurring tax liability with respect to such Awards, subject to applicable law and any policies of the Company or any successor that impose trading restrictions (such as blackout periods), the Member shall be permitted to sell the number of securities subject to the replacement award that the Company determines to be necessary to satisfy the Member's tax liability incurred in connection with such exchange.

Any such securities that the Member is entitled to sell pursuant to this Section 2(f)(iv) will no longer be considered Unvested Awards. In connection with a Change in Control, if any Replacement Awards that are granted to the Member pursuant to Section 2(f)(iii) would be taxable to the Member as ordinary income rather than as long-term capital gains, the material terms and conditions of the Unvested Awards shall not be deemed preserved unless the Member is granted an additional number of Replacement Awards to make the Member substantially whole for such incremental tax liability or the Member is otherwise compensated for such incremental tax liability. The amount of the incremental tax liability shall be determined using the tax rates in effect as of the date of the grant of such Replacement Awards.

3. Representations and Warranties.

(a) The Company hereby represents and warrants that the Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares (i) have been duly authorized and validly issued, (ii) are fully paid and non-assessable, (iii) have been issued in compliance with applicable law, (iv) are not issued in breach or violation of any contract or preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or other similar rights, (v) are free and clear of all Encumbrances except for (A) applicable transfer restrictions pursuant to applicable law, this Agreement, the Plan, the Operating Agreement and the Shareholder Agreement and (B) the applicable vesting conditions pursuant to this Agreement and (vi) are uncertificated.

(b) OpCo hereby represents and warrants that the LTIP Units (i) have been duly authorized and validly issued, (ii) have been issued in compliance with applicable law, (iii) are not issued in breach or violation of any contract or preemptive rights, rights of first refusal or other similar rights, (iv) are free and clear of all Encumbrances except for (A) applicable transfer restrictions pursuant to applicable law, this Agreement, the Plan, the Operating Agreement and the Shareholder Agreement and (B) the applicable vesting conditions pursuant to this Agreement and (v) are uncertificated.

(c) The Member represents and warrants that all of the representations and warranties set forth on Appendix A are true and correct in all respects.

4. Nontransferability.

Subject to Section 3.02(c)(iv) of the Operating Agreement, from and after the Grant Date, the Member shall be permitted to transfer the LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares), whether such LTIP Units are vested or unvested, solely in accordance with Article X of the Operating Agreement or, solely with respect to the Tandem Preferred Shares, the Shareholder Agreement. In the event of any such transfer pursuant to the foregoing, prior to the applicable Vesting Date, the Unvested Awards shall remain subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including with respect to vesting and forfeiture) that are applicable to Unvested Awards until such LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares) are no longer Unvested Awards. From and after the applicable Vesting Date, the LTIP Units (and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares) shall be subject to Section 3.02(c)(iv) of the Operating Agreement and shall not be transferable by the Member, except as set forth in Article X of the Operating Agreement (which shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Tandem Common Shares, treating the Tandem Common Shares as LTIP Units) and, solely with respect to the Tandem Preferred Shares, the Shareholder Agreement.

5. Allocations, Distributions and Dividends.

Allocations and distributions with respect to the LTIP Units (including tax distributions) shall be handled in the manner specified in the Operating Agreement. The amount of any distributions credited under Section 4.01(b) of the Operating Agreement to the Member's LTIP Units prior to the Vesting Date are referred to herein as "Unvested Distribution Amounts". Any such Unvested Distribution Amounts shall be settled through a cash payment (less any prior tax distributions pursuant to Section 4.01(c) of the Operating Agreement in respect of Unvested Distribution Amounts) to the Member upon the applicable Vesting Date. Upon the forfeiture of an Unvested Award pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, all Unvested Distribution Amounts (excluding the amount of tax distributions previously paid pursuant to Section 4.01(c) of the Operating Agreement) allocated to the Member's forfeited LTIP Units shall also be forfeited. The Member's LTIP Capital Account that has been forfeited, canceled or terminated shall be treated as provided in Section 3.02(c)(v) of the Operating Agreement, as applicable. From and after the time that the LTIP Units become fully vested, the rights of the Member to receive distributions with respect to any LTIP Unit shall be governed by the Operating Agreement.

6. Tax Distributions.

7. Section 83(b) Election.

The Member agrees that the Member will make a protective election to be taxed immediately on the value of the LTIP Units and related Non-Economic Shares on the Grant Date; provided that the Member shall not be in breach of this Agreement if Member fails to comply with this Section 7. In order to do so, the Member must file an election with the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Code, and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder (a "Section 83(b) Election") with respect to the LTIP Units and related Non-Economic Shares within 30 days following the Grant Date, on a form attached hereto as Appendix B. The Member will provide a copy of such Section 83(b) Election to OpCo not later than ten (10) days after filing the election with the Internal Revenue Service or other governmental authority.

8. Payment of Transfer Taxes, Fees and Other Expenses.

(a) The Company agrees to pay, or to cause its applicable Affiliate to pay, any and all original issue taxes and stock transfer taxes that may be imposed with respect to the delivery of any LTIP Units or Shares (as defined in the Plan) pursuant to this Agreement, together with any and all other fees and expenses necessarily incurred by the Company or any of its Affiliates in connection therewith.

(b) The Company, or its applicable Affiliates, shall be entitled to withhold from any payments, distributions and allocations to the Member any amounts required to be so withheld pursuant to the Code or any provisions of any other federal, state, local or foreign law. If the Company, or its applicable Affiliate, pays any taxes (including any related interest, penalties or additions to tax) in respect of LTIP Units or Shares on the Member's behalf, (i) except if the Member is an "executive officer" (within the meaning of Rule 3b-7 under the Exchange Act (as defined in the Plan)), as may be required to comply with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, if requested by OpCo, the Member agrees to reimburse and shall reimburse OpCo for such taxes within thirty (30) days following the Company's request or (ii) if such taxes are paid by OpCo, such taxes shall be governed by Section 5.05 of the Operating Agreement.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 8(a) and Section 8(b), the Member shall be solely responsible for the payment of any taxes in respect of LTIP Units and Shares and shall hold the Company and its Affiliates and their respective directors, officers and employees harmless from any liability arising from the Member's failure to comply with the foregoing provisions of this Section 8(c).

9. Adjustment Provisions.

In the event of any extraordinary dividend or other extraordinary distribution (whether in the form of cash, Shares, other securities or other property), recapitalization, rights offering, stock split, reverse stock split, split-up or spin-off or any other event that constitutes an "equity restructuring" within the meaning of GAAP (as defined in the Plan), the Committee shall, in accordance with Section 4(c)(i) of the Plan, adjust any outstanding LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares, as well as any unsatisfied share price hurdles and the Floor Amount.

10. Rights of a Shareholder.

The Member shall have the voting rights with respect to the Shares issued to the Member upon the grant of the related LTIP Unit immediately upon the Grant Date, regardless of whether such LTIP Unit (and related Share) is vested or unvested.

11. Effect of Agreement.

Except as otherwise provided hereunder, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of any successor or successors of the Company or OpCo. The invalidity or enforceability of any provision of this Agreement shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement. Nothing in this Agreement or the Plan shall confer upon the Member any right to continue in the employ of the Company or any of its Affiliates or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or any such Affiliates to terminate the Member's service at any time. Until shares of Class A Common Stock are actually delivered to the Member upon a Redemption or Direct Exchange pursuant to Article XI of the Operating Agreement, the Member shall not have any rights as a shareholder in respect of shares of Class A Common Stock; provided that the Member shall have all rights as a shareholder in respect of shares of Class B Common Stock and Series B Founder Preferred Shares.

12. Laws Applicable to Construction; Consent to Jurisdiction.

(a) Notwithstanding anything in the Operating Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to principles of conflict of laws that could cause the application of the law of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware. In addition to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Unvested Awards are subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan, which is hereby incorporated by reference, and the LTIP Units and Shares are subject to the Operating Agreement, which is hereby incorporated by reference. In addition, Shares are subject to the Organizational Document, which are hereby incorporated by reference and, solely with respect to the Tandem Preferred Shares, the Shareholder Agreement. By signing this Agreement, the Member agrees to and is bound by the Plan, the Operating Agreement, the Organizational Document and the Shareholder Agreement.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in the Operating Agreement to the contrary, any controversy or claim between the Member and the Company, OpCo or any of its or their Affiliates arising out of or relating to or concerning the provisions of this Agreement or the Plan shall be resolved in accordance with the dispute resolution provisions set forth in the Employment Agreement.

13. Section 409A of the Code.

It is intended that the LTIP Units, the Shares and all amounts payable with respect thereto (including the Unvested Distribution Amount) shall be exempt from Section 409A of the Code.

14. Conflicts and Interpretation.

In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Operating Agreement, the Plan and/or this Agreement relating to LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares, the agreements shall take precedence in the following order: (a) this Agreement, (b) the Operating Agreement and (c) the Plan; provided that, with respect to the process for, and restrictions and limitations on, amending the Operating Agreement, Section 16.03 of the Operating Agreement (Amendments) shall take precedence over this Agreement. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement with respect to LTIP Units and the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares, the Operating Agreement shall govern the Member's rights and obligations with respect to OpCo under the Operating Agreement. In the event of any ambiguity in this Agreement, or any matters as to which this Agreement is silent, the Plan shall govern including, without limitation, the provisions thereof pursuant to which the Committee has the power, among others, to (i) interpret the Plan, (ii) prescribe, amend and rescind rules and regulations relating to the Plan, and (iii) make all other determinations deemed necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan; provided that all actions by the Committee shall be taken reasonably and in good faith.

15. Amendment.

Any modification, amendment or waiver to this Agreement that shall impair the rights of the Member shall require an instrument in writing to be signed by the Member, the Company and OpCo. The waiver by any of the Member, the Company or OpCo of compliance with any provision of this Agreement shall not operate or be construed as a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement, or of any subsequent breach by such party of a provision of this Agreement.

16. Severability.

If any term, provision, covenant or condition of this Agreement is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, then such provision, covenant or condition shall, as to such jurisdiction, be modified or restricted to the extent necessary to make such provision valid, binding and enforceable, or, if such provision cannot be modified or restricted, then such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be deemed to be excised from this Agreement and any such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability with respect to such provision shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction, and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

17. Headings.

The headings of paragraphs herein are included solely for convenience of reference and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of any of the provisions of this Agreement.

18. Counterparts.

This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, which together shall constitute one and the same original.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, as of the date first above written, each of the Company and OpCo has caused this Agreement to be executed on behalf of itself or its applicable Affiliate by a duly authorized officer and the Member has hereunto set the Member’s hand.

Investment Intent and Other Representations of the Member

1. Investment Intent.

The Member hereby represents and warrants that the LTIP Units (which, for purposes of this Appendix A, shall be deemed to include the related Tandem Common Shares and Tandem Preferred Shares) must be held for investment purposes and are not being received with a view to distribution thereof, and covenants and agrees to make such other reasonable and customary representations as requested by OpCo or the Company, as applicable, regarding matters relevant to compliance with applicable securities laws as are deemed necessary by counsel to OpCo or the Company, as applicable.

2. Other Representations.

The Member hereby represents and warrants to OpCo or the Company, as applicable, as follows:

(a) Access to Information. Because of the Member's business relationship with the Company and its Affiliates and with the management of the Company and its Affiliates, the Member has had access to all material and relevant information concerning OpCo, the Company and their respective Affiliates, thereby enabling the Member to make an informed investment decision with respect to Member's receipt of the LTIP Units, and all pertinent data and information requested by the Member from OpCo, the Company or their respective representatives, as the case may be, concerning the business and financial condition of OpCo, the Company or their respective Affiliates, as the case may be, and the terms and conditions of this Agreement have been furnished to the Member. The Member acknowledges that the Member has had the opportunity to ask questions of and receive answers and obtain additional information from OpCo, the Company and their respective Affiliates and their representatives concerning the present and proposed business and financial condition of OpCo, the Company and their Affiliates.

(b) Financial Sophistication. The Member, either individually, or together with one or more financial advisors to which Member has access, has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that the Member is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of the acceptance of the LTIP Units.

(c) Understanding the Investment Risks. The Member understands that:

(i) the LTIP Units represent a highly speculative investment, and there can be no assurance as to the success of OpCo, the Company or their respective Affiliates in their business;

(ii) the LTIP Units cannot be transferred except in very limited circumstances in accordance with the provisions of the Operating Agreement and the Award Agreement to which this Appendix A is attached (the "Award Agreement"), and at present, no market for the LTIP Units exists and it is not anticipated that a market for the LTIP Units will develop in the future;

(iii) the LTIP Units may be worthless; and

(iv) ownership of the LTIP Units may result in taxable income to the Member without a corresponding cash or in-kind distribution.

(d) Understanding the Nature of LTIP Units. The Member understands and agrees that:

(i) the LTIP Units will not be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (the “Securities Act”), or any applicable state securities laws; they are being issued in reliance upon certain exemptions contained in the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, and the representations and warranties of the Member contained herein are essential to any claim of exemption by OpCo and the Company under the Securities Act and such state laws;

(ii) the LTIP Units are “restricted securities” as that term is defined in Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act;

(iii) the Member may not sell, transfer, assign, pledge or otherwise dispose of or encumber the LTIP Units except as allowed under the provisions of the Award Agreement, the Operating Agreement and the Plan;

(iv) only OpCo and the Company, as applicable, can register the LTIP Units under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, but it is not anticipated that the LTIP Units will be registered in any event;

(v) OpCo and the Company have not made any representations to the Member that OpCo or the Company, as applicable, will register the LTIP Units under the Securities Act or any applicable state securities laws, or any representations with respect to compliance with any exemption therefrom;

(vi) the Member is aware of the conditions restricting the sale or transfer of the LTIP Units under the Operating Agreement, the Award Agreement, the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws; and

(vii) OpCo or the Company, as applicable, may, from time to time, make “stop transfer” notations in its transfer record to ensure compliance with the Securities Act and any applicable state securities laws, and any additional restrictions imposed by state securities administrators.

(e) No Brokers; Additional Representations. The Member acknowledges that:

(i) neither the Member nor anyone acting on the Member’s behalf has paid or will pay a commission or other remuneration to any person in connection with the acceptance of the LTIP Units; and

(ii) at the time and as a condition of delivery of documents evidencing the LTIP Units, the Member will be deemed to have made all the representations and warranties

contained in this Appendix A with respect to such LTIP Units and may be required to make other representations concerning investment intent as a condition of the delivery of such LTIP Units by OpCo and the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall any action taken by the Committee be considered void or be considered an act in contravention of the terms of the Plan solely as a result of the failure by one or more members of the Committee to satisfy the requirements set forth in the immediately preceding sentence. The Committee shall, subject to Section 12, have plenary authority to grant Awards pursuant to the terms of the Plan to Eligible Individuals. Among other things, the Committee shall have the authority, subject to the terms of the Plan:

- (i) to select the Eligible Individuals, either individually or collectively, to whom Awards may from time to time be granted;
- (ii) to determine whether and to what extent, Options, Stock Appreciation Rights, Restricted Stock, Stock Units, other stock-based Awards, Cash Incentive Awards, or any combination thereof, are to be granted hereunder;
- (iii) to determine the number and class of Shares (if any) to be covered by each Award granted hereunder;

- (v) to determine the vesting schedules of Awards and, if certain Performance Goals must be attained in order for an Award to be granted, vest or be settled or paid, establish such Performance Goals and determine whether, and to what extent, such Performance Goals have been attained;

- (xi) to establish policies relating to restrictions on the exercise of Awards and sales of Shares acquired pursuant to Awards that the Committee, in its sole discretion, deems necessary or advisable to satisfy any applicable law, rule or regulation (including, without limitation, any applicable law relating to insider trading); and
- (xii) to make any other determination and take any other action that the Committee deems necessary or desirable for the administration of the Plan.

(b) Procedures.

- (i) The Committee may, except to the extent prohibited by applicable law or the listing standards of the Applicable Exchange, and subject to Section 12, allocate all or any portion of its responsibilities and powers to any one or more of its members and may delegate all or any part of its responsibilities and powers to any officer or officers of the Company selected by it; provided, however, that in the case of any Awards held by any Participant who is an “executive officer” of the Company (within the meaning of Rule 3b-7 under the Exchange Act) or is a member of the Board, such responsibilities and powers shall not be delegated and actions with respect thereto shall only be taken with the approval of a majority of the members of the Committee or of the full Board.

(ii) Any authority granted to the Committee may also be exercised by the full Board. To the extent that any permitted action taken by the Board conflicts with action taken by the Committee, the Board action shall control.

(c) Discretion of Committee. Except as otherwise set forth in any applicable Award Agreement or Individual Agreement, (i) any determination made by the Committee or by an appropriately delegated officer pursuant to delegated authority under the provisions of the Plan with respect to any Award shall be made in the sole discretion of the Committee or such delegate at the time of the grant of the Award or, unless in contravention of any express term of the Plan, at any time thereafter and (ii) all decisions made by the Committee or any appropriately delegated officer pursuant to the provisions of the Plan shall be final and binding on all persons, including the Company, Participants, and Eligible Individuals.

(d) Award Agreements. In the case of each Award other than a Cash Incentive Award, the terms and conditions of such Award, as determined by the Committee, shall be set forth in a written Award Agreement, which shall be delivered to the Participant receiving such Award upon, or promptly following, the grant of such Award. The effectiveness of an Award shall not be subject to the Award Agreement's being signed by the Company and/or the Participant receiving the Award unless specifically so provided in the Award Agreement. Award Agreements may be amended only in accordance with Section 14 or as otherwise set forth in the applicable Award Agreement.

SECTION 4. Shares and Cash Available Pursuant to the Plan

(a) Maximum Number of Shares.

(i) Subject to adjustment as provided in Section 4(c), the maximum number of Shares that may be issued or paid under or with respect to all Awards (considered in the aggregate) granted under the Plan shall be equal to Thirteen Million Five Hundred Thousand (13,500,000), in the aggregate. To the extent any Shares covered by an Award are not delivered to a Participant because all or a portion of the Award is forfeited, canceled or is settled in cash, such Shares shall not be deemed to have been delivered for purposes of determining the maximum number of Shares available for delivery under the Plan. To the extent any Shares covered by an Award are not delivered to a Participant because the Shares are withheld or tendered (by actual delivery or by attestation) to the Company, in either case, to satisfy the applicable tax withholding obligation or in payment of the exercise price of the Award, such Shares shall be deemed to have been delivered for purposes of determining the maximum number of Shares available for delivery under the Plan. Upon exercise of a stock-settled Stock Appreciation Right, each such stock-settled Stock Appreciation Right originally granted shall be counted as one Share against the maximum number of Shares that may be delivered pursuant to Awards granted under the Plan, regardless of the number of Shares actually delivered upon settlement of such stock-settled Stock Appreciation Right. Except as otherwise set forth in Section 4(a)(ii), all Shares available under the Plan shall be available for any type of Award, except that the maximum number of Shares that may be subject to Incentive Stock Options granted under the Plan shall be Thirteen Million Five Hundred Thousand (13,500,000), subject to adjustment as provided in Section 4(c).

(ii) All Class B Shares available under the Plan shall only be available for issuance in tandem with an equal number of Series A LTIP Units or upon the conversion of Series B Preferred Shares. All Series B Preferred Shares available under the Plan shall only be available for issuance in tandem with an equal number of Series B LTIP Units granted by OpCo pursuant to the Initial Series B LTIP Grant. Upon the grant of LTIP Units to a Participant, an equal number of Non-Economic Shares shall be issued in tandem with such LTIP Unit, which Non-Economic Shares shall be subject to the same vesting terms and conditions (if any) as the corresponding LTIP Units. Upon issuance, each Non-Economic Share that is issued in tandem with an LTIP Unit shall reduce the number of Shares available for issuance under the Plan on a one-for-one basis. In the event that an LTIP Unit (and corresponding Non-Economic Share) is forfeited, consistent with Section 4(a)(i), such Non-Economic Share shall be added back to the Shares available for issuance under the Plan on a one-for-one basis. Simultaneously with a Redemption or Direct Exchange, the Participant shall surrender to the Company, and the Company shall cancel for no consideration, a number of Non-Economic Shares registered in the name of the Participant equal to the number of Redeemed Units in accordance with Section 11.04(b) of the Operating Agreement. Upon issuance of Class A Shares in a Share Settlement, the number of Shares available for issuance under the Plan shall be reduced by each Class A Share that has been issued and, simultaneously, shall be increased by each Non-Economic Share that has been canceled, in each case on a one-for-one basis, so that the net impact on the number of Shares available pursuant to the Plan of such cancellation of Non-Economic Shares and issuance of Class A Shares shall be neutral.

(iii) Upon the closing of the Merger, the following shall occur: (x) Five Million Four Hundred Thousand (5,400,000) Series A LTIP Units (such grant of Series A LTIP Units, the “Initial Series A LTIP Grant”) shall be granted by OpCo, in tandem with an equal amount of Class B Shares of Restricted Stock that shall be granted by the Company, to certain Participants in accordance with the applicable Award Agreements among the Company, OpCo and the Participant named therein, and (y) One Million Three Hundred and Eighty Six Thousand and Thirty Three (1,386,033) Series B LTIP Units (such grant of Series B LTIP Units, the “Initial Series B LTIP Grant”) shall be granted by OpCo, in tandem with an equal amount of Series B Preferred Shares of Restricted Stock shall be granted by the Company, to certain Participants in accordance with the Award Agreement among the Company, OpCo and the Participant named therein.

(b) Maximum Shares and Cash per Non-Employee Director. Subject to adjustment as provided in Section 4(c), (i) with respect to any Restricted Stock Awards, Stock Unit Awards and other stock-based Awards (including fully vested Shares) (which Awards shall be deemed to have a value equal to the per-share Fair Market Value on the applicable grant date), no more than Two Hundred Thousand (200,000) Shares may be subject to such Awards granted to any one non-employee director in any fiscal year of the Company under the Plan, which Awards may be settled in Shares or in cash based on the per share Fair Market Value as of the relevant payment or settlement date and (ii) in the case of all Awards other than those described in (i), including cash retainer fees, the maximum aggregate amount of cash and other property (valued at its Fair Market Value) other than Shares that may be paid or delivered pursuant to such Awards to any one non-employee director in any fiscal year of the Company shall be equal to Two Million Dollars ($2,000,000). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Independent Directors (within the meaning of the Operating Agreement), by action as a majority of such directors, may make exceptions to this limit for a non-executive Chairman of the Board so long as such non-executive Chairman does not participate in the decision to award such compensation.

(c) Adjustment Provisions. (i) In the event of any extraordinary dividend or other extraordinary distribution (whether in the form of cash, Shares, other securities or other property), recapitalization, rights offering, stock split, reverse stock split, split-up or spin-off or any other event that constitutes an “equity restructuring” within the meaning of GAAP with respect to Shares, the Committee shall, in the manner determined appropriate or desirable by the Committee, adjust any or all of (A) the number of Shares or other securities of the Company (or number and kind of other securities or property) with respect to which Awards may be granted under the Plan, including (1) the maximum number of Shares that may be delivered pursuant to Incentive Stock Options granted under the Plan and (2) the maximum number of Shares or other securities of the Company (or number and kind of other securities or property) with respect to which Awards may be granted under the Plan to any non-employee director in any fiscal year of the Company, in each case, as provided in Sections 4(a) and 4(b), and (B) the terms of any outstanding Award, including (1) the number of Shares or other securities of the Company (or number and kind of other securities or property) subject to outstanding Awards or to which outstanding Awards relate and (2) the Exercise Price, if applicable, with respect to any Award.

(ii) In the event that the Committee determines that any reorganization, merger, consolidation, combination, repurchase or exchange of Shares or other securities of the Company, issuance of warrants or other rights to purchase Shares or other securities of the Company, or other similar corporate transaction or event affects the Shares such that an adjustment is determined by the Committee in its discretion to be appropriate or desirable, then the Committee may (A) in such manner as it may deem appropriate or desirable, adjust any or all of (1) the number of Shares or other securities of the Company (or number and kind of other securities or property) with respect to which Awards may be granted, including (X) the maximum number of Shares that may be delivered pursuant to Incentive Stock Options granted under the Plan and (Y) the maximum number of Shares or other securities of the Company (or number and kind of other securities or property) with respect to which Awards may be granted under the Plan to any non-employee director in any fiscal year of the Company, in each case, as provided in Sections 4(a) and 4(b), and (2) the terms of any outstanding Award, including (X) the number of Shares or other securities of the Company (or number and kind of other securities or property) subject to outstanding Awards or to which outstanding Awards relate and (Y) the Exercise Price, if applicable, with respect to any Award; (B) if deemed appropriate or desirable by the Committee, make provision for payments of cash, property or a combination thereof having an aggregate value equal to the value of such Awards, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion (it being understood that in the case of a transaction with respect to which shareholders of Class A Shares receive consideration other than publicly traded equity securities of the ultimate surviving entity, any such determination by the Committee that the value of an Option or Stock Appreciation Right shall, for this purpose, be deemed to equal the excess, if any, of the value of the per Share consideration being paid for the Class A Shares pursuant to such transaction over the Exercise Price of such Option or Stock Appreciation Right and shall conclusively be deemed valid); (C) if deemed appropriate or desirable by the Committee, cancel and terminate any Option or Stock Appreciation Right having a per-Share Exercise Price equal to, or in excess of, the Fair Market Value of a Share subject to such Option or Stock Appreciation Right without any payment or consideration therefor; and (D) if deemed appropriate or desirable by the Committee, in connection with any Disaffiliation, arrange for the assumption of Awards, or replacement of Awards with new awards based on other property or other securities (including, without limitation, other securities of the Company and securities of entities other than the Company), by the affected Subsidiary, Affiliate, or division or by the entity that controls such Subsidiary, Affiliate, or division following such Disaffiliation (as well as any corresponding adjustments to Awards that remain based upon Company securities).

(iii) Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan to the contrary, in the event of any replacement of any Award in respect of Series B Preferred Shares, the securities underlying such replacement Award shall retain voting rights in respect of all classes of the Company's stock that are not less than the Series B Preferred Shares underlying the Award that was replaced.

(d) Substitute Awards. Subject to the restrictions on "repricing" of Options and Stock Appreciation Rights as set forth in Section 6(c), Awards may, in the discretion of the Committee, be granted under the Plan in assumption of, or in substitution for, outstanding awards previously granted by the Company or any of its Affiliates or a company acquired by the Company or any of its Affiliates or with which the Company or any of its Affiliates combines ("Substitute Awards"). The number of Shares underlying any Substitute Awards shall be counted against the maximum number of Shares available for Awards under the Plan; provided, however, that Substitute Awards issued in connection with the assumption of, or in substitution for, outstanding awards previously granted by an entity that is acquired by the Company or any of its Affiliates or with which the Company or any of its Affiliates combines shall not be counted against the maximum number of Shares available for Awards under the Plan; provided further, however, that Substitute Awards issued in connection with the assumption of, or in substitution for, outstanding stock options intended to qualify for special tax treatment under Sections 421 and 422 of the Code that were previously granted by an entity that is acquired by the Company or any of its Affiliates or with which the Company or any of its Affiliates combines shall be counted against the maximum number of Shares available for Incentive Stock Options under the Plan.

(e) Sources of Shares Deliverable Under Awards. Any Shares delivered pursuant to an Award may consist, in whole or in part, of authorized and unissued Shares, treasury Shares or Shares held by a Subsidiary, as determined by the Committee in its discretion.

SECTION 5. Eligibility

Awards may be granted under the Plan to Eligible Individuals.

SECTION 6. Options and Stock Appreciation Rights

(a) Options. Options may be granted on such terms and in such form as the Committee may from time to time determine in its sole discretion, which shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan, but which need not be identical from Option to Option. In the case of Incentive Stock Options, the terms and conditions of such grants shall be subject to and comply with such rules as may be prescribed by Section 422 of the Code. All Options granted under the Plan shall be Nonqualified Stock Options unless the applicable Award Agreement expressly states that the Option is intended to be an Incentive Stock Option. If an Option is intended to be an Incentive Stock Option, and if, for any reason, such Option (or any portion thereof) shall not qualify as an Incentive Stock Option, then, to the extent of such nonqualification, such Option (or portion thereof) shall be regarded as a Nonqualified Stock Option appropriately granted under the Plan; provided that such Option (or portion thereof) otherwise complies with the Plan's requirements relating to Nonqualified Stock Options.

(b) Stock Appreciation Rights. Stock Appreciation Rights under the Plan may be granted on such terms and in such form as the Committee may from time to time determine in its sole discretion, which shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan, but which need not be identical from Stock Appreciation Right to Stock Appreciation Right. Upon the exercise of a Stock Appreciation Right, the Participant shall be entitled to receive an amount in cash, Shares, or both, in value equal to the product of (i) the excess of the Fair Market Value of one Share over the Exercise Price of the applicable Stock Appreciation Right, multiplied by (ii) the number of Shares in respect of which the Stock Appreciation Right has been exercised. The applicable Award Agreement shall specify whether such payment is to be made in cash, Shares or both, or shall reserve to the Committee or the Participant the right to make that determination prior to or upon the exercise of the Stock Appreciation Right.

(c) Exercise Price. The Exercise Price subject to an Option or Stock Appreciation Right shall be determined by the Committee and set forth in the applicable Award Agreement, and shall not be less than the Fair Market Value of a Share on the applicable grant date; provided, however, that in the case of an Incentive Stock Option granted to an employee who, at the time of the grant of such Option, owns stock representing more than 10% of the voting power of all classes of stock of the Company or any Affiliate, the Exercise Price shall be no less than 110% of the Fair Market Value per Share on the date of the grant. In no event may any Option or Stock Appreciation Right granted under the Plan (i) be amended to decrease the Exercise Price thereof, (ii) be cancelled at a time when its Exercise Price exceeds the Fair Market Value of the underlying Shares in exchange for another Option or Stock Appreciation Right or any Restricted Stock, Stock Unit, other equity-based Award, award under any other equity-compensation plan or any cash payment or (iii) be subject to any action that would be treated, for accounting purposes, as a “repricing” of such Option or Stock Appreciation Right, unless, in the case of each of the foregoing clauses (i), (ii) and (iii), such amendment, cancellation, or action is specifically approved by the Company’s shareholders. For the avoidance of doubt, an adjustment to the Exercise Price of an Option or Stock Appreciation Right that is made in accordance with Section 4(c) shall not be considered a reduction in Exercise Price or “repricing” of such Option or Stock Appreciation Right.

(d) Term. The Term of each Option and Stock Appreciation Right shall be fixed by the Committee at the time of grant; provided that in no event may any Option or Stock Appreciation Right have a Term of more than ten years (or in the case of an Incentive Stock Option such shorter term as may be required under Section 422 of the Code).

(e) Vesting and Exercisability. Except as otherwise provided herein, Options and Stock Appreciation Rights shall be exercisable at such time or times and subject to such terms and conditions as shall be determined by the Committee. If the Committee provides that any Option or Stock Appreciation Right will become exercisable only in installments, the Committee may at any time waive such installment exercise provisions, in whole or in part, based on such factors as the Committee may determine. In addition, the Committee may at any time accelerate the vesting and/or exercisability of any Option or Stock Appreciation Right.

(f) Method of Exercise. Subject to the provisions of this Section 6, Options and Stock Appreciation Rights may be exercised, in whole or in part, at any time during the applicable Term by giving written notice of exercise to the Company specifying the number of Shares as to which the Option or Stock Appreciation Right is being exercised; provided, however, that, unless otherwise permitted by the Committee, any such exercise must be with respect to a portion of the applicable Option or Stock Appreciation Right relating to no less than the lesser of the number of Shares then subject to such Option or Stock Appreciation Right or 50 Shares; provided, further, that, unless otherwise permitted by the Committee, Options and Stock Appreciation Rights may only be exercised to the extent that they have previously vested. In the case of the exercise of an Option, such notice shall be accompanied by payment in full of the purchase price (which shall equal the product of such number of Shares multiplied by the applicable Exercise Price) by certified or bank check or such other instrument as the Company may accept. If approved by the Committee, payment, in full or in part, may also be made as follows:

(i) Payments may be made in the form of unrestricted Shares (by delivery of such Shares or by attestation) of the same class as the Shares subject to the Option already owned by the Participant (based on the Fair Market Value of the Shares on the date the Option is exercised).

(ii) To the extent permitted by applicable law, payment may be made by delivering a properly executed exercise notice to the Company, together with a copy of irrevocable instructions to a broker to deliver promptly to the Company the amount of sale or loan proceeds necessary to pay the purchase price, and, if requested, the amount of any federal, state, local or foreign withholding taxes. To facilitate the foregoing, the Company may, to the extent permitted by applicable law, enter into agreements for coordinated procedures with one or more brokerage firms. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Committee may also provide for Company loans to be made for purposes of the exercise of Options.

(iii) Payment may be made by instructing the Committee to withhold a number of Shares having a Fair Market Value (based on the Fair Market Value of the Shares on the date the applicable Option is exercised) equal to the product of (A) the Exercise Price multiplied by (B) the number of Shares in respect of which the Option shall have been exercised.

(g) Delivery; Rights of Shareholders. No Shares shall be delivered pursuant to the exercise of an Option until the Exercise Price therefor has been fully paid and applicable taxes have been withheld. Subject to Section 18(a), the applicable Participant shall have all of the rights of a shareholder of the Company holding the class or series of Common Stock that is subject to the Option or Stock Appreciation Right (including, if applicable, the right to vote the applicable Shares and the right to receive dividends), when the Participant (i) has given written notice of exercise, (ii) if requested, has given the representation described in Section 18(a), (iii) in the case of an Option, has paid in full for such Shares and any federal, state, local and foreign income and employment taxes required to be withheld, and (iv) has been entered into the Company's register of members or any other stock records with respect to such Shares.

(h) Terminations of Employment. Subject to Section 11(a) and except as set forth in the applicable Award Agreement or as otherwise determined by the Committee in its discretion, a Participant's Options and Stock Appreciation Rights shall be forfeited upon such Participant's Termination of Employment.

SECTION 7. Restricted Stock

(a) Nature of Awards and Certificates. Awards of Restricted Stock are actual Shares issued to a Participant, and shall be evidenced in such manner as the Committee may deem appropriate, including book-entry registration or issuance of one or more stock certificates. Any certificate issued in respect of Awards of Restricted Stock shall be registered in the name of the applicable Participant and shall bear an appropriate legend referring to the terms, conditions and restrictions applicable to such Award, substantially in the following form:

"The transferability of this certificate and the shares of stock represented hereby are subject to the terms and conditions (including forfeiture) of the Digital Landscape 2020 Equity Incentive Plan, as amended and restated (the "Plan"), and an Award Agreement (the "Agreement"), as well as the terms and conditions of applicable law. Copies of such Plan and Agreement are on file at the offices of Digital Landscape Group, Inc."

The Committee may require that the certificates evidencing title of such Shares be held in custody by the Company until the restrictions thereon shall have lapsed and that, as a condition of any Award of Restricted Stock, the applicable Participant shall have delivered a stock power, endorsed in blank, relating to the Shares covered by such Award.

(b) Terms and Conditions. Awards of Restricted Stock shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

(i) The Committee may condition the grant or vesting of an Award of Restricted Stock upon the attainment of Performance Goals or upon the continued service of the applicable Participant. The conditions for grant or vesting and the other provisions of Restricted Stock Awards (including, without limitation, any applicable Performance Goals) need not be the same with respect to each recipient. The Committee may at any time, in its sole discretion, accelerate or waive, in whole or in part, any of the foregoing restrictions.

(ii) Subject to the provisions of the Plan and except as set forth in the applicable Award Agreement, during the period, if any, set by the Committee, commencing with the date of such Restricted Stock Award for which such Participant's continued service is required (the "Restriction Period"), and until the later of (A) the expiration of the Restriction Period and (B) the date the applicable Performance Goals (if any) are satisfied, the Participant shall not be permitted to sell, assign, transfer, pledge or otherwise encumber such Shares of Restricted Stock.

(iii) Except as provided in this Section 7 and in the applicable Award Agreement, the applicable Participant shall have, with respect to the Shares of Restricted Stock, all of the rights of a shareholder of the Company holding the class or series of Shares that is the subject of the Restricted Stock, including, if applicable, the right to vote the Shares and the right to receive any cash dividends. If so determined by the Committee in the applicable Award Agreement and subject to Section 18(f), (A) cash dividends on the class or series of Shares that is the subject of the Restricted Stock Award shall be automatically reinvested in additional Restricted Stock, held subject to the vesting of the underlying Restricted Stock, and (B) subject to any adjustment pursuant to Section 4(c), dividends payable in Shares shall be paid in the form of Restricted Stock of the same class as the Shares with respect to which such dividend was paid, held subject to the vesting of the underlying Restricted Stock.

(iv) Except as otherwise set forth in the applicable Award Agreement, any Individual Agreement or Section 11(a), upon a Participant's Termination of Employment for any reason during the Restriction Period or before the applicable Performance Goals are satisfied, all Awards of Restricted Stock still subject to restriction shall be forfeited by such Participant; provided, however, that the Committee shall have the discretion to waive, in whole or in part, any or all remaining restrictions with respect to any or all of such Participant's Shares of Restricted Stock.

(v) If and when any applicable Performance Goals are satisfied and the Restriction Period expires without a prior forfeiture of the Shares of Restricted Stock for which legended certificates have been issued, unlegended certificates for such Shares shall be delivered to the Participant upon surrender of the legended certificates.

SECTION 8. Stock Units

(a) Nature of Award. Stock Units are Awards denominated in Shares that will be settled, subject to the terms and conditions of the Stock Units, either by delivery of Shares to the Participant or by the payment of cash based upon the Fair Market Value of a specified number of Shares.

(b) Terms and Conditions. Stock Units shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

(i) The Committee may condition the vesting of Stock Units upon the attainment of Performance Goals or upon the continued service of the Participant. The conditions for grant or vesting and the other provisions of Stock Unit Awards (including, without limitation, any applicable Performance Goals) need not be the same with respect to each recipient. The Committee may at any time, in its sole discretion, accelerate or waive, in whole or in part, any of the foregoing restrictions. An Award of Stock Units shall be settled as and when the Stock Units vest or at a later time specified by the Committee or in accordance with an election of the Participant, if the Committee so permits.

(ii) Subject to the provisions of the Plan and except as set forth in the applicable Award Agreement, during the period, if any, set by the Committee, commencing with the date of such Stock Unit Award for which such Participant's continued service is required (the "Stock Unit Restriction Period"), and until the later of (A) the expiration of the Stock Unit Restriction Period and (B) the date the applicable Performance Goals (if any) are satisfied, the Participant shall not be permitted to sell, assign, transfer, pledge or otherwise encumber Stock Units.

(iii) The Award Agreement for Stock Units shall specify whether, to what extent and on what terms and conditions the applicable Participant shall be entitled to receive current or deferred payments of cash, Shares or other property corresponding to the dividends payable on the Shares (subject to Section 18(f) below).

(iv) Except as otherwise set forth in the applicable Award Agreement, any Individual Agreement or Section 11(a), upon a Participant's Termination of Employment for any reason during the Stock Unit Restriction Period or before the applicable Performance Goals are satisfied, all Stock Units still subject to restriction shall be forfeited by such Participant; provided, however, that the Committee shall have the discretion to waive, in whole or in part, any or all remaining restrictions with respect to any or all of such Participant's Stock Units.

SECTION 9. Other Equity-Based Awards

Subject to the provisions of the Plan, other Awards of Shares and other Awards that are valued in whole or in part by reference to, or are otherwise based upon, Shares (including, without limitation, fully vested Shares, dividend equivalents, and convertible debentures), may be granted under the Plan upon the terms and conditions specified by the Committee. LTIP Units that are granted in tandem with Non-Economic Shares or are exchangeable for Shares will be considered other equity-based Awards for purposes of the Plan.

SECTION 10. Cash Incentive Awards

Subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Committee shall have the authority to grant Cash Incentive Awards. Subject to Section 4(a), the Committee shall establish Cash Incentive Award levels to determine the amount payable upon the attainment of the applicable Performance Goals.

SECTION 11. Change in Control Provision

(a) Impact of Event. In the event of a Change in Control, except to the extent otherwise provided in an applicable Award Agreement, all Awards that are outstanding and unvested as of immediately prior to a Change in Control (after giving effect to any action by the Committee pursuant to Section 4(c)) shall remain outstanding and unvested immediately thereafter; provided, however, that, immediately upon the involuntary Termination of Employment of a Participant, other than (x) for Cause or (y) due to the Participant's death or Disability, during the 12-month period following a Change in Control, all Awards then-held by such Participant shall be treated as follows:

- (i) any Options and Stock Appreciation Rights outstanding which are not then exercisable and vested shall become fully exercisable and vested;
- (ii) the restrictions applicable to any Restricted Stock shall lapse, and such Restricted Stock shall become free of all restrictions and become fully vested and transferable;
- (iii) all Stock Units shall vest in full and be immediately settled; and
- (iv) all other outstanding Awards (i.e., other than Options, Stock Appreciation Rights, Restricted Stock and Stock Units) shall become exercisable and vested and all restrictions and forfeiture provisions related thereto shall lapse.

(b) Substitution or Assumption. Notwithstanding Section 11(a) and except to the extent otherwise provided in an applicable Award Agreement, and except as provided in Section 11(c), in the event of a Change in Control, unless provision is made in connection with the Change in Control for assumption or continuation of Awards previously granted or substitution of such Awards for new awards covering shares of a successor corporation or its "parent corporation" (as defined in Section 424(e) of the Code) or "subsidiary corporation" (as defined in Section 424(f) of the Code) with appropriate adjustments as to the number and kinds of shares and, if applicable, Exercise Prices and Performance Goals, in each case, that the Committee determines will preserve the material terms and conditions of such Awards as in effect immediately prior to the Change in Control (including, without limitation, with respect to the vesting schedules, the intrinsic value of the awards (if any) as of the Change in Control, difficulty of achieving Performance Goals (if applicable) and transferability of the shares underlying such Awards), immediately upon the occurrence of a Change in Control:

- (i) any Options and Stock Appreciation Rights outstanding which are not then exercisable and vested shall become fully exercisable and vested;
- (ii) the restrictions applicable to any Restricted Stock shall lapse, and such Restricted Stock shall become free of all restrictions and become fully vested and transferable;
- (iii) all Stock Units shall vest in full and be immediately settled; and
- (iv) the Committee may also make additional adjustments and/or settlements of outstanding Awards (including, without limitation, Cash Incentive Awards) as it deems appropriate and consistent with the Plan's purposes.

(c) Awards Subject to Section 409A of the Code. Notwithstanding any provision of Section 11(b), unless otherwise provided in the applicable Award Agreement, if any amount payable pursuant to an Award constitutes deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code), in the event of a Change in Control, to the extent provided in Section 11(b), any unvested but outstanding Awards shall automatically vest as of the date of such Change in Control and shall not be subject to the forfeiture restrictions following such Change in Control; provided that, in the event that such Change in Control does not qualify as an event described in Section 409A(a)(2)(A)(v) of the Code, such Awards (and any other Awards that constitute deferred compensation that vested prior to the date of such Change in Control but are outstanding as of such date) shall not be settled until the earliest permissible payment event under Section 409A of the Code following such Change in Control.

SECTION 12. Section 16(b)

To the extent that Section 16 of the Exchange Act is applicable to the Company, the provisions of the Plan are intended to ensure that no transaction under the Plan is subject to (and not exempt from) the short-swing recovery rules of Section 16(b) of the Exchange Act ("Section 16(b)"). Accordingly, to the extent that Section 16(b) is applicable to the Company, the composition of the Committee shall be subject to such limitations as the Board deems appropriate to permit transactions pursuant to the Plan to be exempt (pursuant to Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act) from Section 16(b), and no delegation of authority by the Committee shall be permitted if such delegation would cause any such transaction to be subject to (and not exempt from) Section 16(b).

SECTION 13. Section 409A of the Code

(a) It is intended that the provisions of the Plan comply with Section 409A of the Code, and all provisions of the Plan shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A of the Code.

(b) No Participant or the creditors or beneficiaries of a Participant shall have the right to subject any deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code) payable under the Plan to any anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, attachment or garnishment. Except as permitted under Section 409A of the Code, any deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code) payable to any Participant or for the benefit of any Participant under the Plan may not be reduced by, or offset against, any amount owing by any such Participant to the Company or any of its Affiliates.

(c) If, at the time of a Participant's separation from service (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code), (i) such Participant shall be a specified employee (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code and using the identification methodology selected by the Company from time to time) and (ii) the Company shall make a good faith determination that an amount payable pursuant to an Award constitutes deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A of the Code) the payment of which is required to be delayed pursuant to the six-month delay rule set forth in Section 409A of the Code in order to avoid taxes or penalties under Section 409A of the Code, then the Company shall not pay such amount on the otherwise scheduled payment date but shall instead pay it on the first business day after such six-month period. Except as otherwise determined by the Committee in its sole discretion or as set forth in any applicable Award Agreement or Individual Agreement, such amount shall be paid without interest.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan to the contrary, in light of the uncertainty with respect to the proper application of Section 409A of the Code, except as otherwise set forth in any applicable Award Agreement or Individual Agreement, the Company reserves the right to make amendments to any Award as the Company deems necessary or desirable to avoid the imposition of taxes or penalties under Section 409A of the Code. In any case, unless otherwise determined by the Committee in its sole discretion, a Participant shall be solely responsible and liable for the satisfaction of all taxes and penalties that may be imposed on such Participant or for such Participant's account in connection with an Award (including any taxes and penalties under Section 409A of the Code), and neither the Company nor any of its Affiliates shall have any obligation to indemnify or otherwise hold such Participant harmless from any or all of such taxes or penalties.

SECTION 14. Term, Amendment and Termination

(a) Effectiveness. The Plan became effective upon its adoption by the Board upon the closing of the Merger, which occurred on February 10, 2020 (such date, the "Effective Date").

(b) Termination. The Plan will remain in effect until the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date unless terminated by the Board prior to such date. Awards outstanding as of the date the Plan is terminated shall not be affected or impaired by the termination of the Plan.

(c) Amendment of Plan. Subject to any applicable law or government regulation and to the rules of the Applicable Exchange, the Board may amend, alter, or discontinue the Plan, without the approval of the shareholders of the Company, except that shareholder approval shall be required for any amendment that would (i) increase the maximum number of Shares for which Awards may be granted under the Plan or increase the maximum number of Shares that may be delivered pursuant to Incentive Stock Options granted under the Plan; provided, however, that any adjustment under Section 4(c) shall not constitute an increase for purposes of this Section 14(c), or (ii) change the class of Eligible Individuals pursuant to the Plan. No amendment, alteration or discontinuation shall be made which would impair the rights of a Participant with respect to a previously granted Award without such Participant's written consent, except that, unless otherwise provided in any applicable Award Agreement or Individual Agreement, such an amendment may be made in order to comply with applicable law, tax rules, stock exchange rules or accounting rules.

(d) Amendment of Awards. Subject to the restrictions on "repricing" of Options and Stock Appreciation Rights as set forth in Section 6(c), the Committee may unilaterally amend the terms of any Award theretofore granted, prospectively or retroactively; provided that, except as specifically set forth in the Plan or in any applicable Award Agreement, no such amendment shall, without the Participant's written consent, impair the rights of such Participant with respect to an Award, except that, unless otherwise provided in any applicable Award Agreement or Individual Agreement, such an amendment may be made in order to cause the Plan or Award to comply with applicable law, tax rules, stock exchange rules or accounting rules.

SECTION 15. Unfunded Status of Plan

It is presently intended that the Plan constitute an “unfunded” plan for incentive and deferred compensation. The Committee may authorize the creation of trusts or other arrangements to meet the obligations created under the Plan to deliver Shares or make payments; provided, however, that, except as the Committee, in its sole discretion, determines to be necessary or desirable to achieve any non-U.S. tax objective, the existence of such trusts or other arrangements shall be consistent with the “unfunded” status of the Plan.

SECTION 16. Minimum Vesting Conditions

Except for certain limited situations (including death, Disability, retirement, a Change in Control, grants to new hires to replace forfeited compensation, grants representing payment of achieved Performance Goals or that vest upon the satisfaction of Performance Goals or other incentive compensation, Substitute Awards, grants to non-employee directors or replacement of previously Outstanding Awards), all Awards granted under this Plan shall be subject to a minimum vesting period of one year (the “Minimum Vesting Condition”); provided, that such Minimum Vesting Condition will not be required on the Initial Series A LTIP Grant, Initial Series B LTIP Grant or Awards covering, in the aggregate, a number of Shares not to exceed 5% of the maximum Share pool limit set forth in Section 4(a) hereof (subject to adjustment as provided in Section 4(c) hereof).

SECTION 17. Clawback of Certain Benefits

All Awards, other than the Initial Series A LTIP Grant and Initial Series B LTIP Grant, shall be subject to reduction, cancelation, forfeiture, or recoupment to the extent necessary to comply with (a) any clawback, forfeiture, or other similar policy as in effect at the time such Award was granted or (b) as required by applicable law or the listing rules of the Applicable Exchange. Further, the Company may provide in an Award Agreement that if the Participant receives any amount in excess of the amount that the Participant should otherwise have received under the terms of the Award due to a financial restatement, the Participant shall be required to repay any such excess amount to the Company.

SECTION 18. General Provisions

(a) Conditions for Issuance. The Committee may require each person purchasing or receiving Shares pursuant to an Award to represent to and agree with the Company in writing that such person is acquiring the Shares without a view to the distribution thereof. The certificates for such Shares may include any legend which the Committee deems appropriate to reflect any restrictions on transfer. Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan or agreements made pursuant thereto, the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any certificate or certificates for Shares under the Plan prior to fulfillment of all of the following conditions: (i) listing or approval for listing upon notice of issuance of such Shares on the Applicable Exchange; (ii) any registration or other qualification of such Shares of the Company under any state or federal law or regulation, or the maintaining in effect of any such registration or other qualification which the Committee shall, in its absolute discretion upon the advice of counsel, deem necessary or advisable; and (iii) obtaining any other consent, approval, or permit from any state or federal governmental agency which the Committee shall, in its absolute discretion after receiving the advice of counsel, determine to be necessary or advisable.

(b) Additional Compensation Arrangements. Nothing contained in the Plan shall prevent the Company or any Subsidiary or Affiliate from adopting or continuing in effect other compensation arrangements, which may, but need not, provide for the grant of options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, stock units, shares, other types of equity-based awards (subject to shareholder approval if such approval is required) and cash incentive awards, and such arrangements may be either generally applicable or applicable only in specific cases.

(c) No Contract of Employment. The Plan shall not constitute a contract of employment, and adoption of the Plan shall not confer upon any employee any right to continued employment, nor shall it interfere in any way with the right of the Company or any Subsidiary or Affiliate to terminate the employment of any employee at any time.

(d) Required Taxes. No later than the date as of which an amount first becomes includible in the gross income of a Participant for U.S. federal or other income tax purposes (or similar taxes in the applicable non-U.S. jurisdiction) with respect to any Award under the Plan, such Participant shall pay to the Company, or make arrangements satisfactory to the Company regarding the payment of, any federal, state, local or foreign taxes or social security (or similar) contributions of any kind required by law to be withheld with respect to such amount. Unless otherwise determined by the Company and subject to any applicable laws (including any laws that require that such withholding be effected as a repurchase and be permitted only to the extent such a repurchase would be permitted), the Company may require or permit withholding obligations to be settled with Shares, including Shares that is part of the Award that gives rise to the withholding requirement. The obligations of the Company under the Plan shall be conditional on such payment or arrangements, and the Company and its Affiliates shall, to the extent permitted by law, have the right to deduct any such taxes from any payment otherwise due to such Participant, and each Participant shall be deemed to have agreed and consented to such deductions. The Committee may establish such procedures as it deems appropriate, including making irrevocable elections, for the settlement of withholding obligations with Shares.

(e) Deferral Arrangements. Subject to applicable law, the Committee may from time to time establish procedures pursuant to which a Participant may elect to defer receipt of all or a portion of the cash, Shares or other property subject to an Award all on such terms and conditions as the Committee shall determine.

(f) Limitation on Dividend Reinvestment and Dividend Equivalents. Reinvestment of dividends in additional Restricted Stock at the time of any dividend payment, and the payment of Shares with respect to dividends to Participants holding Stock Units Awards, shall only be permissible if sufficient Shares are available under Section 4(a) for such reinvestment or payment (taking into account then outstanding Awards). In the event that sufficient Shares are not available for such reinvestment or payment, such reinvestment or payment shall be made in the form of a grant of Stock Units equal in number to the Shares that would have been obtained by such payment or reinvestment, the terms of which Stock Units shall provide for settlement at the same time as the underlying Restricted Stock or Stock Units in cash and for dividend equivalent reinvestment in further Stock Units on the terms contemplated by this Section 18(f).

(g) Designation of Death Beneficiary. The Committee shall establish such procedures as it deems appropriate for a Participant to designate a beneficiary to whom any amounts payable in the event of such Participant's death are to be paid or by whom any rights of such eligible Individual, after such Participant's death, may be exercised.

(h) Subsidiary Employees. In the case of a grant of an Award to any employee of a Subsidiary of the Company, the Company may, if the Committee so directs, issue or transfer the Shares, if any, covered by the Award to the Subsidiary, for such lawful consideration as the Committee may specify, upon the condition or understanding that the Subsidiary will transfer the Shares to the employee in accordance with the terms of the Award specified by the Committee pursuant to the provisions of the Plan. The Committee may also adopt procedures regarding treatment of any Shares so transferred to a Subsidiary that are subsequently forfeited or canceled.

(i) Governing Law and Interpretation. The Plan and all Awards made and actions taken thereunder shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without reference to principles of conflict of laws. The captions of the Plan are not part of the provisions hereof and shall have no force or effect.

(j) Non-Transferability. Except as otherwise provided by the Committee or as set forth in the applicable Award Agreement, Awards under the Plan are not transferable except by will or by laws of descent and distribution. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event may any Award (or any rights and obligations thereunder) be transferred to any third party in exchange for value unless such transfer is specifically approved by the Company's shareholders; provided that, following vesting, transferability of the LTIP Units and Non-Economic Shares granted in tandem therewith shall be governed by the Operating Agreement, the applicable Award Agreement or, in the case of any Participant who is party to the Shareholder Agreement, the Shareholder Agreement.

(k) Non-Pensionable. Benefits under the Plan shall not be treated as pensionable earnings for purposes of any pension plan maintained by the Company and its Affiliates, unless explicitly provided otherwise in such plan.

(l) Data Protection. By participating in the Plan, the Participant consents to the collection, processing, transmission and storage by the Company, in any form whatsoever, of any data of a professional or personal nature which is necessary for the purposes of administering the Plan. The Company may share such information with any Subsidiary or Affiliate, any trustee, its registrars, brokers, other third-party administrator or any Person who obtains control of the Company or one of its Subsidiaries or divisions.

(m) Right of Offset. Subject to Sections 13(b), 14(c) and 14(d) and except as set forth in any applicable Award Agreement or Individual Agreement, the Company or its Subsidiaries and Affiliates shall have the right to offset, against the obligation to pay amounts or issue Shares to any Participant under the Plan, any outstanding amounts (including, without limitation, travel and entertainment expense, advance account balances, loans, tax withholding amounts paid by the employer or amounts repayable to the Company or its Subsidiaries and Affiliates pursuant to tax equalization, housing, automobile or other employee programs) such Participant then owes to the Company or its Subsidiaries and Affiliates and any amounts the Committee otherwise deems appropriate pursuant to any written tax equalization policy or agreement.

(n) Foreign Employees and Foreign Law Considerations. The Committee may grant Awards to Eligible Individuals who are foreign nationals, who reside outside the United States or who are not compensated from a payroll maintained in the United States, or who are otherwise subject to (or could cause the Company to be subject to) legal or regulatory provisions of countries or jurisdictions outside the United States, on such terms and conditions different from those specified in the Plan as may, in the judgment of the Committee, be necessary or desirable to foster and promote achievement of the purposes of the Plan and comply with such legal or regulatory provisions, and, in furtherance of such purposes, the Committee may make such modifications, amendments, procedures, or sub-plans as may be necessary or advisable to comply with such legal or regulatory provisions (including to avoid triggering a public offering or to maximize tax efficiency).

AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) dated as of February 10, 2020, by and among William Berkman (“Executive”), APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“OpCo”), and Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited (to be known as “Digital Landscape Group, Inc.”) (“PubliCo”), (OpCo and PubliCo being referred to collectively as the “Company”).

WHEREAS, Executive and the Company previously entered into an employment agreement, dated as of November 19, 2019; and

WHEREAS, Executive and the Company desire to amend and restate the employment agreement on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual agreements herein contained, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Services

SECTION 1.01. Term. The initial term of this Agreement shall commence upon the closing of the merger (the “Merger”) contemplated by the merger agreement (the “Merger Agreement”), dated as of the date hereof, by and among PubliCo, OpCo, AP WIP Investments Holdings, LP, Associated Partners, L.P. (“Associated”) and certain other parties (the “Effective Date”), and, unless terminated earlier as set forth herein, shall continue through the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date (the “Initial Term”). The Term (as defined below) shall be automatically extended for successive one (1) year periods upon the expiration of the Initial Term unless Executive or the Company notifies the other party in writing at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term, or of any extension thereof (each such date, a “Notification Date”), of such party’s desire to terminate the Term upon the expiration of the Initial Term or extension thereof, provided, however, that if there occurs a Potential Change in Control (as defined below) at any time during the Term (other than following the date that the Company or Executive has notified the other party in writing of such party’s desire not to extend the Term upon expiration thereof, the Company has provided Executive with notice of termination or Executive has provided notice of resignation, in each case, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement), the Term shall be deemed automatically extended until the one (1)-year anniversary of the Change in Control transaction that relates to such Potential Change in Control, provided that in the event that, prior to consummation of the relevant Change in Control transaction, such transaction is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof or such transaction is abandoned, such automatic extension shall be null and void ab initio. In the event the relevant Change in Control transaction is terminated or abandoned following the time when the Term would have otherwise ended, the Company or the Executive shall be entitled to give written notice to the other party of its desire not to extend the Term during the ninety (90)-day period commencing on the earliest of the date that (1) such transaction is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof or (2) such transaction is abandoned, and the Term shall terminate one hundred twenty (120) days following delivery of such notice, provided that if neither the Company nor Executive delivers notice during such period, then the Term shall automatically continue until the next scheduled expiration date and, thereafter, in accordance with the second sentence of this Section 1.01, the Notification Date shall occur at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Term as then in effect. For purposes of this Agreement, "Term" shall mean the Initial Term, together with any extensions thereof and shall terminate automatically upon termination of Executive's employment with the Company for any reason, provided that, to the extent set forth in Section 6.09, the rights and obligations of the parties shall survive expiration or other termination of the Term. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Agreement shall be null and void ab initio if the Merger Agreement is terminated and the closing of the Merger does not occur or Executive's employment with Associated or one of its affiliates terminates for any reason prior to the closing of the Merger.

SECTION 1.02. Position and Duties. During the Term, Executive shall serve as the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, reporting to the Board of Directors of PubliCo (the "PubliCo Board"). Executive shall perform those duties and have those authorities commensurate with the position of chief executive officer of a company of the size and scope of the Company. Executive shall also serve as a member and Chairman or Co-Chairman of the PubliCo Board and, to the extent that the PubliCo Board has an executive committee, Executive shall be entitled to serve as a member of the executive committee of the PubliCo Board. At the request of the PubliCo Board, and subject to such reasonable conditions as Executive may reasonably establish, Executive agrees to serve as an officer, director or other appointee with respect to any Subsidiary of PubliCo. For the avoidance of doubt, Executive will not be entitled to any additional compensation or benefits from the Company or any of its Subsidiaries with respect to service in such other officer, director or other appointee position.

SECTION 1.03. Time and Effort. During the Term, Executive shall devote substantially all of Executive's business time, attention, skill and efforts (which shall not require Executive to be physically present at any particular work location) to the business and affairs of the Company and its Subsidiaries, except for vacation, holiday and sick leave and periods of illness or incapacity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive shall be permitted to (a) devote a reasonable amount of Executive's time and attention to the wind-down of Associated, consistent with his fiduciary duties to the investors of Associated, (b) serve on nonprofit or government advisory boards and engage in charitable, philanthropic and community activities, (c) actively manage Executive's personal investments and affairs, which may occur during business hours, including by serving as a member of the board of directors of any company set forth on the schedule that Executive delivered to the Company on or prior to the date hereof, or approved by the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof), such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed and (d) continue the activities set forth on the schedule that Executive delivered to the Company on or prior to the date hereof, provided that the outside activities described in clauses (a) through (d) shall not, either individually or in the aggregate, (i) materially interfere with Executive's attention to the Company and its Subsidiaries, including by causing an unreasonable distraction to Executive or by creating any conflict of interest or (ii) result in a breach of any of the restrictive covenants set forth in Article V. Any other outside business activities not expressly described herein shall require the prior written approval of the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized Committee thereof), which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

ARTICLE II

Compensation

SECTION 2.01. Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall, as compensation for the obligations set forth herein and for all services rendered by Executive in any capacity during such employment under this Agreement, including services as an officer, employee or other appointee with respect to the Company, pay Executive a base salary ("Base Salary") at the annual rate of $500,000 per year, payable in accordance with the Company's standard payroll practices as in effect from time to time. The Base Salary shall be reviewed by the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof) on an annual basis for increases but not decreases.

SECTION 2.02. Annual Bonus. Commencing with the first fiscal year during the Term, Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual performance-based cash bonus (the "Annual Bonus") in a targeted amount equal to seventy-five percent (75%) of Executive's base salary (the "Target Bonus"). The actual amount paid will depend on the degree to which annual performance goal(s), established by the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof), are determined by the PubliCo Board (or such committee) to have been achieved. Solely with respect to PubliCo's 2020 fiscal year, the Annual Bonus shall be guaranteed at no less than $375,000, provided that Executive remains employed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries or affiliates, through the end of PubliCo's 2020 fiscal year to which the Annual Bonus relates. The Annual Bonus shall be paid at the time as is customary for other senior executives of the Company, but in any event in the fiscal year following the end of the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates, but in no event later than the thirtieth (30th) day after the date on which the PubliCo Board approves the Company's consolidated audited financial statements for the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates.

SECTION 2.03. Initial LTIP Award. On the Effective Date, OpCo and PubliCo, as applicable, shall grant Executive an initial award (collectively, the "Initial LTIP Award") of (a) profits interests in OpCo ("LTIP Units") and (b) voting shares of PubliCo's stock that have no economic rights granted in tandem with the LTIP Units ("Tandem Shares"), which in each case, following vesting and equitization of such LTIP Units and Tandem Shares, are exchangeable, as a whole, for shares of PubliCo stock that have both voting and economic rights pursuant to PubliCo's 2020 Equity Incentive Plan, as may be amended from time to time. The Initial LTIP Award shall consist of: (i) 693,017 time-based Series A LTIP Units and an equal number of time-based shares of Class B Common Stock, (ii) 693,016 performance-based Series A LTIP Units and an equal number of performance-based shares of Class B Common Stock and (iii) 1,236,033 Series B LTIP Units and an equal number of Series B Founder Preferred Shares. The Initial LTIP Award shall be subject to an award agreement, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, that shall be entered into with effect as of the Effective Date and shall not differ from Exhibit A, other than as a result of inclusion of the Grant Date and the LTIP Notional Amount (each, as defined in Exhibit A). For purposes of this Agreement, the terms "Series A LTIP Units", "Class B Common Stock", "Series B LTIP Units" and "Series B Founder Preferred Shares" shall each have the definitions as set forth in OpCo's First Amended and Restated Limited Liability Agreement, as may be amended from time to time (the "OpCo Operating Agreement").

ARTICLE III

Benefits and Other Matters

SECTION 3.01. Benefit Plans. During the Term, Executive and Executive's eligible family members shall be entitled to participate in any benefit plans (excluding severance plans, which is otherwise addressed in this Agreement) offered by the Company as in effect from time to time (collectively, "Benefit Plans"), on the same basis generally made available to other senior executives of the Company (except to the extent necessary to reflect that Executive is a Member (as defined in the OpCo Operating Agreement) of OpCo) and to the extent Executive and Executive's family members may be eligible to do so, subject to the terms of any such Benefit Plan. Executive understands that any Benefit Plan may be terminated or amended from time to time by the Company in its discretion.

SECTION 3.02. Vacation. During the Term, Executive shall be entitled to thirty (30) days of vacation per calendar year in accordance with the Company's vacation policies as in effect from time to time. Any accrued, but unused vacation shall not be paid out upon Executive's termination of employment, except as may be required by applicable state law.

SECTION 3.03. Director and Officer Indemnification. During the Term and thereafter, the Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, PubliCo's First Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association or the OpCo Operating Agreement (and any successor governing documents, each, as may be amended from time to time (collectively, the "Governing Documents")), promptly indemnify Executive against all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in defending legal proceedings) incurred by Executive in connection with any actual, threatened or reasonably anticipated claim, suit, action or proceeding arising in connection with the execution, discharge or exercise of Executive's duties as an officer or director of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and/or the exercise of Executive's powers in Executive's capacity as an officer or director of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise in relation thereto, provided, however, in no event shall Executive be indemnified or held harmless for liability arising out of Executive's fraud. Such expenses shall be promptly advanced to Executive to the fullest extent permitted by law or the Governing Documents, provided that if it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction without further right of appeal that Executive is not entitled to such indemnification, reimbursement or advancement, then Executive shall promptly return all such amounts to the Company. The Company shall also provide and maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage for Executive's benefit during Executive's service with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in any capacity and for a period six (6) years thereafter, provided that such coverage shall be no less favorable than the coverage provided to other members of the PubliCo Board.

SECTION 3.04. Business Expenses. The Company shall promptly reimburse Executive for all reasonable and customary out-of-pocket business expenses incurred by Executive in connection with Executive's service hereunder, in accordance with the Company's policies as may be in effect from time to time.

ARTICLE IV

Termination

SECTION 4.01. Non-Duplication of Severance. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or elsewhere, in no event shall Executive be entitled to severance benefits under any Company Plan (as defined below) that are duplicative of severance benefits provided under this Agreement.

SECTION 4.02. Notice of Termination. The Company shall provide at least sixty (60) days' written notice for any involuntary termination of Executive's employment by the Company other than for Cause (as defined below), death or Disability (as defined below), and Executive shall provide at least sixty (60) days' written notice for a resignation without Good Reason (as defined below), provided that, in the case of such involuntary termination by the Company, the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof) shall have the discretion to provide pay in lieu of notice. Except as set forth in this Section 4.02, any non-extension of the Term by the Company (other than for Cause) pursuant to notice from the Company under Section 1.01 prior to the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date shall be deemed an involuntary termination of Executive's employment by the Company other than for Cause, death or Disability for all purposes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Company elects, pursuant to Section 1.01, not to extend the Term, effective on or after the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date, the Company may elect to either (a) provide Executive with the severance and other separation benefits pursuant to Section 4.05 or (b) release Executive from his covenants under Sections 5.03 and 5.04 (non-solicitation and non-competition), in which case the Company shall not be required to provide Executive with any severance or other termination benefits pursuant to Section 4.05 (other than the Accrued Benefits), provided that the Company must provide written notice to Executive of such election no later than ninety (90) days prior to the termination of the Term, provided further, that this sentence shall not apply if Executive would otherwise be entitled to severance and termination benefits pursuant to Section 4.06, rather than pursuant to Section 4.05, or for the period that the Term is automatically extended beyond the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date in connection with a Potential Change in Control as set forth in Section 1.01.

SECTION 4.03. Termination by the Company for Cause or by Executive without Good Reason. If the Company terminates Executive's employment for Cause, or if Executive terminates Executive's employment with the Company without Good Reason, no severance will be payable to Executive, provided that Executive shall be entitled to payment of accrued and vested compensation and benefits, including vested LTIP Units and Tandem Shares, accrued base salary, reimbursement of unpaid business expenses in accordance with Section 3.04 and any other or additional benefits to which Executive may then or thereafter be entitled under the then-applicable terms of any applicable Company Plan (as defined below) (collectively, the "Accrued Benefits").

SECTION 4.04. Termination for Disability or Death. Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate immediately upon Executive's death or Disability. In the event of a termination due to death or Disability, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive or Executive's estate, as the case may be, shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to the effectiveness and irrevocability of the Release (as defined below):

(a) payment of a pro rata portion of the Annual Bonus in respect of the fiscal year in which such termination occurs based on the number of days elapsed in such year through the effective date of Executive's termination of employment (the "Effective Termination Date") and actual achievement of applicable performance goals, except that any performance goals based on Executive's personal performance shall be treated as attained at no less than the target level, and any other performance goals shall be deemed achieved at least at the level applicable to similarly situated active employees of the Company, and paid when annual bonuses are paid (or, if earlier, due to be paid) to other senior executives of the Company (the "Pro Rata Bonus Payment");

(b) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year in which the Effective Termination Date occurs, paid when bonuses are paid (or, if earlier, due to be paid) to other senior executives of the Company;

(c) payment of the monthly COBRA premiums that Executive would be required to pay to continue his group health coverage as in effect on the date of his termination for himself and, if applicable, his eligible covered dependents for a period of twenty-four (24) months following the Effective Termination Date, which payment shall be made regardless of whether Executive elects COBRA continuation coverage (the "COBRA Equivalent Payment"), payable in equal biweekly installments in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices over twenty-four (24) months following the Effective Termination Date, provided that any installments that would otherwise have been paid prior to satisfaction of the release condition set forth in Section 4.07 shall be accumulated and paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following satisfaction of such condition, provided further that, to the extent necessary to comply with Section 409A (as defined below), if the period during which the Release must be executed and become irrevocable spans two (2) calendar years, payment of installments shall commence in the second calendar year, and the timing of such installments may be subject to further restrictions under Section 409A as set forth in Section 6.15 of this Agreement;

(d) full accelerated vesting of all outstanding Series B LTIP Units and related Tandem Shares; and

(e) unless otherwise provided in the applicable award agreement, the time-based vesting conditions for all other outstanding LTIP Units and related Tandem Shares and other Company equity-based awards shall be deemed satisfied based on the number of full or partial years that have elapsed between the applicable

grant date and the Effective Termination Date, plus one (1) additional year of service, provided, however, that vesting shall not occur for any portion of the performance-based awards unless and until the applicable performance goals are satisfied (or deemed satisfied) within the period set forth in the relevant award agreement and, to the extent that such performance goals are not so satisfied (or deemed satisfied), such awards shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration upon expiration of the relevant performance period.

SECTION 4.05. Non-Change-in-Control Termination. If Executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause, death or Disability, or by Executive with Good Reason, in each case other than within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to the effectiveness and irrevocability of the Release:

(a) two (2) times the sum of (x) the Base Salary and (y) the Annual Bonus earned in respect of the fiscal year ending immediately prior to the Effective Termination Date (the "Prior Year Bonus"), payable in equal biweekly installments in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices over twenty-four (24) months following the Effective Termination Date, provided that any installments that would otherwise have been paid prior to satisfaction of the release condition set forth in Section 4.07 shall be accumulated and paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following satisfaction of such condition, provided further that, to the extent necessary to comply with Section 409A, if the period during which the Release must be executed and become irrevocable spans two (2) calendar years, payment of installments shall commence in the second calendar year, and the timing of such installments may be subject to further restrictions under Section 409A as set forth in Section 6.15 of this Agreement;

(b) the Pro Rata Bonus Payment, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(a);

(c) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year of termination, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(b);

(d) payment of the COBRA Equivalent Payment, paid at the times set forth in Section 4.04(c); and

(e) full accelerated vesting of the Initial LTIP Award (to the extent then outstanding), with all other LTIP Units and other Company equity-based awards treated in accordance with the applicable award agreements.

If, following the Effective Termination Date and prior to a Change in Control, Executive breaches any of his obligations pursuant to the restrictive covenants set forth in Section 5.02 or Section 5.03, and such breach results in significant reputational or monetary harm to the Company, then Executive shall forfeit his right to receive any unpaid amounts pursuant to Section 4.05(a), (b) and (d), and Executive shall promptly repay to the Company any such amount previously paid to Executive pursuant to Sections 4.05(a), (b) and (d), provided, however, that the Company shall provide written notice to Executive of an alleged breach of any such restrictive covenants within thirty (30) days of such alleged breach (or such later date as the PubliCo Board could reasonably have been expected to know of such a breach), and Executive shall have thirty (30) days to cure such alleged breach, if curable.

SECTION 4.06. Change-in-Control Termination. If Executive's employment is terminated by the Company (x) in an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination or (y) other than for Cause, death or Disability within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, or is terminated by Executive with Good Reason within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to effectiveness of the Release:

- (a) two (2) times the sum of (x) the Base Salary and (y) the Prior Year Bonus, payable in a lump sum within sixty-five (65) days following the Effective Termination Date (or, if payment on such date is not permitted by Section 409A, then at the times set forth in Section 4.05(a));
- (b) payment of a pro rata portion of the Target Bonus in respect of the year in which the Effective Termination Date occurs, paid in a lump sum within sixty-five (65) days following the Effective Termination Date;
- (c) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year of termination, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(b);
- (d) payment of the COBRA Equivalent within sixty-five (65) days of the Effective Termination Date (or, if payment on such date is not permitted by Section 409A, then at the times set forth in Section 4.04(c)); and
- (e) full accelerated vesting of all outstanding LTIP Units, Tandem Shares and other Company equity-based awards, unless otherwise set forth in the applicable award agreements.

If, following a termination of Executive's employment pursuant to Section 4.05, such termination of employment becomes an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination, then Executive shall be entitled to a lump-sum cash payment, payable within sixty-five (65) days after the Change in Control, in an aggregate amount equal to the excess, if any, of (x) the aggregate amount set forth in Sections 4.06(a) and 4.06(d) less (y) the aggregate amount previously paid to Executive pursuant to Sections 4.05(a) and 4.05(d), provided that to the extent that any portion of such amount is not permitted to be paid within sixty-five (65) days after the Change in Control as a result of Section 409A, then such portion shall be paid at the time set forth in Section 4.05(a) or 4.05(d), as applicable. In the event that Executive becomes entitled to payments pursuant to Section 4.06 as a result of an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination, there shall be no duplication of payment under both Sections 4.05 and 4.06.

SECTION 4.07. Release. Payments and benefits described in Sections 4.04, 4.05 and 4.06, other than the Accrued Benefits, are conditioned upon Executive's or Executive's estate's, as the case may be, execution and delivery of a release of claims substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Release") no later than fifty (50) days following the Effective Termination Date and not revoking the Release during the period specified therein. In the event of Executive's death or a judicial determination of his incapacity, references in this Agreement to Executive shall be deemed (where appropriate) to be references to his heir(s), beneficiary(ies), estate, executor(s) or other legal representative(s).

Except in the case of clause (i), a purported termination of employment by the Company for Cause shall not be effective as a termination for Cause unless (A) the Company first furnishes written notice to Executive of the circumstance(s) alleged to constitute Cause within thirty (30) days following the date the PubliCo Board first becomes aware of such circumstance(s), (B) Executive has not cured those circumstance(s) within ninety (90) days following Executive's receipt of such written notice from the Company and (C) the Company terminates Executive's employment

Executive acknowledges that the Company is entitled to protect and preserve the going concern value of the Company and its business and trade secrets to the extent permitted by law. Executive acknowledges that the Company's business is international in scope.

Executive acknowledges and agrees that the restrictions imposed upon Executive under this Agreement are reasonable and necessary for the protection of the Company's goodwill, confidential information, trade secrets and customer relationships, and that the restrictions set forth in this Agreement shall not prevent Executive from earning a livelihood without violating any provision of this Agreement. The parties agree that there will be no restrictions on Executive's post-employment activities, or on Executive's right to terminate his employment with PubliCo and OpCo, other than as expressly set forth in this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything elsewhere in this Agreement to the contrary, for purposes of this Section 5.01 and Sections 5.03, 5.04, 5.05, 5.08, 5.09 and 5.10, references to the Company shall be deemed to include its Subsidiaries.

SECTION 5.02. Consideration to Executive. In consideration of the Company's entering into this Agreement and the Company's obligations hereunder and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and acknowledging hereby that the Company would not have entered into this Agreement without the covenants contained in this Article V, Executive hereby agrees to be bound by the provisions and covenants contained in this Article V.

SECTION 5.03. Employee Non-Solicitation and Customer and Business Relationships Noninterference. Except as set forth in the final sentence of Section 4.02, Executive agrees that, unless otherwise specifically permitted by the PubliCo Board in writing, for the period commencing on the Effective Date and terminating twenty-four (24) months after termination of the Term (such period, the "Restricted Period"), Executive shall not, directly or indirectly: (a) solicit any Person who (i) is or was a customer of, or lessor to, the Company or (ii) is a prospective customer of, or prospective lessor to, the Company whom, as of termination of the Term, Executive is aware the Company was actively pursuing to (A) purchase any goods or services, or to enter into leases, in competition with the Company in the Business (as defined below), from anyone other than the Company or (B) cease doing business with the Company; (b) other than on behalf of the Company, solicit, recruit or hire any employee of the Company or any individual who was, at any time within one (1) year prior to termination of the Term, employed by the Company; or (c) solicit or encourage any employee of the Company to leave the employment of the Company, in each case of clauses (b) and (c), except for Executive's administrative assistant(s) or any former employee of the Company whose employment was terminated by the Company involuntarily, other than for cause.

SECTION 5.06. Non-Disclosure. During the Term and at all times thereafter, except as otherwise specifically provided in Section 5.07, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, disclose or cause or permit to be disclosed, to any Person whatsoever, or utilize or cause or permit to be utilized, by any Person whatsoever, any Confidential Information acquired pursuant to Executive's employment with the Company (whether acquired prior to or subsequent to the execution of this Agreement) under this Agreement or otherwise.

SECTION 5.07. Permitted Disclosure. Nothing in this Agreement or elsewhere shall prohibit Executive from: (a) contacting, filing a claim with, or cooperating in an investigation by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Securities Exchange Commission, National Labor Relations Board, Department of Labor, Department of Justice, Occupational Safety and Health Administration or other federal, state or local agency; (b) exercising any legally protected whistleblower rights (including pursuant to Rule 21F under the Exchange Act); (c) utilizing and disclosing information, including the Confidential Information, in connection with discharging Executive's duties to the Company; (d) disclosing Confidential Information to the extent Executive (i) is compelled to disclose such Confidential Information or else stand liable for contempt or suffer other censure or penalty or is required to disclose by judicial or administrative process, or by other requirements of applicable law or regulation or any governmental authority (including any applicable rule, regulation or order of a self-governing authority, such as the London Stock Exchange, the New York Stock Exchange or NASDAQ), provided that, where and to the extent legally permitted and reasonably practicable, Executive shall (A) give the Company reasonable notice of any such requirement and, to the extent protective measures consistent with such requirement are available, the opportunity to seek appropriate protective measures and (B) cooperate with Company in attempting to obtain such protective measures or (ii) discloses such information in connection with any litigation or arbitration between the Company and Executive; (e) disclosing documents and information in confidence to an attorney or other professional for the purposes of securing professional advice; (f) retaining, and using appropriately, documents and information relating to Executive's personal rights and obligations; or (g) disclosing Executive's notice obligations, and post-employment restrictions, in confidence in connection with any potential new employment or business opportunity.

SECTION 5.08. Records. All memoranda, books, records, documents, papers, plans, information, letters and other data relating to Confidential Information or the business and customer accounts of the Company, whether prepared by Executive or otherwise, coming into Executive's possession shall be and remain the exclusive property of the Company and Executive shall not, during the Term or thereafter, directly or indirectly assert any interest or property rights therein. Upon Executive's termination of employment with the Company for any reason, Executive will immediately return to the Company all such memoranda, books, records, documents, papers, plans, information, letters and other data, and all copies thereof or therefrom, and Executive will not retain, or cause or permit to be retained, any copies or other embodiments of the materials so returned. Executive further agrees that he will not retain or use for Executive's account at any time any trade names, trademark or other proprietary business designation used or owned in connection with the business of the Company.

SECTION 5.09. Mutual Non-Disparagement. (a) Executive shall not, at any time (whether prior to or following the Effective Termination Date), denigrate, ridicule, disparage or make any statement with the intent to criticize the Company or, with respect to their relationship with PubliCo, any of PubliCo's officers or directors in their capacity as officers or directors of PubliCo, and (b) the Company and PubliCo's officers and directors shall not, at any time (whether prior to or following the Effective Termination Date), denigrate, ridicule, disparage or make any statement with the intent to criticize Executive. This Section 5.09 shall not prohibit (i) Executive, the Company or PubliCo's officers or directors, individually or as a group, from testifying truthfully under oath pursuant to a lawful court order or subpoena or in connection with any litigation or arbitration between Executive and the Company or any of PubliCo's officers or directors or (ii) Executive from making the permitted disclosures set forth in Section 5.07. Furthermore, if either Executive or the Company (or any officer or director of PubliCo) makes any statement in breach of this Section 5.09, then a truthful response to such statement by the other party shall not be considered a breach of such party's obligations pursuant to this Section 5.09.

SECTION 5.10. Specific Performance. Executive agrees that any material breach by Executive or the Company of any of the provisions of this Article V may cause irreparable harm to the other party that could not be made whole by monetary damages and that, in the event of such a breach, the breaching party shall waive the defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate, and the other party shall be entitled to seek to specifically enforce the terms and provisions of this Article V without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting any bond or providing prior notice, in any court of competent jurisdiction, in addition to any other remedy such party may obtain through arbitration in accordance with Section 6.07.

SECTION 5.11. Proprietary Rights.

(a) Work Product. Executive acknowledges and agrees that all right, title, and interest in and to all writings, works of authorship, technology, inventions, discoveries, processes, techniques, methods, ideas, concepts, research, proposals, materials, and all other work product of any nature whatsoever, that are created, prepared, produced, authored, edited, amended, conceived, or reduced to practice by Executive individually or jointly with others during the Term and that specifically relate to the Business or specifically result from work performed by Executive for the Company, all rights and claims related to the foregoing, and all printed, physical and electronic copies, and other tangible embodiments thereof (collectively, "Work Product"), as well as any and all rights relating thereto in and to U.S. and foreign (i) patents, patent disclosures and inventions (whether patentable or not), (ii) trademarks, service marks, trade dress, trade names, logos, corporate names, and domain names, and other similar designations of source or origin, together with the goodwill symbolized by any of the foregoing, (iii) copyrights and copyrightable works (including computer programs), mask works, and rights in data and databases, (iv) trade secrets, know-how, and other confidential information, and (v) all other intellectual property rights relating thereto, in each case whether registered or unregistered and including all registrations and applications for, and renewals and extensions of, such rights, all improvements thereto and all similar or equivalent rights or forms of protection in any part of the world (collectively, "Intellectual Property Rights"), shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company.

For purposes of this Agreement, Work Product may include, but is not limited to, Company information, including plans, publications, research, strategies, techniques, agreements, documents, contracts, terms of agreements, negotiations, know-how, computer programs, computer applications, software design, web design, work in process, databases, manuals, results, developments, reports, graphics, drawings, sketches, market studies, formulae, notes, communications, algorithms, product plans, product designs, styles, models, audiovisual programs, inventions, unpublished patent applications, original works of authorship, discoveries, experimental processes, experimental results, specifications, customer information, client information, customer lists, client lists, manufacturing information, marketing information, advertising information, and sales information.

(b) Work Made for Hire; Assignment. Executive acknowledges that, by reason of being employed by the Company at the relevant times, to the extent permitted by law, all of the Work Product consisting of copyrightable subject matter is “work made for hire” as defined in 17 U.S.C. § 101 and such copyrights are therefore owned by the Company. To the extent that the foregoing does not apply, Executive hereby irrevocably assigns to the Company, for no additional consideration, Executive’s entire right, title, and interest in and to all Work Product and Intellectual Property Rights therein, including the right to sue, counterclaim, and recover for all past, present, and future infringement, misappropriation, or dilution thereof, and all rights corresponding thereto throughout the world. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to reduce or limit the Company’s rights, title, or interest in any Work Product or Intellectual Property Rights therein so as to be less in any respect than that the Company would have had in the absence of this Agreement.

(c) Further Assurances; Power of Attorney. During and after the Term, Executive agrees, upon reasonable request and subject to such reasonable conditions as he may reasonably establish, to cooperate with the Company to (a) apply for, obtain, perfect, and transfer to the Company the Work Product as well as any and all Intellectual Property Rights in the Work Product in any jurisdiction in the world; and (b) maintain, protect and enforce the same, including, without limitation, giving testimony and executing and delivering to the Company any and all applications, oaths, declarations, affidavits, waivers, assignments, and other documents and instruments as shall be requested by the Company. Executive hereby irrevocably grants the Company power of attorney to execute and deliver any such documents on Executive’s behalf in Executive’s name and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to transfer the Work Product to the Company and further the transfer, prosecution, issuance, and maintenance of all Intellectual Property Rights therein, to the full extent permitted by law, if Executive does not promptly cooperate with the Company’s request (without limiting the rights the Company shall have in such circumstances by operation of law). The power of attorney is coupled with an interest and shall not be affected by Executive’s subsequent incapacity.

(d) No License. Executive understands that this Agreement does not, and shall not be construed to, grant Executive any license or right of any nature with respect to any Work Product, Intellectual Property Rights therein, software, or other tools made available to Executive by the Company.

Miscellaneous

SECTION 6.01. Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assignable by Executive. The parties agree that any attempt by Executive to delegate Executive's duties hereunder shall be null and void. This Agreement may not be assigned or transferred by PubliCo or OpCo to any Person other than a successor to all, or substantially all, of the business and assets of the assignor/transferor. Upon such assignment or transfer, the rights and obligations of the assignor/transferor hereunder shall become the rights and obligations of such successor. As used in this Agreement, the term "the Company" shall mean, (a) OpCo and PubliCo, collectively, as hereinbefore defined in the recital to this Agreement, (b) to the extent provided in Section 5.01, their respective Subsidiaries, and (c) any permitted assignee to which this Agreement is assigned.

SECTION 6.02. Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Company and its permitted successors. The Company shall assign its rights and obligations hereunder to any permitted successor. Upon any such assignment, the Company shall cause such successor expressly to assume such obligations, and such rights and obligations shall inure to and be binding upon any such successor.

SECTION 6.03. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the award agreement in respect of the Initial LTIP Award, constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the parties and with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby and the subject matter hereof and supersedes and replaces any and all prior agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, written or oral, express or implied and/or whenever and howsoever made, directly or indirectly relating to the subject matter hereof, including the employment agreement, dated as of November 19, 2019, that Executive previously entered into with the Company and PubliCo.

SECTION 6.04. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended, modified, superseded or altered, and the terms and covenants hereof may be waived, only by written instrument executed by each of the parties hereto, or in the case of a waiver, by the party waiving compliance. The failure of any party at any time or times to require performance of any provision hereof shall in no manner affect such party's right at a later time to enforce the same. No waiver by any party of the breach of any term or covenant contained in this Agreement, in any one or more instances, shall be deemed to be, or construed as, a further or continuing waiver of any such breach, or a waiver of the breach of any other term or covenant contained in this Agreement.

SECTION 6.05. Notice. All documents, notices, requests, demands and other communications that are required or permitted to be delivered or given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly delivered or given when received.

SECTION 6.06. Each of the parties may change the address to which notices under this Agreement shall be sent by providing written notice to the other in the manner specified above.

SECTION 6.07. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution.

(a) Except as otherwise required by applicable law, this Agreement shall be governed, interpreted and enforced in accordance with its express terms, and otherwise in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to principles of conflicts of laws.

(b) Except to the extent otherwise provided in Section 5.10 with respect to certain claims for injunctive relief, any dispute or controversy arising under or relating to this Agreement, Executive's employment hereunder or any termination thereof (whether based on contract or tort or upon any federal, state or local statute, including but not limited to claims asserted under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, any state Fair Employment Practices Act and/or the Americans with Disability Act) shall be submitted to JAMS and resolved through confidential arbitration in accordance with the JAMS Employment Arbitration Rules & Procedures. Any arbitration hearings shall be conducted in New York, NY before a single arbitrator (rather than a panel of arbitrators) with substantial experience in the matters in dispute. The resolution of any such dispute or controversy by the arbitrator shall be final and binding, except to the extent otherwise provided by applicable law. Judgment upon any award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The Company shall promptly pay all administrative costs and arbitration fees, and all legal fees, court costs and other costs and expenses incurred by Executive in connection with any claim or dispute that is subject to arbitration under this Section 6.07(b) or that is brought pursuant to Section 5.10, provided that if the Company substantially prevails with respect to such claim or dispute, Executive, shall promptly repay any fees and costs (other than fees and other charges of JAMS, the American Arbitration Association, or the arbitrator) incurred by Executive, and paid by the Company, in connection with any claim as to which the Company has substantially prevailed. If at the time any dispute or controversy arises with respect to this Agreement, JAMS is not in business or is no longer providing arbitration services, then any arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

SECTION 6.08. Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or condition of this Agreement is held by a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, then such provision, covenant or condition shall, as to such jurisdiction, be modified or restricted to the extent necessary to make such provision valid, binding and enforceable, or, if such provision cannot be modified or restricted, then such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be deemed to be excised from this Agreement and any such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability with respect to such provision shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction, and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

SECTION 6.09. Survival. The rights and obligations of the Company and Executive under the provisions of this Agreement, including Sections 3.03 and 3.04 and Articles IV, V and VI, shall survive and remain binding and enforceable, notwithstanding any termination of the Term, to the extent necessary to preserve the intended benefits of such provisions.

SECTION 6.10. Cooperation. During the three-year period following termination of the Term, Executive shall provide Executive's reasonable cooperation to the Company and its Subsidiaries in connection with any suit, action or proceeding (or any appeal therefrom) that relates to events occurring during Executive's employment with the Company and its Subsidiaries and as to which Executive has relevant knowledge, other than a suit between Executive, on the one hand, and the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, on the other hand, provided that any such cooperation shall be subject to Executive's other personal and professional commitments, and the Company shall promptly pay (or promptly reimburse) any expenses reasonably incurred by Executive in connection with such cooperation.

SECTION 6.11. Representations.

(a) Executive hereby represents to the Company that the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Executive and the Company and the performance by Executive of Executive's duties hereunder shall not constitute a breach of, or otherwise contravene, or be prevented, interfered with or hindered by, the terms of any employment agreement or other agreement or policy to which Executive is a party or otherwise bound.

(b) The Company hereby represents to Executive that it is fully authorized, by any Person or body whose authorization is required, to enter into, and carry out the terms of, this Agreement, and that its ability to enter into, and carry out the terms of, this Agreement is not limited by any Company Plan.

SECTION 6.12. No Waiver. The provisions of this Agreement may be waived only in writing signed by the party or parties entitled to the benefit thereof. A waiver or any breach or failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not in any way affect, limit or waive a party's rights hereunder at any time to enforce strict compliance thereafter with every provision of this Agreement.

SECTION 6.13. No Offset. The Company's obligation to pay Executive the amounts, and to provide the benefits, hereunder shall not be subject to set-off, counterclaim or recoupment of amounts owed by Executive to the Company. In addition, there shall be no offset against any such payments or benefits for any amounts or benefits earned by Executive, after the Effective Termination Date, from subsequent employment or otherwise.

SECTION 6.14. Withholding Taxes. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state, local and foreign taxes as may be required to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation.

SECTION 6.15. Section 409A. It is intended that the provisions of this Agreement comply with, or are exempt from, Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and any related regulations or other pronouncements thereunder ("Section 409A"), and all provisions of this Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A.

(a) Neither Executive nor any of his creditors or beneficiaries shall have the right to subject any deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) payable under this Agreement or under any other plan, policy, arrangement, corporate governance document, or agreement of or with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (this Agreement and such other plans, policies, arrangements, documents, and agreements, the "Company Plans") to any anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, attachment or garnishment. Except as permitted under Section 409A, any deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) payable to Executive or for Executive's benefit under any Company Plan may not be reduced by, or offset against, any amount owing by Executive to the Company.

(b) If, at the time of Executive's separation from service (within the meaning of Section 409A), (i) Executive shall be a specified employee (within the meaning of Section 409A and using the identification methodology selected by the Company from time to time) and (ii) the Company shall make a good faith determination that an amount payable under a Company Plan constitutes deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) the payment of which is required to be delayed pursuant to the six-month delay rule set forth in Section 409A in order to avoid taxes or penalties under Section 409A, then the Company shall not pay such amount on the otherwise scheduled payment date but shall instead accumulate such amount and pay it on the first business day after such six-month period.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement or any Company Plan to the contrary, in light of the uncertainty with respect to the proper application of Section 409A, the Company and Executive shall cooperate in good faith to make amendments to any Company Plan as are necessary or desirable to avoid the imposition of taxes or penalties under Section 409A. In any case, Executive is solely responsible and liable for the satisfaction of all taxes and penalties that may be imposed on Executive or for Executive's account in connection with any Company Plan (including any taxes and penalties under Section 409A), and the Company shall not have any obligation to indemnify or otherwise hold Executive harmless from any or all of such taxes or penalties, in each case, other than any taxes or penalties resulting from a breach by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries of the terms of any Company Plan.

(d) For purposes of Section 409A, each payment hereunder will be deemed to be a separate payment as permitted under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-2(b)(2)(iii). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Executive shall not be entitled to any payments or benefits payable hereunder as a result of Executive's termination of employment with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that constitute "deferred compensation" under Section 409A unless such termination of employment qualifies as a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 409A. Executive shall have no duties following the Effective Termination Date that are inconsistent with Executive having had a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 409A on or before the Effective Termination Date.

(e) Except as specifically permitted by Section 409A, any benefits and reimbursements provided to Executive under this Agreement during any calendar year shall not affect any benefits and reimbursements to be provided to Executive under this Agreement in any other calendar year, and the right to such benefits and reimbursements cannot be liquidated or exchanged for any other benefit. Furthermore, reimbursement payments shall be made to Executive as soon as practicable following the date that the applicable expense is incurred, but in no event later than the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the underlying expense is incurred.

SECTION 6.16. Limitation on Certain Payments. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement:

(a) In the event it is determined by an independent nationally recognized public accounting firm, which is engaged and paid for by the Company prior to the consummation of any transaction constituting a 280G Change in Control (which for purposes of this Section 6.16 shall mean a change in ownership or control as determined in accordance with the regulations promulgated under Section 280G of the Code), which accounting firm shall in no event be the accounting firm for the entity seeking to effectuate the 280G Change in Control (the “Accountant”), which determination shall be certified by the Accountant and set forth in a certificate delivered to Executive not less than ten business days prior to the 280G Change in Control setting forth in reasonable detail the basis of the Accountant’s calculations and determinations (including any assumptions that the Accountant made in performing the calculations), that part or all of the consideration, compensation or benefits (collectively, “Benefits”) to be paid to Executive under this Agreement constitute “parachute payments” under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code, then, if the aggregate present value of such parachute payments (determined in accordance with Section 280G of the Code), singularly or together with the aggregate present value of any consideration, compensation or benefits to be paid to Executive under any other plan, arrangement or agreement which constitute “parachute payments” (collectively, the “Parachute Amount”) exceeds the maximum amount that would not give rise to any liability under Section 4999 of the Code, Benefits constituting “parachute payments” which would otherwise be paid or provided to Executive or for Executive’s benefit shall be reduced to the maximum amount that would not give rise to any liability under Section 4999 of the Code (the “Reduced Amount”), provided that such Benefits shall not be so reduced if the Accountant determines that without such reduction Executive would be entitled to receive and retain, on a net after-tax present-value basis (including, without limitation, any excise taxes payable under Section 4999 of the Code), Benefits whose value is greater than the Benefits, valued on a net after-tax present-value basis, that Executive would be entitled to retain upon receipt of the Reduced Amount, provided further that such reduction in Benefits shall be first applied to reduce any cash payments that Executive would otherwise be entitled to receive (whether pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise) and shall thereafter be applied to reduce other payments and benefits, in each case in reverse order beginning with the payments or benefits that are to be paid the furthest in time after the date of such determination, unless, to the extent permitted by Section 409A, Executive elects to have the reduction in payments applied in a different order, provided that, in no event, may such payments or benefits be reduced in a manner that would result in subjecting Executive to additional taxation under Section 409A and, provided further, that in no event shall any reduction pursuant to this Section 6.16(b) be applied to reduce any Series B LTIP Units that Executive holds. For the avoidance of doubt, this provision shall reduce the Parachute Amount otherwise payable to Executive, only if doing so would place Executive in a better net after-tax present-value economic position as compared with not doing so (taking into account any excise taxes payable in respect of such Parachute Amount). In connection with making determinations under this Section 6.16, the Accountant shall take into account any positions to mitigate any excise taxes payable under Section 4999 of the Code, such as the value of any reasonable compensation for services to be rendered by Executive before or after the 280G Change in Control, including any amounts payable to Executive following Executive’s termination of employment hereunder with respect to any non-competition provisions that may apply to Executive, and the Company shall cooperate in the valuation of any such services, including any non-competition provisions.

(b) If the determination made pursuant to Section 6.16(a) results in a reduction of the payments that would otherwise be paid to Executive except for the application of Section 6.16(a), the Company shall promptly give Executive notice of such determination and of the reductions to be applied. Within five (5) business days following such determination, the Company shall pay or distribute to Executive, or for Executive's benefit, such amounts as are then due to Executive under this Agreement or any other Company Plan and shall promptly pay or distribute to Executive, or for Executive's benefit, in the future such amounts as become due to Executive under this Agreement.

(c) As a result of the uncertainty in the application of Sections 280G and 4999 of the Code at the time of a determination under this Section 6.16, it is possible that amounts will have been paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive's benefit pursuant to this Agreement which should not have been so paid or distributed (each, an "Overpayment") or that additional amounts which will have not been paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive's benefit pursuant to this Agreement could have been so paid or distributed without incurring tax under Section 4999 of the Code (each, an "Underpayment"), in each case, consistent with the calculation of the Reduced Amount hereunder. In the event that the Accountant, based upon the assertion of a deficiency by the Internal Revenue Service against the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or Executive, on which the Accountant believes the Internal Revenue Service should prevail, determines that an Overpayment has been made, any such Overpayment paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive's benefit shall be repaid by Executive to the Company or such Subsidiary together with interest at the applicable federal rate provided for in Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code, provided, however, that no such repayment shall be required if and to the extent such deemed repayment would not either reduce the amount on which Executive is subject to tax under Sections 1 and 4999 of the Code or generate a refund of such taxes. In the event that the Accountant, based on controlling precedent or substantial authority, determines that an Underpayment has occurred, any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company or its Subsidiaries to or for Executive's benefit together with interest at the applicable federal rate provided for in Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code.

(d) In the event of any dispute with the Internal Revenue Service (or other taxing authority) with respect to the application of this Section 6.16, Executive shall control the issues involved in such dispute and make all final determinations with regard to such issues.

SECTION 6.17. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed (including by facsimile or PDF) in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original instrument and all of which together shall constitute a single instrument. Any signature delivered by facsimile or by PDF shall create a valid and binding obligation of the party executing (or on whose behalf the signature is executed) with the same force and effect as if such facsimile or PDF signature were an original thereof.

SECTION 6.18. Construction. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement. In this Agreement unless a clear contrary intention appears: (a) the singular number includes the plural number and vice versa, (b) reference to any "Person" includes such Person's successors and assigns but, if applicable, only if such successors and assigns are not prohibited by this Agreement, and reference to a Person in a particular capacity excludes such Person in any other capacity or individually, (c) reference to any gender includes each other gender, (d) reference to any agreement, document or instrument means such agreement, document or instrument as amended or modified and in effect from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof, (e) “hereunder”, “hereof”, “hereto”, “herein” and words of similar import shall be deemed references to this Agreement as a whole, including the Exhibits, and not to any particular Article, Section or other provision thereof, (f) “including” (and with correlative meaning “include” and “includes”) means including without limiting the generality of any description preceding such term, (g) references to documents, instruments or agreements shall be deemed to refer as well to all addenda, exhibits, schedules or amendments thereto, (h) the words “party” or “parties” shall refer to parties to this Agreement and their permitted successors, (i) all references to provisions, Sections, Articles or Exhibits are to provisions, Sections, Articles and Exhibits of this Agreement, unless otherwise expressly specified, (j) the word “or” is disjunctive and not exclusive, (k) the words “dollar” or “$” means U.S. dollars, (l) the word “day” means calendar day and (m) “promptly” means within thirty (30) days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have duly executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

(E) violated public policy or common law, including Claims for personal injury, invasion of privacy, retaliatory discharge, negligent hiring, retention or supervision, defamation, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress and/or mental anguish, intentional interference with contract, negligence, detrimental reliance, loss of consortium to Executive or any member of Executive's family and/or promissory estoppel; or

(F) are in any way obligated for any reason to pay damages, expenses, litigation costs (including attorneys' fees), bonuses, commissions, disability benefits, compensatory damages, punitive damages and/or interest.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive is not prohibited from asserting any (a) rights to indemnification and advancement of legal fees and expenses provided by law; (b) rights to contribution in the event of the entry of judgment against Executive as a result of any act or failure to act for which both Executive and the Company are jointly responsible; (c) rights Executive may have as a shareholder of PubliCo, a Member of OpCo or otherwise as an interest holder of the Company; (d) as required by law, rights under state workers' compensation or unemployment laws; or (e) rights which by law cannot be waived, including Executive's rights to file a charge with an administrative agency or to participate in an agency investigation, including but not limited to the right to file a charge with, or participate in an investigation or proceeding conducted by, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. In addition, this Release does not constitute a waiver or release of any of Executive's rights to payments or benefits pursuant to the Employment Agreement, including the Accrued Benefits and the payments and benefits under Section [4.05] [4.06] of the Employment Agreement.

[For California employees: Executive agrees that this Release is intended to encompass Claims that are both known and unknown to Executive. In that regard, Executive expressly relinquishes and waives any rights Executive may have under California Civil Code section 1542, or any other statutes of like effect. California Civil Code section 1542 provides:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him, would have materially affected his settlement with the debtor or released party.

Executive is referred to in this statute as the ‘creditor’ and the Company is referred to as the ‘debtor.’ Executive acknowledges that Executive may consciously intend these consequences even as to Claims for damages that may exist as of the date Executive executes this Release that Executive does not know exist, and which, if known, would materially affect Executive’s decision to execute this Release, regardless of whether the lack of knowledge is the result of ignorance, oversight, error, negligence or any other cause. Executive further is not waiving Executive’s right to indemnity for necessary expenditures or losses (e.g., reimbursement of business expenses) incurred on behalf of the Company as provided in Section 2802 of the California Labor Code.]

For the purpose of giving a full and complete release, Executive understands and agrees that this Release includes all Claims covered by this Release that Executive may now have but does not know or suspect to exist in Executive’s favor against the Released Parties, and that this Release extinguishes those Claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the waiver and release provisions set forth in this Release are not an attempt to cause Executive to waive or release rights or Claims that may arise after the date this Release is executed.

Executive affirms that Executive has fully reviewed the terms of this Agreement, affirms that Executive understands its terms, and states that Executive is entering into this Agreement knowingly, voluntarily and in full settlement of all Claims which existed in the past or which currently exist, that arise out of Executive’s employment with the Company or Executive’s severance from employment with the Company.

Executive acknowledges that Executive has had at least [twenty-one (21)]² days to consider this Agreement thoroughly, and that the Company has specifically advised Executive to consult with an attorney, if Executive wishes, before Executive signs below. If Executive signs and returns this Agreement before the end of the [twenty-one (21)]-day period, Executive certifies that Executive’s acceptance of a shortened time period is knowing and voluntary, and the Company did not improperly encourage Executive to sign through fraud, misrepresentation, a threat to withdraw or alter the offer before the [twenty-one (21)]-day period expires, or by providing different terms to other employees who sign the release before such time period expires. Executive understands that Executive may revoke this Agreement within seven (7) days after Executive signs it. Executive’s revocation must be in writing and submitted within the seven-day period. If Executive does not revoke this Agreement within the seven-day period, it becomes effective and irrevocable.

Executive acknowledges that the waiver and release provisions set forth in this Release are in exchange for good and valuable consideration that is in addition to anything of value to which Executive was already entitled.

AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) dated as of February 10, 2020, by and among Glenn Breisinger (“Executive”), APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“OpCo”), and Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited (to be known as “Digital Landscape Group, Inc.”) (“PubliCo”), (OpCo and PubliCo being referred to collectively as the “Company”).

WHEREAS, Executive and the Company previously entered into an employment agreement, dated as of November 19, 2019; and

WHEREAS, Executive and the Company desire to amend and restate the employment agreement on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual agreements herein contained, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Services

SECTION 1.01. Term. The initial term of this Agreement shall commence upon the closing of the merger (the “Merger”) contemplated by the merger agreement (the “Merger Agreement”), dated as of the date hereof, by and among PubliCo, OpCo, AP WIP Investments Holdings, LP, Associated Partners, L.P. (“Associated”) and certain other parties (the “Effective Date”), and, unless terminated earlier as set forth herein, shall continue through the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date (the “Initial Term”). The Term (as defined below) shall be automatically extended for successive one (1) year periods upon the expiration of the Initial Term unless Executive or the Company notifies the other party in writing at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term, or of any extension thereof (each such date, a “Notification Date”), of such party’s desire to terminate the Term upon the expiration of the Initial Term or extension thereof, provided, however, that if there occurs a Potential Change in Control (as defined below) at any time during the Term (other than following the date that the Company or Executive has notified the other party in writing of such party’s desire not to extend the Term upon expiration thereof, the Company has provided Executive with notice of termination or Executive has provided notice of resignation, in each case, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement), the Term shall be deemed automatically extended until the one (1)-year anniversary of the Change in Control transaction that relates to such Potential Change in Control, provided that in the event that, prior to consummation of the relevant Change in Control transaction, such transaction is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof or such transaction is abandoned, such automatic extension shall be null and void ab initio. In the event the relevant Change in Control transaction is terminated or abandoned following the time when the Term would have otherwise ended, the Company or the Executive shall be entitled to give written notice to the other party of its desire not to extend the Term during the ninety (90)-day period commencing on the earliest of the date that (1) such transaction is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof or (2) such transaction is abandoned, and the Term shall terminate one hundred twenty (120) days following delivery of such notice; provided that if neither the Company nor Executive delivers notice during such period, then the Term shall automatically continue until the next scheduled expiration date and, thereafter, in accordance with the second sentence of this Section 1.01, the Notification Date shall occur at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Term as then in effect. For purposes of this Agreement, "Term" shall mean the Initial Term, together with any extensions thereof and shall terminate automatically upon termination of Executive's employment with the Company for any reason, provided that, to the extent set forth in Section 6.09, the rights and obligations of the parties shall survive expiration or other termination of the Term. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Agreement shall be null and void ab initio if the Merger Agreement is terminated and the closing of the Merger does not occur or Executive's employment with Associated or one of its affiliates terminates for any reason prior to the closing of the Merger.

SECTION 1.02. Position and Duties. During the Term, Executive shall serve as the Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of the Company, reporting to the Chief Executive Officer of PubliCo (the "PubliCo CEO"). Executive shall perform those duties and have those authorities commensurate with the position of chief financial officer and treasurer of a company of the size and scope of the Company. At the request of the Board of Directors of PubliCo (the "PubliCo Board"), and subject to such reasonable conditions as Executive may reasonably establish, Executive agrees to serve as an officer, director or other appointee with respect to any Subsidiary of PubliCo. For the avoidance of doubt, Executive will not be entitled to any additional compensation or benefits from the Company or any of its Subsidiaries with respect to service in such other officer, director or other appointee position.

SECTION 1.03. Time and Effort. During the Term, Executive shall devote substantially all of Executive's business time, attention, skill and efforts (which shall not require Executive to be physically present at any particular work location) to the business and affairs of the Company and its Subsidiaries, except for vacation, holiday and sick leave and periods of illness or incapacity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive shall be permitted to (a) devote a reasonable amount of Executive's time and attention to the wind-down of Associated, consistent with his fiduciary duties to the investors of Associated, (b) serve on nonprofit or government advisory boards and engage in charitable, philanthropic and community activities, (c) manage Executive's personal investments and affairs and (d) continue the activities set forth on the schedule that Executive delivered to the Company on or prior to the date hereof, provided that the outside activities described in clauses (a) through (d) shall not, either individually or in the aggregate, (i) interfere with Executive's attention to the Company and its Subsidiaries, including by causing an unreasonable distraction to Executive or by creating any conflict of interest or (ii) result in a breach of any of the restrictive covenants set forth in Article V. Any other outside business activities not expressly described herein shall require the prior written approval of the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized Committee thereof), which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

ARTICLE II

Compensation

SECTION 2.01. Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall, as compensation for the obligations set forth herein and for all services rendered by Executive in any capacity during such employment under this Agreement, including services as an officer, employee or other appointee with respect to the Company, pay Executive a base salary ("Base Salary") at the annual rate of $500,000 per year, payable in accordance with the Company's standard payroll practices as in effect from time to time. The Base Salary shall be reviewed by the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof) on an annual basis for increases but not decreases.

SECTION 2.02. Annual Bonus. Commencing with the first fiscal year during the Term, Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual performance-based cash bonus (the "Annual Bonus") in a targeted amount equal to forty-five percent (45%) of Executive's base salary (the "Target Bonus"). The actual amount paid will depend on the degree to which annual performance goal(s), established by the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof), are determined by the PubliCo Board (or such committee) to have been achieved. Solely with respect to PubliCo's 2020 fiscal year, the Annual Bonus shall be guaranteed at no less than $225,000, provided that Executive remains employed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries or affiliates, through the end of PubliCo's 2020 fiscal year to which the Annual Bonus relates. The Annual Bonus shall be paid at the time as is customary for other senior executives of the Company, but in any event in the fiscal year following the end of the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates, but in no event later than the thirtieth (30th) day after the date on which the PubliCo Board approves the Company's consolidated audited financial statements for the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates.

SECTION 2.03. Initial LTIP Award. On the Effective Date, OpCo and PubliCo, as applicable, shall grant Executive an initial award (collectively, the "Initial LTIP Award") of (a) profits interests in OpCo ("LTIP Units") and (b) voting shares of PubliCo's stock that have no economic rights granted in tandem with the LTIP Units ("Tandem Shares"), which in each case, following vesting and equitization of such LTIP Units and Tandem Shares, are exchangeable, as a whole, for shares of PubliCo stock that have both voting and economic rights pursuant to PubliCo's 2020 Equity Incentive Plan, as may be amended from time to time. The Initial LTIP Award shall consist of: (i) 355,000 time-based Series A LTIP Units and an equal number of time-based shares of Class B Common Stock, and (ii) 300,000 performance-based Series A LTIP Units and an equal number of performance-based shares of Class B Common Stock. The Initial LTIP Award shall be subject to an award agreement, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, that shall be entered into with effect as of the Effective Date and shall not differ from Exhibit A, other than as a result of inclusion of the Grant Date and the LTIP Notional Amount (each, as defined in Exhibit A). For purposes of this Agreement, the terms "Series A LTIP Units", and "Class B Common Stock" shall each have the definitions as set forth in OpCo's First Amended and Restated Limited Liability Agreement, as may be amended from time to time (the "OpCo Operating Agreement").

ARTICLE III

Benefits and Other Matters

SECTION 3.01. Benefit Plans. During the Term, Executive and Executive's eligible family members shall be entitled to participate in any benefit plans (excluding severance plans, which is otherwise addressed in this Agreement) offered by the Company as in effect from time to time (collectively, “Benefit Plans”), on the same basis generally made available to other senior executives of the Company (except to the extent necessary to reflect that Executive is a Member (as defined in the OpCo Operating Agreement) of OpCo) and to the extent Executive and Executive’s family members may be eligible to do so, subject to the terms of any such Benefit Plan. Executive understands that any Benefit Plan may be terminated or amended from time to time by the Company in its discretion.

SECTION 3.02. Vacation. During the Term, Executive shall be entitled to thirty (30) days of vacation per calendar year in accordance with the Company’s vacation policies as in effect from time to time. Any accrued, but unused vacation shall not be paid out upon Executive’s termination of employment, except as may be required by applicable state law.

SECTION 3.03. Director and Officer Indemnification. During the Term and thereafter, the Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, PubliCo’s First Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association or the OpCo Operating Agreement (and any successor governing documents, each, as may be amended from time to time (collectively, the “Governing Documents”)), promptly indemnify Executive against all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs incurred in defending legal proceedings) incurred by Executive in connection with any actual, threatened or reasonably anticipated claim, suit, action or proceeding arising in connection with the execution, discharge or exercise of Executive’s duties as an officer or director of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and/or the exercise of Executive’s powers in Executive’s capacity as an officer or director of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise in relation thereto, provided, however, in no event shall Executive be indemnified or held harmless for liability arising out of Executive’s fraud. Such expenses shall be promptly advanced to Executive to the fullest extent permitted by law or the Governing Documents, provided that if it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction without further right of appeal that Executive is not entitled to such indemnification, reimbursement or advancement, then Executive shall promptly return all such amounts to the Company. The Company shall also provide and maintain directors’ and officers’ liability insurance coverage for Executive’s benefit during Executive’s service with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in any capacity and for a period six (6) years thereafter, provided that such coverage shall be no less favorable than the coverage provided to other senior executives of the Company or directors of PubliCo.

SECTION 3.04. Business Expenses. The Company shall promptly reimburse Executive for all reasonable and customary out-of-pocket business expenses incurred by Executive in connection with Executive’s service hereunder, in accordance with the Company’s policies as may be in effect from time to time.

ARTICLE IV

Termination

SECTION 4.01. Non-Duplication of Severance. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or elsewhere, in no event shall Executive be entitled to severance benefits under any Company Plan (as defined below) that are duplicative of severance benefits provided under this Agreement.

SECTION 4.02. Notice of Termination. The Company shall provide at least sixty (60) days' written notice for any involuntary termination of Executive's employment by the Company other than for Cause (as defined below), death or Disability (as defined below), and Executive shall provide at least sixty (60) days' written notice for a resignation without Good Reason (as defined below), provided that, in the case of such involuntary termination by the Company, the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof) shall have the discretion to provide pay in lieu of notice. Except as set forth in this Section 4.02, any non-extension of the Term by the Company (other than for Cause) pursuant to notice from the Company under Section 1.01 prior to the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date shall be deemed an involuntary termination of Executive's employment by the Company other than for Cause, death or Disability for all purposes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Company elects, pursuant to Section 1.01, not to extend the Term, effective on or after the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date, the Company may elect to either (a) provide Executive with the severance and other separation benefits pursuant to Section 4.05 or (b) release Executive from his covenants under Sections 5.03 and 5.04 (non-solicitation and non-competition), in which case the Company shall not be required to provide Executive with any severance or other termination benefits pursuant to Section 4.05 (other than the Accrued Benefits), provided that the Company must provide written notice to Executive of such election no later than ninety (90) days prior to the termination of the Term, provided further, that this sentence shall not apply if Executive would otherwise be entitled to severance and termination benefits pursuant to Section 4.06, rather than pursuant to Section 4.05, or for the period that the Term is automatically extended beyond the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date in connection with a Potential Change in Control as set forth in Section 1.01.

SECTION 4.03. Termination by the Company for Cause or by Executive without Good Reason. If the Company terminates Executive's employment for Cause, or if Executive terminates Executive's employment with the Company without Good Reason, no severance will be payable to Executive, provided that Executive shall be entitled to payment of accrued and vested compensation and benefits, including vested LTIP Units and Tandem Shares, accrued base salary, reimbursement of unpaid business expenses in accordance with Section 3.04 and any other or additional benefits to which Executive may then or thereafter be entitled under the then-applicable terms of any applicable Company Plan (as defined below) (collectively, the "Accrued Benefits").

SECTION 4.04. Termination for Disability or Death. Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate immediately upon Executive's death or Disability. In the event of a termination due to death or Disability, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive or Executive's estate, as the case may be, shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to the effectiveness and irrevocability of the Release (as defined below):

- (a) payment of a pro rata portion of the Annual Bonus in respect of the fiscal year in which such termination occurs based on the number of days elapsed in such year through the effective date of Executive's termination of employment (the "Effective Termination Date") and actual achievement of applicable performance goals, except that any performance goals based on Executive's personal performance shall be treated as attained at no less than the target level, and any other performance goals shall be deemed achieved at least at the level applicable to similarly situated active employees of the Company, and paid when annual bonuses are paid (or, if earlier, due to be paid) to other senior executives of the Company (the "Pro Rata Bonus Payment");

(b) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year in which the Effective Termination Date occurs, paid when bonuses are paid (or, if earlier, due to be paid) to other senior executives of the Company;

(c) payment of the monthly COBRA premiums that Executive would be required to pay to continue his group health coverage as in effect on the date of his termination for himself and, if applicable, his eligible covered dependents for a period of eighteen (18) months following the Effective Termination Date, which payment shall be made regardless of whether Executive elects COBRA continuation coverage (the "COBRA Equivalent Payment"), payable in equal biweekly installments in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices over eighteen (18) months following the Effective Termination Date, provided that any installments that would otherwise have been paid prior to satisfaction of the release condition set forth in Section 4.07 shall be accumulated and paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following satisfaction of such condition, provided further that, to the extent necessary to comply with Section 409A (as defined below), if the period during which the Release must be executed and become irrevocable spans two (2) calendar years, payment of installments shall commence in the second calendar year, and the timing of such installments may be subject to further restrictions under Section 409A as set forth in Section 6.15 of this Agreement; and

(d) unless otherwise provided in the applicable award agreement, the time-based vesting conditions for all outstanding LTIP Units and related Tandem Shares and other Company equity-based awards shall be deemed satisfied based on the number of full or partial years that have elapsed between the applicable grant date and the Effective Termination Date, plus one (1) additional year of service, provided, however, that vesting shall not occur for any portion of the performance-based awards unless and until the applicable performance goals are satisfied (or deemed satisfied) within the period set forth in the relevant award agreement and, to the extent that such performance goals are not so satisfied (or deemed satisfied), such awards shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration upon expiration of the relevant performance period.

SECTION 4.05. Non-Change-in-Control Termination. If Executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause, death or Disability, or by Executive with Good Reason, in each case other than within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to the effectiveness and irrevocability of the Release:

- (a) one (1) times the sum of (x) the Base Salary and (y) the Annual Bonus earned in respect of the fiscal year ending immediately prior to the Effective Termination Date (the "Prior Year Bonus"), payable in equal biweekly installments in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices over twelve (12) months following the Effective Termination Date, provided that any installments that would otherwise have been paid prior to satisfaction of the release condition set forth in Section 4.07 shall be accumulated and paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following satisfaction of such condition, provided further that, to the extent necessary to comply with Section 409A, if the period during which the Release must be executed and become irrevocable spans two (2) calendar years, payment of installments shall commence in the second calendar year, and the timing of such installments may be subject to further restrictions under Section 409A as set forth in Section 6.15 of this Agreement;
- (b) the Pro Rata Bonus Payment, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(a);
- (c) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year of termination, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(b);
- (d) payment of the COBRA Equivalent Payment, paid at the times set forth in Section 4.04(c); and
- (e) full accelerated vesting of the Initial LTIP Award (to the extent then outstanding), with all other LTIP Units and other Company equity-based awards treated in accordance with the applicable award agreements.

If, following the Effective Termination Date and prior to a Change in Control, Executive breaches any of his obligations pursuant to the restrictive covenants set forth in Section 5.02 or Section 5.03, and such breach results in significant reputational or monetary harm to the Company, then Executive shall forfeit his right to receive any unpaid amounts pursuant to Section 4.05(a), (b) and (d), and Executive shall promptly repay to the Company any such amount previously paid to Executive pursuant to Sections 4.05(a), (b) and (d), provided, however, that the Company shall provide written notice to Executive of an alleged breach of any such restrictive covenants within thirty (30) days of such alleged breach (or such later date as the PubliCo Board could reasonably have been expected to know of such a breach), and Executive shall have thirty (30) days to cure such alleged breach, if curable.

SECTION 4.06. Change-in-Control Termination. If Executive's employment is terminated by the Company (x) in an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination or (y) other than for Cause, death or Disability within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, or is terminated by Executive with Good Reason within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to effectiveness of the Release:

- (a) two (2) times the sum of (x) the Base Salary and (y) the Prior Year Bonus, payable in a lump sum within sixty-five (65) days following the Effective Termination Date (or, if payment on such date is not permitted by Section 409A, then at the times set forth in Section 4.05(a));
- (b) payment of a pro rata portion of the Target Bonus in respect of the year in which the Effective Termination Date occurs, paid in a lump sum within sixty-five (65) days following the Effective Termination Date;
- (c) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year of termination, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(b);
- (d) payment of the COBRA Equivalent within sixty-five (65) days of the Effective Termination Date (or, if payment on such date is not permitted by Section 409A, then at the times set forth in Section 4.04(c)), provided that such amount shall be paid based on twenty-four (24) months of coverage, rather than eighteen (18) months; and
- (e) full accelerated vesting of all outstanding LTIP Units, Tandem Shares and other Company equity-based awards, unless otherwise set forth in the applicable award agreements.

If, following a termination of Executive's employment pursuant to Section 4.05, such termination of employment becomes an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination, then Executive shall be entitled to a lump-sum cash payment, payable within sixty-five (65) days after the Change in Control, in an aggregate amount equal to the excess, if any, of (x) the aggregate amount set forth in Sections 4.06(a) and 4.06(d) less (y) the aggregate amount previously paid to Executive pursuant to Sections 4.05(a) and 4.05(d), provided that to the extent that any portion of such amount is not permitted to be paid within sixty-five (65) days after the Change in Control as a result of Section 409A, then such portion shall be paid at the time set forth in Section 4.05(a) or 4.05(d), as applicable. In the event that Executive becomes entitled to payments pursuant to Section 4.06 as a result of an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination, there shall be no duplication of payment under both Sections 4.05 and 4.06.

SECTION 4.07. Release. Payments and benefits described in Sections 4.04, 4.05 and 4.06, other than the Accrued Benefits, are conditioned upon Executive's or Executive's estate's, as the case may be, execution and delivery of a release of claims substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Release") no later than fifty (50) days following the Effective Termination Date and not revoking the Release during the period specified therein. In the event of Executive's death or a judicial determination of his incapacity, references in this Agreement to Executive shall be deemed (where appropriate) to be references to his heir(s), beneficiary(ies), estate, executor(s) or other legal representative(s).

SECTION 4.08. Definitions. For purposes of this agreement:

(a) “Affiliate” means any person, company, entity or trust Controlled by, Controlling or under common Control with, the applicable party.

(b) “Anticipatory Qualifying Termination” means a termination of Executive’s employment by the Company that occurs on or after the date of any of the following events: (i) a Potential Change in Control, (ii) a third party has made a bona fide offer to engage in a transaction that, if consummated, would result in a Change in Control, or (iii) PubliCo has commenced preparations for or has become substantively engaged in a transaction that, if consummated, would result in a Change in Control, in each case so long as it is reasonably demonstrated that such termination occurred in anticipation of, or in connection with, such Change in Control and such Change in Control actually occurs.

(c) “Beneficial Owner” means, with respect to any security, a Person (as defined below) who directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, understanding, relationship or otherwise, has or shares (i) voting power, which includes the power to vote, or to direct the voting of, with respect to such security or (ii) investment power, which includes the power to dispose of, or to direct the disposition of, such security.

Except in the case of clause (i), a purported termination of employment by the Company for Cause shall not be effective as a termination for Cause unless (A) the Company first furnishes written notice to Executive of the circumstance(s) alleged to constitute Cause within thirty (30) days following the date the PubliCo Board first becomes aware of such circumstance(s), (B) Executive has not cured those circumstance(s) within ninety (90) days following Executive’s receipt of such written notice from the Company and (C) the Company terminates Executive’s employment within ninety (90) days following the expiration of such cure period, provided that Executive shall not have the opportunity to cure a circumstance(s) alleged to constitute Cause if it is not capable of being cured or if it has caused material economic or reputational harm to the Company.

The parties agree that there will be no restrictions on Executive’s post-employment activities, or on Executive’s right to terminate his employment with PubliCo and OpCo, other than as expressly set forth in this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything elsewhere in this Agreement to the contrary, for purposes of this Section 5.01 and Sections 5.03, 5.04, 5.05, 5.08, 5.09 and 5.10, references to the Company shall be deemed to include its Subsidiaries.

SECTION 5.02. Consideration to Executive. In consideration of the Company's entering into this Agreement and the Company's obligations hereunder and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and acknowledging hereby that the Company would not have entered into this Agreement without the covenants contained in this Article V, Executive hereby agrees to be bound by the provisions and covenants contained in this Article V.

SECTION 5.03. Employee Non-Solicitation and Customer and Business Relationships Noninterference. Except as set forth in the final sentence of Section 4.02, Executive agrees that, unless otherwise specifically permitted by the PubliCo Board in writing, for the period commencing on the Effective Date and terminating twelve (12) months after termination of the Term (such period, the "Restricted Period"), Executive shall not, directly or indirectly: (a) solicit any Person who (i) is or was a customer of, or lessor to, the Company or (ii) is a prospective customer of, or prospective lessor to, the Company whom, as of termination of the Term, Executive is aware the Company was actively pursuing to (A) purchase any goods or services, or to enter into leases, in competition with the Company in the Business (as defined below), from anyone other than the Company or (B) cease doing business with the Company; (b) other than on behalf of the Company, solicit, recruit or hire any employee of the Company or any individual who was, at any time within one (1) year prior to termination of the Term, employed by the Company; or (c) solicit or encourage any employee of the Company to leave the employment of the Company, in each case of clauses (b) and (c), except for Executive's administrative assistant(s) or any former employee of the Company whose employment was terminated by the Company involuntarily, other than for cause.

SECTION 5.04. Non-Competition. (a) Except as forth in the final sentence of Section 4.02, Executive agrees that, unless otherwise specifically authorized by the PubliCo Board in writing, during the Restricted Period, Executive shall not, and shall cause each of Executive's controlled affiliates (other than the Company) not to, directly or indirectly: (i) engage, consult, advise, own, operate, manage, control, invest in, provide services to or otherwise assist (as a director, officer, partner, principal, employee, member, consultant or in any other capacity) in any business that competes with the Company, as of termination of the Term, in any jurisdiction in which the Company is operating or is actively engaged in substantial preparations to operate (A) in the business of acquiring ground and rooftop leases underlying wireless cell sites or (B) in any other business in which the Company is actively engaged and that represents a material portion of the Company's overall operations as of the termination of the Term (collectively, the "Business"); or (ii) except as provided in Section 5.04(b), be employed by, consult with or advise any Person that, directly or indirectly, engages in the Business.

SECTION 5.05. Confidential Information. Executive hereby acknowledges that (a) in the performance of Executive's duties and services pursuant to this Agreement, Executive shall receive, and may be given access to, Confidential Information and (b) all Confidential Information is or will be the property of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" shall mean information, knowledge and data that is or will be used, developed, obtained or owned by the Company relating to the business, products and/or services of the Company or the business, products and/or services of any customer, lessor, sales officer, sales associate or independent contractor thereof, including products, services, fees, pricing, designs, marketing plans, strategies, analyses, forecasts, formulas, drawings, photographs, reports, records, computer software (whether or not owned by, or designed for, the Company), other operating systems, applications, program listings, flow charts, manuals, documentation, data, databases, specifications, technology, inventions, new developments and methods, improvements, techniques, trade secrets, devices, products, methods, know-how, processes, financial data, customer lists, contact persons, cost information, executive information, regulatory matters, personnel matters, accounting and business methods, copyrightable works and information with respect to any vendor, customer, lessor, sales officer, sales associate or independent contractor of the Company, in each case whether patentable or unpatentable and whether or not reduced to practice, and all similar and related information in whatever form, and all such items of any vendor, customer, sales officer, sales associate or independent contractor of the Company, provided, however, that Confidential Information shall not include information that is generally known to the public other than as a result of disclosure by Executive in breach of this Agreement or in breach of any similar covenant made by Executive prior to entering into this Agreement.

SECTION 5.06. Non-Disclosure. During the Term and at all times thereafter, except as otherwise specifically provided in Section 5.07, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, disclose or cause or permit to be disclosed, to any Person whatsoever, or utilize or cause or permit to be utilized, by any Person whatsoever, any Confidential Information acquired pursuant to Executive's employment with the Company (whether acquired prior to or subsequent to the execution of this Agreement) under this Agreement or otherwise.

SECTION 5.07. Permitted Disclosure. SECTION 5.08. Records. All memoranda, books, records, documents, papers, plans, information, letters and other data relating to Confidential Information or the business and customer accounts of the Company, whether prepared by Executive or otherwise, coming into Executive's possession shall be and remain the exclusive property of the Company and Executive shall not, during the Term or thereafter, directly or indirectly assert any interest or property rights therein. Upon Executive's termination of employment with the Company for any reason, Executive will immediately return to the Company all such memoranda, books, records, documents, papers, plans, information, letters and other data, and all copies thereof or therefrom, and Executive will not retain, or cause or permit to be retained, any copies or other embodiments of the materials so returned. Executive further agrees that he will not retain or use for Executive's account at any time any trade names, trademark or other proprietary business designation used or owned in connection with the business of the Company.

SECTION 5.09. Mutual Non-Disparagement. (a) Executive shall not, at any time (whether prior to or following the Effective Termination Date), denigrate, ridicule, disparage or make any statement with the intent to criticize the Company or, with respect to their relationship with PubliCo, any of PubliCo's officers or directors in their capacity as officers or directors of PubliCo, and (b) the Company and PubliCo's officers and directors shall not, at any time (whether prior to or following the Effective Termination Date), denigrate, ridicule, disparage or make any statement with the intent to criticize Executive. This Section 5.09 shall not prohibit (i) Executive, the Company or PubliCo's officers or directors, individually or as a group, from testifying truthfully under oath pursuant to a lawful court order or subpoena or in connection with any litigation or arbitration between Executive and the Company or any of PubliCo's officers or directors or (ii) Executive from making the permitted disclosures set forth in Section 5.07. Furthermore, if either Executive or the Company (or any officer or director of PubliCo) makes any statement in breach of this Section 5.09, then a truthful response to such statement by the other party shall not be considered a breach of such party's obligations pursuant to this Section 5.09.

SECTION 5.10. Specific Performance. Executive agrees that any material breach by Executive or the Company of any of the provisions of this Article V may cause irreparable harm to the other party that could not be made whole by monetary damages and that, in the event of such a breach, the breaching party shall waive the defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate, and the other party shall be entitled to seek to specifically enforce the terms and provisions of this Article V without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting any bond or providing prior notice, in any court of competent jurisdiction, in addition to any other remedy such party may obtain through arbitration in accordance with Section 6.07.

SECTION 5.11. Proprietary Rights.

(a) Work Product. Executive acknowledges and agrees that all right, title, and interest in and to all writings, works of authorship, technology, inventions, discoveries, processes, techniques, methods, ideas, concepts, research, proposals, materials, and all other work product of any nature whatsoever, that are created, prepared, produced, authored, edited, amended, conceived, or reduced to practice by Executive individually or jointly with others during the Term and that specifically relate to the Business or specifically result from work performed by Executive for the Company, all rights and claims related to the foregoing, and all printed, physical and electronic copies, and other tangible embodiments thereof (collectively, “Work Product”), as well as any and all rights relating thereto in and to U.S. and foreign (i) patents, patent disclosures and inventions (whether patentable or not), (ii) trademarks, service marks, trade dress, trade names, logos, corporate names, and domain names, and other similar designations of source or origin, together with the goodwill symbolized by any of the foregoing, (iii) copyrights and copyrightable works (including computer programs), mask works, and rights in data and databases, (iv) trade secrets, know-how, and other confidential information, and (v) all other intellectual property rights relating thereto, in each case whether registered or unregistered and including all registrations and applications for, and renewals and extensions of, such rights, all improvements thereto and all similar or equivalent rights or forms of protection in any part of the world (collectively, “Intellectual Property Rights”), shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company.

For purposes of this Agreement, Work Product may include, but is not limited to, Company information, including plans, publications, research, strategies, techniques, agreements, documents, contracts, terms of agreements, negotiations, know-how, computer programs, computer applications, software design, web design, work in process, databases, manuals, results, developments, reports, graphics, drawings, sketches, market studies, formulae, notes, communications, algorithms, product plans, product designs, styles, models, audiovisual programs, inventions, unpublished patent applications, original works of authorship, discoveries, experimental processes, experimental results, specifications, customer information, client information, customer lists, client lists, manufacturing information, marketing information, advertising information, and sales information.

To the extent that the foregoing does not apply, Executive hereby irrevocably assigns to the Company, for no additional consideration, Executive’s entire right, title, and interest in and to all Work Product and Intellectual Property Rights therein, including the right to sue, counterclaim, and recover for all past, present, and future infringement, misappropriation, or dilution thereof, and all rights corresponding thereto throughout the world. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to reduce or limit the Company’s rights, title, or interest in any Work Product or Intellectual Property Rights therein so as to be less in any respect than that the Company would have had in the absence of this Agreement.

(c) Further Assurances; Power of Attorney. During and after the Term, Executive agrees, upon reasonable request and subject to such reasonable conditions as he may reasonably establish, to cooperate with the Company to (a) apply for, obtain, perfect, and transfer to the Company the Work Product as well as any and all Intellectual Property Rights in the Work Product in any jurisdiction in the world; and (b) maintain, protect and enforce the same, including, without limitation, giving testimony and executing and delivering to the Company any and all applications, oaths, declarations, affidavits, waivers, assignments, and other documents and instruments as shall be requested by the Company. Executive hereby irrevocably grants the Company power of attorney to execute and deliver any such documents on Executive’s behalf in Executive’s name and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to transfer the Work Product to the Company and further the transfer, prosecution, issuance, and maintenance of all Intellectual Property Rights therein, to the full extent permitted by law, if Executive does not promptly cooperate with the Company’s request (without limiting the rights the Company shall have in such circumstances by operation of law). The power of attorney is coupled with an interest and shall not be affected by Executive’s subsequent incapacity.

(d) No License. Executive understands that this Agreement does not, and shall not be construed to, grant Executive any license or right of any nature with respect to any Work Product, Intellectual Property Rights therein, software, or other tools made available to Executive by the Company.

Miscellaneous

SECTION 6.01. Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assignable by Executive. The parties agree that any attempt by Executive to delegate Executive’s duties hereunder shall be null and void. This Agreement may not be assigned or transferred by PubliCo or OpCo to any Person other than a successor to all, or substantially all, of the business and assets of the assignor/transferor. Upon such assignment or transfer, the rights and obligations of the assignor/transferor hereunder shall become the rights and obligations of such successor. As used in this Agreement, the term “the Company” shall mean, (a) OpCo and PubliCo, collectively, as hereinbefore defined in the recital to this Agreement, (b) to the extent provided in Section 5.01, their respective Subsidiaries, and (c) any permitted assignee to which this Agreement is assigned.

SECTION 6.02. Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Company and its permitted successors. The Company shall assign its rights and obligations hereunder to any permitted successor. Upon any such assignment, the Company shall cause such successor expressly to assume such obligations, and such rights and obligations shall inure to and be binding upon any such successor.

SECTION 6.03. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the award agreement in respect of the Initial LTIP Award, constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the parties and with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby and the subject matter hereof and supersedes and replaces any and all prior agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, written or oral, express or implied and/or whenever and howsoever made, directly or indirectly relating to the subject matter hereof, including the employment agreement, dated as of November 19, 2019, that Executive previously entered into with the Company and PubliCo.

SECTION 6.04. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended, modified, superseded or altered, and the terms and covenants hereof may be waived, only by written instrument executed by each of the parties hereto, or in the case of a waiver, by the party waiving compliance. The failure of any party at any time or times to require performance of any provision hereof shall in no manner affect such party's right at a later time to enforce the same. No waiver by any party of the breach of any term or covenant contained in this Agreement, in any one or more instances, shall be deemed to be, or construed as, a further or continuing waiver of any such breach, or a waiver of the breach of any other term or covenant contained in this Agreement.

SECTION 6.05. Notice. All documents, notices, requests, demands and other communications that are required or permitted to be delivered or given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly delivered or given when received.

SECTION 6.06. Each of the parties may change the address to which notices under this Agreement shall be sent by providing written notice to the other in the manner specified above.

SECTION 6.07. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution.

(a) Except as otherwise required by applicable law, this Agreement shall be governed, interpreted and enforced in accordance with its express terms, and otherwise in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to principles of conflicts of laws.

(b) Except to the extent otherwise provided in Section 5.10 with respect to certain claims for injunctive relief, any dispute or controversy arising under or relating to this Agreement, Executive's employment hereunder or any termination thereof (whether based on contract or tort or upon any federal, state or local statute, including but not limited to claims asserted under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, any state Fair Employment Practices Act and/or the Americans with Disability Act) shall be submitted to JAMS and resolved through confidential arbitration in accordance with the JAMS Employment Arbitration Rules & Procedures. Any arbitration hearings shall be conducted in Pittsburgh, PA before a single arbitrator (rather than a panel of arbitrators) with substantial experience in the matters in dispute. The resolution of any such dispute or controversy by the arbitrator shall be final and binding, except to the extent otherwise provided by applicable law. Judgment upon any award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The Company shall promptly pay all administrative costs and arbitration fees, and all legal fees, court costs and other costs and expenses incurred by Executive in connection with any claim or dispute that is subject to arbitration under this Section 6.07(b) or that is brought pursuant to Section 5.10, provided that if the Company substantially prevails with respect to such claim or dispute, Executive, shall promptly repay any fees and costs (other than fees and other charges of JAMS, the American Arbitration Association, or the arbitrator) incurred by Executive, and paid by the Company, in connection with any claim as to which the Company has substantially prevailed. If at the time any dispute or controversy arises with respect to this Agreement, JAMS is not in business or is no longer providing arbitration services, then any arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

SECTION 6.08. Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or condition of this Agreement is held by a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, then such provision, covenant or condition shall, as to such jurisdiction, be modified or restricted to the extent necessary to make such provision valid, binding and enforceable, or, if such provision cannot be modified or restricted, then such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be deemed to be excised from this Agreement and any such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability with respect to such provision shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction, and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

SECTION 6.09. Survival. The rights and obligations of the Company and Executive under the provisions of this Agreement, including Sections 3.03 and 3.04 and Articles IV, V and VI, shall survive and remain binding and enforceable, notwithstanding any termination of the Term, to the extent necessary to preserve the intended benefits of such provisions.

SECTION 6.10. Cooperation. During the three-year period following termination of the Term, Executive shall provide Executive's reasonable cooperation to the Company and its Subsidiaries in connection with any suit, action or proceeding (or any appeal therefrom) that relates to events occurring during Executive's employment with the Company and its Subsidiaries and as to which Executive has relevant knowledge, other than a suit between Executive, on the one hand, and the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, on the other hand, provided that any such cooperation shall be subject to Executive's other personal and professional commitments, and the Company shall promptly pay (or promptly reimburse) any expenses reasonably incurred by Executive in connection with such cooperation.

SECTION 6.11. Representations.

(a) Executive hereby represents to the Company that the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Executive and the Company and the performance by Executive of Executive's duties hereunder shall not constitute a breach of, or otherwise contravene, or be prevented, interfered with or hindered by, the terms of any employment agreement or other agreement or policy to which Executive is a party or otherwise bound.

(b) The Company hereby represents to Executive that it is fully authorized, by any Person or body whose authorization is required, to enter into, and carry out the terms of, this Agreement, and that its ability to enter into, and carry out the terms of, this Agreement is not limited by any Company Plan.

SECTION 6.12. No Waiver. The provisions of this Agreement may be waived only in writing signed by the party or parties entitled to the benefit thereof. A waiver or any breach or failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not in any way affect, limit or waive a party's rights hereunder at any time to enforce strict compliance thereafter with every provision of this Agreement.

SECTION 6.13. No Offset. The Company's obligation to pay Executive the amounts, and to provide the benefits, hereunder shall not be subject to set-off, counterclaim or recoupment of amounts owed by Executive to the Company. In addition, there shall be no offset against any such payments or benefits for any amounts or benefits earned by Executive, after the Effective Termination Date, from subsequent employment or otherwise.

SECTION 6.14. Withholding Taxes. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state, local and foreign taxes as may be required to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation.

SECTION 6.15. Section 409A. It is intended that the provisions of this Agreement comply with, or are exempt from, Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and any related regulations or other pronouncements thereunder ("Section 409A"), and all provisions of this Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A.

(a) Neither Executive nor any of his creditors or beneficiaries shall have the right to subject any deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) payable under this Agreement or under any other plan, policy, arrangement, corporate governance document, or agreement of or with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (this Agreement and such other plans, policies, arrangements, documents, and agreements, the "Company Plans") to any anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, attachment or garnishment. Except as permitted under Section 409A, any deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) payable to Executive or for Executive's benefit under any Company Plan may not be reduced by, or offset against, any amount owing by Executive to the Company.

(b) If, at the time of Executive's separation from service (within the meaning of Section 409A), (i) Executive shall be a specified employee (within the meaning of Section 409A and using the identification methodology selected by the Company from time to time) and (ii) the Company shall make a good faith determination that an amount payable under a Company Plan constitutes deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) the payment of which is required to be delayed pursuant to the six-month delay rule set forth in Section 409A in order to avoid taxes or penalties under Section 409A, then the Company shall not pay such amount on the otherwise scheduled payment date but shall instead accumulate such amount and pay it on the first business day after such six-month period.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement or any Company Plan to the contrary, in light of the uncertainty with respect to the proper application of Section 409A, the Company and Executive shall cooperate in good faith to make amendments to any Company Plan as are necessary or desirable to avoid the imposition of taxes or penalties under Section

409A. In any case, Executive is solely responsible and liable for the satisfaction of all taxes and penalties that may be imposed on Executive or for Executive's account in connection with any Company Plan (including any taxes and penalties under Section 409A), and the Company shall not have any obligation to indemnify or otherwise hold Executive harmless from any or all of such taxes or penalties, in each case, other than any taxes or penalties resulting from a breach by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries of the terms of any Company Plan.

(d) For purposes of Section 409A, each payment hereunder will be deemed to be a separate payment as permitted under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-2(b)(2)(iii). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Executive shall not be entitled to any payments or benefits payable hereunder as a result of Executive's termination of employment with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that constitute "deferred compensation" under Section 409A unless such termination of employment qualifies as a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 409A. Executive shall have no duties following the Effective Termination Date that are inconsistent with Executive having had a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 409A on or before the Effective Termination Date.

(e) Except as specifically permitted by Section 409A, any benefits and reimbursements provided to Executive under this Agreement during any calendar year shall not affect any benefits and reimbursements to be provided to Executive under this Agreement in any other calendar year, and the right to such benefits and reimbursements cannot be liquidated or exchanged for any other benefit. Furthermore, reimbursement payments shall be made to Executive as soon as practicable following the date that the applicable expense is incurred, but in no event later than the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the underlying expense is incurred.

SECTION 6.16. Limitation on Certain Payments. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement:

(a) In the event it is determined by an independent nationally recognized public accounting firm, which is engaged and paid for by the Company prior to the consummation of any transaction constituting a 280G Change in Control (which for purposes of this Section 6.16 shall mean a change in ownership or control as determined in accordance with the regulations promulgated under Section 280G of the Code), which accounting firm shall in no event be the accounting firm for the entity seeking to effectuate the 280G Change in Control (the "Accountant"), which determination shall be certified by the Accountant and set forth in a certificate delivered to Executive not less than ten business days prior to the 280G Change in Control setting forth in reasonable detail the basis of the Accountant's calculations and determinations (including any assumptions that the Accountant made in performing the calculations), that part or all of the consideration, compensation or benefits (collectively, "Benefits") to be paid to Executive under this Agreement constitute "parachute payments" under Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code, then, if the aggregate present value of such parachute payments (determined in accordance with Section 280G of the Code), singularly or together with the aggregate present value of any consideration, compensation or benefits to be paid to Executive under any other plan, arrangement or agreement which constitute "parachute payments"

(collectively, the “Parachute Amount”) exceeds the maximum amount that would not give rise to any liability under Section 4999 of the Code, Benefits constituting “parachute payments” which would otherwise be paid or provided to Executive or for Executive’s benefit shall be reduced to the maximum amount that would not give rise to any liability under Section 4999 of the Code (the “Reduced Amount”), provided that such Benefits shall not be so reduced if the Accountant determines that without such reduction Executive would be entitled to receive and retain, on a net after-tax present-value basis (including, without limitation, any excise taxes payable under Section 4999 of the Code), Benefits whose value is greater than the Benefits, valued on a net after-tax present-value basis, that Executive would be entitled to retain upon receipt of the Reduced Amount, provided further that such reduction in Benefits shall be first applied to reduce any cash payments that Executive would otherwise be entitled to receive (whether pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise) and shall thereafter be applied to reduce other payments and benefits, in each case in reverse order beginning with the payments or benefits that are to be paid the furthest in time after the date of such determination, unless, to the extent permitted by Section 409A, Executive elects to have the reduction in payments applied in a different order, provided that, in no event, may such payments or benefits be reduced in a manner that would result in subjecting Executive to additional taxation under Section 409A. For the avoidance of doubt, this provision shall reduce the Parachute Amount otherwise payable to Executive, only if doing so would place Executive in a better net after-tax present-value economic position as compared with not doing so (taking into account any excise taxes payable in respect of such Parachute Amount). In connection with making determinations under this Section 6.16, the Accountant shall take into account any positions to mitigate any excise taxes payable under Section 4999 of the Code, such as the value of any reasonable compensation for services to be rendered by Executive before or after the 280G Change in Control, including any amounts payable to Executive following Executive’s termination of employment hereunder with respect to any non-competition provisions that may apply to Executive, and the Company shall cooperate in the valuation of any such services, including any non-competition provisions.

(b) If the determination made pursuant to Section 6.16(a) results in a reduction of the payments that would otherwise be paid to Executive except for the application of Section 6.16(a), the Company shall promptly give Executive notice of such determination and of the reductions to be applied. Within five (5) business days following such determination, the Company shall pay or distribute to Executive, or for Executive’s benefit, such amounts as are then due to Executive under this Agreement or any other Company Plan and shall promptly pay or distribute to Executive, or for Executive’s benefit, in the future such amounts as become due to Executive under this Agreement.

(c) As a result of the uncertainty in the application of Sections 280G and 4999 of the Code at the time of a determination under this Section 6.16, it is possible that amounts will have been paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit pursuant to this Agreement which should not have been so paid or distributed (each, an “Overpayment”) or that additional amounts which will have not been paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit pursuant to this Agreement could have been so paid or distributed without incurring tax under Section 4999 of the Code (each, an “Underpayment”), in each case, consistent with the calculation of the Reduced Amount hereunder. In the event that the Accountant, based upon the assertion of a deficiency by the Internal Revenue Service against the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or Executive, on which the Accountant believes the Internal Revenue Service should prevail, determines that an Overpayment has been made, any such Overpayment paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive's benefit shall be repaid by Executive to the Company or such Subsidiary together with interest at the applicable federal rate provided for in Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code, provided, however, that no such repayment shall be required if and to the extent such deemed repayment would not either reduce the amount on which Executive is subject to tax under Sections 1 and 4999 of the Code or generate a refund of such taxes. In the event that the Accountant, based on controlling precedent or substantial authority, determines that an Underpayment has occurred, any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company or its Subsidiaries to or for Executive's benefit together with interest at the applicable federal rate provided for in Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code.

(d) In the event of any dispute with the Internal Revenue Service (or other taxing authority) with respect to the application of this Section 6.16, Executive shall control the issues involved in such dispute and make all final determinations with regard to such issues.

SECTION 6.17. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed (including by facsimile or PDF) in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original instrument and all of which together shall constitute a single instrument. Any signature delivered by facsimile or by PDF shall create a valid and binding obligation of the party executing (or on whose behalf the signature is executed) with the same force and effect as if such facsimile or PDF signature were an original thereof.

SECTION 6.18. Construction. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement. In this Agreement unless a clear contrary intention appears: (a) the singular number includes the plural number and vice versa, (b) reference to any "Person" includes such Person's successors and assigns but, if applicable, only if such successors and assigns are not prohibited by this Agreement, and reference to a Person in a particular capacity excludes such Person in any other capacity or individually, (c) reference to any gender includes each other gender, (d) reference to any agreement, document or instrument means such agreement, document or instrument as amended or modified and in effect from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof, (e) "hereunder", "hereof", "hereto", "herein" and words of similar import shall be deemed references to this Agreement as a whole, including the Exhibits, and not to any particular Article, Section or other provision thereof, (f) "including" (and with correlative meaning "include" and "includes") means including without limiting the generality of any description preceding such term, (g) references to documents, instruments or agreements shall be deemed to refer as well to all addenda, exhibits, schedules or amendments thereto, (h) the words "party" or "parties" shall refer to parties to this Agreement and their permitted successors, (i) all references to provisions, Sections, Articles or Exhibits are to provisions, Sections, Articles and Exhibits of this Agreement, unless otherwise expressly specified, (j) the word "or" is disjunctive and not exclusive, (k) the words "dollar" or "$" means U.S. dollars, (l) the word "day" means calendar day and (m) "promptly" means within thirty (30) days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have duly executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

Form of Release

RELEASE

This Release is made by Glenn Breisinger ("Executive") for the benefit of APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("OpCo"), and Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited, a company incorporated in the British Virgin Islands ("PubliCo"), (OpCo, PubliCo and their respective affiliates are referred to collectively as the "Company"), as of the date set forth below in connection with the Employment Agreement, dated November 19, 2019, among Executive, OpCo and PubliCo (the "Employment Agreement"), and in association with Executive's termination of employment with the Company. All capitalized terms used herein, to the extent not defined, shall have the meaning set forth in the Employment Agreement.

In exchange for the payments and benefits provided under the Employment Agreement, Executive, for himself, his family, his attorneys, agents, heirs and personal representatives, hereby releases and discharges the Company, as well as all of its past, present and future shareholders, parents, agents, directors, officers, employees, representatives, principals, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors and all persons acting by, through, under or in concert with the Company (collectively referred to as the "Released Parties"), from any and all non-statutory claims, obligations, debts, liabilities, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, accounts, covenants, contracts, agreements and damages whatsoever of every name and nature, known and unknown, which Executive ever had, or now has, against the Released Parties (collectively, "Claims") to the date of this Release, both in law and equity, arising out of or in any way related to Executive's employment with the Company or the termination of that employment, including any Claims that Executive is entitled to any compensation or benefits from any Released Party, other than as set forth in Article IV of the Employment Agreement or as otherwise set forth herein. The Claims Executive releases include, but are not limited to, Claims that the Released Parties:

(A) discriminated against Executive on the basis of race, color, sex (including Claims of sexual harassment), national origin, ancestry, disability, religion, sexual orientation, marital status, parental status, veteran status, source of income, entitlement to benefits, union activities, age or any other claim or right Executive may have under the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act or any other status protected by local, state or Federal laws, constitutions, regulations, ordinances or executive orders;

(B) failed to give proper notice of this employment termination under the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, or any similar state or local statute or ordinance;

(C) violated any other Federal, state or local employment statute, such as the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, which, among other things, protects employee benefits; the Fair Labor Standards Act, which regulates wage and hour matters; the Family and Medical Leave Act, which requires employers to provide leaves of

absence under certain circumstances; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; the Americans With Disabilities Act; the Rehabilitation Act; the Occupational Safety and Health Act; and any other Federal, state or local laws relating to employment;¹

(D) violated the Released Parties' personnel policies, handbooks, any covenant of good faith and fair dealing, or any contract of employment between Executive and any of the Released Parties;

(E) violated public policy or common law, including Claims for personal injury, invasion of privacy, retaliatory discharge, negligent hiring, retention or supervision, defamation, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress and/or mental anguish, intentional interference with contract, negligence, detrimental reliance, loss of consortium to Executive or any member of Executive's family and/or promissory estoppel; or

(F) are in any way obligated for any reason to pay damages, expenses, litigation costs (including attorneys' fees), bonuses, commissions, disability benefits, compensatory damages, punitive damages and/or interest.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive is not prohibited from asserting any (a) rights to indemnification and advancement of legal fees and expenses provided by law; (b) rights to contribution in the event of the entry of judgment against Executive as a result of any act or failure to act for which both Executive and the Company are jointly responsible; (c) rights Executive may have as a shareholder of PubliCo, a Member of OpCo or otherwise as an interest holder of the Company; (d) as required by law, rights under state workers' compensation or unemployment laws; or (e) rights which by law cannot be waived, including Executive's rights to file a charge with an administrative agency or to participate in an agency investigation, including but not limited to the right to file a charge with, or participate in an investigation or proceeding conducted by, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. In addition, this Release does not constitute a waiver or release of any of Executive's rights to payments or benefits pursuant to the Employment Agreement, including the Accrued Benefits and the payments and benefits under Section [4.05] [4.06] of the Employment Agreement.

[For California employees: Executive agrees that this Release is intended to encompass Claims that are both known and unknown to Executive. In that regard, Executive expressly relinquishes and waives any rights Executive may have under California Civil Code section 1542, or any other statutes of like effect. California Civil Code section 1542 provides:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him, would have materially affected his settlement with the debtor or released party.

Executive is referred to in this statute as the ‘creditor’ and the Company is referred to as the ‘debtor.’ Executive acknowledges that Executive may consciously intend these consequences even as to Claims for damages that may exist as of the date Executive executes this Release that Executive does not know exist, and which, if known, would materially affect Executive’s decision to execute this Release, regardless of whether the lack of knowledge is the result of ignorance, oversight, error, negligence or any other cause. Executive further is not waiving Executive’s right to indemnity for necessary expenditures or losses (e.g., reimbursement of business expenses) incurred on behalf of the Company as provided in Section 2802 of the California Labor Code.]

For the purpose of giving a full and complete release, Executive understands and agrees that this Release includes all Claims covered by this Release that Executive may now have but does not know or suspect to exist in Executive’s favor against the Released Parties, and that this Release extinguishes those Claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the waiver and release provisions set forth in this Release are not an attempt to cause Executive to waive or release rights or Claims that may arise after the date this Release is executed.

Executive affirms that Executive has fully reviewed the terms of this Agreement, affirms that Executive understands its terms, and states that Executive is entering into this Agreement knowingly, voluntarily and in full settlement of all Claims which existed in the past or which currently exist, that arise out of Executive’s employment with the Company or Executive’s severance from employment with the Company.

Executive acknowledges that Executive has had at least [twenty-one (21)]² days to consider this Agreement thoroughly, and that the Company has specifically advised Executive to consult with an attorney, if Executive wishes, before Executive signs below. If Executive signs and returns this Agreement before the end of the [twenty-one (21)]-day period, Executive certifies that Executive’s acceptance of a shortened time period is knowing and voluntary, and the Company did not improperly encourage Executive to sign through fraud, misrepresentation, a threat to withdraw or alter the offer before the [twenty-one (21)]-day period expires, or by providing different terms to other employees who sign the release before such time period expires. Executive understands that Executive may revoke this Agreement within seven (7) days after Executive signs it. Executive’s revocation must be in writing and submitted within the seven-day period. If Executive does not revoke this Agreement within the seven-day period, it becomes effective and irrevocable.

Executive acknowledges that the waiver and release provisions set forth in this Release are in exchange for good and valuable consideration that is in addition to anything of value to which Executive was already entitled.

AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) dated as of February 10, 2020, by and among Scott Bruce (“Executive”), APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“OpCo”), and Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited (to be known as “Digital Landscape Group, Inc.”) (“PubliCo”), (OpCo and PubliCo being referred to collectively as the “Company”).

WHEREAS, Executive and the Company previously entered into an employment agreement, dated as of November 19, 2019; and

WHEREAS, Executive and the Company desire to amend and restate the employment agreement on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual agreements herein contained, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Services

SECTION 1.01. Term. The initial term of this Agreement shall commence upon the closing of the merger (the “Merger”) contemplated by the merger agreement (the “Merger Agreement”), dated as of the date hereof, by and among PubliCo, OpCo, AP WIP Investments Holdings, LP, Associated Partners, L.P. (“Associated”) and certain other parties (the “Effective Date”), and, unless terminated earlier as set forth herein, shall continue through the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date (the “Initial Term”). The Term (as defined below) shall be automatically extended for successive one (1) year periods upon the expiration of the Initial Term unless Executive or the Company notifies the other party in writing at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term, or of any extension thereof (each such date, a “Notification Date”), of such party’s desire to terminate the Term upon the expiration of the Initial Term or extension thereof, provided, however, that if there occurs a Potential Change in Control (as defined below) at any time during the Term (other than following the date that the Company or Executive has notified the other party in writing of such party’s desire not to extend the Term upon expiration thereof, the Company has provided Executive with notice of termination or Executive has provided notice of resignation, in each case, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement), the Term shall be deemed automatically extended until the one (1)-year anniversary of the Change in Control transaction that relates to such Potential Change in Control, provided that in the event that, prior to consummation of the relevant Change in Control transaction, such transaction is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof or such transaction is abandoned, such automatic extension shall be null and void ab initio. In the event the relevant Change in Control transaction is terminated or abandoned following the time when the Term would have otherwise ended, the Company or the Executive shall be entitled to give written notice to the other party of its desire not to extend the Term during the ninety (90)-day period commencing on the earliest of the date that (1) such transaction is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof or (2) such transaction is abandoned, and the Term shall terminate one hundred twenty (120) days following delivery of such notice; provided that if neither the Company nor Executive delivers notice during such period, then the Term shall automatically continue until the next scheduled expiration date and, thereafter, in accordance with the second sentence of this Section 1.01, the Notification Date shall occur at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Term as then in effect. For purposes of this Agreement, "Term" shall mean the Initial Term, together with any extensions thereof and shall terminate automatically upon termination of Executive's employment with the Company for any reason, provided that, to the extent set forth in Section 6.09, the rights and obligations of the parties shall survive expiration or other termination of the Term. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Agreement shall be null and void ab initio if the Merger Agreement is terminated and the closing of the Merger does not occur or Executive's employment with Associated or one of its affiliates terminates for any reason prior to the closing of the Merger.

SECTION 1.02. Position and Duties. During the Term, Executive shall serve as the President of the Company, reporting to the Chief Executive Officer of PubliCo (the "PubliCo CEO"). Executive shall perform those duties and have those authorities commensurate with the position of president of a company of the size and scope of the Company. At the request of the Board of Directors of PubliCo (the "PubliCo Board"), and subject to such reasonable conditions as Executive may reasonably establish, Executive agrees to serve as an officer, director or other appointee with respect to any Subsidiary of PubliCo. For the avoidance of doubt, Executive will not be entitled to any additional compensation or benefits from the Company or any of its Subsidiaries with respect to service in such other officer, director or other appointee position.

SECTION 1.03. Time and Effort. During the Term, Executive shall devote substantially all of Executive's business time, attention, skill and efforts (which shall not require Executive to be physically present at any particular work location) to the business and affairs of the Company and its Subsidiaries, except for vacation, holiday and sick leave and periods of illness or incapacity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive shall be permitted to (a) devote a reasonable amount of Executive's time and attention to the wind-down of Associated, consistent with his fiduciary duties to the investors of Associated, (b) serve on nonprofit or government advisory boards and engage in charitable, philanthropic and community activities, (c) manage Executive's personal investments and affairs and (d) continue the activities set forth on the schedule that Executive delivered to the Company on or prior to the date hereof, provided that the outside activities described in clauses (a) through (d) shall not, either individually or in the aggregate, (i) interfere with Executive's attention to the Company and its Subsidiaries, including by causing an unreasonable distraction to Executive or by creating any conflict of interest or (ii) result in a breach of any of the restrictive covenants set forth in Article V. Any other outside business activities not expressly described herein shall require the prior written approval of the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized Committee thereof), which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

ARTICLE II

Compensation

SECTION 2.01. Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall, as compensation for the obligations set forth herein and for all services rendered by Executive in any capacity during such employment under this Agreement, including services as an officer, employee or other appointee with respect to the Company, pay Executive a base salary (“Base Salary”) at the annual rate of $700,000 per year, payable in accordance with the Company’s standard payroll practices as in effect from time to time. The Base Salary shall be reviewed by the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof) on an annual basis for increases but not decreases.

SECTION 2.02. Annual Bonus. Commencing with the first fiscal year during the Term, Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual performance-based cash bonus (the “Annual Bonus”) in a targeted amount equal to thirty-two and a half percent (32.5%) of Executive’s base salary (the “Target Bonus”). The actual amount paid will depend on the degree to which annual performance goal(s), established by the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof), are determined by the PubliCo Board (or such committee) to have been achieved. Solely with respect to PubliCo’s 2020 fiscal year, the Annual Bonus shall be guaranteed at no less than $225,000, provided that Executive remains employed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries or affiliates, through the end of PubliCo’s 2020 fiscal year to which the Annual Bonus relates. The Annual Bonus shall be paid at the time as is customary for other senior executives of the Company, but in any event in the fiscal year following the end of the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates, but in no event later than the thirtieth (30th) day after the date on which the PubliCo Board approves the Company’s consolidated audited financial statements for the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates.

SECTION 2.03. Initial LTIP Award. On the Effective Date, OpCo and PubliCo, as applicable, shall grant Executive an initial award (collectively, the “Initial LTIP Award”) of (a) profits interests in OpCo (“LTIP Units”) and (b) voting shares of PubliCo’s stock that have no economic rights granted in tandem with the LTIP Units (“Tandem Shares”), which in each case, following vesting and equitization of such LTIP Units and Tandem Shares, are exchangeable, as a whole, for shares of PubliCo stock that have both voting and economic rights pursuant to PubliCo’s 2020 Equity Incentive Plan, as may be amended from time to time. The Initial LTIP Award shall consist of: (i) 525,455 time-based Series A LTIP Units and an equal number of time-based shares of Class B Common Stock, (ii) 415,454 performance-based Series A LTIP Units and an equal number of performance-based shares of Class B Common Stock and (iii) 75,000 Series B LTIP Units and an equal number of Series B Founder Preferred Shares. The Initial LTIP Award shall be subject to an award agreement, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, that shall be entered into with effect as of the Effective Date and shall not differ from Exhibit A, other than as a result of inclusion of the Grant Date and the LTIP Notional Amount (each, as defined in Exhibit A). For purposes of this Agreement, the terms “Series A LTIP Units”, “Class B Common Stock”, “Series B LTIP Units” and “Series B Founder Preferred Shares” shall each have the definitions as set forth in OpCo’s First Amended and Restated Limited Liability Agreement, as may be amended from time to time (the “OpCo Operating Agreement”).

ARTICLE III

Benefits and Other Matters

SECTION 3.01. Benefit Plans. During the Term, Executive and Executive's eligible family members shall be entitled to participate in any benefit plans (excluding severance plans, which is otherwise addressed in this Agreement) offered by the Company as in effect from time to time (collectively, "Benefit Plans"), on the same basis generally made available to other senior executives of the Company (except to the extent necessary to reflect that Executive is a Member (as defined in the OpCo Operating Agreement) of OpCo) and to the extent Executive and Executive's family members may be eligible to do so, subject to the terms of any such Benefit Plan. Executive understands that any Benefit Plan may be terminated or amended from time to time by the Company in its discretion.

SECTION 3.02. Vacation. During the Term, Executive shall be entitled to thirty (30) days of vacation per calendar year in accordance with the Company's vacation policies as in effect from time to time. Any accrued, but unused vacation shall not be paid out upon Executive's termination of employment, except as may be required by applicable state law.

SECTION 3.03. Director and Officer Indemnification. During the Term and thereafter, the Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, PubliCo's First Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association or the OpCo Operating Agreement (and any successor governing documents, each, as may be amended from time to time (collectively, the "Governing Documents")), promptly indemnify Executive against all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in defending legal proceedings) incurred by Executive in connection with any actual, threatened or reasonably anticipated claim, suit, action or proceeding arising in connection with the execution, discharge or exercise of Executive's duties as an officer or director of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and/or the exercise of Executive's powers in Executive's capacity as an officer or director of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise in relation thereto, provided, however, in no event shall Executive be indemnified or held harmless for liability arising out of Executive's fraud. Such expenses shall be promptly advanced to Executive to the fullest extent permitted by law or the Governing Documents, provided that if it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction without further right of appeal that Executive is not entitled to such indemnification, reimbursement or advancement, then Executive shall promptly return all such amounts to the Company. The Company shall also provide and maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage for Executive's benefit during Executive's service with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in any capacity and for a period six (6) years thereafter, provided that such coverage shall be no less favorable than the coverage provided to other senior executives of the Company or directors of PubliCo.

SECTION 3.04. Business Expenses. The Company shall promptly reimburse Executive for all reasonable and customary out-of-pocket business expenses incurred by Executive in connection with Executive's service hereunder, in accordance with the Company's policies as may be in effect from time to time.

ARTICLE IV

Termination

SECTION 4.01. Non-Duplication of Severance. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or elsewhere, in no event shall Executive be entitled to severance benefits under any Company Plan (as defined below) that are duplicative of severance benefits provided under this Agreement.

SECTION 4.02. Notice of Termination. The Company shall provide at least sixty (60) days' written notice for any involuntary termination of Executive's employment by the Company other than for Cause (as defined below), death or Disability (as defined below), and Executive shall provide at least sixty (60) days' written notice for a resignation without Good Reason (as defined below), provided that, in the case of such involuntary termination by the Company, the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof) shall have the discretion to provide pay in lieu of notice. Except as set forth in this Section 4.02, any non-extension of the Term by the Company (other than for Cause) pursuant to notice from the Company under Section 1.01 prior to the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date shall be deemed an involuntary termination of Executive's employment by the Company other than for Cause, death or Disability for all purposes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Company elects, pursuant to Section 1.01, not to extend the Term, effective on or after the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date, the Company may elect to either (a) provide Executive with the severance and other separation benefits pursuant to Section 4.05 or (b) release Executive from his covenants under Sections 5.03 and 5.04 (non-solicitation and non-competition), in which case the Company shall not be required to provide Executive with any severance or other termination benefits pursuant to Section 4.05 (other than the Accrued Benefits), provided that the Company must provide written notice to Executive of such election no later than ninety (90) days prior to the termination of the Term, provided further, that this sentence shall not apply if Executive would otherwise be entitled to severance and termination benefits pursuant to Section 4.06, rather than pursuant to Section 4.05, or for the period that the Term is automatically extended beyond the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date in connection with a Potential Change in Control as set forth in Section 1.01.

SECTION 4.03. Termination by the Company for Cause or by Executive without Good Reason. If the Company terminates Executive's employment for Cause, or if Executive terminates Executive's employment with the Company without Good Reason, no severance will be payable to Executive, provided that Executive shall be entitled to payment of accrued and vested compensation and benefits, including vested LTIP Units and Tandem Shares, accrued base salary, reimbursement of unpaid business expenses in accordance with Section 3.04 and any other or additional benefits to which Executive may then or thereafter be entitled under the then-applicable terms of any applicable Company Plan (as defined below) (collectively, the "Accrued Benefits").

SECTION 4.04. Termination for Disability or Death. Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate immediately upon Executive's death or Disability. In the event of a termination due to death or Disability, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive or Executive's estate, as the case may be, shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to the effectiveness and irrevocability of the Release (as defined below):

(a) payment of a pro rata portion of the Annual Bonus in respect of the fiscal year in which such termination occurs based on the number of days elapsed in such year through the effective date of Executive's termination of employment (the "Effective Termination Date") and actual achievement of applicable performance goals, except that any performance goals based on Executive's personal performance shall be treated as attained at no less than the target level, and any other performance goals shall be deemed achieved at least at the level applicable to similarly situated active employees of the Company, and paid when annual bonuses are paid (or, if earlier, due to be paid) to other senior executives of the Company (the "Pro Rata Bonus Payment");

(b) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year in which the Effective Termination Date occurs, paid when bonuses are paid (or, if earlier, due to be paid) to other senior executives of the Company;

(d) unless otherwise provided in the applicable award agreement, the time-based vesting conditions for all outstanding LTIP Units and related Tandem Shares and other Company equity-based awards shall be deemed satisfied based on the number of full or partial years that have elapsed between the applicable grant date and the Effective Termination Date, plus one (1) additional year of service, provided, however, that vesting shall not occur for any portion of the performance-based awards unless and until the applicable performance goals are satisfied (or deemed satisfied) within the period set forth in the relevant award agreement and, to the extent that such performance goals are not so satisfied (or deemed satisfied), such awards shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration upon expiration of the relevant performance period.

SECTION 4.05. Non-Change-in-Control Termination. If Executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause, death or Disability, or by Executive with Good Reason, in each case other than within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to the effectiveness and irrevocability of the Release:

- (a) one (1) times the sum of (x) the Base Salary and (y) the Annual Bonus earned in respect of the fiscal year ending immediately prior to the Effective Termination Date (the "Prior Year Bonus"), payable in equal biweekly installments in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices over twelve (12) months following the Effective Termination Date, provided that any installments that would otherwise have been paid prior to satisfaction of the release condition set forth in Section 4.07 shall be accumulated and paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following satisfaction of such condition, provided further that, to the extent necessary to comply with Section 409A, if the period during which the Release must be executed and become irrevocable spans two (2) calendar years, payment of installments shall commence in the second calendar year, and the timing of such installments may be subject to further restrictions under Section 409A as set forth in Section 6.15 of this Agreement;
- (b) the Pro Rata Bonus Payment, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(a);

- (e) full accelerated vesting of the Initial LTIP Award (to the extent then outstanding), with all other LTIP Units and other Company equity-based awards treated in accordance with the applicable award agreements.

If, following the Effective Termination Date and prior to a Change in Control, Executive breaches any of his obligations pursuant to the restrictive covenants set forth in Section 5.02 or Section 5.03, and such breach results in significant reputational or monetary harm to the Company, then Executive shall forfeit his right to receive any unpaid amounts pursuant to Section 4.05(a), (b) and (d), and Executive shall promptly repay to the Company any such amount previously paid to Executive pursuant to Sections 4.05(a), (b) and (d), provided, however, that the Company shall provide written notice to Executive of an alleged breach of any such restrictive covenants within thirty (30) days of such alleged breach (or such later date as the PubliCo Board could reasonably have been expected to know of such a breach), and Executive shall have thirty (30) days to cure such alleged breach, if curable.

SECTION 4.06. Change-in-Control Termination. If Executive's employment is terminated by the Company (x) in an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination or (y) other than for Cause, death or Disability within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, or is terminated by Executive with Good Reason within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to effectiveness of the Release:

- (a) two (2) times the sum of (x) the Base Salary and (y) the Prior Year Bonus, payable in a lump sum within sixty-five (65) days following the Effective Termination Date (or, if payment on such date is not permitted by Section 409A, then at the times set forth in Section 4.05(a));
- (b) payment of a pro rata portion of the Target Bonus in respect of the year in which the Effective Termination Date occurs, paid in a lump sum within sixty-five (65) days following the Effective Termination Date;
- (c) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year of termination, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(b);
- (d) payment of the COBRA Equivalent within sixty-five (65) days of the Effective Termination Date (or, if payment on such date is not permitted by Section 409A, then at the times set forth in Section 4.04(c)), provided that such amount shall be paid based on twenty-four (24) months of coverage, rather than eighteen (18) months; and
- (e) full accelerated vesting of all outstanding LTIP Units, Tandem Shares and other Company equity-based awards, unless otherwise set forth in the applicable award agreements.

If, following a termination of Executive's employment pursuant to Section 4.05, such termination of employment becomes an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination, then Executive shall be entitled to a lump-sum cash payment, payable within sixty-five (65) days after the Change in Control, in an aggregate amount equal to the excess, if any, of (x) the aggregate amount set forth in Sections 4.06(a) and 4.06(d) less (y) the aggregate amount previously paid to Executive pursuant to Sections 4.05(a) and 4.05(d), provided that to the extent that any portion of such amount is not permitted to be paid within sixty-five (65) days after the Change in Control as a result of Section 409A, then such portion shall be paid at the time set forth in Section 4.05(a) or 4.05(d), as applicable. In the event that Executive becomes entitled to payments pursuant to Section 4.06 as a result of an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination, there shall be no duplication of payment under both Sections 4.05 and 4.06.

SECTION 4.07. Release. Payments and benefits described in Sections 4.04, 4.05 and 4.06, other than the Accrued Benefits, are conditioned upon Executive's or Executive's estate's, as the case may be, execution and delivery of a release of claims substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Release") no later than fifty (50) days following the Effective Termination Date and not revoking the Release during the period specified therein. In the event of Executive's death or a judicial determination of his incapacity, references in this Agreement to Executive shall be deemed (where appropriate) to be references to his heir(s), beneficiary(ies), estate, executor(s) or other legal representative(s).

Furthermore, if either Executive or the Company (or any officer or director of PubliCo) makes any statement in breach of this Section 5.09, then a truthful response to such statement by the other party shall not be considered a breach of such party's obligations pursuant to this Section 5.09.

SECTION 5.10. Specific Performance. Executive agrees that any material breach by Executive or the Company of any of the provisions of this Article V may cause irreparable harm to the other party that could not be made whole by monetary damages and that, in the event of such a breach, the breaching party shall waive the defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate, and the other party shall be entitled to seek to specifically enforce the terms and provisions of this Article V without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting any bond or providing prior notice, in any court of competent jurisdiction, in addition to any other remedy such party may obtain through arbitration in accordance with Section 6.07.

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to reduce or limit the Company’s rights, title, or interest in any Work Product or Intellectual Property Rights therein so as to be less in any respect than that the Company would have had in the absence of this Agreement.

(c) Further Assurances; Power of Attorney. During and after the Term, Executive agrees, upon reasonable request and subject to such reasonable conditions as he may reasonably establish, to cooperate with the Company to (a) apply for, obtain, perfect, and transfer to the Company the Work Product as well as any and all Intellectual Property Rights in the Work Product in any jurisdiction in the world; and (b) maintain, protect and enforce the same, including, without limitation, giving testimony and executing and delivering to the Company any and all applications, oaths, declarations, affidavits, waivers, assignments, and other documents and instruments as shall be requested by the Company. Executive hereby irrevocably grants the Company power of attorney to execute and deliver any such documents on Executive’s behalf in Executive’s name and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to transfer the Work Product to the Company and further the transfer, prosecution, issuance, and maintenance of all Intellectual Property Rights therein, to the full extent permitted by law, if Executive does not promptly cooperate with the Company’s request (without limiting the rights the Company shall have in such circumstances by operation of law). The power of attorney is coupled with an interest and shall not be affected by Executive’s subsequent incapacity.

(d) No License. Executive understands that this Agreement does not, and shall not be construed to, grant Executive any license or right of any nature with respect to any Work Product, Intellectual Property Rights therein, software, or other tools made available to Executive by the Company.

Miscellaneous

SECTION 6.01. Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assignable by Executive. The parties agree that any attempt by Executive to delegate Executive’s duties hereunder shall be null and void. This Agreement may not be assigned or transferred by PubliCo or OpCo to any Person other than a successor to all, or substantially all, of the business and assets of the assignor/transferor. Upon such assignment or transfer, the rights and obligations of the assignor/transferor hereunder shall become the rights and obligations of such successor. As used in this Agreement, the term “the Company” shall mean, (a) OpCo and PubliCo, collectively, as hereinbefore defined in the recital to this Agreement, (b) to the extent provided in Section 5.01, their respective Subsidiaries, and (c) any permitted assignee to which this Agreement is assigned.

SECTION 6.02. Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Company and its permitted successors. The Company shall assign its rights and obligations hereunder to any permitted successor. Upon any such assignment, the Company shall cause such successor expressly to assume such obligations, and such rights and obligations shall inure to and be binding upon any such successor.

SECTION 6.03. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the award agreement in respect of the Initial LTIP Award, constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the parties and with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby and the subject matter hereof and supersedes and replaces any and all prior agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, written or oral, express or implied and/or whenever and howsoever made, directly or indirectly relating to the subject matter hereof, including the employment agreement, dated as of November 19, 2019, that Executive previously entered into with the Company and PubliCo.

SECTION 6.04. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended, modified, superseded or altered, and the terms and covenants hereof may be waived, only by written instrument executed by each of the parties hereto, or in the case of a waiver, by the party waiving compliance. The failure of any party at any time or times to require performance of any provision hereof shall in no manner affect such party’s right at a later time to enforce the same. No waiver by any party of the breach of any term or covenant contained in this Agreement, in any one or more instances, shall be deemed to be, or construed as, a further or continuing waiver of any such breach, or a waiver of the breach of any other term or covenant contained in this Agreement.

SECTION 6.05. Notice. All documents, notices, requests, demands and other communications that are required or permitted to be delivered or given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly delivered or given when received.

SECTION 6.06. Each of the parties may change the address to which notices under this Agreement shall be sent by providing written notice to the other in the manner specified above.

SECTION 6.07. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution.

(a) Except as otherwise required by applicable law, this Agreement shall be governed, interpreted and enforced in accordance with its express terms, and otherwise in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to principles of conflicts of laws.

(b) Except to the extent otherwise provided in Section 5.10 with respect to certain claims for injunctive relief, any dispute or controversy arising under or relating to this Agreement, Executive's employment hereunder or any termination thereof (whether based on contract or tort or upon any federal, state or local statute, including but not limited to claims asserted under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, any state Fair Employment Practices Act and/or the Americans with Disability Act) shall be submitted to JAMS and resolved through confidential arbitration in accordance with the JAMS Employment Arbitration Rules & Procedures. Any arbitration hearings shall be conducted in Philadelphia, PA before a single arbitrator (rather than a panel of arbitrators) with substantial experience in the matters in dispute. The resolution of any such dispute or controversy by the arbitrator shall be final and binding, except to the extent otherwise provided by applicable law. Judgment upon any award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The Company shall promptly pay all administrative costs and arbitration fees, and all legal fees, court costs and other costs and expenses incurred by Executive in connection with any claim or dispute that is subject to arbitration under this Section 6.07(b) or that is brought pursuant to Section 5.10, provided that if the Company substantially prevails with respect to such claim or dispute, Executive, shall promptly repay any fees and costs (other than fees and other charges of JAMS, the American Arbitration Association, or the arbitrator) incurred by Executive, and paid by the Company, in connection with any claim as to which the Company has substantially prevailed. If at the time any dispute or controversy arises with respect to this Agreement, JAMS is not in business or is no longer providing arbitration services, then any arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

SECTION 6.08. Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or condition of this Agreement is held by a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, then such provision, covenant or condition shall, as to such jurisdiction, be modified or restricted to the extent necessary to make such provision valid, binding and enforceable, or, if such provision cannot be modified or restricted, then such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be deemed to be excised from this Agreement and any such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability with respect to such provision shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction, and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

SECTION 6.09. Survival. The rights and obligations of the Company and Executive under the provisions of this Agreement, including Sections 3.03 and 3.04 and Articles IV, V and VI, shall survive and remain binding and enforceable, notwithstanding any termination of the Term, to the extent necessary to preserve the intended benefits of such provisions.

SECTION 6.10. Cooperation. During the three-year period following termination of the Term, Executive shall provide Executive's reasonable cooperation to the Company and its Subsidiaries in connection with any suit, action or proceeding (or any appeal therefrom) that relates to events occurring during Executive's employment with the Company and its Subsidiaries and as to which Executive has relevant knowledge, other than a suit between Executive, on the one hand, and the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, on the other hand, provided that any such cooperation shall be subject to Executive's other personal and professional commitments, and the Company shall promptly pay (or promptly reimburse) any expenses reasonably incurred by Executive in connection with such cooperation.

SECTION 6.11. Representations.

(a) Executive hereby represents to the Company that the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Executive and the Company and the performance by Executive of Executive's duties hereunder shall not constitute a breach of, or otherwise contravene, or be prevented, interfered with or hindered by, the terms of any employment agreement or other agreement or policy to which Executive is a party or otherwise bound.

(b) The Company hereby represents to Executive that it is fully authorized, by any Person or body whose authorization is required, to enter into, and carry out the terms of, this Agreement, and that its ability to enter into, and carry out the terms of, this Agreement is not limited by any Company Plan.

SECTION 6.12. No Waiver. The provisions of this Agreement may be waived only in writing signed by the party or parties entitled to the benefit thereof. A waiver or any breach or failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not in any way affect, limit or waive a party's rights hereunder at any time to enforce strict compliance thereafter with every provision of this Agreement.

SECTION 6.13. No Offset. The Company's obligation to pay Executive the amounts, and to provide the benefits, hereunder shall not be subject to set-off, counterclaim or recoupment of amounts owed by Executive to the Company. In addition, there shall be no offset against any such payments or benefits for any amounts or benefits earned by Executive, after the Effective Termination Date, from subsequent employment or otherwise.

SECTION 6.14. Withholding Taxes. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state, local and foreign taxes as may be required to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation.

SECTION 6.15. Section 409A. It is intended that the provisions of this Agreement comply with, or are exempt from, Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and any related regulations or other pronouncements thereunder ("Section 409A"), and all provisions of this Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A.

(a) Neither Executive nor any of his creditors or beneficiaries shall have the right to subject any deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) payable under this Agreement or under any other plan, policy, arrangement, corporate governance document, or agreement of or with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (this Agreement and such other plans, policies, arrangements, documents, and agreements, the "Company Plans") to any anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, attachment or garnishment. Except as permitted under Section 409A, any deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) payable to Executive or for Executive's benefit under any Company Plan may not be reduced by, or offset against, any amount owing by Executive to the Company.

(b) If, at the time of Executive's separation from service (within the meaning of Section 409A), (i) Executive shall be a specified employee (within the meaning of Section 409A and using the identification methodology selected by the Company from time to time) and (ii) the Company shall make a good faith determination that an amount payable under a Company Plan constitutes deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) the payment of which is required to be delayed pursuant to the six-month delay rule set forth in Section 409A in order to avoid taxes or penalties under Section 409A, then the Company shall not pay such amount on the otherwise scheduled payment date but shall instead accumulate such amount and pay it on the first business day after such six-month period.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement or any Company Plan to the contrary, in light of the uncertainty with respect to the proper application of Section 409A, the Company and Executive shall cooperate in good faith to make amendments to any Company Plan as are necessary or desirable to avoid the imposition of taxes or penalties under Section 409A. In any case, Executive is solely responsible and liable for the satisfaction of all taxes and penalties that may be imposed on Executive or for Executive's account in connection with any Company Plan (including any taxes and penalties under Section 409A), and the Company shall not have any obligation to indemnify or otherwise hold Executive harmless from any or all of such taxes or penalties, in each case, other than any taxes or penalties resulting from a breach by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries of the terms of any Company Plan.

(d) For purposes of Section 409A, each payment hereunder will be deemed to be a separate payment as permitted under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-2(b)(2)(iii). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Executive shall not be entitled to any payments or benefits payable hereunder as a result of Executive's termination of employment with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that constitute "deferred compensation" under Section 409A unless such termination of employment qualifies as a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 409A. Executive shall have no duties following the Effective Termination Date that are inconsistent with Executive having had a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 409A on or before the Effective Termination Date.

(e) Except as specifically permitted by Section 409A, any benefits and reimbursements provided to Executive under this Agreement during any calendar year shall not affect any benefits and reimbursements to be provided to Executive under this Agreement in any other calendar year, and the right to such benefits and reimbursements cannot be liquidated or exchanged for any other benefit. Furthermore, reimbursement payments shall be made to Executive as soon as practicable following the date that the applicable expense is incurred, but in no event later than the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the underlying expense is incurred.

SECTION 6.16. Limitation on Certain Payments. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement:

(a) In the event it is determined by an independent nationally recognized public accounting firm, which is engaged and paid for by the Company prior to the consummation of any transaction constituting a 280G Change in Control (which for purposes of this Section 6.16 shall mean a change in ownership or control as determined in accordance with the regulations promulgated under Section 280G of the Code), which accounting firm shall in no event be the accounting firm for the entity seeking to effectuate the 280G Change in Control (the "Accountant"), which determination shall be certified by the Accountant and set forth in a certificate delivered to Executive not less than ten business days prior to the 280G Change in Control setting forth in reasonable detail the basis of the Accountant's calculations and determinations (including any assumptions that the Accountant made in performing the calculations), that part or all of the consideration, compensation or benefits (collectively, "Benefits") to be paid to Executive under this Agreement constitute "parachute payments" under

Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code, then, if the aggregate present value of such parachute payments (determined in accordance with Section 280G of the Code), singularly or together with the aggregate present value of any consideration, compensation or benefits to be paid to Executive under any other plan, arrangement or agreement which constitute “parachute payments” (collectively, the “Parachute Amount”) exceeds the maximum amount that would not give rise to any liability under Section 4999 of the Code, Benefits constituting “parachute payments” which would otherwise be paid or provided to Executive or for Executive’s benefit shall be reduced to the maximum amount that would not give rise to any liability under Section 4999 of the Code (the “Reduced Amount”), provided that such Benefits shall not be so reduced if the Accountant determines that without such reduction Executive would be entitled to receive and retain, on a net after-tax present-value basis (including, without limitation, any excise taxes payable under Section 4999 of the Code), Benefits whose value is greater than the Benefits, valued on a net after-tax present-value basis, that Executive would be entitled to retain upon receipt of the Reduced Amount, provided further that such reduction in Benefits shall be first applied to reduce any cash payments that Executive would otherwise be entitled to receive (whether pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise) and shall thereafter be applied to reduce other payments and benefits, in each case in reverse order beginning with the payments or benefits that are to be paid the furthest in time after the date of such determination, unless, to the extent permitted by Section 409A, Executive elects to have the reduction in payments applied in a different order, provided that, in no event, may such payments or benefits be reduced in a manner that would result in subjecting Executive to additional taxation under Section 409A. For the avoidance of doubt, this provision shall reduce the Parachute Amount otherwise payable to Executive, only if doing so would place Executive in a better net after-tax present-value economic position as compared with not doing so (taking into account any excise taxes payable in respect of such Parachute Amount). In connection with making determinations under this Section 6.16, the Accountant shall take into account any positions to mitigate any excise taxes payable under Section 4999 of the Code, such as the value of any reasonable compensation for services to be rendered by Executive before or after the 280G Change in Control, including any amounts payable to Executive following Executive’s termination of employment hereunder with respect to any non-competition provisions that may apply to Executive, and the Company shall cooperate in the valuation of any such services, including any non-competition provisions.

(b) If the determination made pursuant to Section 6.16(a) results in a reduction of the payments that would otherwise be paid to Executive except for the application of Section 6.16(a), the Company shall promptly give Executive notice of such determination and of the reductions to be applied. Within five (5) business days following such determination, the Company shall pay or distribute to Executive, or for Executive’s benefit, such amounts as are then due to Executive under this Agreement or any other Company Plan and shall promptly pay or distribute to Executive, or for Executive’s benefit, in the future such amounts as become due to Executive under this Agreement.

(c) As a result of the uncertainty in the application of Sections 280G and 4999 of the Code at the time of a determination under this Section 6.16, it is possible that amounts will have been paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit pursuant to this Agreement which should not have been so paid or distributed (each, an “Overpayment”) or that additional amounts which will have not been paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit pursuant to this Agreement could have been so paid or distributed without incurring tax under Section 4999 of the Code (each, an “Underpayment”), in each case, consistent with the calculation of the Reduced Amount hereunder. In the event that the Accountant, based upon the assertion of a deficiency by the Internal Revenue Service against the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or Executive, on which the Accountant believes the Internal Revenue Service should prevail, determines that an Overpayment has been made, any such Overpayment paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit shall be repaid by Executive to the Company or such Subsidiary together with interest at the applicable federal rate provided for in Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code, provided, however, that no such repayment shall be required if and to the extent such deemed repayment would not either reduce the amount on which Executive is subject to tax under Sections 1 and 4999 of the Code or generate a refund of such taxes. In the event that the Accountant, based on controlling precedent or substantial authority, determines that an Underpayment has occurred, any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company or its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit together with interest at the applicable federal rate provided for in Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code.

(d) In the event of any dispute with the Internal Revenue Service (or other taxing authority) with respect to the application of this Section 6.16, Executive shall control the issues involved in such dispute and make all final determinations with regard to such issues.

SECTION 6.17. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed (including by facsimile or PDF) in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original instrument and all of which together shall constitute a single instrument. Any signature delivered by facsimile or by PDF shall create a valid and binding obligation of the party executing (or on whose behalf the signature is executed) with the same force and effect as if such facsimile or PDF signature were an original thereof.

SECTION 6.18. Construction. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement. In this Agreement unless a clear contrary intention appears: (a) the singular number includes the plural number and vice versa, (b) reference to any “Person” includes such Person’s successors and assigns but, if applicable, only if such successors and assigns are not prohibited by this Agreement, and reference to a Person in a particular capacity excludes such Person in any other capacity or individually, (c) reference to any gender includes each other gender, (d) reference to any agreement, document or instrument means such agreement, document or instrument as amended or modified and in effect from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof, (e) “hereunder”, “hereof”, “hereto”, “herein” and words of similar import shall be deemed references to this Agreement as a whole, including the Exhibits, and not to any particular Article, Section or other provision thereof, (f) “including” (and with correlative meaning “include” and “includes”) means including without limiting the generality of any description preceding such term, (g) references to documents, instruments or agreements shall be deemed to refer as well to all addenda, exhibits, schedules or amendments thereto, (h) the words “party” or “parties” shall refer to parties to this Agreement and their permitted successors, (i) all references to provisions, Sections, Articles or Exhibits are to provisions, Sections, Articles and Exhibits of this Agreement, unless otherwise expressly specified, (j) the word “or” is disjunctive and not exclusive, (k) the words “dollar” or “$” means U.S. dollars, (l) the word “day” means calendar day and (m) “promptly” means within thirty (30) days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have duly executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

RELEASE

This Release is made by Scott Bruce ("Executive") for the benefit of APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("OpCo"), and Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited, a company incorporated in the British Virgin Islands ("PubliCo"), (OpCo, PubliCo and their respective affiliates are referred to collectively as the "Company"), as of the date set forth below in connection with the Employment Agreement, dated November 19, 2019, among Executive, OpCo and PubliCo (the "Employment Agreement"), and in association with Executive's termination of employment with the Company. All capitalized terms used herein, to the extent not defined, shall have the meaning set forth in the Employment Agreement.

In exchange for the payments and benefits provided under the Employment Agreement, Executive, for himself, his family, his attorneys, agents, heirs and personal representatives, hereby releases and discharges the Company, as well as all of its past, present and future shareholders, parents, agents, directors, officers, employees, representatives, principals, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors and all persons acting by, through, under or in concert with the Company (collectively referred to as the "Released Parties"), from any and all non-statutory claims, obligations, debts, liabilities, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, accounts, covenants, contracts, agreements and damages whatsoever of every name and nature, known and unknown, which Executive ever had, or now has, against the Released Parties (collectively, "Claims") to the date of this Release, both in law and equity, arising out of or in any way related to Executive's employment with the Company or the termination of that employment, including any Claims that Executive is entitled to any compensation or benefits from any Released Party, other than as set forth in Article IV of the Employment Agreement or as otherwise set forth herein. The Claims Executive releases include, but are not limited to, Claims that the Released Parties:

(A) discriminated against Executive on the basis of race, color, sex (including Claims of sexual harassment), national origin, ancestry, disability, religion, sexual orientation, marital status, parental status, veteran status, source of income, entitlement to benefits, union activities, age or any other claim or right Executive may have under the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act or any other status protected by local, state or Federal laws, constitutions, regulations, ordinances or executive orders;

(B) failed to give proper notice of this employment termination under the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, or any similar state or local statute or ordinance;

(C) violated any other Federal, state or local employment statute, such as the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, which, among other things, protects employee benefits; the Fair Labor Standards Act, which regulates wage and hour matters; the Family and Medical Leave Act, which requires employers to provide leaves of

absence under certain circumstances; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; the Americans With Disabilities Act; the Rehabilitation Act; the Occupational Safety and Health Act; and any other Federal, state or local laws relating to employment;¹

(D) violated the Released Parties' personnel policies, handbooks, any covenant of good faith and fair dealing, or any contract of employment between Executive and any of the Released Parties;

(E) violated public policy or common law, including Claims for personal injury, invasion of privacy, retaliatory discharge, negligent hiring, retention or supervision, defamation, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress and/or mental anguish, intentional interference with contract, negligence, detrimental reliance, loss of consortium to Executive or any member of Executive's family and/or promissory estoppel; or

(F) are in any way obligated for any reason to pay damages, expenses, litigation costs (including attorneys' fees), bonuses, commissions, disability benefits, compensatory damages, punitive damages and/or interest.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive is not prohibited from asserting any (a) rights to indemnification and advancement of legal fees and expenses provided by law; (b) rights to contribution in the event of the entry of judgment against Executive as a result of any act or failure to act for which both Executive and the Company are jointly responsible; (c) rights Executive may have as a shareholder of PubliCo, a Member of OpCo or otherwise as an interest holder of the Company; (d) as required by law, rights under state workers' compensation or unemployment laws; or (e) rights which by law cannot be waived, including Executive's rights to file a charge with an administrative agency or to participate in an agency investigation, including but not limited to the right to file a charge with, or participate in an investigation or proceeding conducted by, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. In addition, this Release does not constitute a waiver or release of any of Executive's rights to payments or benefits pursuant to the Employment Agreement, including the Accrued Benefits and the payments and benefits under Section [4.05] [4.06] of the Employment Agreement.

[For California employees: Executive agrees that this Release is intended to encompass Claims that are both known and unknown to Executive. In that regard, Executive expressly relinquishes and waives any rights Executive may have under California Civil Code section 1542, or any other statutes of like effect. California Civil Code section 1542 provides:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him, would have materially affected his settlement with the debtor or released party.

Executive is referred to in this statute as the ‘creditor’ and the Company is referred to as the ‘debtor.’ Executive acknowledges that Executive may consciously intend these consequences even as to Claims for damages that may exist as of the date Executive executes this Release that Executive does not know exist, and which, if known, would materially affect Executive’s decision to execute this Release, regardless of whether the lack of knowledge is the result of ignorance, oversight, error, negligence or any other cause. Executive further is not waiving Executive’s right to indemnity for necessary expenditures or losses (e.g., reimbursement of business expenses) incurred on behalf of the Company as provided in Section 2802 of the California Labor Code.]

For the purpose of giving a full and complete release, Executive understands and agrees that this Release includes all Claims covered by this Release that Executive may now have but does not know or suspect to exist in Executive’s favor against the Released Parties, and that this Release extinguishes those Claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the waiver and release provisions set forth in this Release are not an attempt to cause Executive to waive or release rights or Claims that may arise after the date this Release is executed.

Executive affirms that Executive has fully reviewed the terms of this Agreement, affirms that Executive understands its terms, and states that Executive is entering into this Agreement knowingly, voluntarily and in full settlement of all Claims which existed in the past or which currently exist, that arise out of Executive’s employment with the Company or Executive’s severance from employment with the Company.

Executive acknowledges that Executive has had at least [twenty-one (21)]² days to consider this Agreement thoroughly, and that the Company has specifically advised Executive to consult with an attorney, if Executive wishes, before Executive signs below. If Executive signs and returns this Agreement before the end of the [twenty-one (21)]-day period, Executive certifies that Executive’s acceptance of a shortened time period is knowing and voluntary, and the Company did not improperly encourage Executive to sign through fraud, misrepresentation, a threat to withdraw or alter the offer before the [twenty-one (21)]-day period expires, or by providing different terms to other employees who sign the release before such time period expires. Executive understands that Executive may revoke this Agreement within seven (7) days after Executive signs it. Executive’s revocation must be in writing and submitted within the seven-day period. If Executive does not revoke this Agreement within the seven-day period, it becomes effective and irrevocable.

Executive acknowledges that the waiver and release provisions set forth in this Release are in exchange for good and valuable consideration that is in addition to anything of value to which Executive was already entitled.

AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) dated as of February 10, 2020, by and among Richard Goldstein (“Executive”), APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“OpCo”), and Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited (to be known as “Digital Landscape Group, Inc.”) (“PubliCo”), (OpCo and PubliCo being referred to collectively as the “Company”).

WHEREAS, Executive and the Company previously entered into an employment agreement, dated as of November 19, 2019; and

WHEREAS, Executive and the Company desire to amend and restate the employment agreement on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual agreements herein contained, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Services

SECTION 1.01. Term. The initial term of this Agreement shall commence upon the closing of the merger (the “Merger”) contemplated by the merger agreement (the “Merger Agreement”), dated as of the date hereof, by and among PubliCo, OpCo, AP WIP Investments Holdings, LP, Associated Partners, L.P. (“Associated”) and certain other parties (the “Effective Date”), and, unless terminated earlier as set forth herein, shall continue through the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date (the “Initial Term”). The Term (as defined below) shall be automatically extended for successive one (1) year periods upon the expiration of the Initial Term unless Executive or the Company notifies the other party in writing at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term, or of any extension thereof (each such date, a “Notification Date”), of such party’s desire to terminate the Term upon the expiration of the Initial Term or extension thereof, provided, however, that if there occurs a Potential Change in Control (as defined below) at any time during the Term (other than following the date that the Company or Executive has notified the other party in writing of such party’s desire not to extend the Term upon expiration thereof, the Company has provided Executive with notice of termination or Executive has provided notice of resignation, in each case, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement), the Term shall be deemed automatically extended until the one (1)-year anniversary of the Change in Control transaction that relates to such Potential Change in Control, provided that in the event that, prior to consummation of the relevant Change in Control transaction, such transaction is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof or such transaction is abandoned, such automatic extension shall be null and void ab initio. In the event the relevant Change in Control transaction is terminated or abandoned following the time when the Term would have otherwise ended, the Company or the Executive shall be entitled to give written notice to the other party of its desire not to extend the Term during the ninety (90)-day period commencing on the earliest of the date that (1) such transaction is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof or (2) such transaction is abandoned, and the Term shall terminate one hundred twenty (120) days following delivery of such notice, provided that if neither the Company nor Executive delivers notice during such period, then the Term shall automatically continue until the next scheduled expiration date and, thereafter, in accordance with the second sentence of this Section 1.01, the Notification Date shall occur at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Term as then in effect. For purposes of this Agreement, "Term" shall mean the Initial Term, together with any extensions thereof and shall terminate automatically upon termination of Executive's employment with the Company for any reason, provided that, to the extent set forth in Section 6.09, the rights and obligations of the parties shall survive expiration or other termination of the Term. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Agreement shall be null and void ab initio if the Merger Agreement is terminated and the closing of the Merger does not occur or Executive's employment with Associated or one of its affiliates terminates for any reason prior to the closing of the Merger.

SECTION 1.02. Position and Duties. During the Term, Executive shall serve as the Chief Operating Officer of the Company, reporting to the Chief Executive Officer of PubliCo (the "PubliCo CEO"). Executive shall perform those duties and have those authorities commensurate with the position of chief operating officer of a company of the size and scope of the Company. At the request of the Board of Directors of PubliCo (the "PubliCo Board"), and subject to such reasonable conditions as Executive may reasonably establish, Executive agrees to serve as an officer, director or other appointee with respect to any Subsidiary of PubliCo. For the avoidance of doubt, Executive will not be entitled to any additional compensation or benefits from the Company or any of its Subsidiaries with respect to service in such other officer, director or other appointee position.

SECTION 1.03. Time and Effort. During the Term, Executive shall devote substantially all of Executive's business time, attention, skill and efforts (which shall not require Executive to be physically present at any particular work location) to the business and affairs of the Company and its Subsidiaries, except for vacation, holiday and sick leave and periods of illness or incapacity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive shall be permitted to (a) devote a reasonable amount of Executive's time and attention to the wind-down of Associated, consistent with his fiduciary duties to the investors of Associated, (b) serve on nonprofit or government advisory boards and engage in charitable, philanthropic and community activities, (c) manage Executive's personal investments and affairs and (d) continue the activities set forth on the schedule that Executive delivered to the Company on or prior to the date hereof, provided that the outside activities described in clauses (a) through (d) shall not, either individually or in the aggregate, (i) interfere with Executive's attention to the Company and its Subsidiaries, including by causing an unreasonable distraction to Executive or by creating any conflict of interest or (ii) result in a breach of any of the restrictive covenants set forth in Article V. Any other outside business activities not expressly described herein shall require the prior written approval of the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized Committee thereof), which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

ARTICLE II

Compensation

SECTION 2.01. Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall, as compensation for the obligations set forth herein and for all services rendered by Executive in any capacity during such employment under this Agreement, including services as an officer, employee or other appointee with respect to the Company, pay Executive a base salary ("Base Salary") at the annual rate of $700,000 per year, payable in accordance with the Company's standard payroll practices as in effect from time to time. The Base Salary shall be reviewed by the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof) on an annual basis for increases but not decreases.

SECTION 2.02. Annual Bonus. Commencing with the first fiscal year during the Term, Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual performance-based cash bonus (the "Annual Bonus") in a targeted amount equal to thirty-two and a half percent (32.5%) of Executive's base salary (the "Target Bonus"). The actual amount paid will depend on the degree to which annual performance goal(s), established by the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof), are determined by the PubliCo Board (or such committee) to have been achieved. Solely with respect to PubliCo's 2020 fiscal year, the Annual Bonus shall be guaranteed at no less than $225,000, provided that Executive remains employed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries or affiliates, through the end of PubliCo's 2020 fiscal year to which the Annual Bonus relates. The Annual Bonus shall be paid at the time as is customary for other senior executives of the Company, but in any event in the fiscal year following the end of the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates, but in no event later than the thirtieth (30th) day after the date on which the PubliCo Board approves the Company's consolidated audited financial statements for the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates.

SECTION 2.03. Initial LTIP Award. On the Effective Date, OpCo and PubliCo, as applicable, shall grant Executive an initial award (collectively, the "Initial LTIP Award") of (a) profits interests in OpCo ("LTIP Units") and (b) voting shares of PubliCo's stock that have no economic rights granted in tandem with the LTIP Units ("Tandem Shares"), which in each case, following vesting and equitization of such LTIP Units and Tandem Shares, are exchangeable, as a whole, for shares of PubliCo stock that have both voting and economic rights pursuant to PubliCo's 2020 Equity Incentive Plan, as may be amended from time to time. The Initial LTIP Award shall consist of: (i) 525,455 time-based Series A LTIP Units and an equal number of time-based shares of Class B Common Stock, (ii) 415,454 performance-based Series A LTIP Units and an equal number of performance-based shares of Class B Common Stock and (iii) 75,000 Series B LTIP Units and an equal number of Series B Founder Preferred Shares. The Initial LTIP Award shall be subject to an award agreement, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, that shall be entered into with effect as of the Effective Date and shall not differ from Exhibit A, other than as a result of inclusion of the Grant Date and the LTIP Notional Amount (each, as defined in Exhibit A). For purposes of this Agreement, the terms "Series A LTIP Units", "Class B Common Stock", "Series B LTIP Units" and "Series B Founder Preferred Shares" shall each have the definitions as set forth in OpCo's First Amended and Restated Limited Liability Agreement, as may be amended from time to time (the "OpCo Operating Agreement").

ARTICLE III

Benefits and Other Matters

SECTION 3.01. Benefit Plans. During the Term, Executive and Executive's eligible family members shall be entitled to participate in any benefit plans (excluding severance plans, which is otherwise addressed in this Agreement) offered by the Company as in effect from time to time (collectively, "Benefit Plans"), on the same basis generally made available to other senior executives of the Company (except to the extent necessary to reflect that Executive is a Member (as defined in the OpCo Operating Agreement) of OpCo) and to the extent Executive and Executive's family members may be eligible to do so, subject to the terms of any such Benefit Plan. Executive understands that any Benefit Plan may be terminated or amended from time to time by the Company in its discretion.

SECTION 3.02. Vacation. During the Term, Executive shall be entitled to thirty (30) days of vacation per calendar year in accordance with the Company's vacation policies as in effect from time to time. Any accrued, but unused vacation shall not be paid out upon Executive's termination of employment, except as may be required by applicable state law.

SECTION 3.03. Director and Officer Indemnification. During the Term and thereafter, the Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, PubliCo's First Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association or the OpCo Operating Agreement (and any successor governing documents, each, as may be amended from time to time (collectively, the "Governing Documents")), promptly indemnify Executive against all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in defending legal proceedings) incurred by Executive in connection with any actual, threatened or reasonably anticipated claim, suit, action or proceeding arising in connection with the execution, discharge or exercise of Executive's duties as an officer or director of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and/or the exercise of Executive's powers in Executive's capacity as an officer or director of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise in relation thereto, provided, however, in no event shall Executive be indemnified or held harmless for liability arising out of Executive's fraud. Such expenses shall be promptly advanced to Executive to the fullest extent permitted by law or the Governing Documents, provided that if it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction without further right of appeal that Executive is not entitled to such indemnification, reimbursement or advancement, then Executive shall promptly return all such amounts to the Company. The Company shall also provide and maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage for Executive's benefit during Executive's service with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in any capacity and for a period six (6) years thereafter, provided that such coverage shall be no less favorable than the coverage provided to other senior executives of the Company or directors of PubliCo.

SECTION 3.04. Business Expenses. The Company shall promptly reimburse Executive for all reasonable and customary out-of-pocket business expenses incurred by Executive in connection with Executive's service hereunder, in accordance with the Company's policies as may be in effect from time to time.

ARTICLE IV

Termination

SECTION 4.01. Non-Duplication of Severance. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or elsewhere, in no event shall Executive be entitled to severance benefits under any Company Plan (as defined below) that are duplicative of severance benefits provided under this Agreement.

SECTION 4.02. Notice of Termination. The Company shall provide at least sixty (60) days' written notice for any involuntary termination of Executive's employment by the Company other than for Cause (as defined below), death or Disability (as defined below), and Executive shall provide at least sixty (60) days' written notice for a resignation without Good Reason (as defined below), provided that, in the case of such involuntary termination by the Company, the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof) shall have the discretion to provide pay in lieu of notice. Except as set forth in this Section 4.02, any non-extension of the Term by the Company (other than for Cause) pursuant to notice from the Company under Section 1.01 prior to the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date shall be deemed an involuntary termination of Executive's employment by the Company other than for Cause, death or Disability for all purposes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Company elects, pursuant to Section 1.01, not to extend the Term, effective on or after the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date, the Company may elect to either (a) provide Executive with the severance and other separation benefits pursuant to Section 4.05 or (b) release Executive from his covenants under Sections 5.03 and 5.04 (non-solicitation and non-competition), in which case the Company shall not be required to provide Executive with any severance or other termination benefits pursuant to Section 4.05 (other than the Accrued Benefits), provided that the Company must provide written notice to Executive of such election no later than ninety (90) days prior to the termination of the Term, provided further, that this sentence shall not apply if Executive would otherwise be entitled to severance and termination benefits pursuant to Section 4.06, rather than pursuant to Section 4.05, or for the period that the Term is automatically extended beyond the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date in connection with a Potential Change in Control as set forth in Section 1.01.

SECTION 4.03. Termination by the Company for Cause or by Executive without Good Reason. If the Company terminates Executive's employment for Cause, or if Executive terminates Executive's employment with the Company without Good Reason, no severance will be payable to Executive, provided that Executive shall be entitled to payment of accrued and vested compensation and benefits, including vested LTIP Units and Tandem Shares, accrued base salary, reimbursement of unpaid business expenses in accordance with Section 3.04 and any other or additional benefits to which Executive may then or thereafter be entitled under the then-applicable terms of any applicable Company Plan (as defined below) (collectively, the "Accrued Benefits").

SECTION 4.04. Termination for Disability or Death. Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate immediately upon Executive's death or Disability. In the event of a termination due to death or Disability, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive or Executive's estate, as the case may be, shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to the effectiveness and irrevocability of the Release (as defined below):

(a) payment of a pro rata portion of the Annual Bonus in respect of the fiscal year in which such termination occurs based on the number of days elapsed in such year through the effective date of Executive's termination of employment (the "Effective Termination Date") and actual achievement of applicable performance goals, except that any performance goals based on Executive's personal performance shall be treated as attained at no less than the target level, and any other performance goals shall be deemed achieved at least at the level applicable to similarly situated active employees of the Company, and paid when annual bonuses are paid (or, if earlier, due to be paid) to other senior executives of the Company (the "Pro Rata Bonus Payment");

(b) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year in which the Effective Termination Date occurs, paid when bonuses are paid (or, if earlier, due to be paid) to other senior executives of the Company;

(c) payment of the monthly COBRA premiums that Executive would be required to pay to continue his group health coverage as in effect on the date of his termination for himself and, if applicable, his eligible covered dependents for a period of eighteen (18) months following the Effective Termination Date, which payment shall be made regardless of whether Executive elects COBRA continuation coverage (the "COBRA Equivalent Payment"), payable in equal biweekly installments in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices over eighteen (18) months following the Effective Termination Date, provided that any installments that would otherwise have been paid prior to satisfaction of the release condition set forth in Section 4.07 shall be accumulated and paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following satisfaction of such condition, provided further that, to the extent necessary to comply with Section 409A (as defined below), if the period during which the Release must be executed and become irrevocable spans two (2) calendar years, payment of installments shall commence in the second calendar year, and the timing of such installments may be subject to further restrictions under Section 409A as set forth in Section 6.15 of this Agreement; and agreement and, to the extent that such performance goals are not so satisfied (or deemed satisfied), such awards shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration upon expiration of the relevant performance period.

(d) unless otherwise provided in the applicable award agreement, the time-based vesting conditions for all outstanding LTIP Units and related Tandem Shares and other Company equity-based awards shall be deemed satisfied based on the number of full or partial years that have elapsed between the applicable grant date and the Effective Termination Date, plus one (1) additional year of service, provided, however, that vesting shall not occur for any portion of the performance-based awards unless and until the applicable performance goals are satisfied (or deemed satisfied) within the period set forth in the relevant award

SECTION 4.05. Non-Change-in-Control Termination. If Executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause, death or Disability, or by Executive with Good Reason, in each case other than within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to the effectiveness and irrevocability of the Release:

- (a) one (1) times the sum of (x) the Base Salary and (y) the Annual Bonus earned in respect of the fiscal year ending immediately prior to the Effective Termination Date (the "Prior Year Bonus"), payable in equal biweekly installments in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices over twelve (12) months following the Effective Termination Date, provided that any installments that would otherwise have been paid prior to satisfaction of the release condition set forth in Section 4.07 shall be accumulated and paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following satisfaction of such condition, provided further that, to the extent necessary to comply with Section 409A, if the period during which the Release must be executed and become irrevocable spans two (2) calendar years, payment of installments shall commence in the second calendar year, and the timing of such installments may be subject to further restrictions under Section 409A as set forth in Section 6.15 of this Agreement;
- (b) the Pro Rata Bonus Payment, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(a);
- (c) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year of termination, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(b);
- (d) payment of the COBRA Equivalent Payment, paid at the times set forth in Section 4.04(c); and
- (e) full accelerated vesting of the Initial LTIP Award (to the extent then outstanding), with all other LTIP Units and other Company equity-based awards treated in accordance with the applicable award agreements.

If, following the Effective Termination Date and prior to a Change in Control, Executive breaches any of his obligations pursuant to the restrictive covenants set forth in Section 5.02 or Section 5.03, and such breach results in significant reputational or monetary harm to the Company, then Executive shall forfeit his right to receive any unpaid amounts pursuant to Section 4.05(a), (b) and (d), and Executive shall promptly repay to the Company any such amount previously paid to Executive pursuant to Sections 4.05(a), (b) and (d), provided, however, that the Company shall provide written notice to Executive of an alleged breach of any such restrictive covenants within thirty (30) days of such alleged breach (or such later date as the PubliCo Board could reasonably have been expected to know of such a breach), and Executive shall have thirty (30) days to cure such alleged breach, if curable.

SECTION 4.06. Change-in-Control Termination. If Executive's employment is terminated by the Company (x) in an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination or (y) other than for Cause, death or Disability within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, or is terminated by Executive with Good Reason within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to effectiveness of the Release:

- (a) two (2) times the sum of (x) the Base Salary and (y) the Prior Year Bonus, payable in a lump sum within sixty-five (65) days following the Effective Termination Date (or, if payment on such date is not permitted by Section 409A, then at the times set forth in Section 4.05(a));
- (b) payment of a pro rata portion of the Target Bonus in respect of the year in which the Effective Termination Date occurs, paid in a lump sum within sixty-five (65) days following the Effective Termination Date;
- (c) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year of termination, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(b);
- (d) payment of the COBRA Equivalent within sixty-five (65) days of the Effective Termination Date (or, if payment on such date is not permitted by Section 409A, then at the times set forth in Section 4.04(c)), provided that such amount shall be paid based on twenty-four (24) months of coverage, rather than eighteen (18) months; and
- (e) full accelerated vesting of all outstanding LTIP Units, Tandem Shares and other Company equity-based awards, unless otherwise set forth in the applicable award agreements.

If, following a termination of Executive's employment pursuant to Section 4.05, such termination of employment becomes an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination, then Executive shall be entitled to a lump-sum cash payment, payable within sixty-five (65) days after the Change in Control, in an aggregate amount equal to the excess, if any, of (x) the aggregate amount set forth in Sections 4.06(a) and 4.06(d) less (y) the aggregate amount previously paid to Executive pursuant to Sections 4.05(a) and 4.05(d), provided that to the extent that any portion of such amount is not permitted to be paid within sixty-five (65) days after the Change in Control as a result of Section 409A, then such portion shall be paid at the time set forth in Section 4.05(a) or 4.05(d), as applicable. In the event that Executive becomes entitled to payments pursuant to Section 4.06 as a result of an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination, there shall be no duplication of payment under both Sections 4.05 and 4.06.

SECTION 4.07. Release. Payments and benefits described in Sections 4.04, 4.05 and 4.06, other than the Accrued Benefits, are conditioned upon Executive's or Executive's estate's, as the case may be, execution and delivery of a release of claims substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Release") no later than fifty (50) days following the Effective Termination Date and not revoking the Release during the period specified therein. In the event of Executive's death or a judicial determination of his incapacity, references in this Agreement to Executive shall be deemed (where appropriate) to be references to his heir(s), beneficiary(ies), estate, executor(s) or other legal representative(s).

SECTION 4.08. Definitions. For purposes of this agreement:

(c) "Beneficial Owner" means, with respect to any security, a Person (as defined below) who directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, understanding, relationship or otherwise, has or shares (i) voting power, which includes the power to vote, or to direct the voting of, with respect to such security or (ii) investment power, which includes the power to dispose of, or to direct the disposition of, such security.

Except in the case of clause (i), a purported termination of employment by the Company for Cause shall not be effective as a termination for Cause unless (A) the Company first furnishes written notice to Executive of the circumstance(s) alleged to constitute Cause within thirty (30) days following the date the PubliCo Board first becomes aware of such circumstance(s), (B) Executive has not cured those circumstance(s) within ninety (90) days following Executive's receipt of such written notice from the Company and (C) the Company terminates Executive's employment within ninety (90) days following the expiration of such cure period, provided that Executive shall not have the opportunity to cure a circumstance(s) alleged to constitute Cause if it is not capable of being cured or if it has caused material economic or reputational harm to the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, a “Change in Control” shall not be deemed to have occurred by virtue of the consummation of any transaction or series of integrated transactions immediately following which the record holders of the Class A Shares, Class B Shares (each, as defined in PubliCo’s 2020 Equity Incentive Plan) and the preferred shares, no par value, of PubliCo immediately prior to such transaction or series of transactions continue to have substantially the same proportionate ownership in and voting control over, and own substantially all of the shares of, an entity which owns all or substantially all of the assets of PubliCo immediately following such transaction or series of transactions.

(j) “Good Reason” means the occurrence of any of the following, without Executive’s prior written consent: (i) a material breach by the Company of its material obligations under this Agreement, any agreement between Executive and the Company evidencing LTIP Units or other Company equity-based awards, any other agreement between Executive and the Company in effect on the date hereof or any substantially similar agreement between Executive and the Company entered into following the date hereof; (ii) any relocation by the Company of Executive’s principal place of employment to a location more than fifty (50) miles from Executive’s current principal residence, as reflected on the books and records of the Company; or (iii) any material diminution in Executive’s position, duties, authority, titles, offices, reporting lines or responsibilities. A purported termination of employment by Executive with Good Reason shall not be effective as a termination with Good Reason unless (A) Executive furnishes written notice to the Company of the circumstance(s) alleged to Executive acknowledges that the Company has expended substantial amounts of time, money and effort to develop business strategies, customer relationships, employee relationships, trade secrets and goodwill and to build an effective organization, and that the Company has a legitimate business interest and right in protecting those assets as well as any similar assets that the Company may develop or obtain. Executive acknowledges that the Company is entitled to protect and preserve the going concern value of the Company and its business and trade secrets to the extent permitted by law. Executive acknowledges that the Company's business is international in scope. Executive acknowledges and agrees that the restrictions imposed upon Executive under this Agreement are reasonable and necessary for the protection of the Company's goodwill, confidential information, trade secrets and customer relationships, and that the restrictions set forth in this Agreement shall not prevent Executive from earning a livelihood without violating any provision of this Agreement. The parties agree that there will be no restrictions on Executive's post-employment activities, or on Executive's right to terminate his employment with PubliCo and OpCo, other than as expressly set forth in this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything elsewhere in this Agreement to the contrary, for purposes of this Section 5.01 and Sections 5.03, 5.04, 5.05, 5.08, 5.09 and 5.10, references to the Company shall be deemed to include its Subsidiaries.

SECTION 5.02. Consideration to Executive. In consideration of the Company's entering into this Agreement and the Company's obligations hereunder and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, and acknowledging hereby that the Company would not have entered into this Agreement without the covenants contained in this Article V, Executive hereby agrees to be bound by the provisions and covenants contained in this Article V.

SECTION 5.03. Employee Non-Solicitation and Customer and Business Relationships Noninterference. Except as set forth in the final sentence of Section 4.02, Executive agrees that, unless otherwise specifically permitted by the PubliCo Board in writing, for the period commencing on the Effective Date and terminating twelve (12) months after termination of the Term (such period, the "Restricted Period"), Executive shall not, directly or indirectly: (a) solicit any Person who (i) is or was a customer of, or lessor to, the Company or (ii) is a prospective customer of, or prospective lessor to, the Company whom, as of termination of the Term, Executive is aware the Company was actively pursuing to (A) purchase any goods or services, or to enter into leases, in competition with the Company in the Business (as defined below), from anyone other than the Company or (B) cease doing business with the Company; (b) other than on behalf of the Company, solicit, recruit or hire any employee of the Company or any individual who was, at any time within one (1) year prior to termination of the Term, employed by the Company; or (c) solicit or encourage any employee of the Company to leave the employment of the Company, in each case of clauses (b) and (c), except for Executive's administrative assistant(s) or any former employee of the Company whose employment was terminated by the Company involuntarily, other than for cause.

SECTION 5.04. Non-Competition. (a) Except as forth in the final sentence of Section 4.02, Executive agrees that, unless otherwise specifically authorized by the PubliCo Board in writing, during the Restricted Period, Executive shall not, and shall cause each of Executive's controlled affiliates (other than the Company) not to, directly or indirectly: (i) engage, consult, advise, own, operate, manage, control, invest in, provide services to or otherwise assist (as a director, officer, partner, principal, employee, member, consultant or in any other capacity) in any business that competes with the Company, as of termination of the Term, in any jurisdiction in which the Company is operating or is actively engaged in substantial preparations to operate (A) in the business of acquiring ground and rooftop leases underlying wireless cell sites or (B) in any other business in which the Company is actively engaged and that represents a material portion of the Company's overall operations as of the termination of the Term (collectively, the "Business"); or (ii) except as provided in Section 5.04(b), be employed by, consult with or advise any Person that, directly or indirectly, engages in the Business.

(b) This Section 5.04 shall not be deemed breached solely as a result of (i) the ownership by Executive of up to a two percent (2%) passive direct or indirect ownership interest in any public or private entity; (ii) Executive's employment by, or otherwise material association with, any organization or entity that competes with the Company in the Business so long as Executive's employment or association is with a separately managed and operated division or affiliate of such organization or entity that itself does not compete with the Company in the Business and Executive has no business communications or involvement that relates to the Business; and (iii) Executive's service on the board of directors (or similar body) of any organization or entity that competes with the Company in the Business as an immaterial part of such organization or entity's overall business so long as Executive recuses himself from all matters relating to the Business.

SECTION 5.05. Confidential Information. Executive hereby acknowledges that (a) in the performance of Executive's duties and services pursuant to this Agreement, Executive shall receive, and may be given access to, Confidential Information and (b) all Confidential Information is or will be the property of the Company. For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" shall mean information, knowledge and data that is or will be used, developed, obtained or owned by the Company relating to the business, products and/or services of the Company or the business, products and/or services of any customer, lessor, sales officer, sales associate or independent contractor thereof, including products, services, fees, pricing, designs, marketing plans, strategies, analyses, forecasts, formulas, drawings, photographs, reports, records, computer software (whether or not owned by, or designed for, the Company), other operating systems, applications, program listings, flow charts, manuals, documentation, data, databases, specifications, technology, inventions, new developments and methods, improvements, techniques, trade secrets, devices, products, methods, know-how, processes, financial data, customer lists, contact persons, cost information, executive information, regulatory matters, personnel matters, accounting and business methods, copyrightable works and information with respect to any vendor, customer, lessor, sales officer, sales associate or independent contractor of the Company, in each case whether patentable or unpatentable and whether or not reduced to practice, and all similar and related information in whatever form, and all such items of any vendor, customer, sales officer, sales associate or independent contractor of the Company, provided, however, that Confidential Information shall not include information that is generally known to the public other than as a result of disclosure by Executive in breach of this Agreement or in breach of any similar covenant made by Executive prior to entering into this Agreement.

SECTION 5.06. Non-Disclosure. During the Term and at all times thereafter, except as otherwise specifically provided in Section 5.07, Executive shall not, directly or indirectly, disclose or cause or permit to be disclosed, to any Person whatsoever, or utilize or cause or permit to be utilized, by any Person whatsoever, any Confidential Information acquired pursuant to Executive's employment with the Company (whether acquired prior to or subsequent to the execution of this Agreement) under this Agreement or otherwise.

SECTION 5.07. Permitted Disclosure. Nothing in this Agreement or elsewhere shall prohibit Executive from: (a) contacting, filing a claim with, or cooperating in an investigation by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Securities Exchange Commission, National Labor Relations Board, Department of Labor, Department of Justice, Occupational Safety and Health Administration or other federal, state or local agency;

(b) exercising any legally protected whistleblower rights (including pursuant to Rule 21F under the Exchange Act); (c) utilizing and disclosing information, including the Confidential Information, in connection with discharging Executive's duties to the Company; (d) disclosing Confidential Information to the extent Executive (i) is compelled to disclose such Confidential Information or else stand liable for contempt or suffer other censure or penalty or is required to disclose by judicial or administrative process, or by other requirements of applicable law or regulation or any governmental authority (including any applicable rule, regulation or order of a self-governing authority, such as the London Stock Exchange, the New York Stock Exchange or NASDAQ), provided that, where and to the extent legally permitted and reasonably practicable, Executive shall (A) give the Company reasonable notice of any such requirement and, to the extent protective measures consistent with such requirement are available, the opportunity to seek appropriate protective measures and (B) cooperate with Company in attempting to obtain such protective measures or (ii) discloses such information in connection with any litigation or arbitration between the Company and Executive; (e) disclosing documents and information in confidence to an attorney or other professional for the purposes of securing professional advice; (f) retaining, and using appropriately, documents and information relating to Executive's personal rights and obligations; or (g) disclosing Executive's notice obligations, and post-employment restrictions, in confidence in connection with any potential new employment or business opportunity.

SECTION 5.08. Records. All memoranda, books, records, documents, papers, plans, information, letters and other data relating to Confidential Information or the business and customer accounts of the Company, whether prepared by Executive or otherwise, coming into Executive's possession shall be and remain the exclusive property of the Company and Executive shall not, during the Term or thereafter, directly or indirectly assert any interest or property rights therein. Upon Executive's termination of employment with the Company for any reason, Executive will immediately return to the Company all such memoranda, books, records, documents, papers, plans, information, letters and other data, and all copies thereof or therefrom, and Executive will not retain, or cause or permit to be retained, any copies or other embodiments of the materials so returned. Executive further agrees that he will not retain or use for Executive's account at any time any trade names, trademark or other proprietary business designation used or owned in connection with the business of the Company.

SECTION 5.09. Mutual Non-Disparagement. (a) Executive shall not, at any time (whether prior to or following the Effective Termination Date), denigrate, ridicule, disparage or make any statement with the intent to criticize the Company or, with respect to their relationship with PubliCo, any of PubliCo's officers or directors in their capacity as officers or directors of PubliCo, and (b) the Company and PubliCo's officers and directors shall not, at any time (whether prior to or following the Effective Termination Date), denigrate, ridicule, disparage or make any statement with the intent to criticize Executive. This Section 5.09 shall not prohibit (i) Executive, the Company or PubliCo's officers or directors, individually or as a group, from testifying truthfully under oath pursuant to a lawful court order or subpoena or in connection with any litigation or arbitration between Executive and the Company or any of PubliCo's officers or directors or (ii) Executive from making the permitted disclosures set forth in Section 5.07. Furthermore, if either Executive or the Company (or any officer or director of PubliCo) makes any statement in breach of this Section 5.09, then a truthful response to such statement by the other party shall not be considered a breach of such party's obligations pursuant to this Section 5.09.

SECTION 5.10. Specific Performance. Executive agrees that any material breach by Executive or the Company of any of the provisions of this Article V may cause irreparable harm to the other party that could not be made whole by monetary damages and that, in the event of such a breach, the breaching party shall waive the defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate, and the other party shall be entitled to seek to specifically enforce the terms and provisions of this Article V without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting any bond or providing prior notice, in any court of competent jurisdiction, in addition to any other remedy such party may obtain through arbitration in accordance with Section 6.07.

SECTION 5.11. Proprietary Rights.

(a) Work Product. Executive acknowledges and agrees that all right, title, and interest in and to all writings, works of authorship, technology, inventions, discoveries, processes, techniques, methods, ideas, concepts, research, proposals, materials, and all other work product of any nature whatsoever, that are created, prepared, produced, authored, edited, amended, conceived, or reduced to practice by Executive individually or jointly with others during the Term and that specifically relate to the Business or specifically result from work performed by Executive for the Company, all rights and claims related to the foregoing, and all printed, physical and electronic copies, and other tangible embodiments thereof (collectively, "Work Product"), as well as any and all rights relating thereto in and to U.S. and foreign (i) patents, patent disclosures and inventions (whether patentable or not), (ii) trademarks, service marks, trade dress, trade names, logos, corporate names, and domain names, and other similar designations of source or origin, together with the goodwill symbolized by any of the foregoing, (iii) copyrights and copyrightable works (including computer programs), mask works, and rights in data and databases, (iv) trade secrets, know-how, and other confidential information, and (v) all other intellectual property rights relating thereto, in each case whether registered or unregistered and including all registrations and applications for, and renewals and extensions of, such rights, all improvements thereto and all similar or equivalent rights or forms of protection in any part of the world (collectively, "Intellectual Property Rights"), shall be the sole and exclusive property of the Company.

For purposes of this Agreement, Work Product may include, but is not limited to, Company information, including plans, publications, research, strategies, techniques, agreements, documents, contracts, terms of agreements, negotiations, know-how, computer programs, computer applications, software design, web design, work in process, databases, manuals, results, developments, reports, graphics, drawings, sketches, market studies, formulae, notes, communications, algorithms, product plans, product designs, styles, models, audiovisual programs, inventions, unpublished patent applications, original works of authorship, discoveries, experimental processes, experimental results, specifications, customer information, client information, customer lists, client lists, manufacturing information, marketing information, advertising information, and sales information.

(b) Work Made for Hire; Assignment. Executive acknowledges that, by reason of being employed by the Company at the relevant times, to the extent permitted by law, all of the Work Product consisting of copyrightable subject matter is “work made for hire” as defined in 17 U.S.C. § 101 and such copyrights are therefore owned by the Company. To the extent that the foregoing does not apply, Executive hereby irrevocably assigns to the Company, for no additional consideration, Executive’s entire right, title, and interest in and to all Work Product and Intellectual Property Rights therein, including the right to sue, counterclaim, and recover for all past, present, and future infringement, misappropriation, or dilution thereof, and all rights corresponding thereto throughout the world. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to reduce or limit the Company’s rights, title, or interest in any Work Product or Intellectual Property Rights therein so as to be less in any respect than that the Company would have had in the absence of this Agreement.

(c) Further Assurances; Power of Attorney. During and after the Term, Executive agrees, upon reasonable request and subject to such reasonable conditions as he may reasonably establish, to cooperate with the Company to (a) apply for, obtain, perfect, and transfer to the Company the Work Product as well as any and all Intellectual Property Rights in the Work Product in any jurisdiction in the world; and (b) maintain, protect and enforce the same, including, without limitation, giving testimony and executing and delivering to the Company any and all applications, oaths, declarations, affidavits, waivers, assignments, and other documents and instruments as shall be requested by the Company. Executive hereby irrevocably grants the Company power of attorney to execute and deliver any such documents on Executive’s behalf in Executive’s name and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to transfer the Work Product to the Company and further the transfer, prosecution, issuance, and maintenance of all Intellectual Property Rights therein, to the full extent permitted by law, if Executive does not promptly cooperate with the Company’s request (without limiting the rights the Company shall have in such circumstances by operation of law). The power of attorney is coupled with an interest and shall not be affected by Executive’s subsequent incapacity.

(d) No License. Executive understands that this Agreement does not, and shall not be construed to, grant Executive any license or right of any nature with respect to any Work Product, Intellectual Property Rights therein, software, or other tools made available to Executive by the Company.

Miscellaneous

SECTION 6.01. Assignment. This Agreement shall not be assignable by Executive. The parties agree that any attempt by Executive to delegate Executive’s duties hereunder shall be null and void. This Agreement may not be assigned or transferred by PubliCo or OpCo to any Person other than a successor to all, or substantially all, of the business and assets of the assignor/transferor. Upon such assignment or transfer, the rights and obligations of the assignor/transferor hereunder shall become the rights and obligations of such successor. As used in this Agreement, the term “the Company” shall mean, (a) OpCo and PubliCo, collectively, as hereinbefore defined in the recital to this Agreement, (b) to the extent provided in Section 5.01, their respective Subsidiaries, and (c) any permitted assignee to which this Agreement is assigned.

SECTION 6.02. Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the Company and its permitted successors. The Company shall assign its rights and obligations hereunder to any permitted successor. Upon any such assignment, the Company shall cause such successor expressly to assume such obligations, and such rights and obligations shall inure to and be binding upon any such successor.

SECTION 6.03. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the award agreement in respect of the Initial LTIP Award, constitutes the entire agreement and understanding of the parties and with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby and the subject matter hereof and supersedes and replaces any and all prior agreements, understandings, statements, representations and warranties, written or oral, express or implied and/or whenever and howsoever made, directly or indirectly relating to the subject matter hereof, including the employment agreement, dated as of November 19, 2019, that Executive previously entered into with the Company and PubliCo.

SECTION 6.04. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended, modified, superseded or altered, and the terms and covenants hereof may be waived, only by written instrument executed by each of the parties hereto, or in the case of a waiver, by the party waiving compliance. The failure of any party at any time or times to require performance of any provision hereof shall in no manner affect such party’s right at a later time to enforce the same. No waiver by any party of the breach of any term or covenant contained in this Agreement, in any one or more instances, shall be deemed to be, or construed as, a further or continuing waiver of any such breach, or a waiver of the breach of any other term or covenant contained in this Agreement.

SECTION 6.05. Notice. All documents, notices, requests, demands and other communications that are required or permitted to be delivered or given under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly delivered or given when received.

SECTION 6.06. Each of the parties may change the address to which notices under this Agreement shall be sent by providing written notice to the other in the manner specified above.

SECTION 6.07. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution.

(a) Except as otherwise required by applicable law, this Agreement shall be governed, interpreted and enforced in accordance with its express terms, and otherwise in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to principles of conflicts of laws.

(b) Except to the extent otherwise provided in Section 5.10 with respect to certain claims for injunctive relief, any dispute or controversy arising under or relating to this Agreement, Executive's employment hereunder or any termination thereof (whether based on contract or tort or upon any federal, state or local statute, including but not limited to claims asserted under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, any state Fair Employment Practices Act and/or the Americans with Disability Act) shall be submitted to JAMS and resolved through confidential arbitration in accordance with the JAMS Employment Arbitration Rules & Procedures. Any arbitration hearings shall be conducted in Philadelphia, PA before a single arbitrator (rather than a panel of arbitrators) with substantial experience in the matters in dispute. The resolution of any such dispute or controversy by the arbitrator shall be final and binding, except to the extent otherwise provided by applicable law. Judgment upon any award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The Company shall promptly pay all administrative costs and arbitration fees, and all legal fees, court costs and other costs and expenses incurred by Executive in connection with any claim or dispute that is subject to arbitration under this Section 6.07(b) or that is brought pursuant to Section 5.10, provided that if the Company substantially prevails with respect to such claim or dispute, Executive, shall promptly repay any fees and costs (other than fees and other charges of JAMS, the American Arbitration Association, or the arbitrator) incurred by Executive, and paid by the Company, in connection with any claim as to which the Company has substantially prevailed. If at the time any dispute or controversy arises with respect to this Agreement, JAMS is not in business or is no longer providing arbitration services, then any arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association.

SECTION 6.08. Severability. If any term, provision, covenant or condition of this Agreement is held by a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, void or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, then such provision, covenant or condition shall, as to such jurisdiction, be modified or restricted to the extent necessary to make such provision valid, binding and enforceable, or, if such provision cannot be modified or restricted, then such provision shall, as to such jurisdiction, be deemed to be excised from this Agreement and any such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability with respect to such provision shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction, and the remainder of the provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect and shall in no way be affected, impaired or invalidated.

SECTION 6.09. Survival. The rights and obligations of the Company and Executive under the provisions of this Agreement, including Sections 3.03 and 3.04 and Articles IV, V and VI, shall survive and remain binding and enforceable, notwithstanding any termination of the Term, to the extent necessary to preserve the intended benefits of such provisions.

SECTION 6.10. Cooperation. During the three-year period following termination of the Term, Executive shall provide Executive's reasonable cooperation to the Company and its Subsidiaries in connection with any suit, action or proceeding (or any appeal therefrom) that relates to events occurring during Executive's employment with the Company and its Subsidiaries and as to which Executive has relevant knowledge, other than a suit between Executive, on the one hand, and the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, on the other hand, provided that any such cooperation shall be subject to Executive's other personal and professional commitments, and the Company shall promptly pay (or promptly reimburse) any expenses reasonably incurred by Executive in connection with such cooperation.

SECTION 6.11. Representations.

(a) Executive hereby represents to the Company that the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Executive and the Company and the performance by Executive of Executive's duties hereunder shall not constitute a breach of, or otherwise contravene, or be prevented, interfered with or hindered by, the terms of any employment agreement or other agreement or policy to which Executive is a party or otherwise bound.

(b) The Company hereby represents to Executive that it is fully authorized, by any Person or body whose authorization is required, to enter into, and carry out the terms of, this Agreement, and that its ability to enter into, and carry out the terms of, this Agreement is not limited by any Company Plan.

SECTION 6.12. No Waiver. The provisions of this Agreement may be waived only in writing signed by the party or parties entitled to the benefit thereof. A waiver or any breach or failure to enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not in any way affect, limit or waive a party's rights hereunder at any time to enforce strict compliance thereafter with every provision of this Agreement.

SECTION 6.13. No Offset. The Company's obligation to pay Executive the amounts, and to provide the benefits, hereunder shall not be subject to set-off, counterclaim or recoupment of amounts owed by Executive to the Company. In addition, there shall be no offset against any such payments or benefits for any amounts or benefits earned by Executive, after the Effective Termination Date, from subsequent employment or otherwise.

SECTION 6.14. Withholding Taxes. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable under this Agreement such federal, state, local and foreign taxes as may be required to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation.

SECTION 6.15. Section 409A. It is intended that the provisions of this Agreement comply with, or are exempt from, Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and any related regulations or other pronouncements thereunder ("Section 409A"), and all provisions of this Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A.

(a) Neither Executive nor any of his creditors or beneficiaries shall have the right to subject any deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) payable under this Agreement or under any other plan, policy, arrangement, corporate governance document, or agreement of or with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (this Agreement and such other plans, policies, arrangements, documents, and agreements, the "Company Plans") to any anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, attachment or garnishment. Except as permitted under Section 409A, any deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) payable to Executive or for Executive's benefit under any Company Plan may not be reduced by, or offset against, any amount owing by Executive to the Company.

(b) If, at the time of Executive's separation from service (within the meaning of Section 409A), (i) Executive shall be a specified employee (within the meaning of Section 409A and using the identification methodology selected by the Company from time to time) and (ii) the Company shall make a good faith determination that an amount payable under a Company Plan constitutes deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) the payment of which is required to be delayed pursuant to the six-month delay rule set forth in Section 409A in order to avoid taxes or penalties under Section 409A, then the Company shall not pay such amount on the otherwise scheduled payment date but shall instead accumulate such amount and pay it on the first business day after such six-month period.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement or any Company Plan to the contrary, in light of the uncertainty with respect to the proper application of Section 409A, the Company and Executive shall cooperate in good faith to make amendments to any Company Plan as are necessary or desirable to avoid the imposition of taxes or penalties under Section 409A. In any case, Executive is solely responsible and liable for the satisfaction of all taxes and penalties that may be imposed on Executive or for Executive's account in connection with any Company Plan (including any taxes and penalties under Section 409A), and the Company shall not have any obligation to indemnify or otherwise hold Executive harmless from any or all of such taxes or penalties, in each case, other than any taxes or penalties resulting from a breach by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries of the terms of any Company Plan.

(d) For purposes of Section 409A, each payment hereunder will be deemed to be a separate payment as permitted under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-2(b)(2)(iii). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Executive shall not be entitled to any payments or benefits payable hereunder as a result of Executive's termination of employment with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that constitute "deferred compensation" under Section 409A unless such termination of employment qualifies as a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 409A. Executive shall have no duties following the Effective Termination Date that are inconsistent with Executive having had a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 409A on or before the Effective Termination Date.

(e) Except as specifically permitted by Section 409A, any benefits and reimbursements provided to Executive under this Agreement during any calendar year shall not affect any benefits and reimbursements to be provided to Executive under this Agreement in any other calendar year, and the right to such benefits and reimbursements cannot be liquidated or exchanged for any other benefit. Furthermore, reimbursement payments shall be made to Executive as soon as practicable following the date that the applicable expense is incurred, but in no event later than the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the underlying expense is incurred.

SECTION 6.16. Limitation on Certain Payments. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement:

(a) In the event it is determined by an independent nationally recognized public accounting firm, which is engaged and paid for by the Company prior to the consummation of any transaction constituting a 280G Change in Control (which for purposes of this Section 6.16 shall mean a change in ownership or control as determined in accordance with the regulations promulgated under Section 280G of the Code), which accounting firm shall in no event be the accounting firm for the entity seeking to effectuate the 280G Change in Control (the "Accountant"), which determination shall be certified by the Accountant and set forth in a certificate delivered to Executive not less than ten business days prior to the 280G Change in Control setting forth in reasonable detail the basis of the Accountant's calculations and determinations (including any assumptions that the Accountant made in performing the calculations), that part or all of the consideration, compensation or benefits (collectively, "Benefits") to be paid to Executive under this Agreement constitute "parachute payments" under

Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code, then, if the aggregate present value of such parachute payments (determined in accordance with Section 280G of the Code), singularly or together with the aggregate present value of any consideration, compensation or benefits to be paid to Executive under any other plan, arrangement or agreement which constitute “parachute payments” (collectively, the “Parachute Amount”) exceeds the maximum amount that would not give rise to any liability under Section 4999 of the Code, Benefits constituting “parachute payments” which would otherwise be paid or provided to Executive or for Executive’s benefit shall be reduced to the maximum amount that would not give rise to any liability under Section 4999 of the Code (the “Reduced Amount”), provided that such Benefits shall not be so reduced if the Accountant determines that without such reduction Executive would be entitled to receive and retain, on a net after-tax present-value basis (including, without limitation, any excise taxes payable under Section 4999 of the Code), Benefits whose value is greater than the Benefits, valued on a net after-tax present-value basis, that Executive would be entitled to retain upon receipt of the Reduced Amount, provided further that such reduction in Benefits shall be first applied to reduce any cash payments that Executive would otherwise be entitled to receive (whether pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise) and shall thereafter be applied to reduce other payments and benefits, in each case in reverse order beginning with the payments or benefits that are to be paid the furthest in time after the date of such determination, unless, to the extent permitted by Section 409A, Executive elects to have the reduction in payments applied in a different order, provided that, in no event, may such payments or benefits be reduced in a manner that would result in subjecting Executive to additional taxation under Section 409A. For the avoidance of doubt, this provision shall reduce the Parachute Amount otherwise payable to Executive, only if doing so would place Executive in a better net after-tax present-value economic position as compared with not doing so (taking into account any excise taxes payable in respect of such Parachute Amount). In connection with making determinations under this Section 6.16, the Accountant shall take into account any positions to mitigate any excise taxes payable under Section 4999 of the Code, such as the value of any reasonable compensation for services to be rendered by Executive before or after the 280G Change in Control, including any amounts payable to Executive following Executive’s termination of employment hereunder with respect to any non-competition provisions that may apply to Executive, and the Company shall cooperate in the valuation of any such services, including any non-competition provisions.

(b) If the determination made pursuant to Section 6.16(a) results in a reduction of the payments that would otherwise be paid to Executive except for the application of Section 6.16(a), the Company shall promptly give Executive notice of such determination and of the reductions to be applied. Within five (5) business days following such determination, the Company shall pay or distribute to Executive, or for Executive’s benefit, such amounts as are then due to Executive under this Agreement or any other Company Plan and shall promptly pay or distribute to Executive, or for Executive’s benefit, in the future such amounts as become due to Executive under this Agreement.

(c) As a result of the uncertainty in the application of Sections 280G and 4999 of the Code at the time of a determination under this Section 6.16, it is possible that amounts will have been paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit pursuant to this Agreement which should not have been so paid or distributed (each, an “Overpayment”) or that additional amounts which will have not been paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit pursuant to this Agreement could have been so paid or distributed without incurring tax under Section 4999 of the Code (each, an “Underpayment”), in each case, consistent with the calculation of the Reduced Amount hereunder. In the event that the Accountant, based upon the assertion of a deficiency by the Internal Revenue Service against the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or Executive, on which the Accountant believes the Internal Revenue Service should prevail, determines that an Overpayment has been made, any such Overpayment paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit shall be repaid by Executive to the Company or such Subsidiary together with interest at the applicable federal rate provided for in Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code, provided, however, that no such repayment shall be required if and to the extent such deemed repayment would not either reduce the amount on which Executive is subject to tax under Sections 1 and 4999 of the Code or generate a refund of such taxes. In the event that the Accountant, based on controlling precedent or substantial authority, determines that an Underpayment has occurred, any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company or its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit together with interest at the applicable federal rate provided for in Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code.

(d) In the event of any dispute with the Internal Revenue Service (or other taxing authority) with respect to the application of this Section 6.16, Executive shall control the issues involved in such dispute and make all final determinations with regard to such issues.

SECTION 6.17. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed (including by facsimile or PDF) in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original instrument and all of which together shall constitute a single instrument. Any signature delivered by facsimile or by PDF shall create a valid and binding obligation of the party executing (or on whose behalf the signature is executed) with the same force and effect as if such facsimile or PDF signature were an original thereof.

SECTION 6.18. Construction. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement. Form of Long-Term Incentive Plan Unit Agreement

RELEASE

This Release is made by Richard Goldstein ("Executive") for the benefit of APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("OpCo"), and Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited, a company incorporated in the British Virgin Islands ("PubliCo"), (OpCo, PubliCo and their respective affiliates are referred to collectively as the "Company"), as of the date set forth below in connection with the Employment Agreement, dated November 19, 2019, among Executive, OpCo and PubliCo (the "Employment Agreement"), and in association with Executive's termination of employment with the Company. All capitalized terms used herein, to the extent not defined, shall have the meaning set forth in the Employment Agreement.

In exchange for the payments and benefits provided under the Employment Agreement, Executive, for himself, his family, his attorneys, agents, heirs and personal representatives, hereby releases and discharges the Company, as well as all of its past, present and future shareholders, parents, agents, directors, officers, employees, representatives, principals, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors and all persons acting by, through, under or in concert with the Company (collectively referred to as the "Released Parties"), from any and all non-statutory claims, obligations, debts, liabilities, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, accounts, covenants, contracts, agreements and damages whatsoever of every name and nature, known and unknown, which Executive ever had, or now has, against the Released Parties (collectively, "Claims") to the date of this Release, both in law and equity, arising out of or in any way related to Executive's employment with the Company or the termination of that employment, including any Claims that Executive is entitled to any compensation or benefits from any Released Party, other than as set forth in Article IV of the Employment Agreement or as otherwise set forth herein. The Claims Executive releases include, but are not limited to, Claims that the Released Parties:

(A) discriminated against Executive on the basis of race, color, sex (including Claims of sexual harassment), national origin, ancestry, disability, religion, sexual orientation, marital status, parental status, veteran status, source of income, entitlement to benefits, union activities, age or any other claim or right Executive may have under the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act or any other status protected by local, state or Federal laws, constitutions, regulations, ordinances or executive orders;

(B) failed to give proper notice of this employment termination under the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, or any similar state or local statute or ordinance;

(C) violated any other Federal, state or local employment statute, such as the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, which, among other things, protects employee benefits; the Fair Labor Standards Act, which regulates wage and hour matters; the Family and Medical Leave Act, which requires employers to provide leaves of

absence under certain circumstances; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; the Americans With Disabilities Act; the Rehabilitation Act; the Occupational Safety and Health Act; and any other Federal, state or local laws relating to employment;¹

(D) violated the Released Parties' personnel policies, handbooks, any covenant of good faith and fair dealing, or any contract of employment between Executive and any of the Released Parties;

(E) violated public policy or common law, including Claims for personal injury, invasion of privacy, retaliatory discharge, negligent hiring, retention or supervision, defamation, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress and/or mental anguish, intentional interference with contract, negligence, detrimental reliance, loss of consortium to Executive or any member of Executive's family and/or promissory estoppel; or

(F) are in any way obligated for any reason to pay damages, expenses, litigation costs (including attorneys' fees), bonuses, commissions, disability benefits, compensatory damages, punitive damages and/or interest.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive is not prohibited from asserting any (a) rights to indemnification and advancement of legal fees and expenses provided by law; (b) rights to contribution in the event of the entry of judgment against Executive as a result of any act or failure to act for which both Executive and the Company are jointly responsible; (c) rights Executive may have as a shareholder of PubliCo, a Member of OpCo or otherwise as an interest holder of the Company; (d) as required by law, rights under state workers' compensation or unemployment laws; or (e) rights which by law cannot be waived, including Executive's rights to file a charge with an administrative agency or to participate in an agency investigation, including but not limited to the right to file a charge with, or participate in an investigation or proceeding conducted by, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. In addition, this Release does not constitute a waiver or release of any of Executive's rights to payments or benefits pursuant to the Employment Agreement, including the Accrued Benefits and the payments and benefits under Section [4.05] [4.06] of the Employment Agreement.

[For California employees: Executive agrees that this Release is intended to encompass Claims that are both known and unknown to Executive. In that regard, Executive expressly relinquishes and waives any rights Executive may have under California Civil Code section 1542, or any other statutes of like effect. California Civil Code section 1542 provides:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him, would have materially affected his settlement with the debtor or released party.

Executive is referred to in this statute as the ‘creditor’ and the Company is referred to as the ‘debtor.’ Executive acknowledges that Executive may consciously intend these consequences even as to Claims for damages that may exist as of the date Executive executes this Release that Executive does not know exist, and which, if known, would materially affect Executive’s decision to execute this Release, regardless of whether the lack of knowledge is the result of ignorance, oversight, error, negligence or any other cause. Executive further is not waiving Executive’s right to indemnity for necessary expenditures or losses (e.g., reimbursement of business expenses) incurred on behalf of the Company as provided in Section 2802 of the California Labor Code.]

For the purpose of giving a full and complete release, Executive understands and agrees that this Release includes all Claims covered by this Release that Executive may now have but does not know or suspect to exist in Executive’s favor against the Released Parties, and that this Release extinguishes those Claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the waiver and release provisions set forth in this Release are not an attempt to cause Executive to waive or release rights or Claims that may arise after the date this Release is executed.

Executive affirms that Executive has fully reviewed the terms of this Agreement, affirms that Executive understands its terms, and states that Executive is entering into this Agreement knowingly, voluntarily and in full settlement of all Claims which existed in the past or which currently exist, that arise out of Executive’s employment with the Company or Executive’s severance from employment with the Company.

Executive acknowledges that Executive has had at least [twenty-one (21)]² days to consider this Agreement thoroughly, and that the Company has specifically advised Executive to consult with an attorney, if Executive wishes, before Executive signs below. If Executive signs and returns this Agreement before the end of the [twenty-one (21)]-day period, Executive certifies that Executive’s acceptance of a shortened time period is knowing and voluntary, and the Company did not improperly encourage Executive to sign through fraud, misrepresentation, a threat to withdraw or alter the offer before the [twenty-one (21)]-day period expires, or by providing different terms to other employees who sign the release before such time period expires. Executive understands that Executive may revoke this Agreement within seven (7) days after Executive signs it. Executive’s revocation must be in writing and submitted within the seven-day period. If Executive does not revoke this Agreement within the seven-day period, it becomes effective and irrevocable.

Executive acknowledges that the waiver and release provisions set forth in this Release are in exchange for good and valuable consideration that is in addition to anything of value to which Executive was already entitled.

AMENDED AND RESTATED EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) dated as of February 10, 2020, by and among Jay Birnbaum (“Executive”), APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“OpCo”), and Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited (to be known as “Digital Landscape Group, Inc.”) (“PubliCo”), (OpCo and PubliCo being referred to collectively as the “Company”).

WHEREAS, Executive and the Company previously entered into an employment agreement, dated as of November 19, 2019; and

WHEREAS, Executive and the Company desire to amend and restate the employment agreement on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and mutual agreements herein contained, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

Services

SECTION 1.01. Term. The initial term of this Agreement shall commence upon the closing of the merger (the “Merger”) contemplated by the merger agreement (the “Merger Agreement”), dated as of the date hereof, by and among PubliCo, OpCo, AP WIP Investments Holdings, LP, Associated Partners, L.P. (“Associated”) and certain other parties (the “Effective Date”), and, unless terminated earlier as set forth herein, shall continue through the fifth (5th) anniversary of the Effective Date (the “Initial Term”). The Term (as defined below) shall be automatically extended for successive one (1) year periods upon the expiration of the Initial Term unless Executive or the Company notifies the other party in writing at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term, or of any extension thereof (each such date, a “Notification Date”), of such party’s desire to terminate the Term upon the expiration of the Initial Term or extension thereof, provided, however, that if there occurs a Potential Change in Control (as defined below) at any time during the Term (other than following the date that the Company or Executive has notified the other party in writing of such party’s desire not to extend the Term upon expiration thereof, the Company has provided Executive with notice of termination or Executive has provided notice of resignation, in each case, in accordance with the terms of this Agreement), the Term shall be deemed automatically extended until the one (1)-year anniversary of the Change in Control transaction that relates to such Potential Change in Control, provided that in the event that, prior to consummation of the relevant Change in Control transaction, such transaction is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof or such transaction is abandoned, such automatic extension shall be null and void ab initio. In the event the relevant Change in Control transaction is terminated or abandoned following the time when the Term would have otherwise ended, the Company or the Executive shall be entitled to give written notice to the other party of its desire not to extend the Term during the ninety (90)-day period commencing on the earliest of the date that (1) such transaction is terminated in accordance with the terms thereof or (2) such transaction is abandoned, and the Term shall terminate one hundred twenty (120) days following delivery of such notice, provided that if neither the Company nor Executive delivers notice during such period, then the Term shall automatically continue until the next scheduled expiration date and, thereafter, in accordance with the second sentence of this Section 1.01, the Notification Date shall occur at least ninety (90) days prior to the expiration of the Term as then in effect. For purposes of this Agreement, "Term" shall mean the Initial Term, together with any extensions thereof and shall terminate automatically upon termination of Executive's employment with the Company for any reason, provided that, to the extent set forth in Section 6.09, the rights and obligations of the parties shall survive expiration or other termination of the Term. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Agreement shall be null and void ab initio if the Merger Agreement is terminated and the closing of the Merger does not occur or Executive's employment with Associated or one of its affiliates terminates for any reason prior to the closing of the Merger.

SECTION 1.02. Position and Duties. During the Term, Executive shall serve as the Senior Vice President and General Counsel of the Company, reporting to the Chief Executive Officer of PubliCo (the "PubliCo CEO"). Executive shall perform those duties and have those authorities commensurate with the position of senior vice president and general counsel of a company of the size and scope of the Company. At the request of the Board of Directors of PubliCo (the "PubliCo Board"), and subject to such reasonable conditions as Executive may reasonably establish, Executive agrees to serve as an officer, director or other appointee with respect to any Subsidiary of PubliCo. For the avoidance of doubt, Executive will not be entitled to any additional compensation or benefits from the Company or any of its Subsidiaries with respect to service in such other officer, director or other appointee position.

SECTION 1.03. Time and Effort. During the Term, Executive shall devote substantially all of Executive's business time, attention, skill and efforts (which shall not require Executive to be physically present at any particular work location) to the business and affairs of the Company and its Subsidiaries, except for vacation, holiday and sick leave and periods of illness or incapacity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive shall be permitted to (a) devote a reasonable amount of Executive's time and attention to the wind-down of Associated, consistent with his fiduciary duties to the investors of Associated, (b) serve on nonprofit or government advisory boards and engage in charitable, philanthropic and community activities, (c) manage Executive's personal investments and affairs and (d) continue the activities set forth on the schedule that Executive delivered to the Company on or prior to the date hereof, provided that the outside activities described in clauses (a) through (d) shall not, either individually or in the aggregate, (i) interfere with Executive's attention to the Company and its Subsidiaries, including by causing an unreasonable distraction to Executive or by creating any conflict of interest or (ii) result in a breach of any of the restrictive covenants set forth in Article V. Any other outside business activities not expressly described herein shall require the prior written approval of the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized Committee thereof), which approval will not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

ARTICLE II

Compensation

SECTION 2.01. Base Salary. During the Term, the Company shall, as compensation for the obligations set forth herein and for all services rendered by Executive in any capacity during such employment under this Agreement, including services as an officer, employee or other appointee with respect to the Company, pay Executive a base salary ("Base Salary") at the annual rate of $500,000 per year, payable in accordance with the Company's standard payroll practices as in effect from time to time. The Base Salary shall be reviewed by the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof) on an annual basis for increases but not decreases.

SECTION 2.02. Annual Bonus. Commencing with the first fiscal year during the Term, Executive shall be eligible to earn an annual performance-based cash bonus (the "Annual Bonus") in a targeted amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of Executive's base salary (the "Target Bonus"). The actual amount paid will depend on the degree to which annual performance goal(s), established by the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof), are determined by the PubliCo Board (or such committee) to have been achieved. Solely with respect to PubliCo's 2020 fiscal year, the Annual Bonus shall be guaranteed at no less than $100,000, provided that Executive remains employed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries or affiliates, through the end of PubliCo's 2020 fiscal year to which the Annual Bonus relates. The Annual Bonus shall be paid at the time as is customary for other senior executives of the Company, but in any event in the fiscal year following the end of the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates, but in no event later than the thirtieth (30th) day after the date on which the PubliCo Board approves the Company's consolidated audited financial statements for the fiscal year to which such Annual Bonus relates.

SECTION 2.03. Initial LTIP Award. On the Effective Date, OpCo and PubliCo, as applicable, shall grant Executive an initial award (collectively, the "Initial LTIP Award") of (a) profits interests in OpCo ("LTIP Units") and (b) voting shares of PubliCo's stock that have no economic rights granted in tandem with the LTIP Units ("Tandem Shares"), which in each case, following vesting and equitization of such LTIP Units and Tandem Shares, are exchangeable, as a whole, for shares of PubliCo stock that have both voting and economic rights pursuant to PubliCo's 2020 Equity Incentive Plan, as may be amended from time to time. The Initial LTIP Award shall consist of: (i) 100,000 time-based Series A LTIP Units and an equal number of time-based shares of Class B Common Stock, and (ii) 100,000 performance-based Series A LTIP Units and an equal number of performance-based shares of Class B Common Stock. The Initial LTIP Award shall be subject to an award agreement, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, that shall be entered into with effect as of the Effective Date and shall not differ from Exhibit A, other than as a result of inclusion of the Grant Date and the LTIP Notional Amount (each, as defined in Exhibit A). For purposes of this Agreement, the terms "Series A LTIP Units", and "Class B Common Stock" shall each have the definitions as set forth in OpCo's First Amended and Restated Limited Liability Agreement, as may be amended from time to time (the "OpCo Operating Agreement").

ARTICLE III

Benefits and Other Matters

SECTION 3.01. Benefit Plans. During the Term, Executive and Executive's eligible family members shall be entitled to participate in any benefit plans (excluding severance plans, which is otherwise addressed in this Agreement) offered by the Company as in effect from time to time (collectively, "Benefit Plans"), on the same basis generally made available to other senior executives of the Company (except to the extent necessary to reflect that Executive is a Member (as defined in the OpCo Operating Agreement) of OpCo) and to the extent Executive and Executive's family members may be eligible to do so, subject to the terms of any such Benefit Plan. Executive understands that any Benefit Plan may be terminated or amended from time to time by the Company in its discretion.

SECTION 3.02. Vacation. During the Term, Executive shall be entitled to thirty (30) days of vacation per calendar year in accordance with the Company's vacation policies as in effect from time to time. Any accrued, but unused vacation shall not be paid out upon Executive's termination of employment, except as may be required by applicable state law.

SECTION 3.03. Director and Officer Indemnification. During the Term and thereafter, the Company shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, PubliCo's First Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association or the OpCo Operating Agreement (and any successor governing documents, each, as may be amended from time to time (collectively, the "Governing Documents")), promptly indemnify Executive against all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities (including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in defending legal proceedings) incurred by Executive in connection with any actual, threatened or reasonably anticipated claim, suit, action or proceeding arising in connection with the execution, discharge or exercise of Executive's duties as an officer or director of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries and/or the exercise of Executive's powers in Executive's capacity as an officer or director of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or otherwise in relation thereto, provided, however, in no event shall Executive be indemnified or held harmless for liability arising out of Executive's fraud. Such expenses shall be promptly advanced to Executive to the fullest extent permitted by law or the Governing Documents, provided that if it is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction without further right of appeal that Executive is not entitled to such indemnification, reimbursement or advancement, then Executive shall promptly return all such amounts to the Company. The Company shall also provide and maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance coverage for Executive's benefit during Executive's service with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries in any capacity and for a period six (6) years thereafter, provided that such coverage shall be no less favorable than the coverage provided to other senior executives of the Company or directors of PubliCo.

SECTION 3.04. Business Expenses. The Company shall promptly reimburse Executive for all reasonable and customary out-of-pocket business expenses incurred by Executive in connection with Executive's service hereunder, in accordance with the Company's policies as may be in effect from time to time, such reimbursed expenses shall include home office expenses, provided, that the amount so reimbursed in respect of home office expenses shall not exceed $7,000 per annum, which amount shall be reviewed by the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof) on an annual basis for increases but not decreases.

ARTICLE IV

Termination

SECTION 4.01. Non-Duplication of Severance. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or elsewhere, in no event shall Executive be entitled to severance benefits under any Company Plan (as defined below) that are duplicative of severance benefits provided under this Agreement.

SECTION 4.02. Notice of Termination. The Company shall provide at least sixty (60) days' written notice for any involuntary termination of Executive's employment by the Company other than for Cause (as defined below), death or Disability (as defined below), and Executive shall provide at least sixty (60) days' written notice for a resignation without Good Reason (as defined below), provided that, in the case of such involuntary termination by the Company, the PubliCo Board (or a duly authorized committee thereof) shall have the discretion to provide pay in lieu of notice. Except as set forth in this Section 4.02, any non-extension of the Term by the Company (other than for Cause) pursuant to notice from the Company under Section 1.01 prior to the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date shall be deemed an involuntary termination of Executive's employment by the Company other than for Cause, death or Disability for all purposes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that the Company elects, pursuant to Section 1.01, not to extend the Term, effective on or after the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date, the Company may elect to either (a) provide Executive with the severance and other separation benefits pursuant to Section 4.05 or (b) release Executive from his covenants under Sections 5.03 and 5.04 (non-solicitation and non-competition), in which case the Company shall not be required to provide Executive with any severance or other termination benefits pursuant to Section 4.05 (other than the Accrued Benefits), provided that the Company must provide written notice to Executive of such election no later than ninety (90) days prior to the termination of the Term, provided further, that this sentence shall not apply if Executive would otherwise be entitled to severance and termination benefits pursuant to Section 4.06, rather than pursuant to Section 4.05, or for the period that the Term is automatically extended beyond the seventh (7th) anniversary of the Effective Date in connection with a Potential Change in Control as set forth in Section 1.01.

SECTION 4.03. Termination by the Company for Cause or by Executive without Good Reason. If the Company terminates Executive's employment for Cause, or if Executive terminates Executive's employment with the Company without Good Reason, no severance will be payable to Executive, provided that Executive shall be entitled to payment of accrued and vested compensation and benefits, including vested LTIP Units and Tandem Shares, accrued base salary, reimbursement of unpaid business expenses in accordance with Section 3.04 and any other or additional benefits to which Executive may then or thereafter be entitled under the then-applicable terms of any applicable Company Plan (as defined below) (collectively, the "Accrued Benefits").

SECTION 4.04. Termination for Disability or Death. Executive's employment with the Company shall terminate immediately upon Executive's death or Disability. In the event of a termination due to death or Disability, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive or Executive's estate, as the case may be, shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to the effectiveness and irrevocability of the Release (as defined below):

(a) payment of a pro rata portion of the Annual Bonus in respect of the fiscal year in which such termination occurs based on the number of days elapsed in such year through the effective date of Executive's termination of employment (the "Effective Termination Date") and actual achievement of applicable performance goals, except that any performance goals based on Executive's personal performance shall be treated as attained at no less than the target level, and any other performance goals shall be deemed achieved at least at the level applicable to similarly situated active employees of the Company, and paid when annual bonuses are paid (or, if earlier, due to be paid) to other senior executives of the Company (the "Pro Rata Bonus Payment");

(b) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year in which the Effective Termination Date occurs, paid when bonuses are paid (or, if earlier, due to be paid) to other senior executives of the Company;

(c) payment of the monthly COBRA premiums that Executive would be required to pay to continue his group health coverage as in effect on the date of his termination for himself and, if applicable, his eligible covered dependents for a period of eighteen (18) months following the Effective Termination Date, which payment shall be made regardless of whether Executive elects COBRA continuation coverage (the "COBRA Equivalent Payment"), payable in equal biweekly installments in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices over eighteen (18) months following the Effective Termination Date, provided that any installments that would otherwise have been paid prior to satisfaction of the release condition set forth in Section 4.07 shall be accumulated and paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following satisfaction of such condition, provided further that, to the extent necessary to comply with Section 409A (as defined below), if the period during which the Release must be executed and become irrevocable spans two (2) calendar years, payment of installments shall commence in the second calendar year, and the timing of such installments may be subject to further restrictions under Section 409A as set forth in Section 6.15 of this Agreement; and agreement and, to the extent that such performance goals are not so satisfied (or deemed satisfied), such awards shall be immediately forfeited and canceled without consideration upon expiration of the relevant performance period.

(d) unless otherwise provided in the applicable award agreement, the time-based vesting conditions for all outstanding LTIP Units and related Tandem Shares and other Company equity-based awards shall be deemed satisfied based on the number of full or partial years that have elapsed between the applicable grant date and the Effective Termination Date, plus one (1) additional year of service, provided, however, that vesting shall not occur for any portion of the performance-based awards unless and until the applicable performance goals are satisfied (or deemed satisfied) within the period set forth in the relevant award

SECTION 4.05. Non-Change-in-Control Termination. If Executive's employment is terminated by the Company other than for Cause, death or Disability, or by Executive with Good Reason, in each case other than within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to the effectiveness and irrevocability of the Release:

- (a) one (1) times the sum of (x) the Base Salary and (y) the Annual Bonus earned in respect of the fiscal year ending immediately prior to the Effective Termination Date (the "Prior Year Bonus"), payable in equal biweekly installments in accordance with the Company's normal payroll practices over twelve (12) months following the Effective Termination Date, provided that any installments that would otherwise have been paid prior to satisfaction of the release condition set forth in Section 4.07 shall be accumulated and paid in a lump sum on the first payroll date following satisfaction of such condition, provided further that, to the extent necessary to comply with Section 409A, if the period during which the Release must be executed and become irrevocable spans two (2) calendar years, payment of installments shall commence in the second calendar year, and the timing of such installments may be subject to further restrictions under Section 409A as set forth in Section 6.15 of this Agreement;
- (b) the Pro Rata Bonus Payment, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(a);
- (c) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year of termination, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(b);
- (d) payment of the COBRA Equivalent Payment, paid at the times set forth in Section 4.04(c); and
- (e) full accelerated vesting of the Initial LTIP Award (to the extent then outstanding), with all other LTIP Units and other Company equity-based awards treated in accordance with the applicable award agreements.

If, following the Effective Termination Date and prior to a Change in Control, Executive breaches any of his obligations pursuant to the restrictive covenants set forth in Section 5.02 or Section 5.03, and such breach results in significant reputational or monetary harm to the Company, then Executive shall forfeit his right to receive any unpaid amounts pursuant to Section 4.05(a), (b) and (d), and Executive shall promptly repay to the Company any such amount previously paid to Executive pursuant to Sections 4.05(a), (b) and (d), provided, however, that the Company shall provide written notice to Executive of an alleged breach of any such restrictive covenants within thirty (30) days of such alleged breach (or such later date as the PubliCo Board could reasonably have been expected to know of such a breach), and Executive shall have thirty (30) days to cure such alleged breach, if curable.

SECTION 4.06. Change-in-Control Termination. If Executive's employment is terminated by the Company (x) in an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination or (y) other than for Cause, death or Disability within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, or is terminated by Executive with Good Reason within twelve (12) months following a Change in Control, in addition to the Accrued Benefits, Executive shall be entitled to the following payments and benefits, subject to effectiveness of the Release:

- (a) two (2) times the sum of (x) the Base Salary and (y) the Prior Year Bonus, payable in a lump sum within sixty-five (65) days following the Effective Termination Date (or, if payment on such date is not permitted by Section 409A, then at the times set forth in Section 4.05(a));
- (b) payment of a pro rata portion of the Target Bonus in respect of the year in which the Effective Termination Date occurs, paid in a lump sum within sixty-five (65) days following the Effective Termination Date;
- (c) payment of any unpaid bonus earned for the year prior to the year of termination, paid at the time set forth in Section 4.04(b);
- (d) payment of the COBRA Equivalent within sixty-five (65) days of the Effective Termination Date (or, if payment on such date is not permitted by Section 409A, then at the times set forth in Section 4.04(c)), provided that such amount shall be paid based on twenty-four (24) months of coverage, rather than eighteen (18) months; and
- (e) full accelerated vesting of all outstanding LTIP Units, Tandem Shares and other Company equity-based awards, unless otherwise set forth in the applicable award agreements.

If, following a termination of Executive's employment pursuant to Section 4.05, such termination of employment becomes an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination, then Executive shall be entitled to a lump-sum cash payment, payable within sixty-five (65) days after the Change in Control, in an aggregate amount equal to the excess, if any, of (x) the aggregate amount set forth in Sections 4.06(a) and 4.06(d) less (y) the aggregate amount previously paid to Executive pursuant to Sections 4.05(a) and 4.05(d), provided that to the extent that any portion of such amount is not permitted to be paid within sixty-five (65) days after the Change in Control as a result of Section 409A, then such portion shall be paid at the time set forth in Section 4.05(a) or 4.05(d), as applicable. In the event that Executive becomes entitled to payments pursuant to Section 4.06 as a result of an Anticipatory Qualifying Termination, there shall be no duplication of payment under both Sections 4.05 and 4.06.

SECTION 4.07. Release. Payments and benefits described in Sections 4.04, 4.05 and 4.06, other than the Accrued Benefits, are conditioned upon Executive's or Executive's estate's, as the case may be, execution and delivery of a release of claims substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Release") no later than fifty (50) days following the Effective Termination Date and not revoking the Release during the period specified therein. Furthermore, if either Executive or the Company (or any officer or director of PubliCo) makes any statement in breach of this Section 5.09, then a truthful response to such statement by the other party shall not be considered a breach of such party's obligations pursuant to this Section 5.09.

SECTION 5.10. Specific Performance. Executive agrees that any material breach by Executive or the Company of any of the provisions of this Article V may cause irreparable harm to the other party that could not be made whole by monetary damages and that, in the event of such a breach, the breaching party shall waive the defense in any action for specific performance that a remedy at law would be adequate, and the other party shall be entitled to seek to specifically enforce the terms and provisions of this Article V without the necessity of proving actual damages or posting any bond or providing prior notice, in any court of competent jurisdiction, in addition to any other remedy such party may obtain through arbitration in accordance with Section 6.07.

Executive hereby irrevocably grants the Company power of attorney to execute and deliver any such documents on Executive’s behalf in Executive’s name and to do all other lawfully permitted acts to transfer the Work Product to the Company and further the transfer, prosecution, issuance, and maintenance of all Intellectual Property Rights therein, to the full extent permitted by law, if Executive does not promptly cooperate with the Company’s request (without limiting the rights the Company shall have in such circumstances by operation of law). The power of attorney is coupled with an interest and shall not be affected by Executive’s subsequent incapacity.

(d) No License. Executive understands that this Agreement does not, and shall not be construed to, grant Executive any license or right of any nature with respect to any Work Product, Intellectual Property Rights therein, software, or other tools made available to Executive by the Company.

The rights and obligations of the Company and Executive under the provisions of this Agreement, including Sections 3.03 and 3.04 and Articles IV, V and VI, shall survive and remain binding and enforceable, notwithstanding any termination of the Term, to the extent necessary to preserve the intended benefits of such provisions.

(b) The Company hereby represents to Executive that it is fully authorized, by any Person or body whose authorization is required, to enter into, and carry out the terms of, this Agreement, and that its ability to enter into, and carry out the terms of, this Agreement is not limited by any Company Plan.

SECTION 6.15. Section 409A. It is intended that the provisions of this Agreement comply with, or are exempt from, Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and any related regulations or other pronouncements thereunder ("Section 409A"), and all provisions of this Agreement shall be construed and interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirements for avoiding taxes or penalties under Section 409A.

(a) Neither Executive nor any of his creditors or beneficiaries shall have the right to subject any deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) payable under this Agreement or under any other plan, policy, arrangement, corporate governance document, or agreement of or with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (this Agreement and such other plans, policies, arrangements, documents, and agreements, the "Company Plans") to any anticipation, alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, encumbrance, attachment or garnishment. Except as permitted under Section 409A, any deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) payable to Executive or for Executive's benefit under any Company Plan may not be reduced by, or offset against, any amount owing by Executive to the Company.

(b) If, at the time of Executive's separation from service (within the meaning of Section 409A), (i) Executive shall be a specified employee (within the meaning of Section 409A and using the identification methodology selected by the Company from time to time) and (ii) the Company shall make a good faith determination that an amount payable under a Company Plan constitutes deferred compensation (within the meaning of Section 409A) the payment of which is required to be delayed pursuant to the six-month delay rule set forth in Section 409A in order to avoid taxes or penalties under Section 409A, then the Company shall not pay such amount on the otherwise scheduled payment date but shall instead accumulate such amount and pay it on the first business day after such six-month period.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement or any Company Plan to the contrary, in light of the uncertainty with respect to the proper application of Section 409A, the Company and Executive shall cooperate in good faith to make amendments to any Company Plan as are necessary or desirable to avoid the imposition of taxes or penalties under Section 409A. In any case, Executive is solely responsible and liable for the satisfaction of all taxes and penalties that may be imposed on Executive or for Executive's account in connection with any Company Plan (including any taxes and penalties under Section 409A), and the Company shall not have any obligation to indemnify or otherwise hold Executive harmless from any or all of such taxes or penalties, in each case, other than any taxes or penalties resulting from a breach by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries of the terms of any Company Plan.

(d) For purposes of Section 409A, each payment hereunder will be deemed to be a separate payment as permitted under Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-2(b)(2)(iii). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Executive shall not be entitled to any payments or benefits payable hereunder as a result of Executive's termination of employment with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that constitute "deferred compensation" under Section 409A unless such termination of employment qualifies as a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 409A. Executive shall have no duties following the Effective Termination Date that are inconsistent with Executive having had a "separation from service" within the meaning of Section 409A on or before the Effective Termination Date.

(e) Except as specifically permitted by Section 409A, any benefits and reimbursements provided to Executive under this Agreement during any calendar year shall not affect any benefits and reimbursements to be provided to Executive under this Agreement in any other calendar year, and the right to such benefits and reimbursements cannot be liquidated or exchanged for any other benefit. Furthermore, reimbursement payments shall be made to Executive as soon as practicable following the date that the applicable expense is incurred, but in no event later than the last day of the calendar year following the calendar year in which the underlying expense is incurred.

SECTION 6.16. Limitation on Certain Payments. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement:

(a) In the event it is determined by an independent nationally recognized public accounting firm, which is engaged and paid for by the Company prior to the consummation of any transaction constituting a 280G Change in Control (which for purposes of this Section 6.16 shall mean a change in ownership or control as determined in accordance with the regulations promulgated under Section 280G of the Code), which accounting firm shall in no event be the accounting firm for the entity seeking to effectuate the 280G Change in Control (the "Accountant"), which determination shall be certified by the Accountant and set forth in a certificate delivered to Executive not less than ten business days prior to the 280G Change in Control setting forth in reasonable detail the basis of the Accountant's calculations and determinations (including any assumptions that the Accountant made in performing the calculations), that part or all of the consideration, compensation or benefits (collectively, "Benefits") to be paid to Executive under this Agreement constitute "parachute payments" under

Section 280G(b)(2) of the Code, then, if the aggregate present value of such parachute payments (determined in accordance with Section 280G of the Code), singularly or together with the aggregate present value of any consideration, compensation or benefits to be paid to Executive under any other plan, arrangement or agreement which constitute “parachute payments” (collectively, the “Parachute Amount”) exceeds the maximum amount that would not give rise to any liability under Section 4999 of the Code, Benefits constituting “parachute payments” which would otherwise be paid or provided to Executive or for Executive’s benefit shall be reduced to the maximum amount that would not give rise to any liability under Section 4999 of the Code (the “Reduced Amount”), provided that such Benefits shall not be so reduced if the Accountant determines that without such reduction Executive would be entitled to receive and retain, on a net after-tax present-value basis (including, without limitation, any excise taxes payable under Section 4999 of the Code), Benefits whose value is greater than the Benefits, valued on a net after-tax present-value basis, that Executive would be entitled to retain upon receipt of the Reduced Amount, provided further that such reduction in Benefits shall be first applied to reduce any cash payments that Executive would otherwise be entitled to receive (whether pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise) and shall thereafter be applied to reduce other payments and benefits, in each case in reverse order beginning with the payments or benefits that are to be paid the furthest in time after the date of such determination, unless, to the extent permitted by Section 409A, Executive elects to have the reduction in payments applied in a different order, provided that, in no event, may such payments or benefits be reduced in a manner that would result in subjecting Executive to additional taxation under Section 409A. For the avoidance of doubt, this provision shall reduce the Parachute Amount otherwise payable to Executive, only if doing so would place Executive in a better net after-tax present-value economic position as compared with not doing so (taking into account any excise taxes payable in respect of such Parachute Amount). In connection with making determinations under this Section 6.16, the Accountant shall take into account any positions to mitigate any excise taxes payable under Section 4999 of the Code, such as the value of any reasonable compensation for services to be rendered by Executive before or after the 280G Change in Control, including any amounts payable to Executive following Executive’s termination of employment hereunder with respect to any non-competition provisions that may apply to Executive, and the Company shall cooperate in the valuation of any such services, including any non-competition provisions.

(b) If the determination made pursuant to Section 6.16(a) results in a reduction of the payments that would otherwise be paid to Executive except for the application of Section 6.16(a), the Company shall promptly give Executive notice of such determination and of the reductions to be applied. Within five (5) business days following such determination, the Company shall pay or distribute to Executive, or for Executive’s benefit, such amounts as are then due to Executive under this Agreement or any other Company Plan and shall promptly pay or distribute to Executive, or for Executive’s benefit, in the future such amounts as become due to Executive under this Agreement.

(c) As a result of the uncertainty in the application of Sections 280G and 4999 of the Code at the time of a determination under this Section 6.16, it is possible that amounts will have been paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit pursuant to this Agreement which should not have been so paid or distributed (each, an “Overpayment”) or that additional amounts which will have not been paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit pursuant to this Agreement could have been so paid or distributed without incurring tax under Section 4999 of the Code (each, an “Underpayment”), in each case, consistent with the calculation of the Reduced Amount hereunder. In the event that the Accountant, based upon the assertion of a deficiency by the Internal Revenue Service against the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or Executive, on which the Accountant believes the Internal Revenue Service should prevail, determines that an Overpayment has been made, any such Overpayment paid or distributed by the Company or one of its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit shall be repaid by Executive to the Company or such Subsidiary together with interest at the applicable federal rate provided for in Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code, provided, however, that no such repayment shall be required if and to the extent such deemed repayment would not either reduce the amount on which Executive is subject to tax under Sections 1 and 4999 of the Code or generate a refund of such taxes. In the event that the Accountant, based on controlling precedent or substantial authority, determines that an Underpayment has occurred, any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company or its Subsidiaries to or for Executive’s benefit together with interest at the applicable federal rate provided for in Section 7872(f)(2)(A) of the Code.

(d) In the event of any dispute with the Internal Revenue Service (or other taxing authority) with respect to the application of this Section 6.16, Executive shall control the issues involved in such dispute and make all final determinations with regard to such issues.

SECTION 6.17. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed (including by facsimile or PDF) in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original instrument and all of which together shall constitute a single instrument. Any signature delivered by facsimile or by PDF shall create a valid and binding obligation of the party executing (or on whose behalf the signature is executed) with the same force and effect as if such facsimile or PDF signature were an original thereof.

SECTION 6.18. Construction. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not control or affect the meaning or construction of any provision of this Agreement. In this Agreement unless a clear contrary intention appears: (a) the singular number includes the plural number and vice versa, (b) reference to any “Person” includes such Person’s successors and assigns but, if applicable, only if such successors and assigns are not prohibited by this Agreement, and reference to a Person in a particular capacity excludes such Person in any other capacity or individually, (c) reference to any gender includes each other gender, (d) reference to any agreement, document or instrument means such agreement, document or instrument as amended or modified and in effect from time to time in accordance with the terms thereof, (e) “hereunder”, “hereof”, “hereto”, “herein” and words of similar import shall be deemed references to this Agreement as a whole, including the Exhibits, and not to any particular Article, Section or other provision thereof, (f) “including” (and with correlative meaning “include” and “includes”) means including without limiting the generality of any description preceding such term, (g) references to documents, instruments or agreements shall be deemed to refer as well to all addenda, exhibits, schedules or amendments thereto, (h) the words “party” or “parties” shall refer to parties to this Agreement and their permitted successors, (i) all references to provisions, Sections, Articles or Exhibits are to provisions, Sections, Articles and Exhibits of this Agreement, unless otherwise expressly specified, (j) the word “or” is disjunctive and not exclusive, (k) the words “dollar” or “$” means U.S. dollars, (l) the word “day” means calendar day and (m) ”promptly” means within thirty (30) days.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have duly executed this Agreement as of the date first written above.

RELEASE

This Release is made by Jay Birnbaum ("Executive") for the benefit of APW OpCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("OpCo"), and Landscape Acquisition Holdings Limited, a company incorporated in the British Virgin Islands ("PubliCo"), (OpCo, PubliCo and their respective affiliates are referred to collectively as the "Company"), as of the date set forth below in connection with the Employment Agreement, dated November 19, 2019, among Executive, OpCo and PubliCo (the "Employment Agreement"), and in association with Executive's termination of employment with the Company. All capitalized terms used herein, to the extent not defined, shall have the meaning set forth in the Employment Agreement.

In exchange for the payments and benefits provided under the Employment Agreement, Executive, for himself, his family, his attorneys, agents, heirs and personal representatives, hereby releases and discharges the Company, as well as all of its past, present and future shareholders, parents, agents, directors, officers, employees, representatives, principals, attorneys, insurers, predecessors, successors and all persons acting by, through, under or in concert with the Company (collectively referred to as the "Released Parties"), from any and all non-statutory claims, obligations, debts, liabilities, demands, actions, causes of action, suits, accounts, covenants, contracts, agreements and damages whatsoever of every name and nature, known and unknown, which Executive ever had, or now has, against the Released Parties (collectively, "Claims") to the date of this Release, both in law and equity, arising out of or in any way related to Executive's employment with the Company or the termination of that employment, including any Claims that Executive is entitled to any compensation or benefits from any Released Party, other than as set forth in Article IV of the Employment Agreement or as otherwise set forth herein. The Claims Executive releases include, but are not limited to, Claims that the Released Parties:

(A) discriminated against Executive on the basis of race, color, sex (including Claims of sexual harassment), national origin, ancestry, disability, religion, sexual orientation, marital status, parental status, veteran status, source of income, entitlement to benefits, union activities, age or any other claim or right Executive may have under the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act or any other status protected by local, state or Federal laws, constitutions, regulations, ordinances or executive orders;

(B) failed to give proper notice of this employment termination under the Worker Adjustment and Retraining Notification Act, or any similar state or local statute or ordinance;

(C) violated any other Federal, state or local employment statute, such as the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, which, among other things, protects employee benefits; the Fair Labor Standards Act, which regulates wage and hour matters; the Family and Medical Leave Act, which requires employers to provide leaves of

absence under certain circumstances; Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; the Americans With Disabilities Act; the Rehabilitation Act; the Occupational Safety and Health Act; and any other Federal, state or local laws relating to employment;¹

(D) violated the Released Parties' personnel policies, handbooks, any covenant of good faith and fair dealing, or any contract of employment between Executive and any of the Released Parties;

(E) violated public policy or common law, including Claims for personal injury, invasion of privacy, retaliatory discharge, negligent hiring, retention or supervision, defamation, intentional or negligent infliction of emotional distress and/or mental anguish, intentional interference with contract, negligence, detrimental reliance, loss of consortium to Executive or any member of Executive's family and/or promissory estoppel; or

(F) are in any way obligated for any reason to pay damages, expenses, litigation costs (including attorneys' fees), bonuses, commissions, disability benefits, compensatory damages, punitive damages and/or interest.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, Executive is not prohibited from asserting any (a) rights to indemnification and advancement of legal fees and expenses provided by law; (b) rights to contribution in the event of the entry of judgment against Executive as a result of any act or failure to act for which both Executive and the Company are jointly responsible; (c) rights Executive may have as a shareholder of PubliCo, a Member of OpCo or otherwise as an interest holder of the Company; (d) as required by law, rights under state workers' compensation or unemployment laws; or (e) rights which by law cannot be waived, including Executive's rights to file a charge with an administrative agency or to participate in an agency investigation, including but not limited to the right to file a charge with, or participate in an investigation or proceeding conducted by, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. In addition, this Release does not constitute a waiver or release of any of Executive's rights to payments or benefits pursuant to the Employment Agreement, including the Accrued Benefits and the payments and benefits under Section [4.05] [4.06] of the Employment Agreement.

[For California employees: Executive agrees that this Release is intended to encompass Claims that are both known and unknown to Executive. In that regard, Executive expressly relinquishes and waives any rights Executive may have under California Civil Code section 1542, or any other statutes of like effect. California Civil Code section 1542 provides:

A general release does not extend to claims that the creditor or releasing party does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release and that, if known by him, would have materially affected his settlement with the debtor or released party.

Executive is referred to in this statute as the ‘creditor’ and the Company is referred to as the ‘debtor.’ Executive acknowledges that Executive may consciously intend these consequences even as to Claims for damages that may exist as of the date Executive executes this Release that Executive does not know exist, and which, if known, would materially affect Executive’s decision to execute this Release, regardless of whether the lack of knowledge is the result of ignorance, oversight, error, negligence or any other cause. Executive further is not waiving Executive’s right to indemnity for necessary expenditures or losses (e.g., reimbursement of business expenses) incurred on behalf of the Company as provided in Section 2802 of the California Labor Code.]

For the purpose of giving a full and complete release, Executive understands and agrees that this Release includes all Claims covered by this Release that Executive may now have but does not know or suspect to exist in Executive’s favor against the Released Parties, and that this Release extinguishes those Claims. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the waiver and release provisions set forth in this Release are not an attempt to cause Executive to waive or release rights or Claims that may arise after the date this Release is executed.

Executive affirms that Executive has fully reviewed the terms of this Agreement, affirms that Executive understands its terms, and states that Executive is entering into this Agreement knowingly, voluntarily and in full settlement of all Claims which existed in the past or which currently exist, that arise out of Executive’s employment with the Company or Executive’s severance from employment with the Company.

Executive acknowledges that Executive has had at least [twenty-one (21)]² days to consider this Agreement thoroughly, and that the Company has specifically advised Executive to consult with an attorney, if Executive wishes, before Executive signs below. If Executive signs and returns this Agreement before the end of the [twenty-one (21)]-day period, Executive certifies that Executive’s acceptance of a shortened time period is knowing and voluntary, and the Company did not improperly encourage Executive to sign through fraud, misrepresentation, a threat to withdraw or alter the offer before the [twenty-one (21)]-day period expires, or by providing different terms to other employees who sign the release before such time period expires. Executive understands that Executive may revoke this Agreement within seven (7) days after Executive signs it. Executive’s revocation must be in writing and submitted within the seven-day period. If Executive does not revoke this Agreement within the seven-day period, it becomes effective and irrevocable.

Executive acknowledges that the waiver and release provisions set forth in this Release are in exchange for good and valuable consideration that is in addition to anything of value to which Executive was already entitled.
